Item Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement
1.01

On May 22, 2008, Franklin Covey Co. (the Company) filed a Form 8-K announcing that it had joined with Peterson Partners V, L.P. to create a new limited liability company, Franklin Covey Products, LLC (Franklin Covey Products), to pursue the strategic growth of Franklin Covey branded products throughout the world. To accomplish this objective, the Company entered into a definitive agreement to sell substantially all of the assets of its Consumer Solutions Business Unit (CSBU) to Franklin Covey Products (the Sale Agreement). The Company is filing this amended Form 8-K to attach a copy of the Sale Agreement as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and to incorporate the Sale Agreement herein by reference.

The Sale Agreement has been included to provide investors and shareholders with information regarding its terms and conditions. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties thereto with respect to the transaction described in this Form 8-K/A, the Sale Agreement is not intended to be a source of factual, business, or operational information about the parties.

Certain of the contractual representations or warranties made by the parties in the Sale Agreement are subject to a standard of materiality that may be different from what shareholders of the Company may view as material to their interests. Representations and warranties may be used as a tool to allocate risks between the respective parties to the Sale Agreement, including where the parties do not have complete knowledge of all the facts. Investors in the Company's securities are not third-party beneficiaries under the Sale Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties, and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties or any of their affiliates.

Investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated in the forward-looking statements.
