Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(e) Effective January 1, 2015, Heartland Financial USA, Inc. (the “Company”) is entering into new Change of Control Agreements with certain of its executive officers, including Lynn B. Fuller, its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer; Bruce K. Lee, its new President; Bryan R. McKeag, its Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer; Kenneth J. Erickson, its Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer; Douglas J. Horstmann, its Executive Vice President, Lending; and Brian J. Fox, its Executive Vice President, Operations. The new agreements replace agreements previously in place with each officer other than Mr. Lee. The new agreements update matters relating to the tax consequences, eliminate certain noncompetition, confidentiality, and intellectual assignment provisions which were redundant with other agreements and require severance payments, similar to payments in the original agreements, if the executive is terminated, or resigns for good reason, within 6 months prior to, or within 24 months after, a change of control. Severance payments will also be paid in one lump sum instead of 12 monthly payments. Like the original agreements, the severance payments range from one to two times the executive’s base compensation, which is defined to include the executive’s salary, plus the average of the three most recent bonuses received by the executive. The new agreements remove the average of the three most recent contributions made by the Company on behalf of the employee to the Company’s tax-qualified retirement plans from severance payments. The agreements also provide for continuation of medical and dental benefits during the COBRA period. For purposes of the agreements a change of control is defined to include acquisition by a person of 51% or more of the voting power of the Company’s securities, a change in fifty percent of the directors of the Company other than to persons nominated by the board, or a merger or business combination where holders of the voting securities of the Company prior to the transaction hold fewer than 51% of the voting securities after the transaction. Good reason is defined to include material diminution in duties, material reduction in compensation, relocation of the office of the executive by more than 50 miles, and a material breach by the Company of its obligations under the agreement. Severance benefits under the agreement are reduced if they would exceed the limits set forth in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.
