Item 1. Description of Business

General

Sel-Leb Marketing, Inc. was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York

Edgar Filing: SEL-LEB MARKETING INC - Form 10KSB

in September 1993. The Company is primarily engaged in the distribution and marketing of consumer merchandise to retail sellers such as mass merchandisers, discount chain stores and food, drug and electronic retailers. The Company's business presently consists of the following activities: (i) developing, marketing and selling the Company's own proprietary brands of budget-line health, beauty aid and cosmetic products, which are filled for the Company by contract fillers, (ii) opportunistic purchasing and secondary sourcing (i.e., distributing merchandise on a wholesale basis outside of normal distribution channels to retail merchants) of a broad range of name-brand and off-brand products such as health and beauty aids, cosmetics, fragrances, kitchen items and other household items, and (iii) developing, marketing and selling, or otherwise facilitating the development, marketing or sale of, products to be promoted by celebrity spokespersons and sold to mass merchandise retailers. The Company's strategy is to capitalize on increased consumer demand for value and convenience resulting from the increased acceptance by consumers of mass merchandisers, electronic retailers and other mass marketing retail outlets, as well as on the popularity of consumer products endorsed by celebrity spokespersons.

In September 1997, the Company and RBCJJ Associates, LLC ("RBCJJ"), an unaffiliated third party, formed Ales Signature, Ltd., a New York corporation ("Ales"), for the purpose of acquiring from SBC Corporation, Inc. ("SBC") a line of women's cosmetic, corrective and treatment products (e.g., blemish creams and eye creams) sold under the Signature(TM) name. The Company owns 80% of Ales Signature, Ltd. The Company, in connection with the acquisition, acquired rights to the following trademarks: (i) all rights of SBC in and to certain trademarks (including the Signature Solutions(R) mark and the Signature Beauty Care(R), Lip Set(R) and Salon Essence(R) registered trademarks) and (ii) finished products and other inventory (including works in progress and component parts) related to the product lines bearing the acquired trademarks. Unless otherwise specified herein, references to the "Company" shall refer collectively to Sel-Leb Marketing, Inc. and its subsidiary Ales Signature, Ltd.

SALE OF PROPRIETARY BRAND NAME PRODUCTS. The Company is currently engaged in the development, marketing and sale of its own proprietary brand name budget-line health, beauty aid and cosmetic products. The Company's beauty aid and cosmetic products include budget-line lipsticks, lip pencils, nail polishes and eye pencils, which are manufactured in a variety of colors and are sold under the Linette(R), Loud Music(R), Ghoul Tools(R), Quick Thang(R), Loud Sticks(TM), Signature Solutions(R) and Signature Beauty Care(R) brand names to retail chains and other mass merchandisers located throughout the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico. All of the Company's proprietary beauty aid and cosmetic products are manufactured and supplied by third parties in accordance with the Company's specifications. The Company purchases all materials for these products (including raw materials and packaging) through individually placed purchase orders to various suppliers. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, no supplier accounted for 10% or more of such purchases. The Company has credit arrangements with suppliers that allow it to purchase merchandise on credit with payment generally due 30 days after purchase. To date, the Company has not experienced any shortages of or difficulties in obtaining the raw materials used in its products or the materials used for the packaging of its products. Furthermore, the Company believes that alternate sources of supply for such materials are readily available and that the loss of any one of its suppliers would not have a material adverse effect. The Company believes that it has good relationships with the suppliers of raw materials and packaging for its proprietary products.

Edgar Filing: SEL-LEB MARKETING INC - Form 10KSB

Typically, materials purchased by the Company for its proprietary beauty aid and cosmetic products are delivered by the suppliers to the Company's warehouse facilities. The Company thereafter, delivers such materials, on an as-needed basis, to its contract fillers, which are engaged by the Company to provide filling services and perform quality control with respect to the finished products. During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, no such contract filler accounted for 10% or more of the Company's filling services. All products are filled pursuant to the Company's specifications on a purchase order basis. Once completed, the products are delivered to the Company, which packages the products and distributes the finished products to its customers. Although the Company believes that its contract fillers have the capacity to produce volumes of the Company's products sufficient to meet the Company's foreseeable needs, there can be no assurance of such. Furthermore, although the Company believes that it has a good relationship with its contract fillers and that the Company will continue to obtain its finished beauty aid and cosmetic products from such fillers in the foreseeable future, the Company does not have written contracts with any of these fillers and there can therefore be no assurance of such. In the event the Company were to experience difficulties with or the loss of services of its present fillers, the Company believes that it would be able to retain the services of other fillers; however, there can be no assurance that such services could be retained on a timely basis or on terms as favorable as those with its present fillers.

As part of the Company's strategy of taking advantage of the growth in mass merchandising and value retailing, the Company will seek to expand its existing proprietary brand name product lines as well as continue to introduce new brand name products, thereby providing the Company with a supply of products and making the Company less reliant on third party and/or opportunistic sources of merchandise. The Company may also seek to acquire rights to additional proprietary product lines through licensing or other arrangements, although there can be no assurance of such.

OPPORTUNISTIC PURCHASING AND SECONDARY SOURCING ACTIVITIES. The Company acts as a secondary sourcer of a broad range of name-brand and off-brand merchandise, including health and beauty aids, cosmetics, fragrances, kitchen items and other household products. The Company acquires its merchandise either directly from consumer goods manufacturers or from wholesalers, retailers, financially distressed businesses, duty-free distributors and other secondary sources located in the United States and, to a very limited extent, in Europe, and sells the merchandise to retail chains and other mass merchandisers located throughout the United States. During the year ended December 31, 2000, the Company purchased merchandise from over 50 different suppliers and sold the merchandise to over 30 different retailers, including, among others, BJ's Wholesale Club and Rite Aid, which accounted for approximately 14% and 9%, respectively, of the Company's net opportunistic sales in 2000. The Company believes that its longstanding relationships with many of its suppliers and customers are important to the secondary sourcing activities of the Company, and that its relationship with its suppliers and customers are good.

In connection with its distribution activities, the Company has the ability to repackage merchandise acquired by it or to provide other value-added services at the request of a retailing customer. For example, if the Company were to acquire merchandise which had been packaged by the manufacturer as a four-pack item (i.e., four items to the package), the Company could, if requested by the retailer, repackage the item as a ten-pack item prior to delivery of the merchandise to the customer. Likewise, at a customer's request, the Company has the ability to package several different items together to create a gift or bonus package. The Company believes that its ability to provide such value-added services allows it to service the ongoing needs of its customers and to enhance its sales and customer relations.

Because the Company focuses on the opportunistic acquisition of merchandise such as purchases of closed-out, overstocked and/or change-of-packaging brand name items, the Company is generally able to purchase such merchandise at a discount below wholesale cost. The Company then sells the merchandise to discount retailers and other mass merchandisers who seek to purchase products at discount prices in order to supplement their normal inventory purchases or for special promotions. The merchandise is sold at prices that are above the Company's cost, although at prices that are still generally below wholesale. Although the Company typically purchases merchandise before it has located customers for such merchandise, it has sold substantially all merchandise acquired by it in each of the last three fiscal years.

The Company purchases the name-brand and off-brand merchandise which it sells to retailers from over 50 suppliers, including consumer goods manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, financially distressed businesses, duty-free distributors and other secondary sources. The Company is continually seeking to locate new sources of merchandise. Generally, the Company will be contacted by a manufacturer or other supplier when such supplier has excess merchandise that is available for resale through the secondary market; alternatively, the Company will also contact a supplier if it becomes aware that the supplier has merchandise which it desires to sell. Although certain suppliers may have provided a majority or all of a particular type of product or particular category of merchandise, no supplier accounted for more than 10% of the Company's total opportunistic merchandise purchases for the year ended December 31, 2000. During the year ended December 31, 2000, substantially all of the Company's secondary sourcing merchandise was purchased from domestic suppliers. The Company believes that the loss of any one of its suppliers would not have a material adverse effect on the Company and that alternative sources of merchandise are readily available in all existing product categories as well as additional product categories.

All merchandise is purchased by the Company from its suppliers through individually placed purchase orders. The Company does not have any contractual relationships with any of its suppliers and depends, instead, on its ongoing relationships and prior dealings with such suppliers to obtain merchandise at favorable prices when it becomes available to secondary suppliers. The Company believes that such ongoing relationships with its suppliers have resulted from its prior dealings with such suppliers, in many cases over a period of years, and its reliability and strength as a customer. Several of the Company's principals have been involved in the opportunistic purchasing business for more than 20 years and have developed many on-going contacts with suppliers.

Currently, all purchasing and pricing decisions with respect to the Company's opportunistic purchasing activities are made by Paul Sharp, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, and Jorge Lazaro, the Company's Executive Vice President, who locate sources of merchandise and determine whether any given product will be suitable for wholesale distribution to mass merchandise retailers or other customers. Generally, the Company believes that it has the ability to sell all merchandise that is acquired by it. The Company has credit arrangements with substantially all of its existing suppliers, thereby allowing the Company to purchase merchandise on account. Generally, such credit arrangements allow the Company to purchase merchandise with payment generally due 30 days after the purchase. However, in certain cases the Company purchases merchandise with payment made upon the receipt of goods in order to enable the Company to obtain favorable prices.

The Company also acts as a wholesale distributor of prestige, designer fragrances. Historically, manufacturers of such fragrances have sold their products primarily to leading department stores. As a result, mass merchandisers have traditionally only been able to obtain such items from secondary sources such as the Company. Typically, the Company purchases these fragrances from other secondary sources such as export and import companies, duty-free distributors and department stores which are liquidating their excess inventory. Unlike other merchandise which is acquired by the Company at prices that are significantly below wholesale, the Company purchases the designer fragrances at above-wholesale prices (although still well below their normal retail price). The Company, in turn, sells such items to mass merchandisers. The Company believes that sales of such fragrances will continue to constitute a portion of its sales, although there can be no assurance of such.

The Company believes that a portion of the designer fragrances purchased by it may include trademarked products manufactured in foreign countries and trademarked products manufactured in the United States that may have been sold to foreign distributors. From time to time, United States trademark owners and their licensees and trade associations have initiated litigation or administrative agency proceedings seeking to halt the importation into the United States of such foreign manufactured or previously exported trademarked products. Although the Company is not currently the subject of any such legal or administrative actions, and is not aware of any such threatened legal or administrative actions, there can be no assurance that the Company's business activities will not become the subject of such actions in the future, or that future judicial, legislative or administrative agency action will not limit or eliminate some or all of the secondary sources of supply of prestige fragrances used by the Company. However, the Company believes that any future limitation on or elimination of its sources of supply for prestige fragrances for sale to its customers would not have a material adverse effect on the Company, although there can be no assurance of such.

DEVELOPMENT OF "CELEBRITY-ENDORSED" PRODUCTS. The Company believes that the increasing popularity of consumer products endorsed by celebrities may provide significant future opportunities for the Company. Accordingly, the Company is seeking to develop products for promotion by celebrity spokespersons which products would be sold by the Company to mass merchandising and electronic retailers. In this connection, the Company will seek to enter into agreements with celebrities for whom it believes it will be able to successfully develop products which will have consumer appeal.

In September 1996, the Company entered into an arrangement with ACI, Inc. ("ACI"), a developer and marketer of cosmetic products, relating to the distribution and marketing of products endorsed by celebrity spokespersons through electronic media and other retail channels. Pursuant to this arrangement, the Company provides the financing required in connection with developing, marketing and distributing the products to be promoted by such celebrities and sold in the retail market. All profits and losses (after giving effect to any royalty payments required to be made to celebrity spokespersons) resulting from the sale of such products are to be divided equally between the Company and ACI. To date, the Company has provided the financing for a line of cosmetics developed by ACI (including, without limitation, lipsticks, blushes and other beauty products) which are being promoted by a leading make-up artist and sold through the electronic media. The revenues generated by the Company's arrangement with ACI, Inc. accounted for approximately 23% of the Company's net sales in 2000. There can be no assurance that any other products will be developed by ACI and financed by the Company pursuant to this agreement or that any such products that are developed will meet with consumer acceptance or provide significant revenues for the Company.

In September 2000, the Company entered into a product promotion agreement with Z Metro, Inc. ("Metro, Inc."), pursuant to which Metro, Inc. agreed to provide to the Company the services of Zoe Metro, a jewelry and handbag designer, who is to assist in the design of, and endorse and promote, various products through electronic retailers. Under this agreement, Ms. Metro made an appearance on The Shop Channel in Japan in February 2001 and is scheduled to make an additional appearance in July 2001. In return for the grant to the Company of Ms. Metro's services and the use of certain trademarks and other rights, the Company is to pay to Metro, Inc. a specified percentage of net sales in accordance with the terms of the agreement. The agreement has an initial term of thirty months, subject to renewal or early termination under specified circumstances.

In October 2000, the Company entered into a license agreement with a recording artist and performer known under the stage name "Juliet", pursuant to which the Company obtained the exclusive right to use her name and likeness in connection with the manufacture, promotion and sale of cosmetics, beauty products and fragrances. Subject to the terms of the agreement, the Company is to pay specified royalties, sublicense fees and bonuses. The agreement has an initial term of five years, subject to renewal or early termination under specified circumstances.

Although the Company is seeking to develop the "celebrity-endorsed" product area of its business, including by marketing and distributing in the traditional retail market merchandise which is originally offered for sale on television or by developing products to be promoted by celebrities and sold directly in such traditional markets, there can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in its endeavors. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to continue to develop any new celebrity products or that any such products developed by the Company will meet with consumer acceptance. In addition, except as described above, as of the date hereof the Company has no agreements, understandings or commitments related to such plan of development.

Inventory

Merchandise acquired by the Company in connection with its opportunistic purchasing activities for resale to its mass market customers is generally shipped by the supplier to the Company's warehouse facility, which is located in Paterson, New Jersey, or, in certain situations, is shipped by the supplier directly to a customer from whom the Company has received a purchase order. The Company utilizes its Paterson facility for the centralized receipt of goods from suppliers, as well as the storage of inventory and the shipment of inventory to its customers. In addition, value-added services such as repackaging of goods are also performed at this facility.

Edgar Filing: SEL-LEB MARKETING INC - Form 10KSB

Typically, all raw materials purchased by the Company for its proprietary beauty aid and cosmetic products, are delivered to the Company's warehouse facility. Thereafter, the Company delivers such materials, on an as-needed basis, to its contract fillers, which provide filling services and perform quality control with respect to the finished products. Once completed, the products are delivered to the Company, which packages the products and distributes the finished goods from its warehouse to its customers.

Competition

The areas of business in which the Company engages are highly competitive. The Company believes that it competes with the following:

In the opportunistic purchasing area of its business, the Company competes with other secondary sourcers, as well as with wholesale distributors and retailers, with respect to its ability to obtain merchandise. In addition, with respect to sales of such merchandise to its customers, the Company competes with other secondary suppliers, as well as with manufacturers who sell directly to retail merchandisers. The Company believes that its ability to purchase a broad array of merchandise at competitive prices is critical to its success.

In connection with its sale of proprietary brand name products including the Linette(R), Quick Thang(R), Loud Sticks, Loud Music(R), Ghoul Tools(R), Signature Solutions(R) and Signature Beauty Care(R) products, the Company competes at the retail level with other manufacturers of budget-line health, beauty aid and cosmetic products for shelf space and promotional space.

In connection with its celebrity-endorsed products business, the Company competes with manufacturers and marketing organizations that seek out celebrities to endorse products and assist in marketing programs for their merchandise, as well as with celebrity agents who can negotiate directly with retailers in order to secure marketing contracts for the celebrities they represent. The Company believes that it will compete on the basis of its ability to design products which are consistent with celebrities' respective preferences and characters and to provide such products to retailers at competitive prices.

Many of the Company's existing or potential competitors are well established companies and have or will have substantially greater financial, marketing and other resources than the Company. The Company believes that it competes on the basis of value, product assortment and availability, service to customers and reputation, as well as on the basis of its long-standing and well established relationships with both its suppliers and customers. Although the Company believes that it will be able to compete effectively on the basis of such factors, there can be no assurance of such.

Trademark and Servicemark Protection

Products developed by the Company are sold under the Linette(R), Quick Thang(R), Loud Sticks(TM), Signature Solutions(R) and Signature Beauty Care(R) trademarks and the Loud Music(R) and Ghoul Tools(R) marks. The Company has registered the Linette(R), Loud Music(R) and Ghoul Tools(R) trademarks with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the "Trademark Office") and, in connection with the acquisition of the product lines from SBC, Ales acquired all of SBC's rights in and to the Signature Solutions(R) mark and the Signature Beauty Care(R), Groomer's Secret(R), Lip Set(R) and Salon Essence(R) trademarks. There can be no assurance that these marks do not or will not violate the proprietary rights of others, that such marks would be upheld if challenged or that the Company would not be prevented from using its trademarks.

Personnel

The Company currently employs approximately 19 full-time salaried employees and approximately 49 hourly employees (the exact number of which fluctuates from time to time based on the Company's needs). The terms of employment of the Company's hourly employees are governed by a collective bargaining agreement which commenced on September 1, 1997 and continues for a term of five years. Management believes that its employee relations are good.

Insurance

To date, no material product liability claims have been made against the Company; however, as a distributor of merchandise, including health and beauty aids, cosmetics, fragrances and household items, the Company could be exposed to possible liability claims from others for personal injury or property damage due to design or manufacturing defects or otherwise. The Company maintains a product liability insurance policy that has a $1,000,000 per occurrence limit and a $2,000,000 aggregate limit, and a $5,000,000 umbrella liability insurance policy to cover claims in excess of the limits of its product liability insurance. In addition, the Company believes that the suppliers from whom it purchases such merchandise, including the manufacturers thereof, maintain adequate levels of product liability insurance. The Company also maintains other insurance, including insurance relating to property and personal injury, which the Company believes is similar to that maintained by comparable businesses and in amounts which the Company currently considers adequate. The Company believes that its insurance coverage, including without limitation its product liability coverage, is adequate in light of prior experience and future expectations. Nevertheless, a partially or completely uninsured claim against the Company, if successful and of sufficient magnitude, could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Item 5. Market for Common Equity and Related Stockholder Matters

A. Market Information.

The shares of Common Stock of the Company commenced trading on the Nasdaq Small Capitalization Market under the symbol "SELB" on July 13, 1995. On or about April 27, 2001, as a result of the Company's delinquency in filing its Annual Report on Form 10-KSB, the fifth character "E" was appended to its trading symbol by Nasdaq. On April 25, 2001, the Company was notified by Nasdaq that because it did not file as required its Form 10-KSB for the period ended December 31, 2000, the Company's securities are subject to delisting from the Nasdaq Smallcap Market. A hearing has been scheduled for May 25, 2001. The Company was notified by Nasdaq on May 11, 2001 that in addition to the filing delinquency, the Company has failed to maintain a minimum $1.00 per share closing bid price for thirty consecutive trading days, as set forth in the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules. This additional issue will be considered at the Company's hearing with Nasdaq. There can be no assurance that the Company's securities will continue to be listed on Nasdaq. The range of high and low reported closing sales prices for the Common Stock as reported by Nasdaq during the fiscal years ended December 31, 1999 and 2000 were as follows:

B. Holders.

On May 10, 2001, as reported by the Company's transfer agent, shares of Common Stock were held by 44 persons, based on the number of record holders, including several holders who are nominees for an undetermined number of beneficial owners.

C. Dividends.

The Company did not pay any dividends during 1999 and 2000. The payment by the Company of dividends, if any, is within the discretion of the Board of Directors and will depend on the Company's earnings, if any, its capital requirements and financial condition, as well as other relevant factors. The Board of Directors does not intend to declare any dividends in the foreseeable future, but instead intends to retain earnings, if any, for use in the Company's business operations.

ITEM 6. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSIONS AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

The following discussion and analysis of the company's results of operations, liquidity and financial condition should be read in conjunction with the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company and related notes thereto. The Annual Report on Form 10-KSB contains certain forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, including but not limited to general trends in the retail industry, the ability of the Company to extend its financing arrangements (or obtain satisfactory alternative financing) on favorable terms, or at all, the ability of the Company to successfully implement its expansion plans, consumer acceptance of any products developed and sold by the Company, the ability of the Company to develop its "celebrity" product business, the ability of the company to sell its specially purchased merchandise at favorable prices, on a timely basis or at all, and other factors set forth herein or in reports and other documents filed by the Company with the SEC.

(A) The "Opportunity" segment of our business is comprised of the acquisition, sale and distribution of name-brand and off-brand products which are purchased from either manufacturers, wholesalers, or retailers as a result of close-outs, overstocks and/or change-of-packaging of name-brand items. The decrease in this segment of our business primarily resulted from a conscious decision to restrict sales, because of the Company's perception that there were severe credit issues and problems with several accounts.

- (B) The "Cosmetic" segment of our business is comprised of the acquisition, sale and distribution of all other products, including "celebrity endorsed" and "tie-in" cosmetics and health and beauty aid products and designer and all other fragrances. During the year ended December 31, 2000 this segment of our business increased primarily as a result of growth in the electronic media portion of our business as well as the successful continued introduction of new products and development of new customers.

- (C) Although our cost of sales for the "Opportunity" segment of our business decreased by approximately $2,500,000, the decrease was not in proportion to the decrease in the sales for this segment. For the year ended December 31, 2000 cost of sales for this segment was approximately 73% of sales as compared to 84% for the year ended December 31, 1999. Improved margins for this segment resulted primarily from the sale of specially purchased merchandise sold during the year at higher margins.
- (D) Cost of sales for the "Cosmetic" segment of our business was approximately 79% of sales for the year ended December 31, 2000 as compared to 60% for the year ended December 31, 1999. The decrease in margins for this segment of our business result primarily from the sale of slower moving merchandise at lower profit margins, based on the Company's decision to reduce certain inventory levels, and sales at lower than usual margins to customers with whom the Company is hopeful of doing significant business in the future.
- (E) Selling general and administrative expenses consist principally of payroll, rent, commissions, insurance, professional fees, and travel and promotional expenses. During the year ended December 31, 2000 we made a concerted effort to stabilize these costs and accordingly such expenses increased by only approximately 1%.
- (F) The increase in interest expense results primarily from additional borrowings under our credit facility during the year to fund our increase in inventory to meet anticipated sales.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At December 31, 2000 we had working capital of approximately $8,543,000 including cash and cash equivalents of approximately $214,000. Our cash and cash equivalents, at December 31, 2000 result primarily from our financing activities more fully discussed below.

During the year ended December 31, 2000 we used approximately $695,000 in our operations primarily to increase inventory by approximately $1,467,000 in order to meet anticipated sales demands and take advantage of an opportunity to make a significant purchase of specially priced merchandise. The use of cash and cash equivalents to increase inventory was offset by a net decrease in accounts receivable of approximately $787,000.

During the year ended December 31, 2000 we used approximately $46,000 for the acquisition of property and equipment.

As stated above, our cash and cash equivalent position of approximately $214,000

Edgar Filing: SEL-LEB MARKETING INC - Form 10KSB

at December 31, 2000 results primarily from our various financing activities. In December, 1998 we entered into a credit facility ("Facility") with Merrill Lynch Business Financial Services, Inc. ("Merrill Lynch"). As amended, the credit facility provides for the following:

- 1) A revolving line of credit with maximum borrowings of $4,350,000 against the Company's eligible accounts receivable and inventories through May 15, 2001. At December 31, 2000 we had $3,404,505 outstanding under the revolving line of credit, representing a net increase in our revolving line of credit of $456,149.
- 2) A $900,000 term loan originated in December 1998 payable in monthly installments of $10,714 plus interest through January 2006. This term loan had an outstanding balance of $642,857 as of December 31, 2000.
- 3) A $500,000 term loan originating in October 1999 payable in monthly installments of $8,333 plus interest through November 2004. This term loan had an outstanding balance of $391,667 as of December 31, 2000.
- 4) A $600,000 term loan originated in December 2000 payable in monthly installments of $50,000 plus interest through December 2001.

Each of the aforementioned loans with Merrill Lynch require interest to be paid monthly at 2.65% above the 30-day commercial paper rate (an effective rate of 9.2% at December 31, 2000).

In addition to the Merrill Lynch credit facility, on September 26, 1997 the Paterson Restoration Corporation provided us with a $100,000 term loan ("1997 loan") which bears interest at 6% and provides for monthly installments in the amount of $1,461 through October 1, 2004. On December 28, 1999 the Paterson Restoration Corporation provided us with an additional $100,000 term loan ("1999 loan") which bears interest at 6% and provides for monthly installments of $1,461 through December 1, 2006. As of December 31, 2000 $59,986 and $81,302 were outstanding under the 1997 loan and 1999 loan, respectively.

As of May 11, 2001, the outstanding balance under the Revolving Line of Credit was $4,152,082 and under the term loans, including the Paterson Restoration Corporation was $1,462,603.

Pursuant to the terms of the term loans, we made principal payments of $262,733 during the year ended December 31, 2000.

The Company anticipates that its working capital, together with anticipated cash flow from the Company's operations, will be sufficient to satisfy the Company's cash requirements for at least twelve months assuming that the Company's Facility is extended or adequate alternative financing arrangements are obtained by the Company. In the event the Company's plans change, due to unanticipated expenses or difficulties or otherwise, or if the working capital and projected cash flow otherwise are insufficient to fund operations or if the Company's Facility is not extended on satisfactory terms, the Company could be required to seek financing sooner than currently anticipated. Except for the Facility, which expires on May 15, 2001, and the term loans under the Facility, the Company has no current arrangements with respect to, or sources of, financing. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that financing will be available to the Company when needed, on commercially reasonable terms, or at all. The Company's inability to obtain adequate financing when needed could have a material adverse effect on the Company. In addition, any equity financing obtained by the Company could involve substantial dilution to the interests of the Company's stockholders. The Company believes that it will be able to extend the current Facility, although there can be no assurance of such.

The year 2000 issue did not pose significant operational problems to the Company. The costs of our year 2000 assessment were not significant.

the Company adjusted the exercise price of an additional 6,250 of such options to $2.00 per share, and on November 4, 1998, the Company adjusted the exercise price of 63,000 of such options to $3.75 per share. In addition, on November 4, 1998, the Company also adjusted to $3.25 per share the exercise price of the 12,500 options which had been repriced in July 1997 and, subsequent to the end of fiscal 1998, the Company adjusted the exercise price of such options to $2.00 per share. Mr. Koegel's agreement provides that, in the event the Company grants options, either under the Stock Option Plan or any other stock option plan adopted by the Company, to Messrs. Markowitz, Sharp, Mirsky and Lazaro during the term of Mr. Koegel's employment, Mr. Koegel shall be entitled to receive a proportionate amount of additional options on such terms as may be established by the Board of Directors.

SEVERANCE ARRANGEMENTS. Each of the employment agreements with Messrs. Markowitz, Sharp, Lazaro, Mirsky and Koegel provides that the employee's employment shall terminate (i) for "cause" (as defined in each of the respective agreements), (ii) by reason of the employee's disability, resignation or death, (iii) upon the expiration of the employment agreement in accordance with its terms or (iv) in the event the employee is no longer employed by the Company after a "Change of Control" (as defined below). Each of the agreements further provides that, in the event the employee's employment terminates for any reason (other than termination without cause or in connection with a Change of Control), the employee shall be entitled to receive his annual base salary, and any expense reimbursements, due and owing to him at the time of such termination. In the event the employee is terminated without cause, the employee shall be entitled to receive annual base salary and expense reimbursements then due and owing to him, as well as a lump-sum severance payment in an amount equal to his then annual base salary for the balance of the term of the employment agreement.

CHANGE OF CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS. Each of the employment agreements with Messrs. Markowitz, Sharp, Lazaro, Mirsky and Koegel provides that, in the event of a Change of Control of the Company, each such employee will be entitled to receive a lump-sum severance payment equal to three times his then annual base salary if he is discharged for any reason (other than for cause) or terminates his employment for "Good Reason" prior to the first anniversary of such Change of Control, and shall be entitled to receive a lump-sum payment equal to his then annual base salary if he voluntarily leaves the employ of the Company for reasons other than discharge or for Good Reason prior to the first anniversary of such Change of Control. As used in the employment agreements, the term "Change of Control" means (a) any transaction or series of transactions (including, without limitation, a tender offer, merger or consolidation) the result of which is that any "person" or "group" (within the meaning of Sections 13(d) and 14(d)(2) of the Exchange Act), other than Messrs. Markowitz, Sharp, Mirsky and Lazaro (and, in the case of Mr. Koegel's employment agreement, Mr. Koegel) or certain related parties and any "person" or "group" solicited by any of such persons or their related parties, (i) becomes the beneficial owner of more than 50% of the total aggregate voting power of all classes of the voting stock of the Company and/or warrants or options to acquire such voting stock, calculated on a fully diluted basis, (ii) acquires all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or (iii) enters into a contract with respect to any of the foregoing, or (b) during any period of two consecutive years, individuals who at the beginning of such period constituted the Company's Board of Directors cease for any reason to constitute a majority of the directors then in office, unless such majority of the directors then in office has been elected or nominated by Messrs. Markowitz, Sharp, Mirsky and Lazaro (and, in the case of Mr. Koegel's employment agreement, Mr. Koegel) or certain related parties. In addition, as used in the agreements, the term "Good Reason" means (i) a change in the status or position of the employee which reflects a change from the status and position(s) as were in effect immediately prior to a Change of Control, (ii) the assignment to the employee of any duties or responsibilities which, in the employee's reasonable judgment, are inconsistent with his status or position(s), (iii) the removal of the employee from his current position or reduction in his pay or requiring him to relocate or (iv) the removal of the employee, without his consent, to any location outside of the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area (or, in the case of Mr. Koegel, the St. Paul, Minnesota metropolitan area) for a continuous period of more than 30 days.

Repricing of Certain Options During Fiscal 1999

In March 1999, the Company repriced 12,500 options that had originally been granted in July 1997 to Mr. Koegel, the Vice Chairman of the Board and Chief Operating Officer of the Company. Pursuant to such repricing, the Company cancelled the outstanding options, each with an exercise price of $3.25 per share, and granted a corresponding number of new shares, each with an exercise price of $2.00 per share. In April 1999, the Company repriced 8,000 options that had originally been granted in July 1995 to Mr. Mirsky, the Executive Vice President - Finance of the Company. Pursuant to such repricing, the Company cancelled the outstanding options, each with an exercise price of $3.25 per share, and granted a corresponding number of new shares, each with an exercise price of $2.375 per share. In August 1999, the Company repriced 30,000 and 50,000 options that had originally been granted to Mr. Koegel in September 1995 and to Mr. Mirsky in July 1995, respectively. Pursuant to such repricing, the Company cancelled the outstanding options, each with an exercise price of $3.75 and $3.25 per share, respectively, and granted a corresponding number of new shares, each with an exercise price of $2.50 per share. On the date of the August 1999 option repricings, the closing sale price of the Common Stock was $2.50. The Board of Directors decided to reprice the foregoing options as a result of a long-term decline in the market price of the Company's Common Stock which the Board believed would make it unlikely that any holder would exercise the options at the then existing exercise price. The Board also believed that the purpose behind its grant of such options -- I.E., to act as additional motivation for the Company's officers -- would be undermined by the decline in the price of the Common Stock to a level substantially below the exercise price of the options.

Description of Stock Option Plan

Pursuant to the Stock Option Plan, as amended, stock options covering an aggregate of 713,250 shares of the Company's Common Stock may be granted to employees (including officers), directors, consultants and other persons who perform substantial services for or on behalf of the Company. The Stock Option Plan is administered by the Stock Option Committee (the "Committee"), which is vested with complete authority to administer and interpret the Stock Option Plan, to determine the terms upon which options may be granted, to prescribe, amend and rescind such interpretations and determinations and to grant options. Under the Stock Option Plan, "incentive stock options" ("Incentive Options") within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), may be granted to employees (including officers), and non-incentive stock options ("Non-incentive Options") may be granted to employees and to other persons (including directors) who perform substantial services for or on behalf of the Company. Incentive Options and Non-incentive Options are collectively referred to herein as "Options."

Edgar Filing: SEL-LEB MARKETING INC - Form 10KSB

The price at which shares covered by an Option granted under the Stock Option Plan may be purchased pursuant thereto shall be determined by the Committee, but shall be no less than the par value of such shares and no less than the Fair Market Value (as hereinafter defined) of such shares on the date of grant; provided, however, that in the case of Incentive Options, if the optionee directly or indirectly beneficially owns more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all of the outstanding voting stock of the Company (a "10% Holder"), the purchase price shall not be less than 110% of the Fair Market Value on the date of grant. As used herein, the term "Fair Market Value" means the last sale price of a share of Common Stock as reported by the principal quotation service on which the Common Stock is listed for the date of grant, if available, or, if the last sale prices are not reported, the mean of the high bid and low asked prices of a share of Common Stock as reported by such principal quotation service for the date of grant; provided, however, that if no such report is available for the date of grant, the Fair Market Value shall be the last sale price or the mean of the high bid and low asked prices, as the case may be, on the day next preceding such day for which there was a report; and provided further, however, that if no such representative quotes are available, the Fair Market Value shall mean the amount determined by the Committee to be the fair market value pursuant to any reasonable method in accordance with applicable regulations of the Internal Revenue Service.

The purchase price of shares issuable upon exercise of an Option granted under the Stock Option Plan may be paid in cash or by delivery of shares of Common Stock having an aggregate Fair Market Value on the date of exercise equal to the exercise price of the option. The Company may also loan the purchase price to the optionee, or guarantee third-party loans to the optionee, on terms and conditions acceptable to the Committee.

Under the Stock Option Plan, the total number of shares for Common Stock for which options may be granted to any one person in any given calendar year may not exceed 37,500. The Stock Option Plan also provides that the aggregate fair market value of the stock with respect to which Incentive Options are first exercisable by any employee during any calendar year under the Stock Option Plan and all other stock option plans of the Company shall not exceed $100,000. To the extent that the Fair Market Value of the stock with respect to which Incentive Options are first exercisable by any employee during any calendar year (under all plans of the Company) exceeds $100,000, such Options shall be treated as Options which are not Incentive Options. The number of shares covered by an Option is subject to adjustment for stock dividends, stock splits, mergers, consolidations, combinations of shares, reorganizations and recapitalizations.

The Stock Option Plan provides that Options may be exercised within a period not exceeding ten years after the date of grant, except that the term of any Incentive Options granted to a 10% Holder may not exceed five years from the date of grant. Options are generally non-transferable except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, and during a participant's lifetime are exercisable only by him or her. In addition, pursuant to the Stock Option Plan, various limitations may apply to the exercise of Options by optionees whose employment is terminated on retirement, disability or otherwise.

As of December 31, 2000, of the 923,134 shares of Common Stock available for issuance under the Stock Option Plan, 545,758 of such shares are reserved for issuance upon exercise of currently outstanding options. Accordingly, only 377,376 shares of Common Stock are available for future awards under the Stock Option Plan.

On April 9, 2001, the expiration date of the warrants was extended to April 15, 2002. The warrants have an exercise price of $1.25 per share after giving effect to the a two-for-one stock split effected by the Company in December 1999.

SEL-LEB MARKETING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Organization and summary of significant accounting policies:

Organization and principles of consolidation:

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Sel-Leb Marketing, Inc. (a New York Corporation) and Ales Signature, Ltd. ("Ales"), its 80%-owned subsidiary. Sel-Leb Marketing, Inc. and Ales are referred to collectively herein as the "Company." The Company is primarily engaged in manufacturing, distributing and marketing cosmetics and consumer products through mass merchandisers, discount chain stores and food, drug and electronic retailers.

All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The minority interest in the net equity of Ales as of December 31, 2000 and the minority interest in the results of its operations in 2000 and 1999 were immaterial.

Edgar Filing: SEL-LEB MARKETING INC - Form 10KSB

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition:

Sales are recognized upon the shipment of the related product.

Cash equivalents:

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Inventories:

Inventories, consisting primarily of finished goods, are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined by the first-in, first-out method.

Property and equipment:

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. Amortization of leasehold improvements is computed using the straight-line method over the term of the lease.

Goodwill:

Goodwill is comprised of costs in excess of net assets of acquired businesses that are being amortized on a straight-line basis over periods not exceeding ten years. The Company periodically evaluates the recoverability of its goodwill and measures the amount of impairment, if any, by assessing, among other things, the market and economic conditions related to, and the current and estimated future levels of income and cash flows to be generated by, the acquired businesses.

SEL-LEB MARKETING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Organization and summary of significant accounting policies (continued):

Product development costs:

The Company expenses product development costs as incurred. Product development costs charged to operations amounted to approximately $72,000 and $79,000 in 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Advertising:

The Company expenses the cost of advertising and promotions as incurred. Advertising costs charged to operations amounted to approximately $105,000 and $151,000 in 2000 and 1999, respectively.

Common stock split:

The numbers of common shares and the per share amounts in these notes and the accompanying consolidated financial statements have been retroactively adjusted, where appropriate, for a 2-for-1 split effected on December 7, 1999.

Stock options:

In accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees" ("APB 25"), the Company will only recognize compensation costs as a result of the issuance of stock options to employees based on the excess, if any, of the fair value of the underlying stock at the date of grant or award (or at an appropriate subsequent measurement date) over the amount the employee must pay to acquire the stock. Therefore, the Company will not be required to recognize compensation expense as a result of any grants to employees at an exercise price that is equal to or greater than fair value. The Company will also make pro forma disclosures, in accordance with the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" ("SFAS 123"), of net income or loss as if a fair value based method of accounting for stock options had been applied instead if such amounts differ materially from the historical amounts.

Income taxes:

The Company accounts for income taxes pursuant to the asset and liability method which requires deferred income tax assets and liabilities to be computed annually for temporary differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. The income tax provision or credit is the tax payable or refundable for the period plus or minus the change during the period in deferred tax assets and liabilities.

SEL-LEB MARKETING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARY

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Organization and summary of significant accounting policies (concluded):

Earnings per share:

The Company has adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128, "Earnings per Share," which require the presentation of "basic" and, if appropriate, "diluted" earnings per common share if that amount differs from basic earnings per share. Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during each period. The calculation of diluted earnings per share is similar to that of basic earnings per share, except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if all potentially dilutive common shares, such as those issuable upon the exercise of stock options and warrants, were issued during the period.

In computing diluted earnings per share, the assumed exercise of all of the Company's outstanding stock options and warrants, adjusted for the application of the treasury stock method, would have increased the weighted average number of common shares outstanding as shown in the table below:

	2000	1999
Basic weighted average shares outstanding	2,261,018	2,235,751
Shares arising from assumed exercise of:
Stock options	106,849	174,157
Warrants	29,634	49,121
	-----	-----
Diluted weighted average shares outstanding	2,397,501	2,459,029

Recent accounting pronouncements:

The FASB and the Accounting Standards Executive Committee of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("ACSEC") had issued certain accounting pronouncements as of December 31, 2000 that will become effective in subsequent periods; however, management of the Company does not believe that any of those pronouncements would have significantly affected the Company's financial accounting measurements or disclosures had they been in effect during 2000 and 1999 or that they will have a significant affect at the time they become effective.

Note 5 - Preferred stock, stock options and warrants (concluded):

Pro forma information (concluded):

Since the Company has elected to continue to use the provisions of APB 25 in accounting for stock options and warrants granted to employees and the exercise price of all of the options and warrants granted to employees has been equal to or greater than the fair market value at the date of grant, no earned or unearned compensation cost was recognized in the accompanying 2000 and 1999 consolidated financial statements for stock options and warrants granted to employees. The pro forma amounts computed as if the Company had elected to recognize compensation cost for stock options and warrants granted to employees based on the fair value of the options and warrants at the date of grant as prescribed by SFAS 123 and the related historical amounts reported in the accompanying consolidated statements of income are set forth below:

	2000 -----	1999 -----

The fair value of each option granted was estimated as of the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions used for 2000 and 1999:

Expected volatility	100%	162%
Risk-free interest rate	6.0%	6.0%
Expected years of option life	5.0	5.0

The pro forma charges for compensation derived from the fair value option pricing model as describe above totaled $75,607 and $424,773

Edgar Filing: SEL-LEB MARKETING INC - Form 10KSB

(net of tax effects) in 2000 and 1999, respectively. Substantially all of the pro forma charges for compensation in 1999 were attributable to the effects of the options that were repriced during that year.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 8 - Commitments and contingencies (concluded):

Concentrations of credit risk:

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable. At December 31, 2000, cash balances exceeded Federal insurance limits by approximately $85,000. Exposure to credit risk is reduced by placing such deposits in major financial institutions and monitoring their credit ratings.

The Company generally extends credit to its customers, a significant portion of which are in the retail industry. Approximately 37% and 32% of the Company's net sales were derived from its two major customers during 2000 and 1999, respectively. The two customers also accounted for approximately $2,109,000 of the Company's accounts receivable balance at December 31, 2000. The Company closely monitors the extension of credit to its customers while maintaining appropriate allowances for potential credit losses. Accordingly, management does not believe that the Company was exposed to significant credit risk at December 31, 2000.

Note 9 - Fair value of financial instruments:

The Company's material financial instruments at December 31, 2000 for which disclosure of estimated fair value is required by certain accounting standards consisted of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and long-term debt. In the opinion of management, (i) cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable were carried at values that approximated their fair values because of their liquidity and/or their short-term maturities and (ii) notes payable and long-term debt were carried at values that approximated their fair values because they had interest rates equivalent to those currently prevailing for financial instruments with similar characteristics.

Note 10- Segment information:

The Company has adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 131, "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information" ("SFAS 131"). Pursuant to the provisions of SFAS 131, the Company is reporting segment sales and gross margins in the same format reviewed by the Company's management

Edgar Filing: SEL-LEB MARKETING INC - Form 10KSB

(the "management approach"). The Company has two reportable segments: "Opportunity" and "Cosmetics". The Opportunity segment is comprised of the operations connected with the acquisition, sale and distribution of name-brand and off-brand products which are purchased from manufacturers, wholesalers or retailers as a result of close-outs, overstocks and/or changes in the packaging of brand name items. The Cosmetics segment is comprised of the acquisition, sale and distribution of all other products, including "celebrity endorsed" and "tie-in" cosmetics and health and beauty aid products and designer and all other fragrances.
