- o Following 11 years of a fixed exchange rate regime, the Argentine peso was devalued in January 2002 and has shown significant volatility throughout the year
- o The 2002 crisis has provoked a severe recession following several years of mild economic depression
- o Argentina has experienced a real devaluation of approximately 65%

Political Instability & General Uncertainty

- o Argentina had five different Presidents during the two-month period of December 2001 to January 2002
- o An agreement with the IMF is still pending
- o The Federal and most Provincial Governments have not completed a restructuring of their debt obligations
  - Outstanding obligations of approximately US$131Bn (1)
- o Significant uncertainty regarding timeline for public hearings to determine tariff adjustments
- o Provincial bonds and Lecops are increasingly used as currency by consumers
  - Outstanding amount of approximately $7.4Bn (approximately 32% of money supply) (2)
- o Presidential elections are scheduled for April - May 2003

Changes in the Regulatory Environment

- o In January 2002, the government issued Public Emergency Law N 25,561 and Decree N 293/02, freezing and prohibiting the indexation of public service tariffs
  - "The pesification of public service tariffs in January 2002 left public service providers with a significant mismatch between revenue generation and debt service obligation, given that most Companies have debt in foreign currency."
- o As a result, public services contracts were effectively "pesified"
- o Public service Companies were left with no ability to adjust tariffs

Edgar Filing: TELECOM ARGENTINA STET FRANCE TELECOM SA - Form 6-K

following the devaluation and return to an inflationary environment

- o The tariff renegotiation committee named by the government was unable to meet the 120 day deadline established for the determination of a new tariff scheme
  - Negotiation period was extended to April 2003

TELECOM
[LOGO]

Update on Tariff Negotiation Discussions

- o On August 9, 2002 the Renegotiation Committee requested that the Company present emergency tariff increases with the corresponding justifications for such increases
    - The Company submitted a proposal with emergency increases in various services
  - o After calling for a public hearing for early October, the Government was notified of injunctions that suspended any action leading to any tariff modification until the Government finalizes the renegotiation with public service companies
  - o In early December, the government authorized an increase of approximately 7 - 11% for gas and electricity utilities
- "As of today, no tariff increases have been approved for telecommunications providers. Telecom Argentina continues to proactively pursue negotiations with the government."

Impact of the Crisis on Telecom Group

Evolution of Outstanding Debt and EBITDA
Debt Debt

- o Management has responsibly managed the Company's balance sheet

2001A	3250	3250	1242
2002PF	3176	11879	1432

- o The significant increase in leverage in 2002 is a direct result of the devaluation
- o Despite significant efforts to reduce costs, the currency mismatch (given the Company's inability to increase regulated tariffs) between cash flow and debt service requirements overwhelms the benefits the Company has achieved in EBITDA

Summary of 3rd Quarter 2002 Results

- =====
- o Fixed lines in service continue to decline due to the on-going deterioration of the economic environment
    - Relatively little variation in 3Q 2002 versus previous quarters
  - o Wireless subscribers have held steady, but with a continued migration from postpaid to prepaid services
  - o In spite of a decline in revenues, cost-cutting efforts have led to an increase in EBITDA
  - o The Company has posted a significant loss in net income throughout 2002 primarily due to exchange rate losses

Summary of Operational Restructuring Efforts

- =====
- o Human Resources
    - New organizational structure
    - Headcount reductions
    - Reduction in unionized and non-unionized labor costs
  - o Sales and Marketing
    - Improved collection policies
    - Reduction in advertising costs
    - Reduction in commission expenses
    - Elimination of handset subsidies
  - o Significant reduction in CAPEX primarily focused on network maintenance costs

This presentation may include statements that could constitute forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to the Company's expectations for its future performance, revenues, income, earnings per share, capital expenditures, dividends, liquidity and capital structure; the impact of recent emergency laws enacted by the Argentine government; and the impact of rate changes and competition on the Company's future financial performance. Forward looking statements may be identified by words such as "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "projects", "intends", "should", "seeks", "estimates", "future" or other similar expressions. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could significantly affect the Company's expected results. The risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, uncertainties concerning the impact of recent emergency laws enacted by the Argentine government which have resulted in the repeal of Argentina's convertibility law, the devaluation of the peso, restrictions on the ability to exchange pesos into foreign currencies, the adoption of a restrictive currency transfer policy, the "pesification" of tariffs charged for public services, the elimination of indexes to adjust rates charged for public services and the executive branch announcement to renegotiate the terms of the concessions granted to public service providers, including Telecom. Due to extensive and rapid changes in laws and economic and business conditions in Argentina, it is difficult to predict the impact of these changes on the Company's financial condition. Other factors may include, but are not limited to, the current and on-going recession in Argentina, growing inflationary pressure and reduction in consumer spending and the outcome of certain legal proceedings. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward looking statements, which speak only as the date of this document. The Company undertakes no obligation to release publicly the results of any revisions to forward looking statements which may be made to reflect events and circumstances after the date of this presentation, including, without limitation, changes in the Company's business or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
