Item 5. Other Events

As previously reported, Applied Graphics Technologies, Inc. (the "Company") commenced a tender offer on July 4, 2002, to purchase all of its outstanding 10% Subordinated Notes due 2005 (the "Notes") for an aggregate purchase price of $3,000,000. The tender offer was originally scheduled to expire on July 30, 2002, but the Company extended the tender offer until August 27, 2002, as the minimum tender condition was not satisfied at that time. Ultimately, the tender offer did not succeed and lapsed on August 27, 2002, and none of the tendered Notes were accepted by the Company for payment. Because the tender offer was unsuccessful, on August 29, 2002, the Company paid the semi-annual interest on the Notes that was originally due July 31, 2002. The interest payment was made within the grace period allowed by the Notes, and therefore did not constitute an event of default.

Although the success of the tender offer was a condition to certain proposed terms for a renegotiation of the Company's credit facility, the Company continues to have discussions with its senior lenders to renegotiate the terms of its credit facility. There can be no assurances as to the success or the terms of this renegotiation.
