Our directors and executive officers are entitled to participate in the Offer on the same basis as other stockholders. Ms. Visosky has indicated that she intends to tender all 258 of her shares.”

(3) The second sentence of the first paragraph under the sub-section “Share Ownership by Directors and Executive Officers” of Section 11 of the Offer to Purchase (“Interests of Directors and Executive Officers; Transactions and Arrangements Concerning the Shares”) is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following paragraph:

If the Company were to purchase approximately 4.6% of the issued and outstanding shares, the pro forma earnings per share for the six-month period ended September 30, 2013 would increase approximately 4.8% as a result of the purchase. If the Company were to purchase approximately 5.3% of the issued and outstanding shares, the pro forma earnings per share for the six-month period ended September 30, 2013 would increase approximately 5.6% as a result of the purchase.”

(6) The first paragraph of Section 17 of the Offer to Purchase (“Miscellaneous”) is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following paragraph:

“We are not aware of any jurisdiction where the making of the Offer is prohibited by administrative or judicial action pursuant to any valid state statute. If we become aware of any valid state statute prohibiting the making of the Offer or the acceptance of the ordinary shares pursuant thereto, we will make a good faith effort to comply with such statute or seek to have such statute declared inapplicable to the Offer. If, after this good faith effort, we cannot comply with the state statute, subject to applicable law, the Offer will not be made to (nor will tenders be accepted from or on behalf of) holders of the ordinary shares in that state. In those jurisdictions where the securities, blue sky or other laws require the Offer to be made by a licensed broker or dealer, we will endeavor to make arrangements to have the Offer made on our behalf by one or more registered brokers or dealers licensed under the laws of such jurisdictions.”

ITEM 11. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

The information set forth in Item 11 is hereby amended and supplemented by the following:

- (1) Section 13 of the Offer to Purchase (“Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals”) is amended and supplemented by adding the following adding the following language at the end of Section 13:

“On November 19, 2013, certain shareholders of the Company filed a claim with the District Court for the Central District in Israel requesting a declarative order stating that certain resolutions adopted at the Annual General Meeting of the Shareholders of the Company on September 12, 2013 are void. Even if the challenge were successful and the court were to rule that the adoption of these resolutions was not valid under Israeli law, this outcome would have no effect on the validity of the Offer to Purchase.

The resolutions being challenged include the following: (i) approval of the compensation being paid to three directors, including the Chairman and CEO; (ii) approval of the Company’s compensation policy; and (iii) re-election of the Company’s two statutory external directors. Alternatively, the claimants request that the court order that the votes of all of the shareholders who voted without stating whether they have a “personal interest” will be disqualified and will not be counted as valid votes. Although these shareholders expressed opposition to the adoption of these resolutions prior to (and during) such meeting, the resolutions in question were all approved by majorities exceeding 90% of all shares voting at the meeting, including a majority of shares not held by the Sun Entities or shareholders with a “personal interest” in the resolutions (as required by the Israeli Companies Law).

The claimants assert that the procedures that led to the assembly of the general meeting and the adoption of the resolutions noted above did not comply with the requirements of the Israeli Companies Law. The Company believes that such procedures were in full compliance with the Israeli Companies Law, and will respond to these allegations in court. Irrespective of the outcome, however, as previously explained, the claims raised by the plaintiffs have no effect on the validity of the approval of this Offer to Purchase by the Company’s Board of Directors.”
