DiMarco, DiMarco/Harleen Revocable Living Trust and DiMarco/Harleen 1996 Charitable Trust (collectively, the “Stockholders”) entered into a Voting Agreement (the “Voting Agreement”) with respect to the Shares, stock appreciation rights underlying the Shares (“SARs”) and restricted stock units underlying the Shares (“RSUs” and together with the Shares and the SARs, the “Voting Shares”), of Advent beneficially owned by the Stockholders. As of February 2, 2015, the Stockholders collectively controlled 2,867,887 Shares, 249,952 SARs and 1,306 RSUs, representing approximately 5.7% of the combined voting power of the outstanding Voting Shares on an as-converted basis. SS&C did not pay any monetary consideration to the Stockholders in connection with the execution and delivery of the Voting Agreement. For a description of the Voting Agreement, see Item 4 below, which description is incorporated by reference in response to this Item 3.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

The purpose of the Voting Agreement is to facilitate the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement

On February 2, 2015, SS&C, Arbor Acquisition Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of SS&C (“Merger Subsidiary”) and Advent entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which SS&C will acquire Advent by means of a merger with Merger Subsidiary with and into Advent (the “Merger”) with Advent being the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of SS&C (the “Surviving Corporation”).

Upon the consummation of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), each issued and outstanding Share, other than certain excluded shares, will be converted into the right to receive $44.25 in cash, without interest (the “Merger Consideration”).

At the Effective Time, (i) each outstanding stock option, SAR and RSU relating to Shares that are vested (or that will become vested in accordance with its terms) as of the Effective Time will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration with respect to each Share subject to such award (in the case of stock options and SARs, less the applicable exercise price per Share), (ii) each outstanding stock option, SAR and RSU relating to Shares that is unvested as of the Effective Time will be converted into a stock option, SAR or RSU, as applicable, with respect to shares of common stock of SS&C based on the exchange ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement and will otherwise continue to be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to such award and (iii) each outstanding performance-based restricted stock unit relating to Shares will vest and be settled in cash based on attained performance through the Effective Time and, to the extent such award does not vest, will be converted into a time-based RSU and will be adjusted and assumed by SS&C in accordance with clause (ii) above. Each of Advent and SS&C made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants by Advent to conduct its business in the ordinary course during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger.

The completion of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including approval by Advent’s stockholders, the absence of any material adverse effect on Advent’s business and receiving antitrust approvals under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended.

The Voting Agreement

On February 2, 2015, SS&C entered into the Voting Agreement (the “Voting Agreement”) with the Stockholders.

The Voting Agreement requires each Stockholder to vote (or cause to be voted) such Stockholder’s Voting Shares (i) in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger and other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (ii) in favor of any proposal to adjourn or postpone any meeting of the stockholders of Advent at which any of the foregoing matters are submitted for consideration to solicit additional votes and (iii) against any Acquisition Proposal (as defined by the Merger Agreement) and certain other actions that would reasonably be expected to interfere with consummation of the Merger. Pursuant to the Voting Agreement, each Stockholder waives appraisal rights and provides an irrevocable proxy appointing SS&C and any designee of SS&C as such Stockholder’s proxy and attorney-in-fact to vote such Stockholder’s Voting Shares in accordance with the foregoing. The Voting Agreement does not limit or restrict the Stockholder in his or her capacity as a director or officer from acting in such capacity or voting in such capacity in such person’s sole discretion on any matter.

The Voting Agreement and irrevocable proxies granted pursuant to the Voting Agreement terminate upon the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms.

To the extent that any Stockholder acquires beneficial ownership of any Voting Shares during the term of the Voting Agreement, such Voting Shares will become subject to the terms of the Voting Agreement to the same extent as though such Voting Shares were owned by such Stockholder as of the date of the Voting Agreement.

Until the termination of the Voting Agreement, each Stockholder is prohibited from transferring any Voting Shares beneficially owned by such Stockholder, subject to certain exceptions. Each Stockholder has also agreed to vote against (i) any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) any reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation or winding-up of the Company or any other extraordinary transaction involving the Company, (iii) any corporate action the consummation of which would frustrate the purposes, or prevent or delay the consummation, of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or (iv) any other matter relating to, or in connection with, any of the three preceding items. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in the Voting Agreement limits the rights of any member of Advent's Board of Directors to vote in favor of, against or abstain with respect to any matters presented to Advent's stockholders. The Voting Agreement does not limit or restrict any Stockholder in his or her capacity as a director or officer from acting in such capacity or voting in such capacity in such person's sole discretion on any matter.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and Voting Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement. Copies of the Merger Agreement and Voting Agreement are filed as Exhibits 2.1 and 2.2, respectively, to SS&C's current report on Form 8-K filed on February 3, 2014.

Except as set forth in this Item 4 and in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement, none of the Reporting Person and, to the knowledge of the Reporting Person, the persons set forth on Schedule A hereto, has any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D (although the Reporting Person reserves the right to develop such plans).

The Merger Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Advent, the Reporting Person or Merger Subsidiary. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for the purposes of such agreement and as of specified dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Advent, the Reporting Person or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. In addition, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by information in a confidential disclosure schedule that the parties have exchanged. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since (i) they were made only as of the date of such agreement or a prior, specified date, (ii) in some cases they are subject to qualifications with respect to materiality, knowledge and/or other matters and (iii) they may be modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedule. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Advent's or the Reporting Person's public disclosures.

Neither the filing of this Schedule 13D nor any of its contents shall be deemed to constitute an admission by SS&C that it is the beneficial owner of any Shares for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act, or for any other purpose, and such beneficial ownership thereof is expressly disclaimed.

Except as set forth in this Item 5(a), none of the Reporting Person, and to the best knowledge of the Reporting Person, the persons set forth on Schedule A hereto beneficially own any Shares.
