Edgar Filing: MARITRANS INC /DE/ - Form 8-K

Item 5. Other Events

On September 9, 2003, the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit rejected Maritrans' claim that the double hull requirement of the Oil Pollution Act of 1990 constituted a "taking" of its single hull barges under the 5th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The Court concluded that, because Congress permitted Maritrans' vessels to operate for several years before requiring their removal from service, Maritrans was able to recoup part of its investment in the vessels; and therefore no taking occurred. Further, the Court ruled that because Congress had a strong interest in protection of the environment, and because the burden of compliance was shared by all members of the marine transportation industry and not just Maritrans, the double hull requirement does not rise to the level of a "regulatory taking." The Company does not plan to appeal this decision.
