Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of more than 10% of our common stock (the Reporting Persons), to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of our common stock. Reporting Persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file.

Based solely on our review of the copies of Section 16(a) reports received or written representations from certain Reporting Persons, we believe that all reporting requirements under Section 16(a) for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 were met in a timely manner by the Reporting Persons, except that Mr. Willison filed an amended Form 4 on April 4, 2003 reporting the grant of an additional 25,000 restricted shares of our common stock that were inadvertently omitted from the Form 4 that was previously filed with the SEC on February 27, 2003.

Stock Option Grants in 2003

The following table sets forth grants of stock options to the named executive officers in 2003.

All options granted to the named executive officers in 2003 are either incentive stock options or nonqualified stock options. The options expire ten years from the date of grant and were granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant.

Potential realizable values are computed by (a) multiplying the number of shares of common stock subject to a given option by the exercise price per share, (b) assuming that the aggregate stock value derived from that calculation compounds at the annual 5% or 10% rates shown in the table for the entire ten-year term of the option, and (c) subtracting from that result the aggregate option exercise price. The 5% and 10% assumed annual rates of stock price appreciation are provided in accordance with the rules of the SEC and do not represent our estimate or projection of future common stock prices.

The percentage of total options granted to employees is based on options to purchase a total of 2,564,293 shares of our common stock granted during 2003. If exercised, these options would represent 2.12% of the total number of shares of our common stock outstanding at December 31, 2003.

Also reported are values of in-the-money options, which represent the positive spread between the exercise prices of outstanding stock options and the fair market value of $4.73 per share, which was the closing price of our common stock on December 31, 2003.

Under his 2003 executive bonus plan, Mr. Belote was also eligible to receive a performance bonus of up to twice his annual base compensation for 2003; he received $350,000.

We granted Mr. Belote a Sign-On Option, which fully vested on January 24, 2002, to purchase 432,500 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $1.76 per share. We also granted Mr. Belote a Principal Option to purchase

1,297,500 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $1.76 per share. Mr. Belote's Principal Option vests ratably on a monthly basis over 48 months beginning on February 1, 2002.

The Sign-On Option and Principal Option may be exercised after a termination of employment (but no later than their expiration date, January 23, 2012) as follows: (i) within 90 days after termination for cause; (ii) within one year after voluntary termination prior to a change in control; or (iii) within three years after termination for any other reason.

We agreed to provide residential accommodations to Mr. Belote for up to two years within reasonable commuting distance of our offices, with costs not to exceed $5,000 per month. We will reimburse Mr. Belote for actual and reasonable business expenses. If the foregoing reimbursements are subject to federal or state income taxes, we will pay an amount necessary to place Mr. Belote in the same after-tax position as he would have been in had no such taxes been imposed.

If there is a termination of employment without cause, a termination for death or disability or a constructive termination of employment, whether or not in connection with a change in control, subject to his execution of a release of claims, Mr. Belote will receive his annual base salary and his full annual bonus for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs, payable in equal installments over twelve months. In the event of termination without cause, constructive termination, death or disability, Mr. Belote's Principal Option will vest and become exercisable.

In the event that any portion of the amounts payable are subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, we will pay Mr. Belote an amount necessary to place him in the same after-tax position as he would have been in had no such excise tax been imposed.

Mr. Dalton

On September 30, 2002, we entered into an executive retention and severance agreement with Mr. Dalton pursuant to which he agreed to serve as President, REALTOR.com®. Additionally, we entered into a compensation arrangement with Mr. Dalton that provides for annual base compensation of $325,000. Under his 2003 executive bonus plan, Mr. Dalton was also eligible to receive a performance bonus of up to twice his annual base compensation for 2003; he received $425,000.

We will reimburse Mr. Dalton for actual and reasonable business expenses. In addition, as described above under Summary Compensation Table, Mr. Dalton was reimbursed for reasonable expenses associated with his relocation to our headquarters. This included taxes and tax gross-up amounts associated with payments made to relocate Mr. Dalton to our headquarters. We purchased a residence in the fourth quarter of 2002 from Mr. Dalton for $1.95 million to facilitate his move to our headquarters. We are actively attempting to sell such house.

Effective October 8, 2002, we granted Mr. Dalton an option to purchase 1,200,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $0.39 per share. This option vested as to 250,000 shares on the date of grant and the remainder vests ratably on a monthly basis over 48 months beginning on November 1, 2002.

In the event of a termination without cause, subject to his provision of transition services if requested and his execution of a release of claims, Mr. Dalton will receive a lump sum payment in an amount equal to his annual base salary, payment of his continued medical coverage premiums for up to 12 months, and a payment in an amount equal to 50% of his target bonus for the year in which his termination occurs (the Minimum Bonus Payment). In addition, if the termination occurs after June 30 of any year, and before January 1 of the next year, and our financial performance goals for the year have been achieved, we will pay Mr. Dalton a prorated portion of his target bonus less his Minimum Bonus Payment. All equity awards Mr. Dalton was granted by us prior to September 30, 2002 will vest and any such options will remain exercisable for a period of 12 months following the later of his termination date or the end of any transition services period.

Mr. Douglas

Table of Contents

We will reimburse Mr. Douglas for actual and reasonable business expenses. In addition, Mr. Douglas was reimbursed for reasonable expenses associated with his relocation to our headquarters as described above under Summary Compensation Table. In connection with the expected loss on the sale of his residence, we paid $100,000 to Mr. Douglas in the first quarter of 2003 to facilitate his move to our headquarters.

Effective October 8, 2002, we granted Mr. Douglas an option to purchase 1,200,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $0.39 per share. This option vested as to 200,000 shares on the date of grant and the remaining 1,000,000 options vests ratably on a monthly basis over 48 months beginning on November 1, 2002.

In the event of a termination without cause, subject to his provision of transition services if requested and his execution of a release of claims, Mr. Douglas will receive a lump sum payment in an amount equal to his annual base salary, payment of his continued medical coverage premiums for up to 12 months, and a payment in an amount equal to 50% of his target bonus for the year in which his termination occurs (the Minimum Bonus Payment). All equity awards Mr. Douglas was granted by us prior to September 30, 2002 will vest and any such options will remain exercisable for a period of 12 months following the later of his termination date or the end of any transition services period.

Mr. Merrill

On April 24, 2002, we entered into an executive retention and severance agreement with Mr. Merrill pursuant to which he agreed to continue to serve as executive vice president of strategy and corporate development. Additionally, we entered into a new compensation arrangement with Mr. Merrill that provides for annual base compensation of $325,000, effective January 21, 2002. Under his 2003 executive bonus plan, Mr. Merrill was also eligible to receive a performance bonus of up to twice his annual base compensation for 2003; he received $350,000.

Effective January 17, 2002, we granted Mr. Merrill an option to purchase 450,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $2.25 per share. This option vests ratably on a monthly basis over 48 months beginning on February 1, 2002. Additionally, effective January 24, 2002, we granted Mr. Merrill an option to purchase 700,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $1.76 per share. This option vested as to 87,500 shares on July 24, 2002 and the remainder vests ratably on a monthly basis over 42 months beginning on August 1, 2002.

In the event of a termination without cause, subject to his provision of transition services if requested and his execution of a release of claims, Mr. Merrill will receive a lump sum payment in an amount equal to his annual base salary, payment of his continued medical coverage premiums for up to 12 months, and a payment in an amount equal to 50% of his target bonus for the year in which his termination occurs (the Minimum Bonus Payment). In addition, if the termination occurs after June 30 of any year, and before January 1 of the next year, and our financial performance goals for the year have been achieved, we will pay Mr. Merrill a prorated portion of his target bonus less his Minimum Bonus Payment. All equity awards Mr. Merrill was granted by us prior to April 24, 2002 will vest and any such options will remain exercisable for a period of 12 months following the later of his termination date or the end of any transition services period.

Director Compensation

Prior to 2002, directors did not generally receive cash compensation for their services as directors, but were reimbursed for their reasonable and necessary expenses in attending meetings of board of directors and committees of the board. Compensation for services was provided solely in the form of stock options. However, in connection with the board's investigation of previously announced accounting matters, we began to pay cash compensation in addition to stock options and the reimbursement of these expenses because these activities involved significant additional efforts and time commitments. We intend to continue to pay cash compensation in addition to equity compensation and expense reimbursements to directors due to the directors' increased time commitments as well as increased corporate governance responsibilities.

Non-employee directors receive an annual retainer of $25,000 in cash, which is paid in quarterly installments. Each committee chair receives an additional annual retainer of $5,000 in cash, except the chairman of the audit committee receives $10,000 in cash. Each of these directors also receives $1,500 in cash per meeting for each board and committee meeting attended that requires a significant commitment of time, except that members of the audit committee receive $2,000 for each audit committee meeting attended that requires a significant commitment of time. In 2003, Mr. Hanauer, in his capacity as chairman of the board, received an additional annual retainer of $70,000 in cash, which was paid in quarterly installments.

In 2003, each non-employee director (other than any director who is entitled to a seat on our board of directors on a contractual basis) was granted 35,000 restricted shares of our common stock and an option to purchase 15,000 shares under our 1999 Stock Incentive Plan. As new members of the board, each of Messrs. Willison and Unruh was granted an additional 25,000 restricted shares of our common stock and an option to purchase an additional 25,000 shares under that plan. Mr. Hanauer, in his capacity as chairman of the board, was granted an additional 52,500 restricted shares and an option to purchase an additional 22,500 shares under that plan. With respect to 2004, each non-employee director (other than any director who is entitled to a seat on our board of directors on a contractual basis) was granted 10,300 restricted shares of our common stock under our 1999 Stock Incentive Plan. Mr. Hanauer, in his capacity as chairman of the board, was granted an additional 15,450 restricted shares. Each restricted share will vest three years after the grant date. One fourth of the options granted to each of these directors will vest upon the first anniversary of the date on which such options were granted, with the remainder vesting ratably on a monthly basis over 36 months. Each option has an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant and a ten-year term, but will terminate within a specified time, in accordance with the terms of the 1999 Stock Incentive Plan, following the date the option holder ceases to be a director or employee of, or consultant to, us. All options and restricted stock will immediately vest if the director is not nominated for re-election, is nominated for re-election and is not elected or must resign due to health reasons, or upon such director's death. Upon a director's resignation or termination for other reasons, including but not limited to business conflicts with us, all of the director's unvested options and restricted stock will be terminated immediately.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The management development and compensation committee is composed of three non-employee directors, Messrs. Hanauer, Doerr and Willison, none of whom have any interlocking relationships as defined by the SEC.

Each of the above plans provides that the number of shares with respect to which options may be granted, and the number of shares of common stock subject to an outstanding option, shall be proportionately adjusted in the event of a subdivision or consolidation of shares or the payment of a stock dividend on common stock, and the purchase price per share of outstanding options shall be proportionately revised. Options outstanding as of December 31, 2003 pursuant to compensation plans assumed in connection with prior acquisitions, in the aggregate, total 247,274 and the weighted average exercise price of those option shares is $20.50.

The Homestore, Inc. 1999 Stock Incentive Plan, a security-holder approved plan, contains a provision for an automatic increase in the number of shares available for issuance each January 1 (until January 1, 2009) by an amount equal to 4.5% of the total number of outstanding

The Homestore, Inc. 1999 Employee Stock Purchase Plan, a security-holder approved plan, also contains a provision for an automatic increase in the number of shares available for issuance each January 1 (until January 1, 2009) by an amount equal to one-half of one percent (0.5%) of the total number of outstanding shares as of the preceding December 31; provided that the aggregate number of shares reserved under this plan must not exceed 5.0 million shares.

Non-Shareholder Approved Plans

Options are granted from the Homestore, Inc. 2002 Stock Incentive Plan, a new plan established in January 2002 to attract and retain qualified personnel. No more than 40% of the available securities granted under this plan may be awarded to our directors or executive officers. Option grants under this plan are non-qualified stock options and generally have a 4-year vesting schedule and a 10-year life.

Other non-shareholder approved plans include the following plans assumed in connection with prior acquisitions: The 1997-1998 Stock Incentive Plan of Cendant Corporation, the Cendant Corporation Move.com Group 1999 Stock Option Plan, as amended and restated effective as of March 21, 2000, the Move.com, Inc. 2000 Stock Incentive Plan, the HomeWrite Incorporated 2000 Equity Incentive Plan, the ConsumerInfo.com, Inc. 1999 Stock Option Plan, the iPlace 2000 Stock Option Plan, the eNeighborhoods, Inc. 1998 Stock Option Plan, the Qspace, Inc. 1999 Stock Option Plan, the iPlace, Inc. 2001 Equity Incentive Plan and The Hessel Group, Inc. 2000 Stock Option Plan. Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Operating Agreement with the National Association of REALTORS®

In November 1996, we entered into an operating agreement with the National Association of REALTORS® (the NAR), which governs how our subsidiary, RealSelect, Inc., operates the REALTOR.com® web site on behalf of the NAR. For a description of the operating agreement, please see Item 1 of this Form 10-K.

Under our operating agreement as originally entered into with the NAR, we were required to make quarterly royalty payments of up to 15% of RealSelect's operating revenue in the aggregate to the NAR and the entities that provide us the information for the our real property listings (data content providers).

In 2002, we and the NAR amended the NAR operating agreement. In accordance with the operating agreement, as amended, we paid $1,300,000 to the NAR in 2003 and will make the following fixed payments to the NAR:

For 2003, we must pay $1,300,000 in four installments of $325,000 due on the last day of each calendar quarter of 2003.

For 2004, we must pay $1,400,000 in four installments of $350,000 due on the last day of each calendar quarter of 2004.

For 2005, we must pay $1,500,000 in four installments of $375,000 due on the last day of each calendar quarter of 2005.

For 2006, we must pay $1,500,000 plus or minus, as the case may be, the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index for 2005, in four equal installments due on the last day of each calendar quarter of 2006.

For 2007 and beyond, we must pay the amount due during the prior calendar year plus or minus, as the case may be, the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index for the prior calendar year, in four equal installments due on the last day of each calendar quarter for that calendar year.

In January 2004, we and the NAR entered into a letter agreement regarding the availability of REALTOR.com® property listing data through the MSN network of websites. The NAR agreed to reimburse us for slotting fees that we may be required to pay to Microsoft Online, LP (Microsoft), such reimbursement not to exceed $250,000 per quarter for the first two years of our agreement with Microsoft (up to a maximum total reimbursement of $2 million). The NAR may recoup from us any amounts paid to us under this letter agreement to the extent of our portion of any advertising revenue generated as a result of our agreement with Microsoft which are earned by us during the first two years of that agreement.

Cendant Corporation

In connection with our acquisition of Move.com, Inc. and Welcome Wagon International, Inc. (the Move.com Group) from Cendant Corporation in 2001, we entered into a series of agreements with Cendant that, among other things, provided us with certain promotion and exclusive data rights and placed certain restrictions on Cendant's ability to dispose of our shares. Revenue of $7.7 million related to these transactions was recognized in 2003. During 2003, we received approximately $1.2 million of cash and recorded at December 31, 2003 deferred revenue of approximately $6.9 million related to these agreements. This deferred revenue will be recognized over the next five years.

In connection with our acquisition of the Move.com Group, Cendant previously alleged that we breached certain representations and warranties made in the acquisition agreement as a result of the restatement of our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2000 and the first three quarters of 2001. On August 5, 2003, we and Cendant settled potential claims relating to our acquisition of the Move.com Group and we entered into certain new agreements with Cendant. The settlement terminated certain existing arrangements between us and Cendant and resulted in several new arrangements between the parties. The following summarizes the material terms of the settlement.

Settlement Agreement. Under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Cendant agreed not to sue us or our officers, directors and other related parties with respect to the acquisition of the Move.com Group and the prior restatement of our consolidated financial statements. However, in the circumstances described below, Cendant retains the right to sue us for contribution, indemnification, or similar relief if Cendant is held liable for or settles claims against it in the consolidated securities class action lawsuit brought against us (the Securities Class Action Lawsuit) up to the amount for which it is held liable or for which it settles.

On March 7, 2003, the court in the Securities Class Action Lawsuit dismissed with prejudice Cendant as a defendant. However, that dismissal is subject to appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. If Cendant's dismissal as a defendant in the Securities Class Action Lawsuit is reversed on appeal and Cendant is subsequently found liable or settles the claims against it in the Securities Class Action Lawsuit, Cendant will likely seek indemnification, contribution or similar relief from us. However, as part of our settlement of the Securities Class Action Lawsuit, the parties have requested that the court enter an order barring claims by third parties against us for indemnification, contribution and similar relief with respect to liability such third parties may have in the Securities Class Action Lawsuit. In the event that the settlement is ultimately approved, we anticipate that the court will enter the requested bar order.

Such an order may preclude Cendant from seeking indemnification, contribution or similar relief from us in the event Cendant is found liable or settles claims against it in the Securities Class Action Lawsuit. However, we have been advised by counsel that the law is unclear on whether Cendant would be so precluded. Therefore, we would likely incur significant expenses in defending such an action by Cendant and could ultimately be found liable to Cendant or settle with Cendant, notwithstanding the bar order. Such expenses, liability or settlement could have a material adverse effect on our financial position and results of operations.

In addition, if Cendant is not permitted to share in the settlement of the Securities Class Action Lawsuit (which would be the case if its dismissal as a defendant is reversed on appeal), we have agreed to pay or otherwise provide to Cendant the amount of money and/or other consideration that Cendant would have been otherwise entitled to receive from that portion of the class action settlement fund provided by us had Cendant been a class member and Cendant's proof of claim in respect of its shares had been accepted in full. Because the proofs of claim have not yet been accepted in the settlement of the Securities Class Action Lawsuit, we are unable to estimate the amount of cash and number of shares that Cendant could be entitled to receive from us should Cendant be prevented from participating in the settlement.

For our part, we released all claims against Cendant (including a release of any derivative claims, to the extent permitted by law) relating to the acquisition of the Move.com Group (other than with respect to the existing Falcon license agreement described below) and our prior restatement of our consolidated financial statements.

The Settlement Agreement also provides for the termination of a stockholders agreement that contained a standstill provision under which Cendant had agreed not to acquire additional Homestore stock, a requirement that Cendant vote its Homestore stock in proportion to the vote of all other stockholders and restrictions on Cendant's ability to sell its Homestore stock.

The Settlement Agreement contains other provisions, including the requirement that we prepay approximately $1.5 million under an existing insurance contract that would otherwise be payable over three years.

In addition to the Settlement Agreement, we and Cendant executed a new Registration Rights Agreement, an Option Agreement, a new Listings License Agreement and a Source Code License and Maintenance Services Agreement, each of which is described below.

New Registration Rights Agreement. The new Registration Rights Agreement required us to file a shelf registration statement relating to the approximately 18.3 million shares held by Cendant as a result of the acquisition of the Move.com Group, with expenses to be paid by us. The registration statement was declared effective on September 5, 2003. Cendant may request an underwritten offering pursuant to the new Registration Rights Agreement, with underwriters to be chosen by Cendant.

Option Agreement. The Option Agreement granted to us an option to purchase 7,264,812 shares of our common stock held by Cendant. The option became exercisable on August 15, 2003 and expired on October 4, 2003 without being exercised.

New Listings License Agreement. Under the new Listings License Agreement, Cendant granted to us a non-exclusive license to use Listing Data (generally defined as data and information related to the sale, purchase, lease, or rental of residential property) and Broker Agent Data (generally defined as data and information related to residential real property brokers or sales agents) on any of our websites where REALTOR.com® listings are displayed. Cendant is not obligated to provide any data to the extent that we can obtain the same data under one of our multiple listing services, or MLS, agreements. Cendant can terminate the license for any reason upon 90 days written notice. The new Listings License Agreement also prohibits us from charging referral fees during the term of the agreement and for a period of three years following termination. Also for a period of three years following a termination of the new Listings License Agreement, Cendant cannot directly or indirectly take action to reduce the quality, quantity, substance, accuracy or timeliness of listings available to us from any MLS, or from Cendant or its affiliates or franchisees.

The new Listings License Agreement replaces the prior Master Operating Agreement under which Cendant granted to us an exclusive license to use the Listing Data and a non-exclusive license to use the Broker Agent Data. The prior Master Operating Agreement had an initial term of 40 years, contained specific termination rights, provided us with additional non-exclusive licenses to New Resident Data (generally defined as data and information regarding the purchasers, renters, or lessors of residential real property) and other data related to residential property, granted us wider usage rights with regard to the licensed data, and provided for marketing and promotional efforts between the parties.

Prior to the settlement, we were not receiving any Listings Data or Broker Agent Data from Cendant under the Master Operating Agreement because we receive such data from our arrangements with approximately 900 MLSs across the United States. The new Listings License Agreement does not affect our arrangements with these MLSs. Thus, the new Listings License Agreement, like the now terminated Master Operating Agreement, serves as a backup source for such data.

In conjunction with the termination of the exclusive license under the Master Operating Agreement, we relinquished certain exclusive data rights and rights under other agreements. As a result of the surrender of those rights, certain intangible assets associated with those rights no longer have value to us, and, accordingly, we have recorded an impairment charge of $12.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Source Code License and Maintenance Services Agreement. Pursuant to an agreement dated October 26, 2000 (the First Falcon Agreement), we agreed to provide Real Estate Technology Trust (RETT), an independent trust established in 1996 to provide technology services and products to Cendant's real estate franchisees, a modified version of our Top Producer Online contact management software for real estate agents known as Falcon. The First Falcon Agreement contemplated that the parties would enter into a maintenance services agreement with respect to Falcon. In connection with the settlement, a Source Code License and Maintenance Services Agreement (the Second Falcon Agreement) was executed with Cendant under which we agreed to provide Cendant with the source code for the Falcon software and for certain other Top Producer Online software. Cendant may use this source code to maintain, modify, and upgrade the Falcon software. We also agreed to provide Cendant with a dedicated support staff who will use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain, modify, and upgrade Falcon as instructed by Cendant. The initial term for such support is three years, and Cendant will have the option to renew for one additional year. We are entitled to receive approximately $2.3 million in maintenance fees which will be recognized on a straight-line basis over the three-year term of the maintenance agreement. Cendant agreed not to develop or promote a competitive online real estate customer relationship management system for two years.

Following the settlement, we and RETT also entered into an Amendment to Software License Agreement (the Amendment), thereby amending the First Falcon Agreement. The Amendment modifies certain of the Falcon software functionality that we must deliver to RETT and establishes deadlines by which the various Falcon software components must be delivered. The Amendment also requires us to develop new features and functionality for certain other Top Producer Online software. Further, the Amendment grants to RETT, Cendant, and certain of Cendant's affiliates (including affiliates outside of the real estate industry) a license to use the Falcon software as newly described in the Amendment, and a license to use certain other Top Producer Online software.

Loans to and Transactions with Executive Officers

As part of an employment agreement entered into in 2002, we reimburse Mr. Long for the business use of an airplane that is owned indirectly by him. Total reimbursement for usage in 2003 was approximately $1.3 million.

Table of ContentsItem 14. *Principal Accountant Fees and Services

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PricewaterhouseCoopers) served as the Company's principal independent accountant to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002. As previously disclosed, on September 29, 2003 our audit committee notified PricewaterhouseCoopers that it would not be retained to perform the audit of the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003 and determined to engage Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) as independent accountants to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal period ended December 31, 2003. The fees billed in the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2003 for PricewaterhouseCoopers's services to us and the fees billed in the fiscal period ended December 31, 2003 for Ernst & Young's services to us were:

All Other Fees (4)	162,000

- (1) Audit fees are fees billed by the independent auditors for professional services for the audit of the consolidated financial statements included in our Form 10-K and review of financial statements included in our Form 10-Qs, or for services that are normally provided by the auditors in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements.
- (2) Audit-related fees are fees billed by the independent auditors for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the financial statements, and are not reported under audit fees. Fees associated with registration statements that were previously included in audit-related fees in the proxy statement for our 2003 annual meeting of stockholders have been reclassified under audit fees above.
- (3) Tax fees are fees billed by the independent auditors for professional services for tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning.
- (4) All other fees are fees billed by the independent auditors to the Company for any services not included in the first three, and include fees for accounting services provided to us and in connection with our response to inquiries from the SEC.
- (5) Reflects an increase of $256,000 from the amount disclosed in the proxy statement for our 2003 annual meeting of stockholders.

The audit committee's policy is to approve in advance all audit and permitted non-audit services provided by the independent accountant. In addition, in December 2003, the audit committee authorized the committee's audit committee financial expert to pre-approve on behalf of the audit committee permitted auditing and non-auditing services of $50,000 or less to be provided by Ernst & Young, Grant Thornton LLP and any other accounting services firms, with the audit committee financial expert to report each pre-approval of services to the full committee at its next scheduled meeting after such pre-approval.

None of the audit and non-audit services described above were approved by the audit committee pursuant to the waiver of pre-approval provisions set forth in applicable rules of the SEC.
