Exhibit N

The Gemalto securities referred to herein that were issued in connection with the exchange offer and the Gemalto securities referred to herein that will be issued in connection with the statutory sell-out right described herein have not been, and are not intended to be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 (the U.S. Securities Act ) and may not be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, into the United States except pursuant to an applicable exemption. The Gemalto securities have been made and will be made available within the United States in connection with the exchange offer and the statutory sell-out described herein pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act.

The exchange offer and such statutory sell-out relates to the securities of a non-U.S. company and are subject to disclosure requirements of a foreign country that are different from those of the United States. Financial statements and information included in the document, if any, are prepared in accordance with foreign accounting standards that may not be comparable to the financial statements of United States companies.

It may be difficult for you to enforce your rights and any claim you may have arising under U.S. federal securities laws, since Gemalto and Gemplus have their corporate headquarters outside of the United States, and some or all of their officers and directors may be residents of foreign countries. You may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court s judgment.
