QUANTA STATEMENT ON AQUILA LETTER TO STOCKHOLDERS

HOUSTON - MAY 6, 2002 - Quanta Services, Inc. (NYSE:PWR), a leading provider of specialized contracting services to the electric power, gas, telecommunications and cable television industries, today issued the following statement commenting on a letter dated May 3, 2002 sent by Aquila, Inc. (NYSE:ILA) to Quanta stockholders.

Said John R. Colson, chief executive officer of Quanta, "Aquila's proposals still offer nothing new to Quanta's stockholders. Aquila remains unwilling to provide any premium in exchange for stockholders' support or any real protections against an unfavorable 'squeeze-out' transaction, of the type Aquila has repeatedly perpetrated in the past. In fact, we believe that Aquila's poor financial performance and credit troubles would preclude them from acting upon the very plan they now promise to implement and increase the risk that Quanta's stockholders would be subject to an abusive transaction should Aquila obtain control of Quanta.

"As previously announced, Quanta's Board is committed to enhancing stockholder value and has authorized its financial advisor to evaluate all options, including a potential sale of the Company, to which Aquila has been the impediment."

"We are determined to oppose Aquila's efforts to abuse its position as our largest stockholder and don't believe that our other stockholders will fall for Aquila's duplicity. We continue to urge all stockholders to sign, date and return the white proxy card in support of Quanta's Board."

Quanta Services, Inc. is a leading provider of specialized contracting services, delivering end-to-end network solutions for electric power, gas, telecommunications and cable television industries. The company's comprehensive services include designing, installing, repairing and maintaining network infrastructure nationwide.
