NYMOX PHARMACEUTICAL CORPORATION

NOTICE OF THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE SHAREHOLDERS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Annual General Meeting of the shareholders (the Meeting) of Nymox Pharmaceutical Corporation (the Corporation) will be held at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, 1228 Sherbrooke St. W., Montreal, on Monday, June 7, 2004, at 4:30 p.m. (EST), for the following purposes:

1. to receive the annual report of the directors, the financial statements of the Corporation for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 and the auditors report thereon;
2. to elect the directors of the Corporation;
3. to appoint the auditors of the Corporation and to authorize the Board of Directors to fix their remuneration;
4. to transact such other matters as may properly be brought before the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof.

All shareholders are invited to attend the Meeting.

By order of the Board of Directors,

/s/ Dr. Paul Averback

Dr. Paul Averback
CEO & President

April 23, 2004
Maywood, New Jersey

Note: As it is preferable that the greatest possible number of shares be represented and votes be cast at the Meeting, kindly complete, date and sign the enclosed form of proxy and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided for that purpose before 5:00 p.m. (EST), June 4, 2004, unless it is your intention to attend the Meeting in person. The record date for the determination of those shareholders entitled to receive this notice and to vote at the Meeting is April 23, 2004. An information circular is attached to the present notice.

MANAGEMENT PROXY CIRCULAR

April 23, 2004

This proxy circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of NYMOX Pharmaceutical Corporation (the Corporation) for use at the Annual General Meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation (the Meeting) to be held in Montreal on June 7, 2004 at 4:30 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time), at the place and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice of meeting (the Notice). Unless otherwise provided, the information contained herein is given as of April 23, 2004.

1) SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the management of the Corporation, and the cost of solicitation will be borne by the Corporation. This solicitation of proxies is undertaken by mail by the intermediaries, as defined in the National Policy Statement C-41 governing shareholder communication, and in conformity to such policy statement.

2) APPOINTMENT AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

The proxies must be received by the Corporation before 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time), June 4, 2004. A shareholder executing the enclosed proxy has the power to revoke it any time prior to its use, in any manner permitted by law including by instrument in writing executed by the shareholder or by his attorney authorized in writing, or in the case of a corporation by an officer or attorney authorized in writing. This instrument must be deposited either at the transfer agent of the Corporation at any time up to the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof at which the proxy is to be used, or with the Chairman on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

A shareholder has the right to appoint some other person (who need not be a shareholder of the Corporation) to represent him in attendance and to act on his behalf at the Meeting other than the individuals designated by the management and named in the enclosed form of the proxy. In such event, the names of such individuals should be deleted and the name of the nominee inserted in the blank space provided for on the form of proxy.

3) VOTING AND EXERCISE OF DISCRETION BY PROXIES

The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote the shares in respect of which they have been appointed in accordance with the instructions of the shareholder appointing them. Unless otherwise specifically instructed, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote all shares represented by such proxy FOR the election of the proposed directors and FOR the appointment of the proposed auditors.

The enclosed form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the persons named therein with respect to amendments or variations of all matters identified in the Notice or other matters which may properly come before the Meeting. Should any amendment, variation, or other matter properly come before the Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote on such matter in accordance with their best judgment. As of the date hereof, the Management of the Corporation does not anticipate that any such amendment or variation will be presented nor that any other matter will come before the Meeting.

All matters properly brought before the Meeting shall be decided by a majority of shares voted thereupon except as specifically provided in this Circular.

4) VOTING SHARES

As at April 23, 2004, 24,692,247 common shares without par value of the Corporation were outstanding. The holders of common shares will be entitled to one vote per share. The right to vote is determined by the registration of a holder of common shares on the shareholders' list of the Corporation as at the close of business on April 23, 2004 (the Record Date) except where a person has transferred any of his shares after the Record Date, in which case the transferee is entitled to vote his shares at the Meeting provided he produces properly endorsed share certificates or otherwise establishes that he owns the shares, and demands, not later than ten days before the Meeting, that his name be included in the shareholders' list of the Corporation before the Meeting. The right to receive the Notice is determined by the registration of a holder of common shares on the shareholders' list of the Corporation on the Record Date.

Any individual authorized by a resolution of the directors or governing body of a body corporate or association being a shareholder of the Corporation is entitled to represent it at the Meeting.

If two or more persons hold shares jointly, one of those holders present at the Meeting may in the absence of the others vote the shares. If two or more of those persons are present, in person or by proxy, they shall vote as one on the shares jointly held by them.

5) PRINCIPAL HOLDERS OF SECURITIES

To the knowledge of the senior executives of the Corporation, as at April 23, 2004, only the following persons were beneficial owners or exercised control or direction over more than 5% of the outstanding common shares of the Corporation.

Name of Common Shares	Number of the Class	Percentage of Shareholders
Dr. Paul Averback	13,115,395	53.1 %

6) ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Articles of the Corporation provide that the Board of Directors is to be composed of not more than fifteen (15) and of at least five (5) directors, as may be determined by the Board of Directors, from time to time. The Corporation presently has a board comprised of five directors and it is proposed to elect the five directors mentioned below. Each director holds office until the next annual meeting of shareholders, or until the election of his successor, unless he resigns or his office becomes vacant by death, removal, or other cause.

Unless otherwise specifically instructed, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote at the Meeting FOR the election of the nominees whose names are set forth below. The Management of the Corporation does not contemplate that any of the nominees will be unable or unfit to serve as a director but should there be any change for any reason prior to the Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote at the Meeting for another nominee at their discretion, unless instructions have been received to refrain from voting with respect to the election of directors.

8) THE STOCK OPTION PLAN

The Corporation has created a stock option plan (the Plan) for key employees, officers and directors and certain consultants of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. The Plan was adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation on November 27, 1995. On May 15, 1998, the Board of Directors amended the Plan in order to increase the maximum number of common shares, which may be issued under the Plan from 2,000,000 to 2,500,000 shares. The Plan is administered by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may from time to time designate individuals to whom options to purchase common shares of the capital stock of the Corporation may be granted and the number of shares to be optioned to each.

Edgar Filing: NYMOX PHARMACEUTICAL CORP - Form 6-K

The total number of common shares to be optioned to any one individual cannot exceed 5 % of the total of the issued and outstanding shares. The option price per share for common shares which are the subject of any option is fixed by the Board when such option is granted. The option price cannot involve a discount to the market price of the shares at the time the option is granted. The period during which an option is exercisable cannot exceed 10 years from the date the option is granted. The options may not be assigned, transferred or pledged and expire after the termination of the employment or office with the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or death of an individual.

As at April 23, 2004, options granted by the Board of Directors to purchase up to 2,130,500 common shares are outstanding. Of these, 100,000 are not vested. A total of 256,900 options have been exercised as of the date of record.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003,

- i) options to purchase up to 50,000 common shares for a period of ten years at a price of US$3.75 per share have been granted to a senior officer of the Company,
- ii) options to purchase up to 60,000 common shares for a period of ten years at a price of US$2.62 per share have been granted to senior officers and employees of the Company,
- iii) options to purchase up to 500,000 common shares for a period of ten years at a price of US$3.00 per share have been granted to a senior officer of the Company,

9) INDEBTEDNESS OF SENIOR EXECUTIVES

No senior executive currently with the Corporation as of the date of this proxy statement, nor any nominee for the position of director nor any person associated with such senior executive or nominee is indebted to the Corporation.

10) DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS INSURANCE

Directors and Officers liability insurance has been obtained by the Corporation for its directors and officers. An annual premium of US$175,000 is paid by the Corporation in respect of directors and officers as a group. No portion of the premium is paid directly or indirectly by any of the directors or officers of the Corporation. The aggregate insurance coverage under the policy is limited to US$10,000,000.

11) INTEREST OF INSIDERS AND OTHER PERSONS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Neither the Corporation nor its subsidiaries are currently or have been party to, or are currently contemplating, any material transaction or any proposed transaction, which has materially affected or would materially affect the Corporation, with any insider of the Corporation, nor any associate or affiliate of such insider.

12) DISCLOSURE RESPECTING CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

In conformity with the applicable rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, the Board of Directors of the Corporation has adopted corporate governance practices. The Board of Directors recently reviewed the corporate governance practices of the Corporation and adopted new formal written charters of its committees, including the Audit Committee.

Edgar Filing: NYMOX PHARMACEUTICAL CORP - Form 6-K

The Board of Directors is composed of five directors, a majority of whom are independent directors. The Board has determined that three of its current directors (Dr. Hans Black, Prof. Walter von Wartburg and Michael Sonnenreich) meet the requisite standard of independence. The Board appoints the Chairman of the Board and establishes its committees and appoints their members.

The Board of Directors is responsible for supervising the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation with a view to the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders generally. The Board reviews and approves matters relating to the strategic direction, business and operations and the organizational structure of the Corporation. The Board's specific responsibilities include recommending candidates for election or appointment to the Board, approving the issuance of any securities and any related transactions, reviewing financings, investments, acquisitions, dispositions and other transactions not in the ordinary course of business, reviewing the compensation and performance of the Corporation's officers, approving the issuance of any stock options pursuant to the Corporation's Stock Option Plan, reviewing, approving and supervising the Corporation's accounting principles and practices, financial statements and security filings, approving the annual budget, ensuring the proper and timely disclosure of material matters and appropriate communications with the shareholders, reviewing the corporate governance of the Corporation and the Board, and reviewing management practices and processes with respect to risk assessment and management and internal controls and audit functions.

The Corporate Governance Committee consists of the independent directors of the Board. This Committee has the general mandate of providing an independent and regular review of the management, business and affairs of the Corporation and has regularly scheduled meetings in executive session. This Committee also reviews the corporate governance of the Corporation to ensure compliance, relevance and effectiveness. This Committee also reviews and approves director nominations to ensure each nominee meets the requisite requirements under applicable corporate and securities laws, rules and regulations and otherwise possesses the skills, judgment and independence appropriate for a director of a public corporation.

The Audit Committee consists of three independent directors of the Corporation, each of whom are knowledgeable in financial and auditing matters. The Board has determined that each of the current members of the Audit Committee meet the criteria for independence as set out in all applicable laws, rules and regulations and are otherwise free of any relationship that would interfere with his individual exercise of independent judgment. The Board has also determined that the Chair of the Audit Committee, Dr. Hans Black, possesses the requisite financial management expertise and sophistication to meet the criteria for audit committee financial expert in accordance with applicable security laws, rules and regulations.

The Audit Committee provides independent oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing, and reporting practices of the Corporation with a particular focus on financial statements and financial reporting to shareholders. Subject to shareholder approval, the Committee is responsible for the appointment, compensation, and oversight of the public accounting firm engaged to prepare or issue an audit report on the financial statements of the Corporation. The independent auditors report directly to the Committee. The Committee's responsibilities include pre-approving all audit services and permissible non-audit services, reviewing on an ongoing basis all relationships between the auditors and the Corporation, including any that may impact the objectivity or independence of the auditors and taking such appropriate action to oversee and ensure the auditors' independence, reviewing the scope and results of the audit with the independent auditors, meeting at least four times a year to review with management and the independent auditors the Corporation's financial condition and results, assessing the adequacy of the internal accounting, bookkeeping and control procedures of the Corporation; reviewing with management and the independent auditors any significant risks or exposures to the Corporation and assess the steps management has taken to minimize such risk to the Corporation, reviewing and approving on an ongoing basis the terms of all transactions and arrangements between the Corporation and related parties, reviewing all financial statements and reports prior to filing with the SEC or other regulatory authority, and reviewing and assessing on an annual basis the adequacy of its charter and recommending any changes needed to enable the Committee to properly discharge its duties to the shareholders.

The Audit Committee has the additional responsibilities for establishing procedures for the handling of complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters, including procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of such complaints and for the confidential and anonymous submission by employees of the Corporation or its affiliates of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

The Audit Committee has the power to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within its scope of responsibilities. The Committee may ask members of management or other employees of the Corporation to attend at a meeting of the Audit Committee and provide pertinent information as necessary. The Committee may meet with the independent auditors in executive session to discuss any matters that, in the opinion of the Committee or the independent auditors, should be discussed in private. The Committee has the power and authority to retain and determine funding for independent counsel, accountants, or other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties.

The Human Resources and Compensation Committee consists of the independent directors of the Board with the CEO as an ex officio non-voting member. When considering the compensation arrangements for the CEO, the Committee meets in executive session without the presence of the CEO. This Committee establishes and reviews overall policy and structure with respect to compensation and employment matters, including the determination of compensation arrangements for directors, executive officers and key employees of the Corporation. The Committee is also responsible for the administration and award of options to purchase shares pursuant to the Corporation's Share Option Plan.

The Communications Committee establishes and reviews overall policy, practices and controls as they relate to the Corporation's communications to the public and its shareholders about its business and affairs other than financial statements and related security filings within the mandate of the Audit Committee.

13) APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Corporation proposes that KPMG, Chartered Accountants, be reappointed as auditors of the Corporation. KPMG have been the auditors of the Corporation since 1995.

Unless otherwise specifically instructed, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote all shares represented by such proxy FOR the appointment of KPMG, Chartered Accountants, as auditors of the Corporation to hold office until the next annual general meeting of shareholders at such remuneration as may be fixed by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

14) OTHER BUSINESS

The Management of the Corporation is not aware of any amendment regarding the items on the agenda set forth in the Notice and of any other item which could be submitted to the Meeting other than those mentioned in the Notice. However, should any amendment or other business be duly submitted to the Meeting, the attached form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the persons designated therein to vote on the amendments concerning the matters mentioned in the Notice or any other business in accordance with their best judgment.

15) APPROVAL BY DIRECTORS

The contents of this Circular and the sending of such Circular to the shareholders have been approved by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
