PART III--NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q of NN, Inc. (the "Company") for the period ended September 30, 2003 could not be filed on a timely basis without unreasonable effort or expense in light of the circumstances described below.

In December 2002 the Company bought the minority interest of a shareholder in the Company's majority-owned subsidiary NN Euroball ApS and in June 2003 the Company bought the remaining minority interest in the same subsidiary from the other minority shareholder. Upon the advice of KPMG LLP ("KPMG"), the Company's then auditors, these transactions were reported in the Company's financial statements in its Form 10-K for the 2002 fiscal year and its Form 10-Q for the 2003 second fiscal quarter, respectively, as "Gain on purchase of minority interest." In August of 2003, the Company transitioned its audit services from KPMG to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC"). Following this transition, PwC has advised the Company that PwC may not agree with the position advised by KPMG regarding the accounting treatment of these two non-operating, non-recurring transactions. PwC has informed the Company that it has not completed its review of the Company's Form 10-Q for the 2003 third fiscal quarter because it needs additional information from KPMG in order to determine whether it can agree with KPMG's approach. The two accounting firms are presently working to resolve this issue. Until they do so, the Company is not able to file its third quarter 2003 Form 10-Q.
