PROXY STATEMENT

March 9, 2006

The Board of Directors of LOGIC Devices Incorporated is furnishing this proxy statement to you in connection with our solicitation of proxies to be used at our Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting) to be held Thursday, March 9, 2006, at 11:00 a.m., local time, or at any adjournment(s) or postponement(s) thereof, for the purposes set forth in this proxy statement and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The Annual Meeting will be held at our principal executive offices, located at 395 West Java Drive, Sunnyvale, California 94089. The telephone number is (408) 542-5400.

The date of this proxy statement is January 30, 2006, and it was first mailed on or about February 3, 2006, to shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Questions and Answers about the Proxy Materials and the Annual Meeting:

Q.	Who can attend the meeting?
A.	All shareholders may attend.
Q.	Who is entitled to vote?
A.

Only shareholders as of the close of business on January 27, 2006 (the Record Date) may vote at the Annual Meeting. If you wish to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting and your shares are held of record by a broker or other representative, you must contact your broker or other representative to obtain a proxy issued in your name and bring it with you to the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, there were 6,753,188 shares outstanding of our common stock, no par value (Common Stock). Every shareholder voting for the election of directors may cumulate such shareholder's votes and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected (five) multiplied by the number of votes to which the shareholder's shares are entitled, or distribute such shareholder's votes on the same principle to among as many candidates as the shareholder may select, provided that votes cannot be cast for more than five candidates. However, no shareholder will be entitled to cumulate votes unless the candidate's name has been placed in nomination prior to the voting and the shareholder has given notice to Kimiko Milheim, our Secretary, prior to the commencement of voting of the intention to cumulate the shareholder's vote.

Certain shareholders have given notice of their intention to cumulate their votes; therefore, all shareholders entitled to vote may cumulate their votes for candidates in nomination.

Q. What may I vote on?

A. (1) The election of five nominees to serve on our Board of Directors for the next year and until their successors are elected;

(2) Any other business properly presented at the Annual Meeting.

Q. How does the Board recommend I vote on all proposals?

A. The Board recommends a vote FOR each nominee.

Q. How do I vote?

A. (1) Sign and date each proxy card you receive and return it in the prepaid envelope;

(2) Provide your proxy through the Internet or telephone voting system as more fully described on your proxy card; or

(3) Vote in person at the Annual Meeting.

Q. How can I change my vote or revoke my proxy?

A.	You have the right to revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the meeting by notifying Kimiko Milheim, our Secretary, or returning a later-dated proxy card, or by Internet or telephone as more fully described on your proxy card. You may also revoke your proxy and change your vote by voting in person at the Annual Meeting.
Q.	What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card?
A.	It means you hold shares registered in more than one account. Please vote or provide a proxy for all accounts in one of the manners described above to ensure that all your shares are voted.
Q.	Who will count the votes?
A.	Representatives of Computershare Investor Services, will count the votes and Kimiko Milheim, our Secretary, will act as the Inspector of Election. We believe the procedures to be used by the Inspector to count the votes are consistent with California law concerning voting of shares and determination of a quorum.
Q.	What is a "quorum?"
A.	A "quorum" is a majority of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. They may be present at the meeting or represented by proxy. There must be a quorum for the meeting to be held and action to be validly taken. If you submit a properly executed proxy card, even if you withhold your vote with respect to all nominees, you will be considered present for purposes of a quorum. If you hold your shares in "street name" through a broker or other representative and the broker or representative indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter (broker non-votes), the shares represented by such broker non-votes will be counted in determining the presence of a quorum.
Q.	What vote by shareholders is required to approve each of the proposals?
A.	As to the proposal regarding the election of directors, the five candidates receiving the highest number of "FOR" votes will be elected. The required vote for any other matter that may be properly presented at the Annual Meeting will depend on the nature of the matter. We are currently unaware of any other business to be presented at the Annual Meeting.

Q.	What are the word choices for indicating my vote?
A.	You may vote "FOR" or "WITHHOLD," or cumulate your votes for one or more nominees. Shares that vote "FOR" or "WITHHOLD," or are cumulated are treated as being present at the meeting for purposes of establishing a quorum. These shares are also treated as votes cast by the Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting, with respect to such matter.
Q.	How will voting on any other business be conducted?
A.	We do not know of any business to be considered at the 2006 Annual Meeting other than the proposal described in this proxy statement. However, because we did not receive notice of any other proposals to be brought before the meeting within 45 days prior to the date of mailing of this proxy statement, if any other business is properly presented at the Annual Meeting, your signed proxy card gives authority to William J. Volz, our President and principal executive officer, and Kimiko Milheim, our Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, to vote on such matters at their discretion.
Q.	How can a shareholder request a copy of our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for fiscal 2005?
A.	A copy of the financial statements and Management's Discussion and Analysis from our Annual Report on Form 10-K will be mailed with this proxy statement to each shareholder. A shareholder may also request a copy of our complete Annual Report on Form 10-K in a writing addressed to our Secretary, Kimiko Milheim, at 395 West Java Drive, Sunnyvale, California 94089. In addition, a shareholder may download a copy of our complete Annual Report on Form 10-K from our website, www.logicdevices.com .
Q.	Who will bear the cost of soliciting votes for the Annual Meeting?
A.	Our Board of Directors is making this solicitation and the Company will pay the entire cost of preparing, assembling, printing, mailing, and distributing these proxy materials and soliciting votes. If you choose to submit your proxy over the Internet, you are responsible for Internet access charges you may incur. If you choose to submit your proxy by telephone, you are responsible for telephone charges you may incur. In addition to the mailing of these proxy materials, the solicitation of proxies or votes may be made in person, by telephone, or by electronic communication by our directors, officers, and employees, who will not receive any additional compensation for such solicitation activities. We are also required by law to reimburse certain costs of brokerage houses and other representatives for forwarding proxy and solicitation materials to shareholders.
Q.	How and when may I submit proposals or director nominations for inclusion in the proxy statement for the 2007 Annual Meeting?

A.	If you would like to submit a proposal for the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, it must be received by our Secretary, Kimiko Milheim, at 395 West Java Drive, Sunnyvale, CA 94089, at any time prior to October 5, 2006, and must otherwise comply with Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, in order to be eligible for inclusion in the proxy statement for that meeting, unless the date of the next annual meeting changes by more than 30 days from the date of this Annual Meeting, in which case notice must be received a reasonable time before mailing.

	In general, advance notice of nominations of persons for election to the Board or the proposal of business to be considered by the shareholders must be given to our Secretary not less than 45 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of the mailing of materials regarding the prior year's annual meeting, which mailing date is identified above in this proxy statement, unless the date of the next annual meeting changes by more than 30 days from the date of this Annual Meeting, in which case notice must be received a reasonable time before. A shareholder's notice of nomination should set forth (i) as to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director, all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director, if elected); (ii) as to any other business that the shareholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such shareholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (iii) as to the shareholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made, (A) the name and address of such shareholder, as they appear on our books, and of such beneficial owner, (B) the number of shares of Common Stock that are owned (beneficially or of record) by such shareholder and such beneficial owner, (C) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such shareholder and such beneficial owner and any other person or persons (including their names) in connection with the proposal of such business by such shareholder and any material interest of such shareholder and of such beneficial owner in such business, and (D) a representation that such shareholder or its agent or designee intends to appear in person or by proxy at the annual meeting to bring such business before the meeting.

BOARD STRUCTURE AND COMPENSATION

Structure and Committees

Howard L. Farkas serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors held a total of four meetings during its 2005 fiscal year, which ended on September 30, 2005. Every director attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and at least 75% of meetings of the committees of the Board of Directors on which the director served, except Fredric J. Harris was unable to attend the sole Compensation Committee meeting and one

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee meeting. The Board of Directors has determined that all of the directors, except William J. Volz, are independent as defined by Nasdaq. The Board of Directors has a standing Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, which currently consists of Brian P. Cardozo, Howard L. Farkas, Joel S. Kanter, Albert Morrison Jr., and Steven R. Settles, reviews the auditing, accounting, financial reporting, and internal control functions and selects our independent auditors. This committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, a copy of which can be found on our website, www.logicdevices.com, which the committee annually reviews and assesses for adequacy. All of the committee members are independent as determined under applicable Nasdaq and SEC rules and are able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, and Messrs. Cardozo, Farkas, and Morrison qualify as "Audit Committee Financial Experts" as defined by SEC rules. The committee met four times during fiscal 2005.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, made up of Brian P. Cardozo, Howard L. Farkas, Fredric J. Harris, Joel S. Kanter, Albert Morrison Jr., and Steven R. Settles, is responsible for nominating individuals to serve as members of our Board of Directors and for establishing policies affecting corporate governance. All of the committee members are independent as determined under applicable Nasdaq and SEC rules. The committee will consider shareholder nominations for directors. This committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, a copy of which can be found on our website, www.logicdevices.com. The committee's policy is to identify and consider candidates for election as directors, including candidates recommended by our shareholders. For a description of the process for nominating directors, see "Questions and Answers about the Proxy Materials and the Annual Meeting - How and when may I submit proposals or director nominations for inclusion in the proxy statement for the 2007 Annual Meeting?" The committee met two times during fiscal 2005.

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, which currently consists of Howard L. Farkas, Albert Morrison Jr., and Fredric J. Harris, is responsible for establishing our compensation policies. The committee determines the compensation of our Board of Directors and executive officers, and is responsible for establishing employee benefit plans. A majority of the committee members are independent as determined under applicable Nasdaq and SEC rules. This committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, a copy of which can be found on our website, www.logicdevices.com. The committee met once during fiscal 2005.

Consideration of Director Nominees

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will utilize a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for director. The committee will regularly assess the appropriate size of the Board, and whether any vacancies on the Board are expected due to retirement or otherwise. In the event that vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider various potential candidates for director. Candidates may come to the attention of the committee through current directors, shareholders, or other persons. The committee has not paid fees to any third party to identify, evaluate, or to assist in identifying or evaluating, potential nominees, but may determine it necessary in the future. Candidates will be evaluated at meetings of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Nominees recommended by persons other than current board members or executive officers would be subject to the process described in "Questions and Answers about the Proxy Materials and the Annual Meeting - How and when may I submit proposals or director nominations for inclusion in the proxy statement for the 2007 Annual Meeting?"

In evaluating nominations for candidates for membership on our Board of Directors, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will seek to achieve a balance of knowledge, experience, and capability on the Board and to address the following membership criteria. Members of the Board should have the highest professional and personal ethics and values. They should have broad experience at the policy-making level in business, government, education, technology, or public interest. They should be committed to enhancing shareholder value and should have sufficient time to carry out their duties and to provide insight and practical wisdom based on experience. Their service on other boards of public companies should be limited to a number that permits them, given their individual circumstances, to perform responsibly all directors' duties.

Compensation of Directors

Non-employee directors did not receive any cash compensation during fiscal 2005, or in previous years, for either their services as directors or for their services on the various Board committees.

Under our Amended and Restated 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, each non-employee director who is elected or re-elected to serve on the Board receives an automatic annual grant of an option to purchase 15,000 shares of Common Stock, coinciding with the date of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders at which they are elected or re-elected. Each of these options has an exercise price per share equal to the closing fair market value of our Common Stock on the automatic grant date, and has a maximum term of five years. Each option is immediately exercisable for all 15,000 shares.

Other Information about the Board of Directors

We provide an informal process for shareholders to send communications to the Board. Shareholders who wish to contact the Board or any of its members may do so in writing to LOGIC Devices Incorporated, 395 West Java Drive, Sunnyvale, CA 94089. Any communication will promptly be forwarded to the Board of Directors as a group or to the attention of a specified director.

Although we do not have a policy with regard to Board members' attendance at the annual meetings of shareholders, all of the directors are encouraged to attend such meetings. All of our directors were in attendance at our 2005 Annual Meeting.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Nominees

A board of five directors is to be elected at the Annual Meeting. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders will vote the proxies received by them for the five nominees below, each of whom is currently serving on the Board of Directors and has been nominated for re-election by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors. If any nominee is unable or declines to serve as a director at the time of the Annual Meeting, the proxies will be voted for any nominee designated by the present Board of Directors to fill the vacancy. If additional persons are nominated for election as directors, the proxy holders intend to vote all proxies received by them that provide authority to vote "FOR" in accordance with cumulative voting to elect as many of the nominees listed below as possible. In such event, the proxy holders will determine the specific nominees for whom such votes will be cumulated. The proxy holders will not have the discretion to cumulate votes represented by any proxy for any nominee for which authority to vote has been withheld in the proxy by "WITHHOLD." In general, the Compensation Committee is principally responsible for executive compensation matters, including but not limited to: review and approval of base salaries, approval of individual bonuses and bonus programs for executive officers, administration of certain employee benefit programs, and review and approval of stock option grants to all employees, including our executive officers.

Overview

The overall policy of the Compensation Committee is to offer our executive officers competitive compensation opportunities, based upon their personal performance, the financial performance of LOGIC Devices Incorporated (the Company), and their contribution to that performance. In general, each executive officer's compensation package is comprised of three elements: (i) base salary, which is determined on the basis of the individual's position and responsibilities with the Company, the level of the individual's performance, and the financial performance of the Company; (ii) incentive performance awards payable in cash and tied to the achievement of performance goals; and (iii) long-term stock-based incentive awards designed to strengthen the mutuality of interest between the executive officers and our shareholders.

The compensation paid to each executive officer during the past fiscal year was comprised solely of base salary due to the financial performance of the Company.

Compensation of the Principal Executive Officer

Due to the performance of the Company during the past few years, the President's base annual compensation for fiscal 2005 was not increased from his base annual compensation in fiscal 2004.
