Press Release

Vale intends to sell stake in Usiminas

Rio de Janeiro, May 26, 2008 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (Vale) informs its intention to sell its stake in Usinas Siderúrgicas de Minas Gerais S/A USIMINAS (Usiminas). Currently, Vale holds 5.89% of Usiminas common shares, corresponding to 2.9% of the total capital, also being part of the controlling shareholders' agreement.

Vale has informed Usiminas about its intention to sell its stake in the stock market, given the conditions in accordance with the preemptive rights established by the controlling shareholders agreement. If and when there is an effective decision regarding the sales of Usiminas shares, Vale will publicly announce.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and Vale cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian and Canadian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore and nickel business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which Vale operates. For additional information on factors that could cause Vale's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see Vale's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
