SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Corporation's directors, executive officers and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Corporation's equity securities to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock of the Corporation. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Corporation with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To the Corporation's knowledge, based solely on review of copies of such reports furnished to the Corporation and written representations that no other such reports were required, all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were complied with except that Donald G. Calder, a Director of the Corporation, filed late with the SEC a Form 4 for fiscal 2006 relating to two purchases of Common Stock by trusts of which Mr. Calder is a Trustee for the benefit of his children.

VOTING PROCEDURES

The election of directors requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to so vote. Shares of Common Stock represented by proxies which are marked "withhold authority" with respect to the election of any one or more nominees for election as director will not be voted with respect to the nominee or nominees so indicated. The ratification of the selection of the independent registered public accounting firm of the Corporation requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to so vote. Shares of Common Stock represented by proxies which are marked "abstain" with respect to this matter will be counted for the purpose of determining the number of shares present and entitled to vote, and shall therefore have the same effect as if the shares represented thereby were voted against such matter. Broker non-votes (where a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner and such nominee does not possess or choose to exercise his discretionary authority with respect thereto) will be treated as present for purposes of determining a quorum but not entitled to vote at the Meeting for the purpose of determining the number of votes needed with respect to each item to be voted upon, and shall therefore have no effect on such vote.

PROPOSAL 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors nominates, based on the recommendation of the Nominating Committee, six directors to hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified. The Board of Directors seeks as directors individuals who have very high integrity, are business savvy, maintain an owner-oriented attitude and possess a deep genuine interest in the Corporation. The Board of Directors has nominated and recommends for election Mr. Simms C. Browning, Mr. Donald G. Calder, Mr. David C. Colander, Mr. Jay R. Inglis, Mr. Wilmot H. Kidd and Mr. C. Carter Walker, Jr. All the nominees have consented to become directors and all were elected at the last Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Duly authorized proxies will be voted for the above-listed nominees. If any nominee for director is unable or declines to serve, for any reason not now foreseen, the discretionary authority provided in the proxy will be exercised to vote for a substitute. Information about the nominees, including positions with the Corporation and directorships of public corporations during the past five years, is set forth below. This information includes the experience, qualifications and skills that each individual brings to the Board.

Interested Director:

Wilmot H. Kidd, age 69, has been a director of the Corporation since 1972. He has served as its President since 1973 and in addition to his duties as President, became Chairman of the Board of Directors in 2010. Mr. Kidd is primarily responsible for the Corporation's investments and research. Mr. Kidd has provided guidance to the Corporation and brings to the Board an understanding of the Corporation and its strategy acquired over 38 years of involvement with the Corporation.

Independent Directors:

Jay R. Inglis, age 76, has been a director of the Corporation since 1973. He currently serves as the Corporation's Lead Independent Director. He has been Vice President and General Counsel for International Claims Management, Inc., an insurance management company, since 2006. Prior thereto, he was Executive Vice President of National Marine Underwriters, an insurance management company. Mr. Inglis has a broad perspective based on his tenure on the Corporation's Board as well as his experience as a lawyer, investment banker and insurance executive.

Simms C. Browning, age 70, has been a director of the Corporation since 2005. Mr. Browning retired in 2003 following a 33 year career with Neuberger Berman, LLC, an asset manager, where he served as a Vice President in research, sales and asset management capacities. He is a certified financial analyst. Mr. Browning brings to the Board extensive experience in research and investing.

Donald G. Calder, age 73, has been a director of the Corporation since 1982. Mr. Calder has been the Chairman of Clear Harbor Asset Management, LLC since 2010 after a 45-year affiliation with G.L. Ohrstrom & Co., a private investment firm, where he served as President. During the past five years, Mr. Calder has also served as a director of Brown-Forman Corporation, Carlisle Companies, Inc. and Roper Industries, Inc. Mr. Calder's brings to the Board knowledge of private equity investments and valuation. In addition, Mr. Calder's service on other public company boards provides him with valuable experience.

David C. Colander, age 63, has been a director of the Corporation since 2009. Mr. Colander is a Professor of Economics at Middlebury College. He has authored or co-authored numerous economics textbooks and articles. Mr. Colander brings to the Board insight with respect to general economic conditions.

C. Carter Walker, Jr., age 76, has been a director of the Corporation since 1974. Mr. Walker is a private investor with over forty years of bank and investment experience. He provides insight based on his years of experience on the Corporation's Board.

The Board believes that each Director's experience, qualifications, attributes and skills should be evaluated on an individual basis and in consideration of the perspective such Director brings to the entire Board, with no single Director, or particular factor, being indicative of Board effectiveness.

Board Composition and Leadership Structure

Currently, all of the directors except Mr. Kidd, who is an interested person as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940, are independent. In 2010, Mr. Kidd was named Chairman of the Board of Directors in addition to his position as President of the Corporation. At that time, the Board also designated a Lead Independent Director who presides over executive sessions of the Directors and serves between meetings as a liaison between the Directors and management on matters, including scheduling agenda items for Board meetings. Designation as Lead Independent Director does not impose on the Lead Independent Director any obligations different from other Directors. Currently, Mr. Inglis serves as the Lead Independent Director; however, the individual designated as Lead Independent Director may change from time to time. The Board holds executive sessions, without interested Directors or members of management, at least quarterly.

The Board has determined that its current leadership structure is appropriate because it enables the Board to exercise informed and independent judgment through a leader who is directly accountable to the Board. Mr. Kidd's extensive knowledge of the Corporation together with his strategic abilities provides the Board with strong leadership and helps improve the efficiency of decision making by the Board. The Board believes that this leadership structure is in the best interest of the Corporation and its stockholders at this time and in light of Mr. Kidd's unique qualifications, and that the appropriate leadership structure is a matter that should be discussed and determined by the Board from time to time based on all of the then-existing facts and circumstances.

Board Committees and Meetings

The Board of Directors held eight regular meetings in 2010. All directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and meetings of the committees on which they served. The Board of Directors maintains an Audit Committee and a Nominating Committee. Both the Audit Committee and the Nominating Committee consist of Messrs. Browning, Calder, Colander, Inglis and Walker, each of whom are independent as defined in Section 803(A) of the NYSE Amex Exchange's listing standards and none of whom are interested persons as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940. The Board of Directors does not have a Compensation Committee.

The Nominating Committee met once during 2010. This committee is responsible for the review and recommendation of candidates for the Board of Directors. The committee operates subject to a charter which may be viewed on the Corporation's website at www.centalsecurities.com. The Nominating Committee will consider director nominee recommendations by stockholders provided the names of such nominees, accompanied by relevant biographical information, are submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. Any such recommendation must be accompanied by a written statement from the individual of his or her consent to be named as a candidate, and, if nominated and elected, to serve as director.

In making its recommendations, the Nominating Committee identifies candidates who meet the current needs of the Board. The Nominating Committee does not have any specific minimum qualifications that must be met by a nominee. The Nominating Committee considers, among other things, an individual's judgment, background and experience including business experience, industry experience and financial background. The Nominating Committee also considers whether the individual meets the independence requirements of the NYSE Amex and whether the individual would be considered an interested person under the Investment Company Act of 1940. With respect to nomination of continuing directors, the individual's past service to the Board is also considered. In addition, the Nominating Committee is guided by the following criteria: each Director should have integrity and the ability to work constructively with others; each Director should have sufficient time available to devote to the affairs of the Corporation in order to carry out the responsibilities of a Director; and each Director should be free of any conflict which would interfere with the proper performance of the responsibilities of a Director. The Nominating Committee does not have a formal policy regarding the consideration of diversity in identifying Board candidates. There are no differences in the manner in which the Nominating Committee evaluates nominees for directors if the nominee is recommended by a stockholder.

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors by overseeing the accounting and financial reporting process of the Corporation and the audits of its financial statements. It operates subject to a charter which has been reviewed by the Audit Committee and approved and adopted by the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee charter may be viewed on the Corporation's website at www.centralsecurities.com. The Audit Committee met four times during 2010.

Oversight Responsibilities

The Corporation's operations entail a variety of risks including investment, administration, valuation and compliance matters. Although management of the Corporation is responsible for managing these risks on a day-to-day basis, the Board also addresses these risks as part of its regular meetings. In particular, as part of its general oversight, the Board reviews with management the risks being undertaken by the Corporation. The Audit Committee discusses the Corporation's financial reporting and internal controls with management and the independent registered accounting firm engaged by the Corporation. The Board reviews valuation policies and procedures and the valuations of specific illiquid securities. The Board's oversight function is facilitated by management reporting processes that are designed to provide visibility to the Board about the identification, assessment and management of critical risks and the controls, policies and procedures to mitigate those risks. The Corporation believes that its leadership structure enhances risk oversight.

Stockholder Communications

Stockholders may send written communications to any member of the Board of Directors c/o Corporate Secretary, Central Securities Corporation, 630 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, 10111. All communications will be compiled by the Corporate Secretary and submitted to the director.

Each of the Corporation's directors is encouraged to attend the annual meeting of stockholders in person. All of the Corporation's directors attended the Corporation's 2010 Annual Meeting.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee has reviewed the audited financial statements of the Corporation for the year ended December 31, 2010, and has met with management and KPMG LLP, the Corporation's independent registered public accounting firm, to discuss the audited financial statements.

The Audit Committee received from KPMG LLP written disclosures regarding their independence and the letter required by the applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, and has discussed with KPMG LLP their independence. In connection with its review, the Audit Committee has also discussed with KPMG LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended (AICPA Professional Standards, Vol. 1. Au Section 380) as adopted by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board in Rule 3200T.

Members of the Audit Committee necessarily rely on the information provided to them by management and the independent auditors. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's considerations and discussions referred to above do not assure that the audit of the Corporation's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, that the financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or that the Corporation's auditors are independent.

Based on its review and discussions with management and KPMG LLP, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Corporation's Annual Report to Stockholders for the year ended December 31, 2010.

Members of the Audit Committee are:

Simms C. Browning
Donald G. Calder
David C. Colander
Jay R. Inglis
C. Carter Walker, Jr.

The executive officers of the Corporation are Mr. Wilmot H. Kidd, President, Ms. Marlene A. Krumholz, Vice President and Secretary, and Mr. Lawrence P. Vogel, Vice President and Treasurer. Mr. Vogel, 54, joined the Corporation in 2009 and was elected Vice President in 2009 and Treasurer in 2010. The Profit Sharing Plan (the Plan) allows contributions by the Corporation from its profits of up to 25% of an employee's compensation; for the year ended 2010 the Corporation contributed 15% of employee compensation to the Plan, subject to Internal Revenue Code limitations. Generally, all salaried employees of the Corporation are eligible to participate in the Plan. The vested contributions credited to an employee's account are payable at normal retirement (age 65), early retirement (age 55), or disability retirement, death or other termination of employment and may be paid in various forms, including a lump sum cash payment or a monthly annuity. Each participant's benefits vest after three years of employment.

Employees may withdraw the amounts of any voluntary contributions made prior to 1991 and may, under certain conditions, withdraw or borrow against vested Corporation contributions. Under the Plan, each employee is permitted to invest the assets in his account in the capital stock of one or more investment companies from a selection provided from time to time by the Plan Administrator. Such regulated investment companies include, among others, U.S. Treasury funds; corporate, government and international bond funds; and general and specialized stock funds.

PROPOSAL 2. RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Pursuant to its charter, the Audit Committee is responsible for recommending the selection, approving compensation and overseeing the independence, qualifications and performance of the independent accountants. The Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent accountants. In assessing requests for services by the independent accountants, the Audit Committee considers whether such services are consistent with the auditor's independence; whether the independent accountants are likely to provide the most effective and efficient service based upon their familiarity with the Corporation; and whether the service could enhance the Corporation's ability to manage or control risk or improve audit quality. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. Any pre-approvals by a member under this delegation are to be reported to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Audit Fees and Services

During the last two fiscal years, the Corporation engaged KPMG LLP for its services as follows:

- (2) Includes fees for services performed with respect to tax compliance and tax planning.

All of the audit and tax services provided by KPMG LLP for fiscal year 2010 (described in the footnotes to the table above) and related fees were approved in advance by the Audit Committee.

At a meeting held January 26, 2011, a majority of the directors who were not interested persons (as defined under the Investment Company Act of 1940) selected KPMG LLP to act as independent registered public accountants for the Corporation during 2011. A representative of KPMG LLP is not expected to be present at the Corporation's Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Stockholders are invited to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP as independent registered public accounting firm of the Corporation for the year 2011. KPMG LLP has no direct or material indirect financial interest in the Corporation other than its employment in such capacity.
