Explanatory Note

This Amendment No. 1 on Form 8-K/A amends the Current Report on Form 8-K of Cash America International, Inc. (the “Company”) filed on November 18, 2014 to file the revised unaudited pro forma balance sheet of the Company referred to in Item 9.01(b) below (the “Balance Sheet”). The revisions in the Balance Sheet include amounts related to the accounting treatment for the derecognition of goodwill in connection with the spin-off of the Company’s wholly-owned subsidiary, Enova International, Inc. (“Enova”), on November 13, 2014 (the “Enova Spin-off”). During 2010, the Company realigned its reportable segments and, as a result, changed its reporting units into an e-commerce reporting unit and a retail services reporting unit. As a part of the realignment and in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 350-20, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other-Goodwill (“ASC 350-20”), the Company allocated approximately $45 million of goodwill from its e-commerce reporting unit to its retail services reporting unit based on the relative fair values of each of those reporting units at that time (the “Allocated Goodwill”). In connection with the Enova Spin-off, Enova included the Allocated Goodwill in the goodwill balance on Enova’s balance sheet since Enova recorded the carrying value in its goodwill (including the Allocated Goodwill) on its stand-alone financial statements. Following the Enova Spin-off, the Company applied the guidance in ASC 505-60, Equity-Spinoffs and Reverse Spinoffs (“ASC 505-60”), which requires the distribution that occurred in connection with the Enova Spin-off to be recorded based on the carrying value of the subsidiary, in its determination to not also include the Allocated Goodwill in the Company’s goodwill balance on the Balance Sheet. After consulting with the Office of the Chief Accountant of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), the Company has revised the Balance Sheet to apply the guidance in ASC 350-20, which requires the amount of goodwill held in the goodwill balance of the reporting unit at the time of its disposal to be derecognized upon disposal. Since the Allocated Goodwill was held in the retail services reporting unit at the time of the Enova Spin-off, the application of ASC 350-20 requires the Company to continue to recognize the Allocated Goodwill, which has resulted in an increase of approximately $45 million in both the amount of goodwill and total equity recognized by the Company on the Balance Sheet in connection with this issue. The Balance Sheet included in Exhibit 99.1 to the Form 8-K filed with the SEC on November 18, 2014 should no longer be relied upon because it has been revised. The Company’s audited consolidated financial information included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 will also utilize the guidance set forth in ASC 350-20.

ITEM 9.01 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND EXHIBITS

The Balance Sheet as of September 30, 2014 giving effect to the Enova Spin-off, including the related notes (b)thereto, previously filed on a Current Report on Form 8-K on November 18, 2014 has been revised. The revised Balance Sheet that is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 includes the adjustments discussed above.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of operations of the Company that were included in Exhibit 99.1 on the Current Report on Form 8-K filed on November 18, 2014 have not been revised.
