- (1) to elect a director to hold office for a term of three years and until his successor is duly elected and qualified; and
- (2) to transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any of its adjournments or postponements.

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on March 25, 2005, as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. If the Annual Meeting is adjourned for one or more periods aggregating at least 15 days because of the absence of a quorum, those shareholders entitled to vote who attend the reconvened Annual Meeting, if less than a quorum as determined under applicable law, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of acting upon any matter set forth in this Notice of Annual Meeting.

All shareholders are cordially invited to attend the meeting, but whether or not you expect to attend the meeting in person, please mark, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the envelope provided in order that your shares may be voted. PROXY STATEMENT

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of the IntriCon Corporation (the Corporation) for use at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting) to be held on Wednesday, May 4, 2005 at the offices of the Blank Rome LLP, One Logan Square, 18th and Cherry Streets, Philadelphia, PA 19103, at 11:00 AM, Eastern time, and any adjournment or postponement thereof. This Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy card are first being mailed to shareholders on or about April 4, 2005.

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on March 25, 2005, as the record date for determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of March 25, 2005, there were 5,129,214 common shares, par value $1.00 per share (Common Share), of the Corporation outstanding, each of which is entitled to one vote on all matters to be presented at the Annual Meeting.

Proxies in the form enclosed, if properly executed and received in time for voting, and not revoked, will be voted as directed on the proxies. If no directions to the contrary are indicated, the persons named in the proxy will vote all of your Common Shares for the election of the nominee for director. With respect to any other matter that properly comes before the meeting, the proxy holders will vote the proxies in their discretion in accordance with their best judgment. Sending in a signed proxy will not affect a shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person since the proxy is revocable. Any shareholder who submits a proxy may revoke it at any time before the proxy is voted at the Annual Meeting by delivering a later dated proxy or by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Corporation or attending the Annual Meeting in person and so requesting. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not by itself revoke a previously granted proxy.

The presence, in person or represented by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Common Shares will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. All Common Shares present in person or represented by proxy (including broker non-votes) and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, no matter how they are voted or whether they abstain from voting, will be counted in determining the presence of a quorum. If the Annual Meeting is adjourned because of the absence of a quorum, those shareholders entitled to vote who attend the adjourned Annual Meeting, although constituting less than a quorum as provided herein, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing a director. If the Annual Meeting is adjourned for one or more periods aggregating at least 15 days because of the absence of a quorum, those shareholders entitled to vote who attend the reconvened Annual Meeting, if less than a quorum as determined under applicable law, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of acting upon any matter set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting.

Each Common Share is entitled to one vote on each matter that may be brought before the Annual Meeting. The election of a director will be determined by a plurality vote and the nominee receiving the highest number of votes will be elected. Approval of any other proposal will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote and present in person or represented by proxy. Under the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, an abstention, withholding of authority to vote or broker non-vote, will not have the same legal effect as an against vote and will not be counted in determining whether the proposal has received the required shareholder vote.

The cost of this solicitation will be borne by the Corporation. In addition to solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited in person or by telephone, telegraph or teletype by officers, directors or employees of the Corporation, without additional compensation. Upon request, the Corporation will pay the reasonable expenses incurred by record holders of the Corporation's Common Shares who are brokers, dealers, banks or voting trustees, or their nominees, for mailing proxy materials and the annual report to shareholders to the beneficial owners of the shares they hold of record.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors currently consists of four members divided into three classes.

The Board of Directors, based upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, has nominated Robert N. Masucci as Director and for re-election at the Annual Meeting to serve until the 2008 annual meeting of shareholders and until his respective successor has been duly elected and qualified. The nominee is a current director of the Corporation and has been previously elected as a director by the Corporation's shareholders. Mr. Masucci has indicated his willingness to continue serving as director. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why the nominee would be unable to serve as director. If the nominee should for any reason be unable to serve, then the proxies will be voted for the election of such substitute nominee as the Board of Directors may designate, unless the Board of Directors reduces the number of directors on the board.

Assuming a quorum is present, the nominee receiving the highest number of for votes will be elected. For such purposes, an abstention, the withholding of authority to vote or broker non-vote will not be counted in determining whether the proposal has received the required shareholder vote.

The following table sets forth certain information concerning the nominees and the persons whose terms as directors will continue after the Annual Meeting, including their ages and principal occupations during the past five years:

Director Compensation

In 2004, Mr. McKenna received an annual retainer of $145,200 for services performed as Chairman of the Board. The other directors who were not officers of the Corporation received an annual retainer of $24,000 plus $800 per Board or Committee meeting attended on a particular day and $400 for each additional Board or Committee meeting attended on the same day, except for meetings of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, where no per meeting compensation is paid. Mr. Giordano receives an additional $2,000 per meeting for his services as Chairman of the Audit Committee. Total fees earned for services in 2004 were $29,600, $36,000 and $35,200 by Messrs. Bissinger, Giordano and Masucci, respectively. In 2005, Mr. Masucci will receive a one-time payment of $50,000 for his services on a special committee established by the Board to assist in the sale of the Corporation's burners and components business. Under the Corporation's Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan, directors who are not employees of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries receive an automatic one-time grant of an option to acquire 5,000 Common Shares of the Corporation upon their initial election or appointment to the Board of Directors and are also eligible to receive discretionary grants. In 2004, Messrs. Bissinger, Giordano, Masucci and McKenna were granted options to purchase 25,000 common shares which vest in three equal annual installments.

Committees of the Board

The Board of Directors of the Corporation has established an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

Audit Committee. The Board of Directors of the Corporation has appointed a standing Audit Committee consisting of Messrs. Giordano (Chairman), Masucci, and McKenna. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is independent, as defined in applicable American Stock Exchange corporate governance rules and SEC regulations. In addition, the Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Giordano qualifies as an audit committee financial expert, as defined in applicable SEC rules. The Audit Committee held four formal meetings in 2004. In addition, the Audit Committee or its Chairman held 4 informal telephonic meetings with the Corporation's management and/or independent auditors.

The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board of Directors, a copy of which can be found in Appendix A. The principal duties of the Audit Committee are to monitor the integrity of the financial statements of the Corporation, the compliance by the Corporation with legal and regulatory requirements and the independence and performance of the Corporation's independent auditors. The Audit Committee also approves all related party transactions and establishes procedures for (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Corporation regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and (ii) the confidential, anonymous submissions by the Corporation's employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. In addition, the Committee selects the firm to be engaged as the Corporation's independent public accountants, and approves the engagement of the independent public accountants for all non-audit activities permitted under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The report of the Audit Committee appears on page 19.

Compensation Committee. The Board of Directors of the Corporation has appointed a standing Compensation Committee currently consisting of Messrs. McKenna (Chairman), Giordano, and Masucci. Until his retirement in December 2004, Mr. Bissinger served as a member of the Compensation Committee in 2004. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Compensation Committee is independent, as defined in applicable American Stock Exchange corporate governance rules. The Compensation Committee reviews and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning officer compensation and officer and employee bonus programs and administers the Corporation's 2001 Stock Option Plan, Amended and Restated 1994 Stock Option

Plan and Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan. This Committee met four times in 2004. The report of the Compensation Committee is set forth beginning on page 11.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Board of Directors of the Corporation has appointed a standing Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee currently consisting of Messrs. McKenna (Chairman), Giordano, and Masucci. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is independent, as defined in applicable American Stock Exchange corporate governance rules. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which was formed in February 2004, met three times in 2004. In 2003, the entire Board of Directors acted as a nominating committee.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board of Directors, a copy of which was filed as an appendix to the Corporation's definitive proxy statement relating to the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders. The principal duties of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are to identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board consistent with the criteria approved by the Committee, consider nominees made by shareholders in accordance with the Corporation's bylaws, select, or recommend to the Board, the director nominees for each annual shareholders meeting, recommend to the Board directors to be appointed to each Committee of the Board, recommend to the Board whether to increase or decrease the size of the Board, develop and recommend to the Board corporate governance principles and oversee the evaluations of the Board and senior management.

Director Nomination Process

Consideration of Director Candidates Recommended or Nominated by Shareholders. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider properly submitted shareholder recommendations for director candidates. A shareholder who wishes to recommend a prospective director nominee should send a signed and dated letter to the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, c/o Corporate Secretary, IntriCon Corporation, 1260 Red Fox Road, Arden Hills, Minnesota 55112. Under the Corporation's bylaws, a shareholder who desires to nominate directors for election at the Corporation's shareholders meeting must comply with the procedures summarized below:

- shareholder nominations for directors to be elected, which have not been previously approved by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, must be submitted to the Corporate Secretary not later than the latest date by which shareholder proposals must be submitted to the Corporation for inclusion in the proxy statement pursuant to SEC Rule 14a-8;

Edgar Filing: SELAS CORP OF AMERICA - Form DEF 14A

- shareholder nominations must be in writing and sent either by personal delivery, nationally recognized express mail or U.S. mail, postage prepaid;
- each shareholder nomination must set forth the following:

the name and address of the shareholder making the nomination and the person(s) nominated;

a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record, and/or a beneficial owner, of voting stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at the meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to vote for the person(s) nominated;

a description of all arrangements and understandings between the shareholder and each nominee and any other person(s), naming such person(s), pursuant to which the nomination was submitted by the shareholder;

such other information regarding the shareholder nominee as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the SEC had the nominee been nominated by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, including the principal occupation of each nominee; and the consent of each nominee to serve as a director if so elected.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has the sole authority to select, or to recommend to the Board of Directors, the nominees to be considered for election as a director. The officer presiding over the shareholders meeting, in such officer's sole and absolute discretion, may reject any nomination not made in accordance with the foregoing procedures.

The deadline for submitting the letter recommending a prospective director nominee for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders is November 28, 2005.

The Corporation's bylaws are available, at no cost, at the SEC's website, www.sec.gov, as Exhibit 3.2 to the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC in March 2004 or upon the shareholder's written request directed to the Corporate Secretary at the address given above.

Director Qualifications. Nominees for director must be at least 21 years old. Nominees for director will be selected on the basis of outstanding achievement in their careers; broad experience; education; independence under applicable American Stock Exchange and SEC rules; financial expertise; integrity; financial integrity; ability to make independent, analytical inquiries; understanding of the business environment; and willingness to devote adequate time to Board and committee duties. The proposed nominee should have sufficient time to devote their energy and attention to the diligent performance of the director's duties, including attendance at Board and committee meetings and review of the Corporation's financial statements and reports, SEC filings and other materials. Finally, the proposed nominee should be free of conflicts of interest that could prevent such nominee from acting in the best interest of shareholders.

Additional special criteria apply to directors being considered to serve on a particular committee of the Board. For example, members of the Audit Committee must meet additional standards of independence and have the ability to read and understand the Corporation's financial statements.

Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Director. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee assesses the appropriate size of the Board in accordance with the limits fixed by the Corporation's charter and bylaws, whether any vacancies on the Board are expected and what incumbent directors will stand for re-election at the next meeting of shareholders. If vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers candidates for director suggested by members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and other Board members as well as management, shareholders and other parties. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also has the sole authority to retain a search firm to identify and evaluate director candidates. Except for incumbent directors standing for re-election as described below, there are no differences in the manner in which the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee evaluates nominees for director, based on whether the nominee is recommended by a shareholder or any other party.

In the case of an incumbent director whose term of office expires, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews such director's service to the Corporation during the past term, including, but not limited to, the number of Board and committee meetings attended, as applicable, quality of participation and whether the candidate continues to meet the general qualifications for a director outlined above, including the director's independence, as well as any special qualifications required for membership on any committees on which such director serves. When a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is an incumbent director eligible to stand for re-election, such director will not participate in that portion of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee meeting at which such director's potential nomination for election as a director is discussed by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

In the case of a new director candidate, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will evaluate whether the nominee is independent, as independence is defined under applicable American Stock Exchange corporate governance rules, and whether the nominee meets the qualifications for director outlined above as well as any special qualifications applicable to membership on any committee on which the nominee may be appointed to serve if elected. In connection with such evaluation, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee determines whether the committee should interview the nominee, and if warranted, one or more members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee interviews the nominee in person or by telephone.

Upon completing the evaluation, and the interview in case of a new candidate, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee makes a decision as to whether to nominate the director candidate for election at the shareholders meeting.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION AND CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

Compensation Committee Report

The Corporation's compensation program for executive officers, which is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, is designed to align a significant portion of executive officer compensation with the Corporation's business objectives and performance.

The Corporation's executive officer compensation program consists of base salary, potential annual cash incentive compensation and long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options. Executive officers are also covered under medical, life insurance, and 401K savings plans generally available to employees of the Corporation or the business unit managed by the executive officer. The potential incentive compensation for executive officers is designed to achieve the Corporation's objectives of attracting, retaining, motivating and rewarding talented executives.

Elements of Executive Compensation

Base Salary. Through its evaluation of executive officers' performance and the Corporation's performance, the Compensation Committee determines the total base salary of Mark S. Gorder, the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer, and other executive officers. In each case, the Compensation Committee takes into account the results achieved by the executive, the executive's future potential, scope of responsibilities and experience, and competitive salary practices.

Annual Cash Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee's philosophy is that a significant portion of the total potential compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers should depend upon the degree of the Corporation's or a business unit's financial success in a particular year.

In 2004, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors approved an incentive compensation program for 2004 that applied financial performance measures tailored to the desired contribution to the overall financial results of the Corporation. In all cases, incentive compensation was substantially dependent on the achievement of financial performance targets relating to the Corporation on a consolidated basis. For executive officers to qualify for a cash bonus, the Corporation had to attain a certain amount of positive cash flow before extraordinary items. Because of the financial performance of the Corporation for 2004, no executive officer received a bonus for the year.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation in the Form of Stock Options. The Corporation's 2001 Stock Option Plan is its long-term incentive plan for officers and key employees. This plan is designed to further align the interests of the Corporation's executive officers and its shareholders by creating a direct link between long-term executive compensation and long-term shareholder value. Since all options are granted at fair market value at the time of grant, there is no built-in profit and thus the value of the option is tied solely and directly to increases in value of the Common Shares. Stock options are granted to the Corporation's executive officers from time to time, as deemed appropriate by the Compensation Committee, based on various factors, including the executive's ability to contribute to the Corporation's long-term growth and profitability. In fiscal 2003, the Compensation Committee granted options to Mr. Gorder and Robert F. Gallagher, the Corporation's Chief Financial Officer, that vested on the earlier of the Corporation attaining a certain amount of positive cash flow before extraordinary items in fiscal 2004 and the executive officer attaining personal goals set by the Compensation Committee and Board of Directors in fiscal 2004 or seven years after the date of grant. Because the Corporation did not meet the goals for 2004, Messrs. Gorder and Gallagher agreed to cancel their 2003 options. No options were granted to Messrs. Gorder and Gallagher in 2004. In 2004, the Compensation Committee granted options to purchase 5,000 Common Shares to Gerald H. Broecker.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

In fiscal 2003, Mr. Gorder agreed to a 5% reduction in salary, which he was entitled to receive under his employment agreement. Mr. Gorder's base salary in fiscal 2004 was $261,250. Mr. Gorder's employment agreement with the Corporation expired pursuant to its terms on April 30, 2004.

Edgar Filing: SELAS CORP OF AMERICA - Form DEF 14A

The Compensation Committee reviewed all components of Mr. Gorder's compensation, including salary, bonus and long-term incentive compensation. Based on its review, the Compensation Committee approved that the Corporation enter into a new employment agreement with Mr. Gorder pursuant to which Mr. Gorder's base salary will be set by the Board of Directors or Compensation Committee, but in no event will the base salary be less than $275,000. This minimum base salary requirement is the same minimum that was contained in Mr. Gorder's previous employment agreement. The Compensation Committee set Mr. Gorder's base salary for 2005 at $275,000. The Compensation Committee did not increase the base salary above the minimum because the Corporation's financial performance did not warrant such an increase. The material terms of the employment agreement are described on page 15 and the agreement itself is filed as an exhibit to the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Because the Corporation did not attain the financial targets set by the Board of Directors upon recommendation of the Compensation Committee, in fiscal 2004, Mr. Gorder did not receive stock options or a cash bonus.

The Compensation Committee determined it to be in the best interests of the Corporation to recommend to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors approved that the Corporation enter into a change of control agreement with Mr. Gorder. The material terms of the change of control agreement were disclosed on a current report on Form 8-K filed on December 20, 2004 and the agreement itself is filed as an exhibit thereto.

The Compensation Committee also reviewed perquisites and other compensation paid to Mr. Gorder for fiscal 2004, and found these amounts to be reasonable.

Employment Agreements

The Corporation had an employment agreement with Mr. Gorder, as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation, which terminated pursuant to its terms on April 30, 2004. The agreement provided for Mr. Gorder to serve as President and Chief Executive officer of the Corporation until April 30, 2004. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Gorder was compensated at the annual rate of $250,000 for the period of January 1, through April 30, 2001 and at the annual rate of $275,000 for the period of May 1, 2001 through December 31, 2001. Mr. Gorder's annual compensation after December 31, 2001 was established by the Board of Directors, but was required to be no less than $275,000 thereafter. The Summary Compensation Table shows a lower amount, however, due to the voluntary salary reduction that Mr. Gorder took in the last three years. If Mr. Gorder's employment was terminated for any reason, other than for cause, he was entitled to the continued payment of his salary and bonus until April 30, 2004, or, at his election, a lump sum payment equal to the present value of those payments.

On March 30, 2005, the Corporation entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Gorder, dated as of December 4, 2004, whereby Mr. Gorder agreed to serve as the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer and President. The employment agreement will expire on April 30, 2006, unless further extended by Mr. Gorder and the Corporation. Mr. Gorder's base salary will be established from time to time by the Board of Directors or the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Corporation. In no event will Mr. Gorder's base salary be less than $275,000. For 2005, the Compensation Committee has set Mr. Gorder's base salary at $275,000. Mr. Gorder is entitled to receive performance bonuses in accordance with the policies and plans of the Corporation in place from time to time with respect to the payment of bonuses to executive officers. Mr. Gorder is also entitled to participate in the Corporation's employee benefit plans and benefit programs, including medical benefit programs, stock options under the Corporation's 2001 Stock Option Plan or any additional plans or programs, as may from time to time be provided by the Corporation for its executive officers. Additionally, the Corporation maintains disability insurance for his benefit. Under the employment agreement, the Corporation is required to reimburse Mr. Gorder for his country club membership fees and provide him with an automobile for use in connection with the performance of his duties under the employment agreement and reimburse him for all expenses reasonably incurred by him for the maintenance and operation, including fuel, of the automobile. The Corporation reimbursed Mr. Gorder $2,500 for the cost of consulting with counsel in connection with the negotiation of the employment agreement.

Upon termination of Mr. Gorder's employment due to a disability, Mr. Gorder is entitled to continue to receive medical benefits coverage for him and his wife (if any) in accordance with the Corporation's policies in effect from time to time through the remainder of the then-current term of the employment agreement, and is entitled to benefits under the disability policy to the extent provided therein. In the event of Mr. Gorder's death during the term of the employment agreement, his wife (if any) is entitled to continue to receive medical benefits coverage in accordance with the Corporation's policies in effect from time to time through the remainder of the then-current term of the employment agreement.

The Corporation may terminate Mr. Gorder's employment for Cause (as defined in the employment agreement). If Mr. Gorder's employment is terminated by the Corporation prior to the end of the term for any reason other than Cause (as defined in the employment agreement) or the death or disability: (i) the Corporation must either (A) continue to pay Mr. Gorder his base salary or any performance bonus accrued (based on not less than the previous year's bonus and prorated to the end of the term) during the remainder of the then-current term of the employment agreement, or (B) if Mr. Gorder requests in writing, pay him in a lump sum upon such termination the present value of the payments that would have been made under clause (A), using a discount rate of 6 percent per year. Additionally, Mr. Gorder will be entitled to continue to receive medical benefits coverage in accordance with the Corporation's policies in effect from time to time through the remainder of the then-current term of the employment agreement. To be entitled to any payments Mr. Gorder must execute and deliver to the Corporation an agreement releasing the Corporation from all claims, undertaking to maintain confidentiality of the agreement and indemnify the Corporation if Mr. Gorder breaches such agreement. If Mr. Gorder's employment is terminated by the Corporation during the term of the employment agreement for any reason other than for Cause (as defined in the employment agreement) or if he terminates his employment during the term of the employment agreement under circumstances that would constitute an Involuntary Termination (as defined in the Change-of-Control Agreement), then any stock options granted to him which have not been exercised prior to his termination will accelerate and be exercisable in full.

If Mr. Gorder becomes entitled to any payment by the terms of the Change-of-Control Agreement, he is not entitled to any additional payment under the employment agreement (other than accrued and unpaid bonus, salary and benefits) unless otherwise provided for in the employment agreement.

Change-of-Control Arrangements

On December 14, 2004 the Corporation entered into a change of control or asset sale agreement with each of Mark S. Gorder, Chief Executive Officer and Robert F. Gallagher, former Chief Financial Officer. The agreements call for payments of two years base salary and unpaid bonus, if any, to Messrs. Gorder and Gallagher should there be a change of control or asset sale as defined in the agreements and Messrs. Gorder or Gallagher are not retained for a period of at least one year following such change of control or asset sale. Under the agreements, all stock options granted to Messrs. Gorder or Gallagher would vest immediately and be exercisable in accordance with the terms of such stock options. The Corporation also agreed that if it enters into an agreement to sell substantially all of its assets, it will obligate the buyer to fulfill its obligations pursuant to the agreements. The agreements terminate, except to the extent that any obligation remains unpaid, upon the earlier of termination of Messrs. Gorder or Gallagher's employment prior to a change of control or asset sale for any reason or the termination of Messrs. Gorder or Gallagher after a change of control or asset sale for any reason other than by involuntary termination as defined in the agreements.

Separation Agreement

The Corporation entered into a separation agreement with Mr. Gerald H. Broecker, the Corporation's former Vice President on December 14, 2004. Under the agreement, the Corporation will pay an equivalent to Mr. Broecker's share of the premiums for medical and dental insurance through November 8, 2005. The Corporation agreed to retain Mr. Broecker as an independent consultant for consultation and assistance regarding any transition issues (hereinafter the Consulting Services). This independent contractor relationship will commence immediately after the expiration of the revocation period stipulated in the agreement and end on November 8, 2005, (Consulting Period) except that Mr. Broecker may terminate the consulting relationship at any time for any reason prior to November 8, 2005, with one (1) month written notice. During the Consulting Period, Mr. Broecker will provide up to 500 hours of Consulting Services as requested by the Corporation. In consideration for services during the Consulting Period, the Corporation will pay Mr. Broecker a retainer of $10,500 per month. The Corporation will pay Mr. Broecker any accrued salary plus compensate Mr. Broecker for unused and accrued vacation time to which Mr. Broecker was entitled as of his resignation date. Mr. Broecker retains all stock options under the Corporation's stock option plans that vested or became exercisable prior to his resignation date and he is able to exercise these options in accordance with such stock option plans during a period of not more than 90 days after his resignation date (but in no event after the expiration date set forth in such option), after which date such options shall expire; provided, however, that he is entitled to exercise in full (a) options to purchase 6,000 shares granted to him on December 19, 2000 and (b) options to purchase 5,000 shares granted to him on July 26, 2004, in each case on or prior to December 31, 2006, after which date such options shall expire. For a period of one year, following the end of the Consulting Period, Mr. Broecker agreed not to compete with the Corporation and its subsidiaries.

2001 Stock Option Plan

Edgar Filing: SELAS CORP OF AMERICA - Form DEF 14A

The Corporation has a stock option plan that provides for the grant of incentive stock options (as defined in Section 422 of the Code) and non-qualified stock options for officers and other key employees of the Corporation. A total of 1,000,000 shares of Common Stock are reserved for issuance under the Stock Option Plan. Additionally, no individual will be able to receive options for more than 250,000 Common Shares under the stock option plan. The Compensation Committee or a majority of the independent directors of the Corporation's Board of Directors may administer the stock option plan.

The Compensation Committee will generally administer the stock option plan. The Compensation Committee selects the participants who will receive awards and determines the terms and conditions of the awards, including the number of shares subject to the awards, the exercise or purchase price, and the vesting and/or exercisability of the award. Stock options are generally subject to vesting, which means the optionee earns the right to exercise an increasing number of the shares underlying the option over a specific period of time only if he or she continues to provide services to the Corporation over that period. Non-qualified stock options granted under the stock option plan must have a per share exercise price of at least the fair market value of the Common Shares on the date of grant. Incentive stock options granted under the stock option plan must have a per share exercise price of at least 100% of the fair market value of the Common Shares on the date of grant, and not less than 110% of the fair market value in the case of incentive stock options granted to an employee who holds more than 10% of the total voting power of all classes of the Corporation's stock or any parent or subsidiary's stock. Payment of the exercise price or purchase price with respect to any award may be made in cash or other consideration as determined by the Compensation Committee. The term of an option cannot be longer than 10 years from the date of grant or five years from the date of grant of an incentive stock option in the case of a greater than 10% shareholder.

The Corporation no longer issues option grants under the Amended and Restated 1994 Stock Option Plan.

As of December 31, 2004, options to purchase 171,000 Common Shares were granted and outstanding under the Stock Option Plan, all of which are held by employees. See "Options in 2004" for options granted to Named Officers in 2004.

The members of the Compensation Committee during 2004 were: Messrs. McKenna (Chairman), Bissinger, Giordano and Masucci. Additionally, there were no compensation committee interlocks during 2004, which generally means that no executive officer of the Corporation served as a director or member of the compensation committee of another entity, which had an executive officer serving as a director or member of the Compensation Committee of the Corporation.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Mr. Gorder is a general partner (with a one-third interest) of Arden Partners I, L.L.P., a Minnesota limited liability partnership ("Arden") that owns and leases to the Corporation's subsidiary, Resistance Technology, Inc. Duties and Responsibilities

The duties and responsibilities of the Committee shall be as follows:

- Be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of any registered public accounting firm engaged (including resolution of disagreements between management and the auditor regarding financial reporting) for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company, and each such registered public accounting firm must report directly to the Committee;

- Review and assess the adequacy of the Committee's charter annually;
- Comply with all preapproval requirements of Section 10A(i) of the Exchange Act and all SEC rules relating to the administration by the Committee of the auditor engagement to the extent necessary to maintain the independence of the auditor as set forth in 17 C.F.R.ss.210.2-01(c)(7);

Delegation

Any duties and responsibilities of the Committee, including, but not limited to, the authority to preapprove all audit and permitted non-audit services, may be delegated to one or more members of the Committee or a subcommittee of the Committee.

Limitations

The Committee is responsible for the duties and responsibilities set forth in this charter, but its role is oversight and therefore it is not responsible for either the preparation of the Company's financial statements or the auditing of the Company's financial statements. The members of the Committee are not employees of the Company and may not be accountants or auditors by profession or experts in accounting or auditing. Management has the responsibility for preparing the financial statements and implementing internal controls and the independent auditors have the responsibility for auditing the financial statements and monitoring the effectiveness of the internal controls, subject, in each case, to the oversight of the Committee described in this charter. The review of the financial statements by the Committee is not of the same character or quality as the audit performed by the independent auditors. The oversight exercised by the Committee is not a guarantee that the financial statements will be free from mistake or fraud. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible in order to best react to a changing environment.
