Recent Developments

Star Beta

On February 10, 2009, the Company entered into a 13 to 15 month time charter agreement for the Star Beta at a gross daily rate of $32,500. The vessel is expected to be delivered to the new charterer in February 2009.

Covenant Waivers

The Company has reached agreements in principle with its lenders to obtain waivers for certain covenants including minimum asset coverage covenants contained in its loan agreements. The related terms are described below.

With respect to the $120.0 million facility, the lender will waive the loan-to-value ratio covenant through January 31, 2010. The Company will provide a first preferred mortgage on the currently debt-free vessel Star Alpha and pledge an account containing $6.0 million as further security for this facility.

With respect to the $150.0 million facility, the lenders will waive the security cover requirement through February 28, 2010, and the minimum asset coverage ratio for the year 2010 will be reduced to 110% from 125%. The Company will provide first preferred mortgages on the currently debt-free vessels Star Kappa and Star Ypsilon and will pledge an account containing $9.0 million as further security for this facility.

With respect to the $35.0 million facility, the lender will waive the security cover requirement through February 28, 2010, and the minimum asset coverage ratio for the year 2010 will be reduced to 110% from 125%. The Company will pledge an account containing $5.0 million as further security for this facility.

Under the terms of the above referenced agreements, the Company's dividends and share repurchases are being suspended and the interest spread for each of the above loans will be adjusted to 2% per annum for the duration of the respective waiver period.

The above agreements require final approval by the credit committees of the respective lenders.
