PRELIMINARY COPY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED OCTOBER 5, 2012

To Our Fellow Wynn Resort, Limited Stockholders:

Mr. Kazuo Okada, a founder and member of the board of directors (the "Board") of Wynn Resorts, Limited ("Wynn Resorts" or the "Company"), Universal Entertainment Corporation and its subsidiary, Aruze USA, Inc. (collectively, the "Universal Group" or "we"), are the beneficial owners of 24,549,222 shares (the "Aruze Shares") of common stock, $.01 par value (the "Common Stock") of Wynn Resorts, representing approximately 19.6% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.¹

We have nominated Professor Jonathan R. Macey and Mr. Fredric G. Reynolds, two highly-qualified nominees (the "Nominees"), for election at the Company's 2012 annual meeting of stockholders (the "Annual Meeting"). Each of the Nominees is independent from (i) the Universal Group and its affiliates and (ii) the Company and its affiliates. We nominated these two candidates because we believe that the Board lacks a sufficient level of independence from the Company's management and, in particular Stephen A. Wynn, the Company's chairman and chief executive officer. In fact, only seven of the 12 members (or 58.3%) of the Board are currently independent under the listing rules of The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq"). In its 2011 report on the Company, proxy advisory firm ISS noted the low level of independent directors on the Board, stating, "[i]nvestors generally prefer that independent directors be a substantial majority of the company's board." Additionally, proxy advisory firm Glass Lewis & Co., in its 2011 Proxy Paper on the Company remarked:

We note that five of the twelve directors are either affiliated with the Company or are insiders. We believe this raises concerns about the objectivity and independence of the board and its ability to perform its proper oversight role. We prefer boards with a lower percentage of affiliates and insiders.

We strongly believe the interests of stockholders should be better protected by greater independent representation on the Board. We are submitting the Nominees for election to the Board to strengthen the Board and to provide strong, independent directors to help lead the Company and drive its business goals. We believe that the addition of these independent, highly credentialed and experienced directors is essential to enhancing the Company's corporate governance and future success. We believe the Nominees would be deemed independent under Nasdaq's listing rules.

We are seeking to change only a minority of the Board in an effort to ensure that the interests of the stockholders, the true owners of the Company, are appropriately represented in the boardroom. Because Wynn Resorts has a staggered Board, only the four Class I directors of the 12-person Board are up for election at the Annual Meeting. Through the accompanying Proxy Statement, we are soliciting proxies to elect not only our two Nominees, but also the candidates who have been nominated by Wynn

Resorts other than Linda Chen and Marc D. Schorr, each of whom is an executive officer of Wynn Resorts or its subsidiaries. By our solicitation, we are, therefore, soliciting proxies to elect all four Class I directors, consisting of our two Nominees and the two non-management nominees proposed by Wynn Resorts on our GREEN proxy card. The names, backgrounds and qualifications of Wynn Resorts' nominees, and other information about them, can be found in Wynn Resorts' proxy statement for the Annual Meeting filed with the SEC on September 20, 2012 ("Wynn Resorts' Proxy Statement").

In addition, according Wynn Resorts' Proxy Statement, at the Annual Meeting, stockholders will be asked to vote on proposals to approve (i) Wynn Resorts' Amended and Restated Annual Performance Based Incentive Plan as proposed and (ii) the ratification of appointment of the Company's independent public accountants. You will be able to use the enclosed GREEN proxy card to vote on these proposals as well. See "Other Matters To Be Considered At The Annual Meeting" in the accompanying Proxy Statement.

There is no assurance that any of the Company's nominees will serve as directors if our Nominees are elected. Further, since the Nominees would comprise less than a majority of the Board, if elected, there can be no assurance that any actions or changes proposed by the Nominees will be adopted or supported by the Board, or that any actions or changes proposed by the Nominees will enhance stockholder value. It is our hope, however, that if stockholders vote to elect the Nominees at the Annual Meeting, then the Board will give serious consideration to any ideas, plans or proposals for improving corporate governance and enhancing stockholder value that one or both of the Nominees may recommend to the full Board.

WE URGE YOU TO VOTE THE GREEN PROXY CARD FOR PROFESSOR JONATHAN R. MACEY AND MR. FREDRIC G. REYNOLDS AS DIRECTORS AS WELL AS THE CANDIDATES WHO HAVE BEEN NOMINATED BY WYNN RESORTS OTHER THAN LINDA CHEN AND MARC D. SCHORR. PROFESSOR MACEY AND MR. REYNOLDS ARE COMMITTED TO ACTING IN THE BEST INTEREST OF ALL STOCKHOLDERS OF WYNN RESORTS. THE UNIVERSAL GROUP URGES YOU TO VOTE YOUR GREEN PROXY CARD FOR PROFESSOR MACEY AND MR. REYNOLDS.

WE URGE YOU NOT TO SIGN ANY PROXY CARD SENT TO YOU BY WYNN RESORTS. IF YOU HAVE ALREADY DONE SO, YOU MAY REVOKE YOUR PROXY BY DELIVERING A LATER-DATED GREEN PROXY CARD IN THE ENCLOSED POSTAGE-PREPAID ENVELOPE, VOTING VIA THE INTERNET OR TELEPHONE, OR BY VOTING IN PERSON AT THE ANNUAL MEETING. SEE "VOTING PROCEDURES" IN THE ACCOMPANYING PROXY STATEMENT.

We urge you to carefully consider the information contained in the accompanying Proxy Statement and then support our efforts by signing, dating and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card today.

A proxy may be given by any person who held shares of Common Stock on September 12, 2012, the record date for the Annual Meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, you are urged to sign and date the enclosed GREEN proxy card and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided or vote by Internet or telephone in accordance with the instructions on the GREEN proxy card. It is very important that you date your GREEN proxy card.

Thank you for your support,

Aruze USA, Inc.

PRELIMINARY COPY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED OCTOBER 5, 2012
ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS OF
WYNN RESORTS, LIMITED

To Be Held On November 2, 2012

PROXY STATEMENT

DATED OCTOBER [], 2012

UNIVERSAL ENTERTAINMENT CORPORATION
ARUZE USA, INC.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying GREEN proxy card are being furnished to Stockholders (“Stockholders”) of Wynn Resorts, Limited, 3131 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89109 (“Wynn Resorts” or the “Company”) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Mr. Kazuo Okada (a founder and member of the board of directors of Wynn Resorts), Universal Entertainment Corporation and Aruze USA, Inc. (collectively, the “Universal Group” or “we”), to be used at the 2012 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Wynn Resorts, which is scheduled to be held at the Encore Theater at Wynn Las Vegas, 3131 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, Nevada, on November 2, 2012, at 11:00 a.m. (local time) and at any adjournments, postponements or continuations thereof and at any meeting called in lieu thereof (the “Annual Meeting”). This Proxy Statement and the GREEN proxy card are first being furnished to Stockholders on or about October [], 2012.

CERTAIN INFORMATION REGARDING THE NOMINEES, VOTING, THE SOLICITATION AND THE ANNUAL MEETING

The Universal Group Nominees

At the Annual Meeting, we will seek to elect to the board of directors of Wynn Resorts (the “Board”) the following persons (each a “Nominee” and collectively, the “Nominees”):

Ø	Professor Jonathan R. Macey
Ø	Mr. Fredric G. Reynolds

Each of the Nominees is independent from (i) the Universal Group and any of its affiliates and (ii) Wynn Resorts and its affiliates.

We believe that the Nominees have impressive qualifications and that their experience in matters relating to corporate governance, corporate finance and serving on other public company boards of directors, would be extremely beneficial to Wynn Resorts and, therefore, its stockholders. Professor Macey is the Sam Harris Professor of Corporate Law, Corporate Finance and Securities Law at Yale Law School, and a professor in the Yale School of Management. He is a leading scholar and author on corporate governance matters and also has prior public company board experience. Mr. Reynolds has significant public company experience, including serving as chief financial officer of large U.S. public companies, including CBS Corporation and its predecessor, Westinghouse Electric Corporation. He currently serves on the board of directors of Kraft Foods, Inc. and AOL, Inc. We believe that the Nominees' knowledge of corporate governance, finance and business will significantly improve the corporate governance, finance and business expertise of the Board. We also believe that each Nominee is a strong stockholder-orientated individual who will help represent the best interests of Wynn Resorts' stockholders. For additional information regarding the Nominees, see "Proposal No. 1 – Election of Directors."

You May Vote for Certain of Wynn Resorts' Nominees on the GREEN Proxy Card

The Company's Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "Amended Articles") and Fourth Amended and Restated Bylaws, as amended (the "Bylaws"), require that the number of directors on the Board be not less than one nor more than thirteen. Presently, the Board is set at 12 directors and is divided into three classes. At the Annual Meeting, four Class I directors are to be elected, each to serve until the 2015 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until his or her successor is elected or appointed and qualified or until his or her earlier death, retirement, disqualification, resignation or removal.

Under the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), we may solicit proxies in support of our Nominees and also seek authority to vote for all of the Wynn Resorts nominees other than those Wynn Resorts nominees we specify. This enables a Stockholder who desires to vote for up to a full complement of four Class I directors to use the GREEN proxy card to vote for our Nominees as well as the Wynn Resorts nominees for whom we are seeking authority to vote other than those nominees as to which the Stockholder specifically withholds our authority to vote. We have determined to nominate a slate of two Nominees, Professor Macey and Mr. Reynolds, and are seeking authority to vote for all of the Wynn Resorts nominees other than Ms. Linda Chen and Mr. Marc D. Schorr, each of whom is an executive officer of Wynn Resorts or its subsidiaries. As a result, should a Stockholder so authorize us, on the GREEN proxy card, we would cast votes for our two Nominees and two Wynn Resorts nominees. Neither of the Wynn Resorts nominees for whom we seek authority to vote has agreed to serve with any of our Nominees, if elected, and there is no assurance that any of Wynn Resorts' nominees will serve as directors if one or both of the Nominees are elected to the Board.

Required Vote for the Election of Directors

According to Wynn Resorts' proxy statement for the Annual Meeting filed with the SEC on September 20, 2012 ("Wynn Resorts' Proxy Statement"), the Bylaws and applicable law, the election of the Nominees and Wynn Resorts' nominees requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of the common stock, $.01 par value (the "Common Stock") of Wynn Resorts at a meeting at which a quorum is present in person or represented by proxy. As a result, your vote is extremely important. We urge you to vote by Internet or telephone in accordance with the instructions on the GREEN proxy card or mark, sign, date and return the enclosed GREEN proxy card to vote FOR the election of each Nominee.

Your May Vote On The Other Annual Meeting Proposals of Wynn Resorts On The GREEN Proxy Card

In addition, according Wynn Resorts' Proxy Statement, at the Annual Meeting, Stockholders will be asked to vote on proposals to (i) approve Wynn Resorts' Amended and Restated Annual Performance Based Incentive Plan as proposed and (ii) ratify the appointment by Company's Audit Committee (the "Audit Committee") of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent public accountants for the Company and of its subsidiaries for 2012. You will be able to use the GREEN proxy card to vote on these proposals as well. See "Other Matters To Be Considered At The Annual Meeting" below.

Participants in Solicitation of Proxies

In addition to the Nominees, the participants in the solicitation of proxies (the “Participants”) are Mr. Kazuo Okada, a citizen of Japan, Aruze USA, Inc. a Nevada corporation (“Aruze USA”) and Universal Entertainment Corporation, a company organized under the laws of Japan (“Universal”). Aruze USA has no primary business aside from its investment in Wynn Resorts. Universal manufactures and sells pachislot and pachinko machines. Universal is registered with the Nevada Gaming Commission, and has been deemed suitable by the Nevada Gaming Commission as a 100% stockholder of Aruze USA. Mr. Okada is the Chairman of the board of directors of Universal, and he, together with his family members, owns a majority of the outstanding Universal shares.

Except as disclosed in this Proxy Statement, including the Annexes hereto, the Participants have no interest in Wynn Resorts. See “Proposal No. 1 – Election Of Directors,” “Additional Information about the Participants” and Annex A and Annex B hereto.

Stockholders Entitled to Vote at the Annual Meeting; Voting by the Universal Group

Only holders of record of the Common Stock as of the close of business on September 12, 2012 (the “Record Date”) are entitled to notice of, and to attend and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof. According to Wynn Resorts’ Proxy Statement, as of the Record Date, there were 100,522,136 outstanding shares of Common Stock, which does not include the Aruze Shares (as defined below). Including the Aruze Shares, and based on the information contained in Wynn Resort’s Proxy Statement, as of the Record Date, there were 125,071,358 outstanding shares of common stock. Stockholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting for each share of Common Stock held on the Record Date.

As of the Record Date, Universal Group beneficially owned an aggregate of 24,549,222 shares of Common Stock, representing approximately 19.6% of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock (the “Aruze Shares”). See “Purported Redemption of the Aruze Shares” immediately below. The Aruze Shares are held of record directly by Aruze. The Universal Group intends to vote the Aruze Shares FOR the election of the Nominees and the candidates who have been nominated by Wynn Resorts other than Linda Chen and Marc D. Schorr.

Purported Redemption of the Aruze Shares

As discussed in more detail under “Background of the Solicitation” below, Wynn Resorts purportedly redeemed the Aruze Shares. The Universal Group believes Wynn Resorts’ purported redemption of the Aruze Shares on February 18, 2012 is contrary to law and will be determined void ab initio pursuant to the pending litigation between, among others, the Universal Group and Wynn Resorts. On August 31, 2012, Aruze USA and Universal filed a preliminary injunction motion seeking to prohibit Wynn Resorts from preventing Aruze USA from exercising its right to vote the Aruze Shares at the Annual Meeting or otherwise depriving Aruze USA of its stockholder rights, including its right to propose new directors for consideration at the Annual Meeting. On October 2, 2012, District Court, Clark County, Nevada denied the preliminary injunction motion. Aruze USA and Universal intend to appeal this decision to the Supreme Court of Nevada. If Aruze USA’s and Universal’s appeal is denied, the Universal Group will not be considered a stockholder for purposes of the Annual Meeting and its nomination of the Nominees will not be valid, as only Stockholders may nominate directors. In that case, the Universal Group will terminate its solicitation of proxies for the Annual Meeting. In addition, if it were ultimately determined that the purported redemption is valid, the Aruze Group would not beneficially own any shares of Common Stock. Unless otherwise stated, this Proxy Statement assumes that the Universal Group beneficially owns the Aruze Shares.

BACKGROUND OF THE SOLICITATION

Most Recent Court Proceedings

On August 31, 2012, Aruze USA and Universal filed a preliminary injunction motion that sought to prohibit Wynn Resorts from preventing Aruze USA from exercising its right to vote its shares at the Annual Meeting or otherwise depriving Aruze USA of its stockholder rights, including its right to propose new directors for consideration at the Annual Meeting. Universal argued that the Board's forcible redemption of Aruze USA's almost 20% ownership interest in Wynn Resorts was an attempt at disenfranchising Aruze USA with respect to critical upcoming stockholder votes and at silencing Mr. Okada as the lone voice of dissent against Steve Wynn on the Board (as evidenced by Mr. Okada's vote against the $135 million pledge to the University of Macau Development Foundation). Although Wynn Resorts purports to justify the redemption by claiming that, on the basis of a purportedly independent report, Aruze USA's continued ownership of the Common Stock would put Wynn Resorts in imminent danger of losing its gaming licenses, Universal argued that the purportedly independent report was a mere pretext for the Board's actions to oust a dissenting Board member and entrench and enrich Steve Wynn, the Board, and the management of Wynn Resorts. In fact, one Board member who voted in favor of the redemption, Elaine P. Wynn, has admitted in court filings that Wynn Resorts was not in imminent danger of losing any gaming licenses, and therefore this was not a basis for the redemption.

On October 2, 2012, District Court, Clark County, Nevada denied the preliminary injunction motion. Aruze USA and Universal intend to appeal this decision to the Supreme Court of Nevada.

Formation of Wynn Resorts

In October 2000, Mr. Stephen A. Wynn founded a Nevada limited liability company, Valvino Lamore, LLC ("Valvino") to act as the holding entity for a new casino development project. Mr. Wynn sought funding for the new casino development project from Mr. Kazuo Okada, a highly successful Japanese entrepreneur. Mr. Okada is the President and a Director of Aruze USA. Aruze USA, in turn, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Universal. After in-person discussions between Mr. Wynn and Mr. Okada, Aruze USA made a contribution of $260 million in cash to Valvino in exchange for 50% of the membership interest in Valvino effective October 3, 2000. In April 2002, Aruze USA made two additional contributions totaling $120 million to Valvino.

As of April 16, 2002, there were three owners of membership interests ("LLC Interest") in Valvino – Mr. Wynn, Aruze USA, and a Massachusetts business trust, Baron Asset Fund ("Baron").

On April 11, 2002, Mr. Wynn, Aruze USA, and Baron entered into a stockholders agreement (the "Stockholders Agreement"). The Stockholders Agreement established various rights among Mr. Wynn, Aruze USA and Baron with respect to the ownership and management of what would eventually become Wynn Resorts. Among other things, the Stockholders Agreement imposed restrictions on the sale of stock of Wynn Resorts. The Stockholders Agreement stated that "as a condition to their willingness to form [Wynn Resorts], either through the contribution of their interests in the LLC or through a different technique, the Stockholders are willing to agree to the matters set forth" in the Stockholders Agreement. The Stockholders Agreement was subsequently amended on November 8, 2006 to include a mutual restriction on the sale of stock without each other party's written consent. It was further amended on January 6, 2010 to include Elaine P. Wynn as a member bound to the terms of the Stockholders Agreement. See "Additional Information About the Participants—Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement and Waiver and Consent Relating Thereto" below.

On June 3, 2002, Mr. Wynn, on behalf of Wynn Resorts, caused the filing of the Company's original Articles of Incorporation (the "Original Articles"). The Original Articles did not include any provision establishing a right to redeem shares of "[U]nsuitable Person[s]." Thereafter, on June 11, 2002, Wynn Resorts, Mr. Wynn, Aruze USA, Baron, and the Kenneth R. Wynn Family Trust entered into the Contribution Agreement (the “Contribution Agreement”), by which each party agreed to contribute all of the LLC Interest in Valvino to Wynn Resorts in exchange for the capital stock of Wynn Resorts. The Wynn Resorts' stock acquired by Mr. Wynn, Aruze USA, and Baron was subject to the provisions in the Contribution Agreement, as well as the provisions in the Stockholders Agreement entered into on April 11, 2002.

The Contribution Agreement included an integration clause stating:

This Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, and the Operating Agreement contain the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof or thereof. There are no restrictions, agreements, promises, representations, warranties, other than those expressly set forth or referred to herein or therein. This Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, and the Operating Agreement, supersede all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to their subject matter.

The Contribution Agreement further stated that the "Agreement may not be modified or amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the corporation and all of the Holders."

On September 10, 2002, Mr. Wynn caused the filing of Amended Articles. Neither Aruze USA nor Mr. Okada was provided an opportunity to vote or consent in writing to the Amended Articles. The Amended Articles added the following additional language to the Original Articles:

The Securities Owned or Controlled by an Unsuitable Person or an Affiliate of an Unsuitable Person shall be subject to redemption by the Corporation, out of funds legally available therefor, by action of the board of directors, to the extent required by the Gaming Authority making the determination of unsuitability or to the extent deemed necessary or advisable by the board of directors.

On September 28, 2002, Mr. Wynn contributed the LLC Interest in Valvino to Wynn Resorts.

On October 21, 2002, Mr. Okada became a member of the Board. Mr. Okada was subsequently appointed to serve as the Vice-Chairman of the Board

On October 25, 2002, Wynn Resorts conducted an initial public offering on The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (the "Nasdaq") at $13 per share. At this time, Aruze USA and Mr. Wynn each owned approximately 30% of the outstanding stock.

On April 28, 2005, Wynn Las Vegas opened.

On September 10, 2006, Wynn Resorts opened in Macau.

Development In The Philippines

In 2007, Universal, the parent company of Aruze USA, and Mr. Okada began exploring the possibility of acquiring and developing land in the Philippines. Mr. Okada, the Chairman of Universal, brought the development idea to Mr. Wynn as a possible project for Wynn Resorts to pursue. On December 20, 2007, Universal announced a planned casino project in the Asian market and on April 25, 2008, Universal announced its planned casino project in the Philippines.

Wynn Resorts knew of the planned casino project in the Philippines in advance of Universal's announcement. Indeed, Mr. Wynn stated during a May 1, 2008 conference call that he had discussed the project with Mr. Okada extensively, and that everyone at Wynn Resorts would provide Mr. Okada support and advice on the Universal project.

On August 5, 2008, the Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corporation issued a provisional license to Tiger Resort, Leisure and Entertainment, Inc. (“Tiger”) to develop, establish, and operate casinos within the Bagong Nayong Pilipino Manila Bay Tourism City. Tiger is a subsidiary of Universal organized under the laws of the Philippines.

On June 14, 2010, Mr. Wynn and Mr. Okada jointly visited Manila and attended presentations regarding a development project.

Wynn Resorts’ Pledge To The University Of Macau Development Foundation

In April 2011, the Board met, discussed, and approved Wynn Macau, Limited’s (“Wynn Macau”) pledge to donate HK$1 billion (roughly $135 million) to the University of Macau Development Foundation. The contribution consisted of a $25 million contribution to be made in May 2011, and a commitment for an additional donation of approximately $10 million each year for the calendar years 2012 through 2022 inclusive. Mr. Okada questioned and objected to the donation and ultimately voted against it.

Following the April 2011 board meeting, pursuant to his rights as a director, Mr. Okada requested additional information related to Wynn Resorts’ business, including the Wynn Macau donation, culminating in formal demands for access to the books and records of the Company in October 2011. Subsequently, on January 11, 2012, in Nevada state court, Mr. Okada filed a petition for writ of mandamus to compel Wynn Resorts to grant him access to Wynn Resorts’ books and records, including records related to the Wynn Macau donation to the University of Macau Development Foundation. At a hearing on February 9, 2012, the Court ordered Wynn Resorts to comply with Mr. Okada’s reasonable requests.

On February 13, 2012, Wynn Resorts filed an 8-K stating that on February 8, 2012, Wynn Resorts received a letter from the Salt Lake Regional Office of the SEC requesting that, in connection with an informal inquiry by the SEC, Wynn Resorts preserve information relating to the pledge and donation to the University of Macau Development Foundation, any donations by Wynn Resorts to any other educational charitable institutions, and the Company’s casino or concession gaming licenses or renewals in Macau.

Aruze USA Seeks to Nominate Directors

On January 18, 2012, Aruze USA sent a letter to the Wynn Resorts Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee recommending that the Nominees (as well as two other candidates who are also independent from the Universal Group and its affiliates) be nominated by Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and included in Wynn Resorts’ Proxy Statement in an effort to seek greater independence on the Board. Aruze USA also sent a letter to Mr. Wynn reminding him of his obligation to endorse Aruze USA’s nominees pursuant to the Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement (as defined below).

Wynn Resorts’ Compliance Committee Investigation

After Mr. Okada raised his objection to the Wynn Resorts pledge to the University of Macau Development Foundation, on September 30, 2011, Aruze USA’s lawyers and Mr. Okada met with Kimmarie Sinatra and Kevin Tourek of Wynn Resorts. Ms. Sinatra and Mr. Tourek stated that Wynn Resorts’ Compliance Committee had commissioned two investigations and claimed to have an investigative report related to Mr. Okada and Universal. Ms. Sinatra also gave Mr. Okada a copy of the Amended Articles and stated that the Compliance Committee would meet on October 31, 2011. Counsel for Aruze USA requested a copy of the investigative report at the September 30 meeting. Ms. Sinatra and Mr. Tourek declined to provide a copy of the purported investigative report. On October 3, 2011, Aruze USA's counsel again requested a copy of the Compliance Committee's investigative report, but Wynn Resorts declined to provide the purported report.

On October 4, 2011, Mr. Wynn and Ms. Sinatra met with Mr. Okada and counsel for Aruze USA and Mr. Okada. Mr. Wynn stated that Mr. Okada must be removed as Vice Chairman of Wynn Resorts and stated that Mr. Okada should resign as a director of Wynn Resorts. During the meeting, counsel for Aruze USA again requested a copy of the Compliance Committee's purported investigative report. Ms. Sinatra stated that the report was privileged and did not provide a copy of the report to Aruze USA.

On October 12, 2011, Robert L. Shapiro, an attorney retained by Wynn Resorts, sent a letter to Aruze USA. The letter stated that Universal's project in the Philippines supposedly raised questions regarding possible violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. Mr. Shapiro explained that Wynn Resorts' Compliance Committee was investigating the matter and retained Louis J. Freeh and his firm Freeh Sporkin & Sullivan LLP ("Freeh Sporkin") to conduct a purportedly independent investigation. The letter further called for Mr. Okada's resignation as a director of Wynn Resorts.

On October 24, 2011, through counsel, Mr. Okada made a formal demand for documents regarding the Philippine investigation.

On November 1, 2011, the Board held a scheduled meeting. At the meeting, the Chairman of the Wynn Resorts Compliance Committee, Robert Miller, provided an oral report of the investigation into Mr. Okada's and Universal's activities in the Philippines. Mr. Miller reported that one internal and two independent investigations had been conducted into suitability, conflicts of interest, and possible breaches of fiduciary duties related to acquisition of the land in the Philippines by related to Universal's Philippine project and charitable contributions made by Universal.

On November 1, 2011, the Board held a scheduled meeting, at which the Board eliminated Mr. Okada's position as Vice Chairman of the Board. Mr. Okada continued as a member of the Board.

On January 9, 2012, attorneys from the law firm of Freeh Sporkin & Sullivan LLP contacted counsel for Mr. Okada. Freeh Sporkin set the dates for an interview with Mr. Okada from January 30 to February 5. On January 19, 2012, Mr. Miller wrote directly to Mr. Okada stating that if Mr. Okada did not make himself available for interviews with Freeh Sporkin on January 30 or 31, the Compliance Committee "can only conclude [Mr. Okada] refused participation." The interview was ultimately scheduled for February 15, 2012.

On February 15, 2012, Mr. Okada sat for a full-day interview with Mr. Freeh and several other lawyers for Freeh Sporkin. Shortly after the conclusion of this interview, on February 15, 2012, Wynn Resorts noticed a special meeting of its Board set for February 18, 2012 at 9:00 a.m. in Las Vegas. The agenda included a review of the Freeh Sporkin report.

On February 18, 2012, Wynn Resorts held a special meeting of its Board. Mr. Okada participated via telephone. During the meeting, Mr. Okada was told he would not be provided a copy of the Freeh Sporkin report unless he and his counsel signed a non-disclosure agreement. Mr. Okada did not sign the agreement and was not provided with a copy of the Freeh Sporkin report. Mr. Freeh presented his findings to the Board.

On or about February 18, 2012, Wynn Resorts provided a copy of the Freeh Sporkin report to the Wall Street Journal. Mr. Okada only obtained a copy of the Freeh Sporkin report days later, when his representatives obtained a copy from a court where Wynn Resorts had filed it, and Mr. Okada still has not been provided with a copy of the Freeh Sporkin report that includes the exhibits to the report.

At 1:45 am Pacific Time on February 19, 2012, Aruze USA's counsel received correspondence, containing a notice of determination of unsuitability and a notice of redemption. The redemption notice stated that Wynn Resorts had redeemed Aruze USA's stock in exchange for 10-year promissory note paying 2% annual interest on a face amount of approximately $1.936 billion. That $1.936 billion face amount represented a 30% discount off the stock market valuation of the stock based on the prior day's closing price and was nearly $1 billion less than the value Wynn Resorts itself had given Aruze USA's shares in a court filing on January 27, 2012.

Litigation Regarding The Purported Redemption of Aruze USA's Shares Of Wynn Resorts Stock

At 2:14 a.m. Pacific Time on February 19, 2012, Wynn Resorts electronically filed a complaint against Mr. Okada. The complaint attached the report prepared by Mr. Freeh without exhibits.

On February 19, 2012, Wynn Resorts issued a press release stating that it had redeemed Aruze USA's shares in exchange for a promissory note in the principal amount of $1.936 billion.

Aruze USA and Universal filed an answer to Wynn Resorts' complaint and a counterclaim on March 12, 2012.

On August 24, 2012, Wynn Resorts filed a Form 8-K announcing that it will hold the Annual Meeting on November 2, 2012.

On August 31, 2012, Aruze USA and Universal filed a preliminary injunction motion to protect Aruze USA's rights as a stockholder of Wynn Resorts. The motion sought to prohibit Wynn Resorts from preventing Aruze USA from exercising its right to vote its shares at the Annual Meeting or otherwise depriving Aruze USA of its stockholder rights, including its right to propose new directors for consideration at the Annual Meeting. Universal argued that the Board's forcible redemption of Aruze USA's almost 20% ownership interest in Wynn Resorts was an attempt at disenfranchising Aruze USA with respect to critical upcoming stockholder votes and at silencing Mr. Okada as the lone voice of dissent against Steve Wynn on the Board (as evidenced by Mr. Okada's vote against the $135 million pledge to the University of Macau Development Foundation). Although Wynn Resorts purports to justify the redemption by claiming that, on the basis of the Freeh Sporkin report, Aruze USA's continued ownership of the Common Stock would put Wynn Resorts in imminent danger of losing its gaming licenses, Universal argued that the Freeh Sporkin report was a mere pretext for the Board's actions to oust a dissenting Board member and entrench and enrich Steve Wynn, the Board, and the management of Wynn Resorts. In fact, one Board member who voted in favor of the redemption, Elaine P. Wynn, has admitted in court filings that Wynn Resorts was not in imminent danger of losing any gaming licenses, and therefore this was not a basis for the redemption.

On October 2, 2012, District Court, Clark County, Nevada denied the preliminary injunction motion. Aruze USA and Universal intend to appeal this decision to the Supreme Court of Nevada.

REASON FOR THE SOLICITATION

As noted above, on January 18, 2012 Aruze USA sent a letter to the Wynn Resorts Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee recommending the Nominees (as well as two other candidates who are also independent from the Universal Group, Wynn Resorts and their respective affiliates) be nominated by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and included in Wynn Resorts' Proxy Statement in an effort to seek greater independence on the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee did not agree to nominate the Nominees or Aruze USA's two other candidates and, as described above, Wynn Resorts has taken certain actions resulting in the purported redemption of the Aruze Shares that raise serious questions about the Board's independence and its corporate governance more generally. As described above, Aruze USA believes that the Board used the Freeh Sporkin report as a mere pretext to oust Mr. Okada, a dissenting Board member, and entrench and enrich Mr. Wynn, the Board, and the management of Wynn Resorts. After Mr. Okada alone voted against the proposal to donate $135 million to the University of Macau Development Foundation, Mr. Wynn caused the Board to declare Mr. Okada, Aruze USA and Universal to be "unsuitable" at a special Board meeting hurriedly put together, called on only three days' notice and held in the middle of the night in Asia. There, at Mr. Wynn's urging, the Board voted to forcibly take Aruze USA's stock in exchange for a 10-year note at a 30% discount to the then-current stock market price. In one fell swoop, Mr. Wynn and his Board thus acted to quell dissent and consolidate power at Wynn Resorts by disenfranchising the Company's largest stockholder. Aruze USA contends that the Board's actions, taken in direct contravention to both Wynn Resorts' contractual obligations to Aruze USA and the Board's fiduciary duties, demonstrate a profound disregard of corporate governance and paint a picture of a Board beholden to the Company's chairman and chief executive officer, Mr. Wynn.

Because the Board's actions confirm our belief that the Board lacks a sufficient level of independence from the Company's management and, in particular Mr. Wynn, the Company's chairman and chief executive officer, we intend to nominate the Nominees at the Annual Meeting. In this regard, we would further note that only seven of the 12 members (or 58.3%) of the Board are independent under the listing rules of the Nasdaq. In its 2011 report on the Company, proxy advisory firm ISS noted the low level of independent directors on the Board, stating, "[i]nvestors generally prefer that independent directors be a substantial majority of the company's board." Additionally, proxy advisory firm Glass Lewis & Co., in its 2011 Proxy Paper on the Company remarked:

We note that five of the twelve directors are either affiliated with the Company or are insiders. We believe this raises concerns about the objectivity and independence of the board and its ability to perform its proper oversight role. We prefer boards with a lower percentage of affiliates and insiders.

We strongly believe the interests of Stockholders should be better protected by greater independent representation on the Board. We are submitting the Nominees for election to the Board to strengthen the Board and to provide strong, independent directors to help lead the Company and drive its business goals. We believe that the addition of these independent, highly credentialed and experienced directors is essential to enhancing Wynn Resorts' corporate governance and future success. Unlike the directors the Nominees would replace, we believe the Nominees would be deemed independent under Nasdaq's listing rules.

The Nominees would replace Linda Chen and Marc D. Schorr on the Board. The following provides certain information from the Wynn Resorts' Proxy Statement regarding Ms. Chen's and Mr. Schorr's positions with Wynn Resorts as well as the compensation and other benefits they receive from Wynn Resorts, as we believe this information bears on their ability to provide independent judgment on the Board.

Linda Chen. Ms. Chen has been an Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer of Wynn Macau, Limited, a majority owned subsidiary of the Company, since September 2009. Ms. Chen serves as the President of Wynn International Marketing, Limited, a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of the Wynn Resorts, a position she has held since January 2005. In addition, Ms. Chen is the Chief Operating Officer of Wynn Resorts (Macau), S.A., a role she has served in since June 2002. Ms. Chen is responsible for the marketing and strategic development of Wynn Macau. Ms. Chen is a member of the Nanjing Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (Macau).

Ms. Chen was awarded total annual compensation, as calculated pursuant to SEC rules, of approximately $5.9 million in 2011. She also realized approximately $3.3 million in value through the exercise of stock options in 2011. In addition, under the terms of Ms. Chen's 2010 employment agreement, Wynn Resorts purchased a home in Macau for Ms. Chen's use for approximately $5.4 million, and through December 31, 2011, had made improvements with costs totaling $2.1 million to renovate the home. Upon the occurrence of certain events set forth below, Ms. Chen shall have the option to purchase the home at the then fair market value of the home (as determined by an independent appraiser) less a discount equal to ten percent of the then fair market value multiplied by each anniversary of the term of the agreement that has occurred (the "Discount Percentage"). The option is exercisable for (a) no consideration at the end of the term, (b) $1.00 in the event that the Company terminates Ms. Chen's employment without "cause" or Ms. Chen terminates her employment for "good reason" following a "change of control" and (c) at a price based on the applicable Discount Percentage in the event Ms. Chen terminates the agreement due to material breach by the Company. Upon Ms. Chen's termination for "cause," Ms. Chen will be deemed to have elected to purchase the Macau home based on the applicable Discount Percentage unless the Company determines to not require Ms. Chen to purchase the home. If Ms. Chen's employment terminates for any other reason before the expiration of the term (e.g., because of her death or disability or due to revocation of gaming license), the option will terminate.

In addition, in July 2011, Ms. Chen was granted a $10 million cash retention award which vests in full on July 27, 2021 (the "Vesting Date"), subject to certain provisions.

Finally, Wynn Resorts (or its subsidiaries) employs Eddie Tseng, the spouse of Ms. Chen, as Senior Vice President of Customer Development of Worldwide Wynn, LLC. In 2011, the compensation paid to Mr. Tseng, as calculated pursuant to the SEC's compensation disclosure rules, consists of base salary and bonus of $572,000 and other compensation of $668.

Marc D. Schorr. Mr. Schorr serves as Chief Operating Officer of the Company, a position he has held since June 2002. Mr. Schorr has served as a Non-Executive Director of Wynn Macau, Limited since September 2009 and is also an officer of several of the Company's other subsidiaries.

Mr. Schorr was awarded total annual compensation, as calculated pursuant to SEC rules, of approximately $8.1 million in 2011 from Wynn Resorts, including $387,982 related to personal use of Wynn Resorts' aircraft. He also realized approximately $4.9 million in value through the exercise of stock options in 2011

PROPOSAL NO. 1
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Section 2.12 of the Bylaws provides that nominations of persons for election to the Board may be made “by any stockholder entitled to vote in the election of directors who complies with the notice procedures set forth in Section 2.13” of the Bylaws (“Section 2.13”). On August 31, 2012, Aruze a record holder of Common Stock, delivered a timely notice in accordance with Section 2.13, notifying Wynn Resorts of Aruze USA’s intent to nominate Professor Jonathan R. Macey and Mr. Fredric G. Reynolds for election as Class I members of the Board. Each Nominee, if elected, would serve a three-year term and hold office until the 2015 annual meeting of Stockholders and until his successor is elected or appointed and qualified or until his earlier death, retirement, disqualification, resignation or removal. Background information about each of the Nominees is set forth below. Each of the Nominees has consented to being named in this Proxy Statement and, if elected, to serve as a director.

The Amended Articles and the Bylaws require that the number of directors on the Board be not less than one nor more than thirteen. Presently, the Board is set at 12 directors and is divided into three classes. At each annual meeting, the terms of one class of directors expire. Each director nominee is elected to the Board for a term of three years. Class I includes Ms. Linda Chen, Mr. John A. Moran, Mr. Marc D. Schorr and Ms. Elaine P. Wynn, whose terms expire at the Annual Meeting. On September 14, 2012, Wynn Resorts filed a Form 8-K with the SEC announcing that, on September 10, 2012, Mr. John A. Moran informed Wynn Resorts of his determination to retire from the Board and not to stand for re-election at the Annual Meeting. At the Annual Meeting, four Class I directors are to be elected, each to serve until the 2015 annual meeting of Stockholders and until his or her successor is elected or appointed and qualified, or until his or her earlier death, retirement, disqualification, resignation or removal.

According to Wynn Resorts’ Proxy Statement, the Board intends to nominate four candidates for election as Class I directors at the Annual Meeting. This Proxy Statement is soliciting proxies to elect Professor Jonathan R. Macey and Mr. Fredric G. Reynolds, and to enable Stockholders to vote for the Wynn Resorts nominees other than Ms. Linda Chen and Mr. Marc D. Schorr. Therefore, should a Stockholder authorize us, we will cast votes for our two Nominees and Wynn Resorts’ nominees, other than Ms. Linda Chen and Mr. Marc D. Schorr. No nominees of Wynn Resorts for whom we seek authority to vote has agreed to serve with any of our Nominees, if one or both of our Nominees are elected, and there is no assurance that any of Wynn Resorts’ nominees will serve as directors if one or both of the Nominees are elected to the Board.

If elected, the Nominees will be a minority of the directors and will not alone be able to adopt resolutions. However, the Nominees expect to be able to actively engage other Board members in full discussion of the issues facing the Company and resolve them together. By utilizing their respective experiences and working constructively with Board members, the Nominees believe they can effect positive change at Wynn Resorts.

The Nominees would not be barred from being considered independent under Rule 5605 of the Nasdaq listing rules and the independence standards applicable to Wynn Resorts under paragraph (a)(1) of Item 407 of Regulation S-K under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”); the Participants believe that the Nominees would be considered independent under both the Nasdaq listing rules and the Exchange Act.

Professor Jonathan R. Macey, age 57

Professor Macey has enjoyed a long and distinguished career as a professor of law with a focus on corporate law, corporate governance, securities law and finance. Professor Macey has for more than the last five years been the Sam Harris Professor of Corporate Law, Corporate Finance and Securities Law at Yale Law School, and a professor in the Yale School of Management. He is also member of the Faculty Advisory Group, of the Yale Center for Corporate Governance and Performance, a Member of the Board of Directors of the Yale Law School Center for the Study of Corporate Governance, a member of the Faculty Advisory Group of Yale's Millstein Center for Corporate Governance and Performance and is Chair of the Yale University Advisory Committee on Investor Responsibility. Professor Macey has been a visiting professor at the University of Tokyo, the University of Amsterdam and the Stockholm School of Economics. He is widely published in the fields of corporate law and corporate governance. Mr. Macey has served on a number of boards of directors, including the board of WCI Communities, Inc., a fully integrated homebuilding and real estate services company, from August 2007 to November 2009, where he was a member of the audit committee and the nominating and corporate governance committee. WCI Communities, Inc. was a public company prior to its deregistration under the Exchange Act in March 2009.

Based upon Professor Macey's expertise in corporate governance, securities law and finance; prior service as an independent director of a public company; and education, the Participants believe that Professor Macey has the requisite set of skills to serve as a Board member. Professor Macey would also bring to the Board a unique and studied perspective on corporate governance and corporate law, representing an important source of legal knowledge and current thinking on governance issues that would certainly enhance the Board's consideration and execution of its duties.

Mr. Fredric G. Reynolds, age 61

Mr. Reynolds has enjoyed a long career in the consumer products industry and as chief financial officer of large U.S. public companies. Mr. Reynolds served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of CBS Corporation, a mass media company, from July 2005 until his retirement in August 2009. From July 2001 until July 2005, Mr. Reynolds served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Viacom Television Stations Group. He also served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of CBS Corporation and its predecessor, Westinghouse Electric Corporation, from 1994 to 2000. Prior to that, Mr. Reynolds served in various capacities with PepsiCo, Inc., a food and beverage company, for twelve years, including Chief Financial Officer or Financial Officer at Pizza Hut, Pepsi Cola International, Kentucky Fried Chicken Worldwide and Frito-Lay. Mr. Reynolds currently serves on the boards of two large public companies, Kraft Foods, Inc., where he has been a director since 2007 and currently serves as chair of the audit committee and member of the finance committee, and AOL, Inc., where he has been a director since 2009 and currently serves as lead director and as a member of the audit, finance, and nominating and governance committees and chair of the executive committee. Mr. Reynolds also serves on the board of directors of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios Inc., a privately held company. From March 2010 to April, 2011, Mr. Reynolds served as non-executive chairman of the board of directors of The Reader's Digest Association, Inc., a privately held media and direct marketing company. Mr. Reynolds is a certified public accountant in the State of Florida and is qualified as a "financial expert" under the relevant Nasdaq and SEC rules.

Based upon Mr. Reynolds' extensive financial and accounting experience as a CFO, his leadership roles on the boards of two large public companies, and his education, the Participants believe that Mr. Reynolds has the requisite set of skills to serve as a Board member. Given Wynn Resorts' strategy of growth over the coming years, the Board would benefit greatly from someone with Mr. Reynolds' mix of financial and governance experience.

VOTING PROCEDURES

Shares Outstanding on the Record Date

According to Wynn Resorts' Proxy Statement, at the close of business on the Record Date for determining Stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, 100,522,136 shares of Common Stock were outstanding, which does not include the Aruze Shares. Including the Aruze Shares, and based on the information contained in Wynn Resorts' Proxy Statement, as of the Record Date, 125,071,358 outstanding shares of common stock were outstanding. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held of record on the Record Date on all matters presented at the Annual Meeting.

Voting Requirements; Effect of Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

A plurality of the votes cast in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of the director nominees. Under Nevada law, shares as to which a stockholder withholds voting authority in the election of directors and broker non-votes will not be counted as voting thereon and therefore will not affect the election of the nominees receiving a plurality of the votes cast. However, those shares will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum. A broker non-vote occurs when a bank, broker or other nominee does not have authority to vote on a particular item without instructions from the beneficial owner and has not received instructions. For each other item to be acted upon at the Annual Meeting other than the election of directors, the item will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the item by the Stockholders entitled to vote exceeds the number of votes cast in opposition to the item. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast on an item and therefore will not affect the outcome of these proposals, although they are counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

How to Vote if You are a Record Holder

There are four ways you may vote. You may:

1. Vote via the Internet by following the voting instructions on the GREEN proxy card;
2. Vote by telephone by following the voting instructions on the GREEN proxy card; or
3. Sign, date and return the enclosed GREEN proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope;
4. Vote in person by attending the Annual Meeting. Written ballots will be distributed to Stockholders who wish to vote in person at the Annual Meeting. If you hold your shares of Common Stock through a bank, broker or other custodian, you must obtain a legal proxy from such custodian in order to vote in person at the Annual Meeting.

To submit a proxy with voting instructions by telephone please follow the instructions on the GREEN proxy card. Proxies may also be submitted over the Internet. Please refer to the GREEN proxy card for the website information. In each case Stockholders will be required to provide the unique control number which has been printed on each Stockholder's GREEN proxy card. In addition to the instructions that appear on the GREEN proxy card, step-by-step instructions will be provided at the designated website for those Stockholders submitting proxies over the Internet. Stockholders submitting their proxies with voting instructions over the Internet may provide an email address for confirmation that their vote by Internet was successfully submitted.

Whether or not you are able to attend the Annual Meeting, you are urged to complete the enclosed GREEN proxy card and return it in the enclosed self-addressed, prepaid envelope or to vote by Internet or telephone.

Attending the Annual Meeting

The following information regarding attending the Annual Meeting is from Wynn Resorts' Proxy Statement. Stockholders will be admitted to the Annual Meeting upon presentation of identification and satisfactory proof of ownership of Common Stock on the record date for the Annual Meeting. Stockholders of record as of the record date, whose names appear on the Company's stock ledger, satisfactory proof of ownership consists of photo identification that matches the stockholder's name on the stock ledger, or photo identification and other proof of ownership of the Company's common stock on record date such as the Notice of Internet Availability that was mailed to them or a copy of Wynn Resorts' proxy card. For stockholders who own shares of the Company's common stock beneficially through a bank, broker or other nominee, satisfactory proof of ownership consists of a photo identification and the Notice of Internet Availability that was mailed to them, a copy of a voting instruction form proxy requested by and mailed to them, or a valid proxy signed by the record holder. Guests of stockholders and any other persons will be admitted at the discretion of the Company.

How To Vote if You Hold Your Common Stock "Street Name"

If your Common Stock is held in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee (i.e., in "street name"), only such broker, bank or other nominees can give a proxy with respect to your Common Stock. You may have received a voting instruction form (which you can complete and return to your broker, bank or other nominee to direct its voting of your Common Stock). If your broker, bank or other nominee has not sent you a voting instruction form, you may contact such nominee directly to provide it with voting instructions.

You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction forms. For example, if you hold Common Stock in more than one brokerage account, you may receive a separate voting instruction form for each brokerage account in which Common Stock is held. You should complete, sign, date and return each voting instruction form you receive.

How Proxies are Voted If You Do Not Specify a Choice With Respect to Any Proposal

All valid proxies received prior to the Annual Meeting will be voted. If you specify a choice with respect to any proposal by marking the appropriate box on the proxy, your shares of Common Stock will be voted in accordance with that specification. Las Vegas, Nevada 89119

January __, 2012

Dear Mr. _____:

Aruze USA, Inc., a Nevada corporation (“Aruze”), intends to submit nominees to be elected as members of the Wynn Resorts, Limited, a Nevada Corporation, (“Wynn Resorts”) Board of Directors (the “Wynn Resorts Board”) in connection with the next Wynn Resorts annual meeting of stockholders pursuant to the Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement dated January 6, 2010 among Aruze, Stephen A. Wynn and Elaine P. Wynn (the “Nomination”). Aruze may also submit a notice of nomination under Wynn Resorts’ bylaws and may solicit proxies for, among other things, the election of members to the Wynn Board in connection with the next Wynn Resorts annual meeting of stockholders or other meeting for such purpose (the “Proxy Contest”).

This letter agreement is with reference to your agreement to be nominated by Aruze (as such, a “Nominee”) for election to the Wynn Resorts Board.

A. Agreement as Nominee.

(a) You irrevocably agree: (i) to be named as a Nominee in any and all solicitation or other materials prepared by Aruze in connection with the Nomination and/or Proxy Contest, (ii) to provide all information as may be reasonably requested from time to time by Aruze (including, without limitation, all information required under federal securities laws or by Wynn Resorts’ bylaws and applicable policies, and all other information necessary for any materials prepared by Aruze in connection with the Nomination, the Proxy Contest and/or a proxy statement by Wynn Resorts (each a “Proxy Statement”)), and (iii) that your agreement to be a Nominee, and the information referred to above, may be disclosed by Aruze, in its Nomination and/or Proxy Contest materials or otherwise or by Wynn Resorts in a Proxy Statement or otherwise. You represent that the information provided by you or on your behalf to Aruze, including in your completed questionnaire from Aruze (the “Questionnaire”) relating to your being a Nominee, is true and complete and does not omit any material information. You agree that you will promptly provide Aruze with (x) any updates to the information you have previously provided under paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section A and your representations in the Questionnaire, and (y) such additional information as may reasonably be requested by Aruze. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you can terminate your agreement to be so nominated, in your sole discretion and without liability therefore, after the fifteen month anniversary of the date hereof; provided, that the remaining obligations of the parties under this Agreement survive any such termination.

(b) You agree, if elected or appointed, to serve as a director of Wynn Resorts, and in that capacity to act in the best interests of Wynn Resorts and its stockholders and to exercise your independent judgment in accordance with your fiduciary duties in all matters that come before the Wynn Resorts Board. You agree that you are not an employee or an agent or otherwise a representative of Aruze or its affiliates, that you are independent of Aruze and its affiliates, and that, if elected or appointed, you will in no way be controlled by or act at the direction of Aruze or its affiliates.

(c) Concurrently with execution of this Agreement, you will execute a consent, in the form attached as Exhibit A, confirming your consent to being a Nominee, to being named in the Nomination materials and/or a Proxy Statement and other materials as a Nominee, and to serving as a director of Wynn Resorts if elected.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Aruze is not obligated to nominate you to the Wynn Resorts Board or to identify you as an actual or potential Nominee or to commence or complete the Proxy Contest.

B. Compensation. In consideration of your agreement to become a Nominee and to be named in the Nomination materials and/or a Proxy Statement, promptly upon the first public dissemination by Aruze of your name as Nominee, Aruze shall pay to you a one-time payment in the amount of US$50,000. You understand that if you are elected to the Wynn Resorts Board, you may be entitled to receive from Wynn Resorts such compensation as shall be payable to the Wynn Resorts Board in accordance with Wynn Resorts' policies as in effect from time to time, and that no further compensation will be due from or payable by Aruze or any of its affiliates. Aruze agrees that this compensation arrangement will be disclosed in solicitation or other materials prepared by Aruze in connection with the Nomination and/or the Proxy Contest or by the Company in a Proxy Statement where you are named as a Nominee to extent required by applicable rules.

C. Expenses. Aruze agrees that with respect to the period starting from the date of this Agreement and ending at the earlier of (x) your election to the Wynn Resorts Board (or if the election or qualification of members to the Wynn Resorts Board is contested on any grounds, such later date that such contest is resolved) and (y) the date you have been notified by Aruze that it will not commence the Proxy Contest, has abandoned the Proxy Contest or Nomination or will not or no longer will nominate you to the Wynn Resorts Board, that the requisite number of votes for your election to the Wynn Resorts Board has not been obtained or that Aruze has otherwise terminated this Agreement, Aruze will promptly reimburse you for (A) all reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of your responsibilities as a Nominee and (B) reasonable fees and expenses of independent legal counsel proposed by Aruze and agreed to by at least 3 Nominees to advise on legal obligations associated with serving as a Nominee, other than the negotiation of this Agreement.

D. Indemnification. In addition to the reimbursement provided in Section C:

(a) Aruze hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless you from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, judgments, costs, and expenses (including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel and costs of investigation) (collectively, "Losses") to which you may become subject or which you may incur in connection with being made, or threatened with being made, a party or witness (or in any other capacity) to any proceeding at law or in equity or before any governmental agency or board or any other body whatsoever (whether arbitral, civil, criminal, trial, appeal, administrative, formal, informal, investigative or other), arising out of or based upon your being a Nominee (but not in connection with or based upon your being a director of Wynn Resorts), except to the extent such Loss arises or results from your bad faith, willful misconduct, gross negligence or any untrue statement or omission made by you or made by Aruze in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished by you in writing for use in connection with the Proxy Contest or in any document made available to Wynn Resorts or to the public; it being understood that you are furnishing the Questionnaire to be made available to Wynn Resorts at Aruze's direction and for use in the Proxy Statement and other documents to be made publicly available in connection with the Proxy Contest.

(b) You will give prompt written notice to Aruze when you become aware of the commencement or threatened commencement of any action in respect of which you may seek indemnification from Aruze hereunder; provided that the failure to so provide prompt notice shall not relieve Aruze of its indemnification obligations hereunder except to the extent that Aruze is materially prejudiced as a result thereof. Aruze shall timely pay all reasonable fees and disbursements of one independent legal counsel selected collectively by and acting on behalf of all Nominees in respect of such action; however, you shall have the right to retain separate counsel, provided, that you shall be responsible for the fees of such counsel and costs of such participation unless either (i) you and Aruze mutually agree to the retention of such counsel, or (ii) you reasonably conclude, following discussion with legal counsel, that the representation of you and other Nominees by the same counsel would be inappropriate due to actual or potential differing interests between you and them, in which case Aruze will be responsible for the reasonable fees and costs of such counsel. Aruze shall in no event be liable for any settlement by you of any such action effected without the prior written consent of Aruze, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(c) Aruze shall not settle, without your prior written consent (which you may withhold in your sole discretion), any action in any manner that would impose any penalty, obligation or limitation on you (other than monetary damages for which Aruze agrees to be wholly responsible), or that would contain any language that could reasonably be viewed as an acknowledgement of wrongdoing on your part or that would otherwise reasonably be expected to result in not immaterial damage to your professional reputation.

(d) Subject to the second sentence of subparagraph (b) above, your rights to indemnification under this Agreement shall include the right to be advanced any and all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with any indemnifiable claim promptly upon your request as such expenses are incurred.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, if Aruze has made payments to you pursuant to the indemnification and expense reimbursement provisions hereof and you subsequently are reimbursed by a third party therefor, you will remit such subsequent reimbursement to Aruze.

E. Confidentiality. You agree that until such information is otherwise made public, you will not disclose to any third party (on the your own behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity) any information relating to Aruze, Kazuo Okada, each of their relationship with Stephen A. Wynn or Wynn Resorts, your Nomination, or the Proxy Contest, including the existence of this Agreement, and will keep the terms of this Agreement in confidence and trust and shall not disclose such terms, except as otherwise required by law.

F. General.

(a) Notices and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and delivered by a nationally-recognized overnight courier with tracking capability, if mailed to you, then to the address set forth above under your name, and, if mailed to Aruze, then to the address indicated above in the letterhead. The failure of a party to insist upon strict adherence to any term contained herein shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such party's rights thereafter to insist upon strict adherence to that term or to any other term contained herein. In the event that any one or more provisions of this Agreement are deemed to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, then such provision(s) shall be deemed severed to the least extent possible without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement: (i) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of laws principles; (ii) contains the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter contained herein and may not be modified or amended except by mutual written consent; (iii) shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties and their respective heirs, representatives, successors, and assigns; (iv) may not be assigned by you without Aruze's prior written consent; and (v) may be executed in counterparts and delivered by facsimile signatures.

(c) Aruze shall have the right, at any time and in its sole discretion, to terminate this Agreement and/or to withdraw your name from consideration as a Nominee; provided, that Aruze's obligations under Section C and Section D hereof shall survive any such termination or withdrawal.
