ITEM 8.01 - OTHER EVENTS.

DUSA Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ("DUSA") issued a press release on June 21, 2006, reporting that on June 19, 2006 the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Gainesville Division, dismissed all claims alleged by River's Edge Pharmaceuticals, LLC in its lawsuit against DUSA and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Sirius Laboratories, Inc. The lawsuit was filed by River's Edge on March 28, 2006, alleging, among other things, that Sirius agreed to authorize River's Edge to market a generic version of Nicomide(R), and that the United States patent covering Nicomide(R) issued to Sirius in December, 2005 is invalid. Nicomide is the key product acquired by DUSA when it merged with Sirius Laboratories, Inc. in March of 2006. In May, 2006, the United States District Court in Trenton, New Jersey, issued a preliminary injunction enjoining River's Edge from selling its niacinamide formula drug as a generic substitute for Nicomide(R). DUSA has filed a request to amend its complaint in New Jersey seeking a declaration that, among other things, Sirius made no promise to River's Edge regarding the marketing of a generic niacinamide product.

Except for historical information, this report, including the exhibit, contains certain forward-looking statements that involve known and unknown risk and uncertainties, which may cause actual results to differ materially from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the statements made. These forward-looking statements relate to beliefs concerning the preliminary injunction and protection of the marketplace. These forward-looking statements are further qualified by important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. These factors include, without limitation litigation process, our ability to penetrate the market, maintenance of our patent portfolio, sufficient funding and other risks and uncertainties identified in DUSA's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time, including its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.
