On September 20, 2004, Quanta filed a prospectus supplement pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, which included the following disclosure:

In June 2002 one of our customers, Adelpia Communications Corporation, filed for bankruptcy. On September 17, 2004, we sold our prepetition receivable due from Adelpia to a third party for approximately $29.5 million in cash, subject to $6.0 million being held by the buyer pending the resolution of certain preferential payment claims. The sale of this receivable is not expected to have a material effect on our financial results.

In addition, on September 15, 2004, we received a federal tax refund of approximately $30.2 million.

During the third quarter of 2004, we also repaid approximately $18.8 million in indebtedness under the term loan portion of our letter of credit facility and increased the letters of credit outstanding under the letter of credit facility by the same amount.
