Purpose of the Amendment

This Amendment No. 2 (this Amendment) amends and supplements the Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 (together with the exhibits and annexes thereto and as amended and supplemented from time to time, the Schedule 14D-9), originally filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) on August 13, 2010 by BlueLinx Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company or BlueLinx) and subsequently amended and restated on September 27, 2010, relating to the tender offer by Cerberus ABP Investor LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (CAI), and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cerberus Capital Management, L.P. (Cerberus Capital), pursuant to which CAI has offered to purchase all outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share of the Company (the Shares) not otherwise owned by CAI for $4.00 net per Share in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes (the Offer Price), upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase, dated August 2, 2010, as supplemented by the Second Supplement to Offer to Purchase dated September 22, 2010, and the related Letter of Transmittal (which, together with any amendments or supplements thereto, collectively, constitute the Offer). The Offer is described in a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO, filed by CAI and Cerberus Capital with the Commission on August 2, 2010 (as amended and/or supplemented from time to time, and together with the Exhibits thereto, the Schedule TO).

All information in the Schedule 14D-9 is incorporated into this Amendment by reference, except that such information is hereby amended to the extent specifically provided herein.

This Amendment is being filed to reflect certain updates as reflected below.

All references to (other than CAI and Cerberus Capital) in the Schedule 14D-9 are deleted in their entirety and replaced with (other than CAI, Cerberus Capital, the Company's directors and executive officers and other affiliates).

Item 2. Identity and Background of Filing Person.

The last sentence of the first paragraph under the subheading "Tender Offer" is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following:

According to the Schedule TO, the Offer is scheduled to remain open from August 2, 2010 until 12:00 midnight, New York City time on October 18, 2010 (the Offer Period), unless extended by CAI.

Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation.

Background of the Offer.

The following sentences are inserted at the end of the 20th paragraph of this section:

In light of CAI's statement in its Letter to the Board, dated July 21, 2010, that in its capacity as a stockholder CAI was only interested in acquiring Shares it did not already own, and that it neither had any current interest in selling its Shares nor in voting in favor of any alternative sale, merger or other such transaction, the Special Committee did not believe there was any viable alternative transaction involving the sale of the Company as a whole that could be explored or pursued without CAI's support. Consequently, the Special Committee determined that exploring the potential acquisition of the entire minority interest by a third party was the only alternative transaction that could reasonably be explored at this time.

The 33rd paragraph of this section is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following paragraph:

On August 11 and 12, 2010, the Special Committee held telephonic meetings to discuss the Schedule 14D-9 and the Offer. At the meeting on August 12, the representatives of Citadel Securities informed the Special Committee that the remaining third party that had expressed an interest in exploring a potential acquisition of the Company's Shares not currently owned by CAI no longer was interested in pursuing such an acquisition. In light of CAI's stated position that it had no current interest in selling its Shares, the Special Committee determined that there were no other currently available alternative transactions, and that it should continue to evaluate the Offer and engage in discussions with CAI. At the conclusion of the meetings, the Special Committee determined that it was unable to take a position with respect to the Offer at that time and authorized the Company to finalize and file a Schedule 14D-9. The Special Committee determined to request that stockholders of the Company take no action and not tender their Shares with respect to the Offer at that time, and instead defer making a determination of whether to accept or reject the Offer until the Special Committee has advised stockholders of its position or recommendation, if any, with respect to the Offer.

The last two paragraphs of this section are deleted and replaced in their entirety with the following paragraphs:

Following the discussion, the Special Committee unanimously determined, by all members participating in the deliberations, that the Offer is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's stockholders (other than CAI, Cerberus Capital, the Company's directors and executive officers and other affiliates) and to recommend on behalf of the Company and the Board, that such stockholders accept the Offer and tender their Shares pursuant to the Offer. The Company, through the Special Committee as authorized by the Board, also determined that the Offer is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's stockholders (other than CAI, Cerberus Capital, the Company's directors and executive officers and other affiliates).

Effective on September 27, 2010, after the Special Committee informed CAI and Cerberus Capital that it, on behalf of the Company, had determined to issue a favorable recommendation with respect to the amended Offer, the Company, CAI and Cerberus Capital entered into the Stockholder Agreement in the form that had been agreed upon between the parties on September 22, 2010.

On September 27, 2010, the Company issued a press release announcing that the Special Committee, on behalf of the Company, was recommending that stockholders accept the Offer at the increased Offer Price of $4.00 per Share and tender their Shares pursuant to the Offer.

On September 28, 2010, the Special Committee received a letter from Stadium Capital Management LLC, (Stadium Capital), which holds approximately 5% of the outstanding Shares. In the letter, which Stadium Capital also filed with the Commission, Stadium Capital expressed its continuing opposition to the Offer and to the increased Offer Price, and requested that the Special Committee reconsider its recommendation.

On October 1, 2010, the Special Committee held a telephonic meeting, which included representatives of Citadel Securities and Jones Day, to review the communication from Stadium Capital. Following a discussion of the points raised by Stadium Capital in its letter, the Special Committee determined to stand by its recommendation of the Offer, and the reasons therefor, all as previously announced on September 27, 2010.

On October 4, 2010, prior to the opening of trading on the NYSE, CAI announced a further extension of the expiration time of the Offer to midnight, New York City time, on Monday, October 18, 2010. In the announcement, CAI stated that the purpose of the extension was to allow stockholders of the Company additional time to review the terms of the amended Offer and the Company's amended Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9, which was filed on September 27, 2010.

Reasons for the Special Committee's Position.

The first paragraph of this section is deleted and replaced in its entirety with the following paragraph:

In reaching its recommendation that the Offer Price is fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company's stockholders (other than CAI, Cerberus Capital, the Company's directors and executive officers and other affiliates), the Special Committee, on its behalf and on behalf of the Company and the Board, considered a number of factors, including the following:

The following paragraph is inserted immediately following the second paragraph of this section:

Trading Market and Liquidity. The Special Committee considered the historical market prices and trading activity of the Shares on the NYSE, including the generally low trading volume and resulting lack of liquidity for stockholders, and the risk of further erosion of the market price for the Shares as a result of current conditions in the financial and housing markets generally. The Special Committee also considered the fundamental dislocations that have occurred in the financial and housing markets over the past few years, which has had a number of consequences, including creating a larger disparity between current trading prices of equity securities and historical trading prices, and which, in the Special Committee's view, make financial metrics, including historical trading prices, from prior periods less relevant to a current analysis of the value of the Shares.

The following paragraphs are inserted immediately preceding the last paragraph of this section:

In reaching its conclusion as to fairness, the Special Committee concluded, consistent with the view of its financial advisor, that a valuation of the Company as a going concern was the most appropriate valuation approach to apply. The Special Committee's conclusion was based primarily on the fact that CAI had explicitly stated that it had no interest in selling its Shares nor in voting in favor of any alternative sale, merger or other such transaction, together with the view that a going concern valuation approach was most appropriate in light of the nature of the Company's business and its ongoing viability as a going concern, all as described in more detail in Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor, Citadel Securities LLC. As such, the Special Committee did not consider the liquidation value of the Company's assets. Therefore, no appraisal of liquidation value was sought for purposes of valuing the Company's Shares, and the Special Committee believed that the liquidation value of the Company was not a meaningful indicator of value for a distribution business such as the Company's and was therefore not relevant to a determination as to whether the Offer is fair to the unaffiliated stockholders. Further, the Special Committee did not consider net book value as a factor because it believed that net book value is an accounting concept that is not a material indicator of the value of the Company as a going concern, particularly for companies in the building products distribution sector.

Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor, Citadel Securities LLC.

The second paragraph of this section under the subheading "Miscellaneous" is replaced in its entirety with the following paragraph:

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated July 27, 2010, the Company is obligated to pay Citadel Securities a fee in an amount of $1,500,000 in connection with the services rendered to the Special Committee. In addition, the Company has also agreed to reimburse Citadel Securities for its reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Citadel Securities and related persons against certain liabilities relating to or arising out of its engagement.

Item 8. Additional Information.Litigation.

The following paragraph is inserted after the last paragraph of this subsection:

On September 30, 2010 an individual stockholder of the Company filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia commencing a putative class action lawsuit against CAI, Cerberus Capital, the Company and each of the individual members of the Board. This complaint, styled as Ajay Kajaria v. Howard S. Cohen, et al. (Case No. 1:10-CV-03141-JOF), seeks, among other remedies, to preliminarily and permanently enjoin the Offer and Merger, to rescind the proposed transaction, to the extent already implemented, and the award of damages and attorneys' fees. In general, the complaint alleges, among other things, that the members of the Board breached their fiduciary duty and CAI and Cerberus Capital aided and abetted such breach of fiduciary duty by, among other things, allegedly failing to disclose material facts regarding the Offer and the Merger. The Company believes this case has no merit.
