In connection with the Financing, the Issuer issued 2,575,000 shares of its Series A Stock for $1.00 per share. Each share of Series A Stock is initially convertible into 33.334 shares of common stock. The holders of the Series A Stock will be entitled to a cumulative annual dividend of 15%, which, at the option of the holders of the Series A Stock, may be paid in cash or in additional shares of Series A Stock. The holders of the Series A Stock will have a liquidation preference in the event of any liquidation, sale, merger or similar event, and have registration rights and other customary rights. The Issuer has also agreed to make payments to the holders of the Series A stock, to the extent its cash flow meets certain levels, until the holders have received the amount of their investment in the Series A Stock; has granted a security interest in all of its assets to secure its obligation to make these payments; and has agreed to issue additional shares of Series A Stock equal to 50% of the then fully diluted common stock to the holders if the Issuer fails to return the amount of their investment, plus the mandatory dividends, by July 15, 2003. The Issuer has also agreed to issue, at up to six different times, additional shares of Series A Stock to the investors equal to 25% of the then fully diluted common stock if the Issuer fails to meet any of certain financial targets, beginning with the quarter ending Sept. 30, 2001. If the slowdown in the worldwide semiconductor industry continues for an extended period of time, the Issuer may not meet one or more of the specified financial targets, thus triggering the issuance of additional shares of Series A Stock. The Issuer has agreed to call a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on a proposal to authorize additional common stock necessary to facilitate the conversion of the Series A Stock. The holders of the Series A Stock will be entitled to vote with the holders of the common stock at the special meeting, and will control sufficient votes to approve the proposal. In connection with the transaction described above, two members of the Board of Directors of the Issuer resigned, and New Century Equity Holdings Corp., a Delaware corporation, ("New Century") appointed two directors to the Board.
