Extension of Trust's Term

On September 26, 2014, the term of the MACC PEI Liquidating Trust (the "Trust") was extended by the initial and current managing trustee, NL Strategies, Inc., a California corporation, of the Trust (the "Managing Trustee") to December 31, 2015, with the possibility that the term of the Trust may be extended further if deemed reasonably necessary to wind up the affairs of the Trust by the Managing Trustee. This extension was made pursuant to Section 4.1 of the Trust's Liquidating Trust Agreement dated September 29, 2011, by and among MACC Private Equities, Inc., a Delaware corporation, the Managing Trustee, and The Corporation Trust Company of Delaware, a Delaware corporation, which permits the Managing Trustee to extend the term of the Trust if the Managing Trustee determines that an extension is reasonably necessary to wind up the affairs of the Trust.

No Action relief has been requested from the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") to confirm that the Division of Corporate Finance will continue to not recommend any enforcement action to the SEC with the Trust's extension to December 31, 2015, although the Trust does not (i) register the Beneficial Interests under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (ii) qualify the Trust Units under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended, or (iii) register as an investment company or elect treatment as a BDC under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended; and provided the Trust complies with the conditions of the prior no-action relief, including limited reporting under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, as contemplated above.
