Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 12, 2015, Avid Technology, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a Transaction Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), with Orad Hi-Tech Ltd. (“Orad”), an Israeli company listed on the Frankfurt stock exchange. The Company has agreed to acquire Orad and its subsidiaries on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement. The material terms of the Merger Agreement are disclosed along with other information relating to the transaction in the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K that was filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on April 13, 2015.

The Company is furnishing this Current Report on Form 8-K in order to provide investors with certain historical consolidated financial information of Orad. The historical financial information of Orad were prepared on the basis of International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board.

The historical consolidated financial information of Orad is for informational purposes only, should be reviewed in its entirety and is subject to the assumptions, qualifications and adjustment as described therein.

Limitation on Incorporation by Reference. The information furnished in Item 7.01, including the exhibits hereto, shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall such information be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.

The information provided in this current report on Form 8-K and Exhibit 99.1 hereto includes forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Such statements are made in reliance upon the safe harbor provisions of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Forward-looking statements include but are not limited to: statements about the expected timing and completion of the proposed transaction and financing; the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction, including estimated synergies; the effects of the proposed transaction, including effects on future financial and operating results; and other statements that are not historical facts. Among the risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ from those described in forward-looking statements are the following: the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement; the risk that financing for the proposed transaction may not be obtained on anticipated terms or at all; the risk that we may not be able to refinance or extend our existing working capital loan on favorable terms or at all; risks related to disruption of management time from ongoing business operations due to the proposed transaction; the risk that Avid may fail to realize the benefits expected from the proposed transaction; the risk that the integration of Orad into Avid may not progress as anticipated; the risk that any announcements relating to the proposed transaction could have adverse effects on the market price of Avid’s common stock; and the risk that the proposed transaction and its announcement could have an adverse effect on the ability of Avid and Orad to retain customers and retain and hire key personnel and maintain relationships with their suppliers and customers; and on their operating results and businesses generally. The risks included above are not exhaustive. Other factors that could adversely affect Avid’s business and prospects are described in the filings made by Avid with the SEC. Avid expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to update or revise any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
