E*TRADE'S EXCHANGE OFFER FOR WEB STREET SHARES CLOSES WITH MORE THAN 90 PERCENT ACCEPTANCE

Menlo Park, Calif. - July 31, 2001 - E*TRADE Group, Inc. (NYSE: ET) today announced the expiration of the exchange offer by its wholly-owned subsidiary, Opus Acquisition Corp., for all of the outstanding shares of Web Street, Inc. (Nasdaq: WEBS) common stock at an exchange ratio of 0.1864 share of E*TRADE common stock for each share of common stock of Web Street. The subsequent offering period expired at midnight, Eastern time, on Monday, July 30, 2001. All shares validly tendered prior to the expiration of the subsequent offering period have been accepted for exchange and will be exchanged promptly for E*TRADE shares and for cash for fractional shares.

E*TRADE believes that approximately 24,192,845 Web Street shares, or 91.8% of the total issued and outstanding Web Street shares, were validly tendered and not withdrawn pursuant to the exchange offer.

The exchange offer will be followed by a merger of Opus Acquisition Corp. with and into Web Street that is expected to be completed in early August 2001. Pursuant to the merger, those Web Street stockholders who did not tender their shares in the exchange offer will have their shares converted into the right to receive 0.1864 share of E*TRADE common stock for each share of common stock of Web Street. Delivery of such shares will be made following the merger upon proper presentation of certificates representing Web Street shares to American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the exchange agent for the merger, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal.
