Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

In an effort to ensure the Company retains its executive officers, on December 14, 2004 the Company entered into a change of control or asset sale agreement with each of Mark S. Gorder, Chief Executive Officer and Robert F. Gallagher,

Edgar Filing: SELAS CORP OF AMERICA - Form 8-K

Chief Financial Officer. The agreements call for payments of two years base salary and unpaid bonus, if any, to Messrs. Gorder and Gallagher should there be a change of control or asset sale as defined in the agreements and Messrs. Gorder or Gallagher are not retained for a period of at least one year following such change of control or asset sale. Under the agreements, all stock options granted to Messrs. Gorder or Gallagher shall vest immediately and be exercisable in accordance with the terms of such stock options. The Company also agreement that if it enters into an agreement to sell substantially all of its assets, it will obligate the buyer to fulfill its obligations pursuant to the agreements. The agreements terminate, except to the extent that any obligation remains unpaid, upon the earlier of termination of Messrs. Gorder or Gallagher's employment prior to a change of control or asset sale for any reason or the termination of Messrs. Gorder or Gallagher after a change of control or asset sale for any reason other than by involuntary termination as defined in the agreements.

In addition, the Company entered into a separation agreement with Mr. Gerald H. Broecker, the Company's former Vice President on December 14, 2004. Under the agreement, the Company will pay an equivalent to Mr. Broecker's share of the premiums for medical and dental insurance through November 8, 2005. The Company agreed to retain Mr. Broecker as an independent consultant for consultation and assistance regarding any transition issues (hereinafter the "Consulting Services"). This independent contractor relationship will commence immediately after the expiration of the revocation period stipulated in the agreement and end on November 8, 2005, ("Consulting Period") except that Mr. Broecker may terminate the consulting relationship at any time for any reason prior to November 8, 2005, with one (1) month written notice. During the Consulting Period, Mr. Broecker will provide up to 500 hours of Consulting Services as requested by the Company. In consideration for services during the Consulting Period, the Company will pay Mr. Broecker a retainer of $10,500 per month. The Company will pay Mr. Broecker any accrued salary plus compensate Mr. Broecker for unused and accrued vacation time to which Mr. Broecker was entitled as of his resignation date. Mr. Broecker retains all stock options under the Company's stock option plans that vested or became exercisable prior to his resignation date and he is able to exercise these options in accordance with such stock option plans during a period of not more than 90 days after his resignation date (but in no event after the expiration date set forth in such option), after which date such options shall expire; provided, however, that he is entitled to exercise in full (a) options to purchase 6,000 shares granted to him on December 19, 2000 and (b) options to purchase 5,000 shares granted to him on July 26, 2004, in each case on or prior to December 31, 2006, after which date such options shall expire. For a period of one year, following the end of the Consulting Period, Mr. Broecker agreed not to compete with the Company and its subsidiaries.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers or Election or Appointment of Directors or Principal Officers

At the December 14, 2004 Board of Directors meeting, Mr. Frederick L. Bissinger, age 93, announced his retirement from the Board of Directors effective immediately. The Board determined it will not replace Mr. Bissinger's Board position in the foreseeable future.
