State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed by the Registrant, the Registrant's subsidiary, MorAmerica Capital Corporation ("MorAmerica Capital"), is a defendant in arbitration proceedings involving the sale by MorAmerica Capital and certain other individuals and institutional investors of their respective interests in a former portfolio company. The Registrant's consolidated financial statements include a loss contingency associated with these arbitration proceedings. Since the end of the Registrant's fiscal year 2004, a number of material developments have occurred and are ongoing with respect to the arbitration proceedings. Generally accepted accounting principles require the Registrant to consider the effects, if any, of these subsequent developments in the treatment of the loss contingency in its financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2004. Because the final resolution of these developments may have a material effect on the Registrant's fiscal year 2004 consolidated financial statements, the Registrant is unable to complete its financial statements prior to the resolution of these developments, which is expected to occur within the next few business days.
