PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE IEH CORPORATION

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 2012

This proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy have been mailed on or about October 9, 2012 to the holders of record on Thursday, October 4, 2012 (the "Record Date") of the common stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock") of IEH CORPORATION, a New York corporation ("IEH" or the "Company") in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of IEH for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Tuesday, November 13, 2012 at 10:00 a.m., New York time, at IEH's offices at 140 58th Street, Suite 8E, Brooklyn, New York 11220, and at any adjournment thereof.

SOLICITATION, VOTING AND REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

Shares of IEH's Common Stock represented by an effective proxy in the accompanying form will, unless contrary instructions are specified in the proxy, be voted: (i) FOR the election of the ONE (1) person nominated by the Board of Directors to serve as Class I Director (Proposal 1); (ii) FOR the ratification of Jerome Rosenberg, CPA P.C., as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending March 29, 2013 (Proposal 2); and (iii) FOR such other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting (including any vote to adjourn the meeting) or any adjournment thereof and for which the persons named on the enclosed proxies determine, in their sole discretion, to vote in favor.

Any such proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted. A shareholder may revoke this proxy by notifying the Secretary of IEH either in writing prior to the Annual Meeting or in person at the Annual Meeting, by submitting a proxy bearing a later date or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Quorum

The presence of a majority of the holders of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote, in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Shares are counted as present at the Annual Meeting if you are present in person at the Annual Meeting, or if you have properly submitted a proxy. In addition, abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present at the Annual Meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. A “broker non-vote” occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner in “street name” does not vote on a particular proposal because the broker, bank or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that proposal and has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner.

Voting Required

Election of Directors (Proposal 1) is by a plurality of the votes cast at a meeting of the shareholders by the holders of shares entitled to vote in the election with the one (1) nominee receiving the highest vote totals to be elected as Class I Director of IEH. The ratification of the appointment of Jerome Rosenberg CPA, P.C. as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2013 (Proposal 2) requires the affirmative vote by holders of at least a majority of the shares of IEH’s common stock who attend the Annual Meeting in person or are represented at the meeting by proxy and who cast votes. Abstentions will have the effect of a vote against this proposal, while broker non-votes will not be taken into account in determining the outcome of the vote on this proposal.

Table of Contents

Any other matter properly submitted to the shareholders will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented and entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting, unless a greater percentage is required either through law or by our amended certificate of incorporation or bylaws. If you “abstain” from voting on any of these matters, your abstention will be considered as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but will have the effect of a vote against the particular matter. In addition, the proxy confers discretionary authority to the persons named in the proxy authorizing those persons to vote, in their discretion, on any other matters properly presented at the Annual Meeting of shareholders. The Board of Directors is not currently aware of any such other matters. If any other matter does properly come before the Annual Meeting, the Board of Directors intends that the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote on such matter in accordance with their judgment. The persons named as proxies may propose one or more adjournments of the Annual Meeting to permit further solicitations of proxies or for other reasons. Any such adjournment would require the affirmative vote of the majority of the outstanding shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting.

Manner of Voting

Shareholders whose shares of Common Stock are registered in their own names may vote by mailing a completed proxy card as an alternative to voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Instructions for voting by mail are set forth on the enclosed proxy card and are summarized below. For shares held in street name, please refer to the voting instruction card included by your broker, bank or other nominee. The Company does not offer voting by telephone or via the Internet. To vote by mail, please submit your proxy by signing your proxy card and mailing it in the enclosed, postage-prepaid envelope.

If you choose to vote in person, you can attend the Annual Meeting and cast your vote in person.

If you are a registered holder, your shares will be voted in the manner that you indicate in your proxy. The proxy card provides spaces for you to vote “FOR,” or to “WITHHOLD” your authority to vote your shares for the nominee for Class I Director (Proposal 1). The proxy card also provides spaces for you to vote “FOR” or “AGAINST” or “ABSTAIN” from voting in connection with our proposal to ratify the appointment of Jerome Rosenberg CPA, P.C. as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2013 (Proposal 2). If you return a signed proxy card but do not indicate how you wish to vote your shares, your shares will be voted “FOR” the election of the nominee for Class I Director, and “FOR” the ratification of Jerome Rosenberg CPA, P.C. as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2013.

Shares held in Street Name

If you hold your shares in street name, you should follow the directions provided by your broker, bank or other nominee regarding how to instruct your broker or nominee. If you provide specific voting instructions, your shares will be voted as you instruct. If you sign but do not provide instructions, your shares will be voted as described below. Many banks and brokerage firms have a process for their beneficial holders to provide instructions over the phone or via the Internet. If Internet or telephone voting is unavailable from your bank or brokerage firm, please complete and return the enclosed voting instruction card in the addressed, postage paid envelope provided. If you hold your shares in “street name” through a broker, bank or other nominee, then the broker who holds your shares has the authority under the applicable stock exchange rules to vote on certain items when they have not received instructions from you. If you hold your shares in street name it is critical that you cast your vote if you want it to count in the Election of Directors (Proposal 1). In prior years, if you held your shares in street name and you did not indicate how you wanted your shares voted in the Election of Directors, your bank, broker or other nominee was allowed to vote those shares on your behalf in the Election of Directors as they felt appropriate. Recent changes in the proxy rules and regulations were made to take away the ability of your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your uninstructed shares in the Election of Directors on a discretionary basis. Thus, if you hold your shares in street name and you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote in the Election of Directors, no votes will be cast on your behalf. Your bank, broker or other nominee will, however, continue to have discretion to vote any uninstructed shares on the ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm (Proposal 2).

Revocation of Proxies

Any proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted at the Annual Meeting. A shareholder may revoke a proxy by submitting a proxy bearing a later date or by notifying the Secretary of IEH either in writing prior to the Annual Meeting or in person at the Annual Meeting. Revocation is effective only upon receipt of such notice by the Secretary of IEH. Shareholders who hold their shares through a broker, bank or other nominee and wish to vote at the Annual Meeting must bring to the meeting a letter from the broker, bank or other nominee confirming their beneficial ownership of the shares to be voted.

Solicitation of Proxies

IEH will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may use the services of its executive officers and certain directors to solicit proxies from shareholders in person and by mail, telegram and telephone. Arrangements may also be made with brokers, fiduciaries, custodians and nominees to send proxies, proxy statements and other material to the beneficial owners of IEH's Common Stock held of record by such persons, and IEH may reimburse them for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in so doing. Rules adopted by the SEC allow companies to send shareholders a notice of Internet availability of proxy materials, rather than mail them full sets of proxy materials. This year, we chose to mail full packages of materials to our shareholders. However, in the future we may take advantage of this new distribution option. If, in the future, we choose to send such notices, they would contain instructions on how shareholders can access our notice of annual meeting and proxy statement via the Internet. It would also contain instructions on how shareholders could request to receive their materials electronically or in printed form on a one-time or ongoing basis. For this year's Annual Meeting, the Company does not offer voting by telephone or via the Internet.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The recommendations of our Board of Directors are set forth in the description of the matters to be acted on in this proxy statement. In summary, our Board of Directors recommends a vote:

- FOR election of the one (1) nominee for Class I Director (See Proposal 1); and
- FOR the ratification of Jerome Rosenberg CPA, P.C. as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2013 (See Proposal 2).

With respect to any other matter that properly comes before the Annual Meeting, including any motion to adjourn the Annual Meeting, the proxy holders will vote as recommended by the Board of Directors or, if no recommendation is given, they will vote in their own discretion. If you sign and return your proxy card but do not specify how you want to vote your shares, the persons named as proxy holders on the proxy card will vote in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THESE PROXY MATERIALS

Why am I receiving this proxy statement?

This proxy statement describes the proposal on which our Board of Directors of IEH Corporation would like you, as a shareholder, to vote at the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of the Company, which will take place on Tuesday, November 13, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. at the Company's offices. It also gives you information on this proposal so that you can make an informed decision. We intend to mail this proxy statement and accompanying proxy card on or about October 9, 2012 to all shareholders of record entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting as of Thursday, October 4, 2012, the Record Date.

In this proxy statement, we refer to IEH Corporation as "IEH," the "Company," "we," "us" or "our."

Who can vote at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders?

Shareholders who owned shares of Common Stock on Thursday, October 4, 2012, the Record Date, may attend and vote at the Annual Meeting. Each share is entitled to one vote. There were 2,303,468 shares of the Company's Common Stock outstanding on Thursday, October 4, 2012. All shares of Common Stock shall vote together as a single class. Information about the shareholdings of our directors and executive officers is contained in the section of this proxy statement entitled “Voting Securities and Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management” on pages 21 through 22 of this proxy statement.

What is the proxy card?

The proxy card enables you to appoint Michael Offerman, our President and Chief Executive Officer, and Robert Knoth, our Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, as your representatives at the Annual Meeting. By completing and returning the proxy card, you are authorizing each of these persons to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card. This way, your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the Annual Meeting. Even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, it is a good idea to complete and return your proxy card before the Annual Meeting date just in case your plans change. If a proposal comes up for vote at the Annual Meeting that is not on the proxy card, the proxies will vote your shares, under your proxy, according to their best judgment.

Table of Contents

What am I voting on?

At the Annual Meeting you are being asked to vote on three (3) specific items as follows:

First, the election of Michael Offerman as a Class I Director on the Board of Directors of IEH. Mr. Offerman is currently a Director of the Company.

Second, at the Annual Meeting you are also being asked to ratify Jerome Rosenberg CPA, P.C. as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending March 30, 2013.

We are unaware of any other possible business to be addressed at the Annual Meeting; however, we will also transact any other business that properly comes before the Annual Meeting in accordance with our By-Laws.

How does the Board of Directors recommend that I vote?

Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR election of the nominee for Class I Directors (See Proposal 1).

Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR the ratification of Jerome Rosenberg CPA, P.C. as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2013 (See Proposal 2).

With respect to any other matter that properly comes before the Annual Meeting, the proxy holders (Michael Offerman and Robert Knoth) will vote as recommended by the Board of Directors, or if no recommendation is given, they will vote in their own discretion. If you sign and return your proxy card but do not specify how you want to vote your shares, the persons named as proxy holders on the proxy card will vote in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors.

What is the difference between holding shares as a shareholder of record and as a beneficial owner?

Most of our shareholders hold their shares beneficially in an account at a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee holder, rather than holding share certificates in their own name. As summarized below, there are some distinctions between shares held record and those owned beneficially.

Shareholder of Record

If on Thursday, October 4, 2012, the Record Date, your shares were registered directly in your name with our transfer agent, Registrar and Transfer Company, you are a shareholder of record who may vote at the Annual Meeting, and we are sending these proxy materials directly to you. As the shareholder of record, you have the right to direct the voting of your shares by returning the enclosed proxy card to us or to vote in person at the Annual Meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, please complete, date and sign the enclosed proxy card to ensure that your vote is counted.

Beneficial Owner

If on Thursday, October 4, 2012, the Record Date, your shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm or at a bank or other nominee holder, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held “in street name,” and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker, bank or other nominee holder who is considered the shareholder of record for purposes of voting at the Annual Meeting. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares and to attend the Annual Meeting. If your shares are registered in the name of a bank, other nominee holder or brokerage firm you will receive instructions from your holder of record that must be followed in order for the record holder to vote the shares per your instructions. If you provide specific voting instructions your shares will be voted as you instruct. If you sign but do not provide instructions, your shares will be voted as described below. Many banks and brokerage firms have a process for their beneficial holders to provide instructions over the phone or via the Internet. If Internet or telephone voting is unavailable from your bank or brokerage firm, please complete and return the enclosed voting instruction card in the addressed, postage paid envelope provided. If you hold your shares “in street name” through a broker, bank or other nominee holder, then the broker, bank or other nominee holder who holds your shares has the authority under the applicable stock exchange rules to vote on certain items when they have not received instructions from you. If you hold your shares “in street name” it is critical that you cast your vote, if you want it to count in the election of directors (Proposal 1). In the prior years, if you held your shares “in street name” and you did not indicate how you wanted your shares voted in the election of directors, your bank, broker or other nominee was allowed to vote your shares on your behalf in the election of directors as they felt appropriate. Recent changes in regulation were made to take away the ability of your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your uninstructed shares in the election of directors on a discretionary basis. Thus, if you hold your shares “in street name” and you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote in the election of directors, no votes will be cast on your behalf. Your bank, broker or other nominee will, however, continue to have discretion to vote your uninstructed shares on the ratification of the appointment of the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm (Proposal 2). If you are a beneficial owner, please complete the voting instruction card and return it as instructed to your brokerage firm, bank or other nominee holder so your shares of Common Stock will be counted toward a quorum and voted at the Annual Meeting.

How do I vote?

There are two methods to vote at the Annual Meeting – either by mail or by attending the meeting in person. The Company does not offer voting by telephone or via the Internet.

- (1) You may vote by mail.

You may vote by mail by completing, signing and dating your proxy card and returning it in the enclosed, postage-paid and addressed envelope. If you mark your voting instructions on the proxy card, your shares will be voted:

as you instruct, and according to the best judgment of Messrs. Offerman or Knoth if a proposal comes up for a vote at the Annual Meeting that is not on the proxy card.

If you return a signed card, but do not provide voting instructions, your shares will be voted:

· to approve the election of the nominated persons as a Class I Director to the Company's Board of Directors; to ratify the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending March 30, 2013; and according to the best judgment of Messrs. Offerman and Knoth if a proposal comes up for a vote at the Annual Meeting that is not on the proxy card.

Table of Contents

(2) You may vote in person at the Annual Meeting.

We will pass out written ballots to anyone who wants to vote at the Annual Meeting. However, if you hold your shares in street name, you must bring to the Annual Meeting a valid proxy from the broker, bank or other nominee holding your shares that confirms your beneficial ownership of the shares and gives you the right to vote your shares. Holding shares in street name means you hold them through a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee, and therefore the shares are not held in your individual name. We encourage you to examine your proxy card closely to make sure you are voting all of your shares in the Company.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

You may have multiple accounts at the transfer agent and/or with stockbrokers. Please sign and return all proxy cards to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

What if I change my mind after I return my proxy?

You may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the polls close at the Annual Meeting. You may do this by:

- sending a written notice to the Secretary of the Company, Mr. Robert Knoth, stating that you would like to revoke your proxy of a particular date; and
- signing another proxy card with a later date and returning it before the polls close at the Annual Meeting, or attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Please note, however, that if your shares are held of record by a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee, you must instruct your broker, bank or other nominee that you wish to change your vote by following the procedures on the voting form provided to you by the broker, bank or other nominee. If your shares are held in street name, and you wish to attend the Annual Meeting and vote at the Annual Meeting, you must bring to the Annual Meeting a legal proxy from the broker, bank or other nominee holding your shares, confirming your beneficial ownership of the shares and giving you the right to vote your shares.

Will my shares be voted if I do not sign and return my proxy card?

If your shares are held in street name or in your name and you do not sign and return your proxy card, your shares will not be voted unless you vote in person at the Annual Meeting. Therefore, we urge you to fully execute your proxy card and return it so your vote will be counted.

How are votes counted?

You may vote “For” or “Withhold Authority” on electing nominated persons to be Class I Director on the Board of Directors (Proposal 1), and “For” or “Against” or “Abstain” with respect to the ratification of Jerome Rosenberg CPA, P.C., as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal year 2013 (Proposal 2).

How many shareholders are needed either in person or by proxy to hold the Annual Meeting?

To hold the Annual Meeting and conduct business, a majority of the Company’s outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote, in person or represented by proxy, must be present at the Annual Meeting. This is called a quorum.

Shares are counted as present at the Annual Meeting if the shareholder either:

is present and votes in person at the Annual Meeting, or has properly submitted a proxy card.

How many votes are required to elect the nominated person to be a Class I Director on the Board of Directors?

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting of the shareholders by the holders of shares of Common Stock entitled to vote in the election is required to elect each director.

How many votes are required to approve other matters that may come before the shareholders at the Annual Meeting?

An affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required for approval of all other items being submitted to the shareholders for their consideration.

What happens if I don't indicate how to vote my proxy?

If you just sign your proxy card without providing further instructions, your shares will be counted as a “FOR” vote for the election of the person nominated to be Class I Director. Your shares will also be counted as a “FOR” vote to ratify the appointment of the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending March 29, 2013.

Is my vote kept confidential?

Proxies, ballots and voting tabulations identifying shareholders are kept confidential and will not be disclosed except as may be necessary to meet legal requirements.

Where do I find the voting results of the Annual Meeting?

We will announce preliminary voting results at the Annual Meeting. We will also publish the final results in our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter following the results of the voting on this matter. We will file that report with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), and you can obtain a copy by calling the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330 for the location of the nearest public reference room, or through the EDGAR system at www.sec.gov.

Who can help answer my questions?

You can contact our corporate headquarters at (718) 492-4440 or by sending to Mr. Robert Knoth at 140 58th Street, Bldg. B, Suite 8E, Brooklyn, New York 11220, any questions about proposals described in this proxy statement or how to execute your vote.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Board Structure and Nominees

IEH's Certificate of Incorporation provides that the directors of IEH are to be elected in two (2) classes; each class to be elected to a staggered two (2) year term and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The Board of Directors currently consists of three (3) members divided into two (2) classes with one Class I Member and two Class II Members. Mr. Murray Sennet, formerly a Member of Class I, no longer serves on the Board of Directors. Mr. Sennet resigned from the Board effective September 1, 2011. The Bylaws of IEH provide that the Board shall consist of between three and eleven persons, and the Board has currently set the number of persons on the Board at four (4) members. One vacancy exists on the Board which has not yet been filled.

The person nominated for election to IEH's Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting is Michael Offerman who will serve, if elected, as Class I Director of the Board. The nominee currently serves on the Board of Directors. We have a vacancy in the Class I Directors as a result of the resignation by Mr. Sennet and will continue to have a vacancy after the Annual Meeting.

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at a meeting of the shareholders by the holders of shares of Common Stock entitled to vote in the election is required to elect each Director. All proxies received by the Board of Directors will be voted for the election as Directors of the nominees as indicated below if no direction to the contrary is given. In the event that either nominee is unable to serve, the proxy solicited hereby may be voted, in the discretion of the holder of the proxy, for the election of another person in his stead. The Board of Directors knows of no reason to anticipate this will occur. No family relationships exist between any Director or nominee for election as a Director.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTOR RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" THE ONE (1) NOMINEE FOR CLASS I DIRECTOR AS DESCRIBED IN THIS PROPOSAL 1.

The following table sets forth certain information as of the date hereof with respect to all of the Directors of IEH, including the one (1) nominee for election as Class I Director to IEH's Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting. The information provided below indicates the Directors whose terms of office expire at the Annual Meeting and the Directors whose term of office expires in 2013. The Director whose term of office expires at the Annual Meeting is the person nominated to be a Class I Director for election at the Annual Meeting.

Board Committees and Compensation, Board Meetings, and Director Independence

Our Board of Directors currently consists of three individuals. We believe that two (2) of our directors, Allen Gottlieb and Gerald Chafetz, would both qualify as "independent directors" within the meaning of the term as applied by the Nasdaq Stock Market Rule 4200(a)(15). Our shares of Common Stock are not listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market.

Since the Board of Directors has historically and will in the immediate future consist of only a small number of directors, we have not formed any Board committees. All matters relating to audit, compensation, nominations and corporate governance are considered and acted upon by our Board of Directors. Each Director receives an annual fee of $2,000 for serving as a member of the Board of Directors each fiscal year.

During the fiscal year ended March 30, 2012, the Board of Directors held one meeting by telephone conference call. All Directors participated in such meeting of the Board. In addition, during the fiscal year ended March 30, 2012, the Board of Directors took action by unanimous written consent on two occasions.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

The Board does not have a Compensation Committee. There are no interlocks between our Directors and Directors of other companies.

Audit Committee and Audit Committee Financial Expert

We do not have an Audit Committee of the Board. Because of our small size of operations and because our shares of Common Stock are not traded on an exchange or on the Nasdaq Stock Markets, we are not required by law or applicable regulations to have an Audit Committee. The Board of Directors acts as a whole with respect to matters which might otherwise be acted upon by an Audit Committee. Further, as a result of our financial condition, and limited financial resources to obtain directors' and officers' insurance and to provide financial incentives to Board members, we have been unable to attract other qualified persons to serve on our Board.

Nominations to the Board of Directors

Given the small size of our operations, and our lack of financial resources, we do not have a separate Nominating Committee of our Board of Directors. As a result, our Board acts as a whole with respect to the consideration of additional candidates for service on the Board. The Board considers candidates for election to our Board of Directors, whether recommended by security holders or otherwise, in accordance with the following criteria, applicable to all candidates:

Nominees shall have a reputation for integrity, honesty and adherence to high ethical standards.

Nominees should have demonstrated business acumen, experience and the ability to exercise sound judgment in matters that relate to current and long-term objectives of IEH and should be willing and able to contribute positively to our decision-making process.

Nominees should have a commitment to understand IEH and its industries and to regularly attend and participate in meetings of the Board and its committees.

Nominees should have the interest and ability to understand the sometimes conflicting interests of the various constituencies of IEH, which include shareholders, employees, customers, governmental units, creditors and the general public, and to act in the interests of all shareholders.

Nominees should not have, nor appear to have, a conflict of interest that would impair the nominees' ability to represent the interests of all of IEH shareholders and to fulfill the responsibilities of a director.

Nominees shall not be discriminated against on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sex, disability or any other basis proscribed by applicable law.

The renomination of existing directors is not viewed as automatic, but is based on continuing qualification under the criteria set forth above. In addition, the Board considers the existing directors' performance on the Board and any committee thereof. The Board also considers the backgrounds and qualifications of the directors considered as a group and our ability to attract other persons to serve in light of our industry, financial condition and financial resources. The Board desires to ensure that the Board, when taken as a whole, should provide a significant breadth of experience, knowledge and abilities that shall assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities. The one person standing for election at the Annual Meeting is being renominated by the Company.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Except as disclosed herein, we have not entered into any material transactions or series of similar transactions with any director, executive officer or any security holder owning 5% or more of our Common Stock. For information concerning employment agreements with, and compensation of, our executive officers and directors, see the disclosure in the section of this proxy statement captioned "Executive Compensation and Related Information."

Messrs Gottlieb and Chafetz are deemed independent directors of the Company.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

The SEC has approved a rule governing the delivery of disclosure documents. This rule allows us to send a single copy of this proxy statement to any household at which two or more of our shareholders reside, if we believe that the shareholders are members of the same family. Some banks, brokers and other intermediaries may be participating in this practice of "householding" proxy statements and annual reports. This rule benefits both the Company and its shareholders as it reduces the volume of duplicate information received at a shareholder's house and helps reduce our expenses. Each shareholder, however, will continue to receive individual proxy cards or voting instructions forms. Shareholders that have previously received a single set of disclosure documents may request their own copy by contacting their bank, broker or other nominee record holder. We will also deliver a separate copy of this proxy statement to any shareholder upon written request to Corporate Secretary, IEH Corporation, 140 58th Street, Suite 8E, Brooklyn, New York 11220.

Presentation at Meeting. Rule 14a-4(c) under the Exchange Act provides that if a proponent of a proposal fails to notify us at the address below at least 45 days prior to the month and day of mailing of the prior year's proxy statement (or any date specified in an advance notice provision), then the management proxy holders will be allowed to use their discretionary voting authority with respect to the voting of proxies when the proposal is presented at the meeting, without any discussion of the matter in the proxy statement. With respect to our 2013 annual meeting of shareholders, if we are not provided notice of a stockholder proposal, which the shareholder has not previously sought to include in our proxy statement, by August 22, 2013, the management proxy holders will be allowed to use their discretionary authority with respect to the voting of proxies.
