On June 7, 2010, Cinedigm Digital Cinema Corp. (together with its subsidiaries, the “Company”) announced that its subsidiary, Cinedigm Digital Funding I, LLC (“CDF I”), entered into an interest rate swap (the “Swap”) with Natixis, a public limited company incorporated with a Board of Directors under the laws of the Republic of France, HSBC Bank USA, National Association and Société Générale, New York Branch (“SocGen”) as counterparties under three substantially similar 2002 ISDA Master Agreements, each dated as of June 7, 2010 (the “Master Agreements”), each as supplemented by a schedule (the “Schedules”) and confirmation (the “Confirmations”) related thereto. The Swap contains customary representations and warranties and covenants and may be terminated prior to its expiration, including as a result of the prepayment of CDF I’s senior credit facility with SocGen and General Electric Capital Corporation (the “Credit Facility”).

The Company entered into the Swap, which will take effect commencing June 15, 2011 and will remain in place until at least June 15, 2013, in accordance with the terms of the Credit Facility in order to hedge the floating rate interest risk for at least 66.67% of the amount outstanding thereunder. The Company is required to make monthly payments to the counterparties based on a fixed rate of interest on a notional amount in exchange for receiving floating payments from the counterparties based on a LIBOR rate plus the applicable margin. The Swap effectively fixes the annual interest rate payable on at least 66.67% of the Company’s debt under the Credit Facility at 2.16%.

The descriptions of the Master Agreements, the Schedules and the Confirmations set forth above are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Master Agreements, the Schedules and the Confirmations, which will be filed in accordance with SEC rules and regulations.

Item Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a 2.03. Registrant.

The information set forth in Item 1.01 above is incorporated herein by reference.
