Ultrapar announces the acquisition of a terminal for liquid bulk in the port of Itaqui

São Paulo, Brazil, May 27, 2012 – Ultrapar Participações S.A. (BM&FBOVESPA:UGPA3 / NYSE:UGP) hereby announces that it signed, through Ultracargo, a sale and purchase agreement for the acquisition of 100% of the shares of the company TEMMAR - Terminal Marítimo do Maranhão S.A. (“Temmar”) from Temmar Netherlands B.V. and Noble Netherlands B.V., subsidiaries of Noble Group Limited. The acquisition value is R$160 million, subject to the customary working capital and indebtedness adjustments on the closing date. Additionally, Ultrapar will disburse a minimum extra value of R$12 million, which may reach approximately R$30 million as a result of possible future expansions in the storage capacity of the terminal, provided that such expansions are implemented within the next 7 years.

Temmar is a modern and well-designed terminal in the port area of Itaqui, in the state of Maranhão, in the Northeast region of Brazil, with a capacity of 55 thousand cubic meters and used mainly for the handling of fuels and biofuels. Temmar has contracts with its clients for the entire capacity of the terminal and a long-term lease contract, which includes a large area for future expansions.

The port of Itaqui is the second largest port in liquid bulk handling in Brazil, with privileged location and efficient logistics, which includes access to railway. Responsible for supplying the fuel market in the states of Maranhão, Piauí and Tocantins, where fuel consumption has grown above the national average, the Itaqui port region has attracted various investments and new projects.

This acquisition marks the entry of Ultracargo in this important market and enhances its operational scale, strengthening its position as a provider of storage for liquid bulk in Brazil and adding 8% to the company’s current capacity.

The closing of this acquisition is subject to the compliance with certain usual conditions precedent for this type of transaction, notably the opinion of port authorities and, if applicable, the approval by a general shareholders’ meeting of Ultrapar. In the event the shareholders’ meeting is required and the acquisition is not approved, Ultrapar will pay to the seller a break-up fee of R$ 3 million.

The company hereby clarifies that the acquisition of Temmar will not entitle Ultrapar’s shareholders to withdrawal rights, pursuant to paragraph 2 of Article 256 of the Brazilian Corporate Law. This transaction will be submitted to the competent regulatory authorities.

Additional information about Temmar is available at Ultrapar’s website (www.ultra.com.br).

Oxiteno signs a sale and purchase agreement for the acquisition of American Chemical in Uruguay

São Paulo, Brazil, May 28, 2012 – Ultrapar Participações S.A. (BM&FBOVESPA:UGPA3 / NYSE:UGP) hereby announces that it signed today, through its subsidiary Oxiteno, a sale and purchase agreement for the acquisition of 100% of the shares of American Chemical I.C.S.A., a Uruguayan specialty chemicals company. The acquisition value is US$79 million, subject to the customary working capital and net debt adjustments on the closing date.

American Chemical owns a plant in Montevideo, Uruguay, with production capacity of 81 thousand tons of specialty chemicals, particularly sulfonates and sulfates surfactants for the home and personal care industries, as well as products for the leather industry. The plant is located close to the Montevideo port, providing efficient logistics to exports and to serve the Southern Cone countries, where home and personal care markets have presented significant growth.

Oxiteno currently supplies the demand of the Southern Cone with products made in Brazil. This acquisition will strengthen its position in the region as a producer of surfactants and specialty chemicals and allow commercial, operational and administrative gains, which will enable the acquired business to obtain profitability similar to that of Oxiteno.

Through the acquisition of American Chemical, Oxiteno continues the international expansion of its activities, started in 2003 and based on its deep knowledge of the technology for production and application of surfactants and specialty chemicals and on its strong relationship with its clients.

Closing is subject to the compliance with certain conditions precedent, notably the favorable result of the due diligence. This transaction will be submitted to the competent regulatory authorities.
