FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE STANLEY WORKS ANNOUNCES ALL APPROVALS RECEIVED FOR SALE OF RESIDENTIAL ENTRY DOORS BUSINESS

New Britain, Connecticut, March 1, 2004 ... The Stanley Works (NYSE: SWK) announced today that on Friday, February 27, 2004 all required government approvals were received and it expects to complete the sale of its residential entry doors business to Masonite International Corporation (TSE, NYSE: MHM) within the next few days.

The transaction will generate an after-tax gain and net proceeds of approximately $100 million, which will be utilized for partial repayment of debt incurred in the recent acquisition of Blick plc.

The Stanley Works, an S&P 500 company, is a worldwide supplier of tools, hardware and security systems for professional, industrial and consumer use.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENTS

Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

The statements in this press release to the effect that (a) the company expects to complete the sale of its residential entry doors business within the next few days and (b) the transaction will generate an after-tax gain and net proceeds of approximately $100 million are forward looking statements and inherently subject to risk and uncertainty. The company's ability to close the sale of its doors business within the next few days is subject to satisfaction or waiver of the remaining conditions set forth in the Acquisition Agreement between the company and Masonite International Corporation. Achieving an after-tax gain and net proceeds of approximately $100 million is subject to final accounting of the completed transaction.

The company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date hereof.
