Dear (Last Name):

John Bryson, Chairman, President and CEO of Edison International recently wrote to you regarding shareholder rights plan. I would once again like to urge you to carefully consider the recommendation of the Board of Directors to vote against the proposal.

I would like to briefly summarize for you our current business environment, and review some aspects with a specific focus on some key positive factors.

Business Environment

As stated in our proxy statement, Edison International has experienced the adverse effects of an energy crisis in California. We've worked hard to weather these difficult times and restore value for our shareholders. This process is not yet complete, but substantial progress has been achieved.

Despite the difficult environment, Southern California Edison Company:

- o Reached a settlement agreement with the CPUC in October 2001.
- o Established a recovery mechanism - progress to date $3.0 billion of total $3.6 billion. mid-year.
- o Paid all past due debts.
- o Achieved important steps to provide the revenues necessary to support both our distribution and utility businesses including revenues for returns on the capital shareholders invest in us.
- o Took back our responsibility to procure power for our customers on January 1 of this year.

Shareholder Rights Plan

We would like to point out the following key positive aspects of our plan:

- o Only takeover offers for 20% or more of EIX common stock will trigger the plan. Most co

- o No "dead hand" provisions which would allow only certain directors in place at the time designated successors) to redeem the plan.
- o Plan expires in 2006.
