Subject: Re: Palo Alto Investor's Letter to Canadian Superior dated September 29, 2008

Importance: High

To: Palo Alto Investors

Further to our discussions of this evening and after receiving your letter of today's date outlining your concerns about potential conflicts of interests between Canadian Superior Energy Inc. ("Canadian Superior") and Challenger Energy Corp. ("Challenger Energy") and certain directors and management thereof, on behalf of Canadian Superior, I would like to confirm that several items were discussed with representatives of your firm which we believe mitigate or eliminate any perceived conflicts and/or management issues.

The Board of Directors of Canadian Superior established today a special committee comprised of three (3) independent directors to review, recommend and/or approve any future transactions between Canadian Superior and Challenger Energy. This is in addition to normal requirements under corporate law which Canadian Superior has followed.

Additionally, in any Board matter where the Chairman or any other Director has a conflict, he has and will continue to recuse himself from voting on the issue. Accordingly, we feel that given the above mentioned and the other important matters discussed with you, we have resolved the differences outlined in your letter. However, we will be having further discussions with you to keep you fully apprised of any future developments between the two companies through the independent committee which you are welcome to meet with at any time.

We apologize for any miscommunication that may have led you to believe that these perceived conflicts or issues raised in your letter were irreconcilable and we look forward to meeting with you regarding any issues you may have in the future.

We appreciate your support and look forward to continuing our long-term relationship with your firm.

Yours truly,

CANADIAN SUPERIOR ENERGY INC.

Greg Noval

Chairman

To the Board of Directors of Canadian Superior,

Thank you for your letter today outlining the discussions occurring between representatives of our firm and yours this evening. We find your response in keeping with our desires to resolve our outstanding corporate governance concerns.

We appreciate that you have taken steps to ensure independent review of transactions occurring between Challenger Energy, Inc. and Canadian Superior Energy, Inc. and while we agree that this is a key step, we will continue to monitor the situation. We would like to accept your offer to meet with your independent Directors and committee members to review the overall transactional approval process regarding any future strategic or financial transactions between the two companies. Given the changes you have made and have committed to make, we consider this matter resolved.
