PROXY STATEMENT

FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 2003

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

GENERAL

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Danielson Holding Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), for use at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on November 5, 2003 (the "Annual Meeting") at 9:00 a.m., Central Standard Time, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting will be held at One North Franklin Street, Third Floor, Chicago, Illinois. This proxy statement and accompanying proxy card were mailed on or about October 7, 2003 to all stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The cost of solicitation of proxies in the form enclosed herewith will be paid by the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, the directors, officers and employees of the Company may also solicit proxies personally or by telephone without additional compensation for such activities. Brokers and other nominees who held common stock of the Company at the close of business on October 6, 2003 (the "Record Date") will be asked to contact the beneficial owners of the shares that they hold to send proxy materials to and obtain proxies from such beneficial owners. Although there is no formal agreement to do so, the Company may reimburse banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses in forwarding this Proxy Statement to stockholders whose common stock is held of record by such entities.

VOTING RIGHTS AND OUTSTANDING SHARES

Only holders of record of the Company's Common Stock, par value $0.10 per share (the "Common Stock"), at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. At the close of business on the Record Date, the Company had outstanding and entitled to vote 30,754,095 shares of Common Stock. Each holder of record of Common Stock on such date will be entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting. The presence in person or by proxy of stockholders entitled to cast a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast at the Annual Meeting, including shares represented by proxies that reflect abstentions, shall constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for the purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. In the election for directors, the eight nominees receiving the highest number of "FOR" votes will be elected to the Board. All other proposals require the affirmative "FOR" vote of a majority of those shares present and entitled to vote. An abstention as to any matter, when passage requires the vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the Annual Meeting, will have the effect of a vote "AGAINST." Broker non-votes (i.e., where a broker or nominee submits a proxy specifically indicating the lack of discretionary authority to vote on a matter) will not be considered, as they are not entitled to vote, and will not be counted for any purpose in determining whether a matter has been approved.

Edgar Filing: DANIELSON HOLDING CORP - Form DEF 14A

If there is not a quorum at the Annual Meeting, the stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, whether present in person or represented by proxy, shall only have the power to adjourn the Annual Meeting until such time as there is a quorum. The Annual Meeting may be reconvened without notice to stockholders, other than an announcement at the prior adjournment of the Annual Meeting, within 30 days after the Record Date, and a quorum must be present at such reconvened meeting.

Representatives of American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the Company's transfer agent, will tabulate the votes and act as the inspector of the election at the Annual Meeting.

If a proxy in the form enclosed is duly executed, dated and returned, and it has not been revoked in accordance with the instructions set forth therein, the shares of Common Stock represented thereby will be voted by Samuel Zell and Philip G. Tinkler, the Board's proxy agents for the Annual Meeting, in accordance with the specifications made thereon by the stockholder. If no such specifications are made, such proxy will be voted (i) for the election of the eight nominees for director to the Board for one year terms; (ii) for the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors; and (iii) at the discretion of Mr. Zell and Mr. Tinkler, with respect to such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. If for any unforeseen reason, any of the Company's nominees is not available as a candidate for director, the two proxy holders will vote the stockholder proxies for such other candidate or candidates as may be nominated by the Board. Any proxy solicited hereby may be revoked by the person or persons giving it at any time before it has been exercised at the Annual Meeting by giving notice of revocation to the Company in writing at the meeting. The Company requests that all such written notices of revocation to the Company be addressed to Philip G. Tinkler, Danielson Holding Corporation, 2 North Riverside Plaza, Suite 600, Chicago, Illinois 60606. Mere attendance at the Annual Meeting will not serve to revoke a proxy.

BOARD STRUCTURE AND COMPENSATION

The Board currently consists of eight members and one vacancy and has standing Audit and Compensation Committees. The Board does not have a nominating committee or a committee performing the functions of a nominating committee. During the 2002 fiscal year, the Board held ten meetings and took four actions by written consent. During the 2002 fiscal year, the Audit Committee held three meetings and the Compensation Committee held one meeting. In addition the Board also has an Acquisition Committee and, as a result of the bankruptcy of American Commercial Lines LLC ("ACL") and certain of its subsidiaries and the ownership of certain bonds issued by ACL by an affiliate of Samuel Zell, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and Philip Tinkler, the Chief Financial Officer of the Company, the Board has established a Special Committee of disinterested directors ("ACL Special Committee") to address matters involving the restructuring of ACL. Committee membership during the 2002 fiscal year and the function of the Audit and Compensation Committees are described below. Each director attended at least 75% of all Board meetings and applicable committee meetings.

COMMITTEES

The Audit Committee of the Board (the "Audit Committee") currently consists of Messrs. Huber (Chairman), Sullivan and Yeutter. All of the current members are Independent Directors, as defined by Section 121 (A) of the American Stock Exchanges listing standards. The Audit Committee held three meetings in 2002.

The Audit Committee is responsible for the oversight of the quality and integrity of the Company's financial statements, its compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, the qualifications and independence of its independent auditors, the performance of its audit function and independent auditors and significant financial matters. In discharging its duties, the Audit Committee is expected to do the following:

- have the sole authority to select, compensate, oversee, evaluate and replace the independent auditors;
- review and approve the scope of the annual audit;
- review and pre-approve the engagement of the Company's independent auditors to perform audit and non-audit services, as well as the related fees for such services;

- meet independently with the Company's independent auditors and senior management;
- review the integrity of the Company's financial reporting process;
- review the Company's financial statements and disclosures and U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") filings relating thereto; and

The Compensation Committee consists of Messrs. Sullivan (Chairman), Barse and Isenberg, all non-employee directors. The Compensation Committee held two meetings in 2002. The Compensation Committee reviews, and makes recommendations to the Board concerning, the Company's executive compensation policy.

The Acquisition Committee consists of Messrs. Barse, Pate, Whitman and Zell. The Acquisition Committee reviews, and makes recommendations to the Board concerning potential transactions for the Company.

The ACL Special Committee consisted of Messrs. Barse, Huber and Isenberg. Mr. Huber resigned from the ACL Special Committee on July 16, 2003 in connection with his appointment to the ACL Board of Managers. The ACL Special Committee addresses all matters involving the Company and the restructuring of ACL and its subsidiaries.

COMPENSATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Prior to July 24, 2002, each Director who was not an officer or employee of the Company or its subsidiaries received compensation of $2,500 for each Board meeting attended, whether in person or by telephone. Each eligible Director prior to July 24, 2002 was paid $10,000. Audit Committee members each received $2,500 in 2002 for their service on the Audit Committee. Directors who are officers or employees of the Company or its subsidiaries receive no fees for service on the Board. No attendance fee was paid to any Director with respect to any committee meetings.

After July 24, 2002, the Board ratified an annual fee of $30,000 payable to each Director who is not an officer or employee of the Company or its subsidiaries. For 2002, and after July 24, 2002, each eligible Director was paid $15,000, which is the $30,000 annual fee prorated for the shortened period. Members of the Audit, Compensation and other Committees receive $1,500 per meeting.

Edgar Filing: DANIELSON HOLDING CORP - Form DEF 14A

In addition, each non-employee director upon joining the Board of Directors on July 24, 2002 received a grant of options to purchase an aggregate of 40,000 shares of Common Stock pursuant to the 1995 Stock and Incentive Plan. The options had an exercise price of $4.26 per share and vest pro rata over a period of three years.

Each Management Nominee has consented to be named in this Proxy Statement and to serve as a Director if elected. However, if any Management Nominee shall become unable to stand for election as a Director at the Annual Meeting, an event not now anticipated by the Board, the proxy will be voted for a substitute designated by the Board or, if no substitute is selected by the Board prior to or at the Annual Meeting, for a motion to reduce the membership of the Board to the number of nominees available. It is intended that, unless authorization to do so is withheld, the proxies will be voted "FOR" the election of the Management Nominees.

The term of office of each Director will continue until the election of Directors to be held at the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders or until his successor has been elected. There is no family relationship between any Management Nominee for election as a Director and any other Management Nominee for election as a Director or executive officer of the Company. Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's Directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the American Stock Exchange initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company. Executive officers, Directors and greater than ten-percent stockholders are required by Federal securities regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based upon a review of filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and/or written representations from certain reporting persons, the Company believes that all of its Directors, executive officers and other Section 16 reporting persons complied during fiscal 2002 with the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) except as follows: Messrs. Whitman, former Company President and Chief Operating Officer, David Barse, and former Company Chief Financial Officer, Michael Carney, each filed one late Form 4 with respect to shares of Common Stock purchased by them upon exercise of stock rights in connection with the consummation of the transactions under the recapitalization agreement regarding the acquisition and recapitalization of ACL by the Company (the "Danielson Recapitalization"); W. James Hall, former Company general counsel, filed one late Form 3 with respect to his being named general counsel and secretary of the Company in December 2000 and one late Form 4 with respect to shares of Common Stock purchased by him upon exercise of stock rights in connection with the Danielson Recapitalization; Mr. Pate filed two late Forms 4 with respect to shares of Common Stock purchased by him in May 2002 and the other with respect to his purchase of shares of Common Stock and receipt of stock options from the Company in December 2000; Mr. Isenberg failed to file two Forms 4, one with respect to shares of Common Stock purchased by him upon exercise of stock rights in connection with the Danielson Recapitalization and the other with respect to a change in beneficial ownership arising from a 1994 transfer of 28 shares of Common Stock into a partnership controlled by him; and former Company Directors, Frank B. EMPLOYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

In connection with his announced retirement as of October 31, 2003, a separation agreement to be entered into between Michael C. Hagan and ACL has been approved by the bankruptcy court administering ACL's bankruptcy petition. Under this proposed agreement, Mr. Hagan has agreed, among other things, that he would (i) not compete with or solicit employees or customers from ACL during the period from the date of his retirement through June 30, 2004, and (ii) release ACL from all claims he may have against ACL, including any claims relating to his employment with and his separation from ACL, arising under any employment benefit program of ACL, relating to any severance or similar benefit program of ACL, and arising under any age discrimination laws. Under this proposed separation agreement, Mr. Hagan also would agree to provide certain consulting services to ACL through June 30, 2004, including, advising ACL on asset dispositions, its bankruptcy proceedings, and certain customer and business transitional matters. In exchange for his agreements under this separation agreement, including his agreement not to compete with ACL and his release of claims, Mr. Hagan would receive $275,000 in addition to a $25,000 per month payment for his consulting services to be performed thereunder. Mr. Hagan would also participate in ACL's group medical and dental insurance plans for 2 years after his separation and maintain his participation under ACL's pension plan and 401(k) plan.

Also in connection with his retirement from ACL, Mr. Hagan has agreed in principle with the Company to extend the period during which Mr. Hagan can exercise options to acquire 26,250 shares of the Company's Common Stock to the one-year period running from his retirement date through October 31, 2004. Under this proposed agreement, the Company and Mr. Hagan would mutually agree to waive and release the other from all claims that may have existed between them, other than any arising under the Company's or any of its subsidiaries' indemnification obligations to its current and former directors, members, officers or board of representative members.

In connection with his separation from ACL, James J. Wolff and ACL entered into a release and waiver of employment and separation from employment claims dated June 25, 2003 pursuant to which Mr. Wolff has agreed, among other things, not to (i) compete with American Commercial Barge Line, LLC, a subsidiary of ACL, during the two year period following his separation from ACL or (ii) solicit employees or customers from ACL. Under this release and waiver, Mr. Wolff also agreed to release ACL from all claims he may have against ACL, including any claims relating to his employment with and his separation from ACL, arising under any employment benefit program of ACL, relating to any severance or similar benefit program of ACL, and arising under any age discrimination laws and to provide certain consulting services to ACL for six months following his separation to insure a smooth and orderly transition of his duties and the continuance of ACL's operations without interruption or delay. In exchange for his agreements under this release and waiver, including his agreement not to compete with ACL and his release of claims, Mr. Wolff will receive $170,000. This release and waiver agreement was approved by the bankruptcy court administering ACL's bankruptcy petition.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company has agreed to provide SZ Investments, LLC ("SZI") unlimited demand registration rights with respect to the ACL Senior Notes and ACL PIK Notes held by SZI and its affiliates. The selling noteholder, HY I Investments, LLC ("HYI"), is an affiliate of SZI. Mr. Zell, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Company's Board, and Mr. Tinkler, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, are affiliated with SZI and HYI. Mr. Pate, a member of the Company's Board, is affiliated with SZI.

The Company has also entered into a non-exclusive investment advisory agreement dated April 14, 1999 with Equity Group Investments, LLC ("EGI"), a company affiliated with Mr. Zell, pursuant to which EGI has agreed to provide, at the request of the Company, certain investment banking services to the Company in connection with potential transactions. For these services, in 2002 the Company paid a $0.06 million fee to EGI. In the event that a transaction is consummated for which the Acquisition Committee of the Company's Board determines that EGI provided material services, EGI would be entitled to a fee from the Company in the amount of 1% of the aggregate consideration in connection with such transaction (including indebtedness assumed or outstanding). As a result of services provided to the Company during the Danielson Recapitalization, the Company and EGI agreed that the fee for EGI's services was $3.0 million. The Company has also agreed to reimburse, upon request, EGI's out-of-pocket expenses related to services provided under the investment advisory agreement. For providing a standby commitment to purchase any of the Company shares that were unsubscribed in the rights offering conducted by the Company as part of its acquisition of ACL, the Company paid SZI a fee of $1.0 million. Messrs. Zell and Pate are members of the Acquisition Committee, along with Messrs. Whitman and Barse, all of whom are Directors of the Company.

On November 8, 2002, the Company, SZI and Martin J. Whitman terminated an investment agreement existing between those parties, which provided certain voting and registration rights to the parties, and entered into a new registration rights agreement with SZI.

Prior to and shortly after the acquisition of ACL, the Company shared certain personnel and facilities with several affiliated and unaffiliated companies who have certain common directors and officers, and certain expenses were allocated among the various entities. Personnel costs were allocated based upon actual time spent on the Company business. Costs relating to office space and equipment were allocated based upon actual usage. The Company believes the methodology used for allocation was appropriate. Total expenses allocated to the Company from affiliated entities were $1.7 million for the year ended December 27, 2002.

ACL has entered into certain non-material agreements with certain affiliates of UABL Limited ("UABL"), a 50% owned subsidiary of the Company, for ship management and chartering arrangements. The Company recorded charter income from UABL of $5.9 million for the period May 29, 2002 through December 27, 2002. The Company and all its subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, also recorded administrative fee expenses to UABL of $4.3 million for the period May 29, 2002 through December 27, 2002. Charter rates are established at fair market value based upon similar transactions. As of December 27, 2002, the Company has recorded $6.3 million in accounts receivable from UABL.

The Company has entered into a corporate services agreement dated as of September 2, 2003 pursuant to which EGI has agreed to provide certain administrative services to the Company, including, among others, shareholder relations, insurance procurement and management, payroll services, cash management and treasury functions, technology services, listing exchange compliance and financial and corporate record keeping. Under the agreement, the Company pays to EGI $20,000 per month plus certain out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by EGI under this corporate services agreement. Either party may terminate this corporate services agreement on 30 days written notice.

The arrangements described above are each on terms and conditions that the Company believes are in the aggregate not materially more burdensome to the Company than would be obtained on an arm's-length basis among unaffiliated parties.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee"), during 2002, was comprised of three independent (i.e., non-employee) directors, with Mr. Barse joining the Committee following his resignation as an executive officer of the Company. The Committee provided the following report on executive compensation during 2002 as required by applicable securities regulations:

The Committee's overriding goal continues to be to structure compensation in a way that will attract and retain highly qualified executives who will conduct the business of the Company in a manner that will maximize stockholder value.

Edgar Filing: DANIELSON HOLDING CORP - Form DEF 14A

The 2002 annual base salary of Mr. Whitman, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company prior to his resignation, was $200,000; an amount which had remained the same as in each of the prior three years. Upon becoming the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, Mr. Zell's annual base salary was also established at $200,000. In addition, the 2002 annual base salary of Mr. Barse, the President and Chief Operating Officer prior to his resignation remained at $75,000; the same as in previous years.

The Company continues to try to balance its desire not to take significant additional cash out of the Company in the form of executive compensation while searching for opportunities to meet its goal of maximizing stockholder values with the reality of the extensive efforts which each of these executives undertakes in overseeing the Company's operations as well as identifying and negotiating potential opportunities on behalf of the Company. The Company was able to retain Messrs. Whitman and Barse and, upon his succession to Mr. Whitman, Mr. Zell, at their levels of base compensation in part because each of them were (or in Mr. Zell's case is) also employed by affiliates of the Company. The Committee continues to believe that it was appropriate to maintain these compensation levels for its executive officers. The Committee will continue to review bonus compensation in light of the Company's achievements in any given year and the role the executives play in those achievements.

In addition to the cash compensation of its executives, the Company granted stock options during the year under its 1995 Stock and Incentive Plan (the "1995 Plan").

In making determinations regarding compensation for its chief executive officer in particular, and its other executive officers, in general, the Committee does not rely upon quantitative measures or other measurable objective indicia, such as earnings or specifically weighted factors or compensation formulae. In light of the fact that the Company, at the parent-company level, is a holding company with a small staff responsible for numerous and diverse areas of the Company's business and management, and given the high level of awareness each executive has of the others' activities and contributions, the Committee evaluates executive performance and reaches compensation decisions based, in part, upon the recommendations of the Company's executives.

Finally, the Committee notes that Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, in most circumstances, limits to $1 million the deductibility of compensation, including stock-based compensation, paid to top executives by public companies. None of the 2002 compensation paid to the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table exceeded the threshold for deductibility under Section 162(m).

THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE:

Joseph P. Sullivan (Chairman)
Eugene Isenberg
David M. Barse

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

During 2002, none of the persons who served as members of the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board also was, during that year or previously, an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or had any other relationship requiring disclosure herein, other than Mr. Barse who was the President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company until July 24, 2002.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of the Company's Board is responsible for providing independent, objective oversight of the Company's accounting functions and internal controls. The Audit Committee is composed of three directors. Each of the current directors is independent as defined by the American Stock Exchange listing standards. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter approved by the Board. A copy of the charter is attached to the 2001 Proxy Statement and on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and financial reporting process. Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent auditors for 2002, are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and to issue a report thereon. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

In connection with these responsibilities, the Audit Committee met with management and Ernst & Young LLP to review and discuss the December 27, 2002 financial statements. The Audit Committee also discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee also received written disclosure from Ernst & Young LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committee), and the Audit Committee discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the firm's independence.

Based upon the Audit Committee's discussions with management and Ernst & Young LLP, and the Audit Committee's review of the representations of management and Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board include the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 27, 2002.

THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

Richard L. Huber, Chairman
Joseph P. Sullivan
Clayton Yeutter

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independent auditors' independence, and has approved those services.

17

CHANGE IN INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTING FIRM

During 2001 and 2002, KPMG LLP ("KPMG") served as the Company's principal independent accounting firm until July 25, 2002. On July 25, 2002, KPMG's appointment as the Company's principal independent accounting firm was terminated and Ernst & Young was engaged as the Company's principal independent accounting firm. The decision to change accounting firms was made by the Audit Committee of the Board. Prior to such change, the Company actively considered whether it was advisable to change firms following the Company's acquisition of ACL, whose business is different from the Company's traditional areas. The Company solicited bids from a group of accounting firms, including KPMG, and on the basis of that information the Audit Committee determined that the Company should change accounting firms.

In connection with the audits of the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and December 31, 2000, and during the subsequent interim period through July 25, 2002, there were no disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements if not resolved to their satisfaction would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with their reports.

The audit reports of KPMG on the consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for the years ended December 31, 2001 and December 31, 2000, did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and December 31, 2000 and the subsequent interim period through July 25, 2002, the Company did not consult with Ernst & Young regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

Ernst & Young has reviewed the disclosures contained in this Proxy Statement under the heading "Change in Independent Accounting Firm" and concurs with the statements regarding Ernst & Young set forth herein. The Company has also provided KPMG with a copy of the disclosures contained herein. KPMG previously has furnished a letter to the Securities and Exchange Commission attached as Exhibit 16.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 1, 2002.
