Table of Contents

- (1) Estimated solely for the purpose of calculating the registration fee pursuant to Rule 457(h)(1), and computed on the basis of the average of the high and low sales prices of the Common Stock included in the New York Stock Exchange Composite Transactions Report for October 28, 2003 as published by The Wall Street Journal, which was $95.51 per share.
- (2) Pursuant to Rule 416 under the Securities Act of 1933, shares issuable upon any stock split, stock dividend or similar transaction with respect to these shares are also being registered hereunder.
- (3) On November 30, 1987, Centex Corporation (Centex) distributed as a dividend to its stockholders (through a nominee, the Nominee) all the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, $0.01 par value (Holding Common Stock), of 3333 Holding Corporation (Holding), and 900 warrants (the Stockholder Warrants) to purchase Class B Units of limited partnership interest in Centex Development Company, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (CDC).

The Nominee holds the Stockholder Warrants and 1,000 shares of Holding Common Stock on behalf of and for the benefit of persons who are from time to time the holders of the common stock, $0.25 par value (Centex Common Stock), of Centex (Centex Stockholders). Each Centex Stockholder owns a beneficial interest in that portion of the 1,000 shares of Holding Common Stock and the Stockholder Warrants that the total number of shares of Centex Common Stock held by such stockholder bears to the total number of shares of Centex Common Stock outstanding from time to time. This beneficial interest is not represented by a separate certificate or receipt. Instead, each Centex Stockholder's pro rata portion of such beneficial interest is represented by the certificate or certificates evidencing such Centex Stockholder's Centex Common Stock, and is currently tradeable only in tandem with, and as a part of, each such Centex Stockholder's Centex Common Stock.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Registration Statement is being filed to register 3,000,000 shares of Centex Common Stock to be issued under the Centex Corporation 2003 Equity Incentive Plan.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Raymond G. Smerge has rendered a legal opinion, filed as Centex Exhibit 5, with respect to the legality of the securities registered hereby. Mr. Smerge is the Executive Vice President, Chief Legal Officer and Secretary of Centex and the Secretary of Holding. As of October 31, 2003, Mr. Smerge owned 28,816 shares of Centex Common Stock and 1,200 shares of Centex Common Stock were held in trust for the benefit of Mr. Smerge's son. As of that date, Mr. Smerge also held options to purchase up to 170,400 shares of Centex Common Stock (of which 71,940 shares were exercisable) and beneficially owned approximately 2,034 shares of Centex Common Stock under the Centex Corporation Profit Sharing and Retirement Plan, a defined contribution plan.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Centex, Holding and 3333 Development Corporation ("Development"), the general partner of CDC, are Nevada corporations. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 78.7502 of the Nevada General Corporation Law, every Nevada corporation has authority to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, except an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Under Nevada law, Centex, Holding and Development also have the authority to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation, to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys' fees actually and reasonable incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. No indemnification shall be made, however, for any claim, issue or matter as to which a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be liable to the corporation or for amounts paid in settlement to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court determines that in view of all the circumstances, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

To the extent any person referred to in the two immediately preceding paragraphs is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding, the Nevada General Corporation Law provides that such person must be indemnified by the corporation against expenses including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense.

Section 78.751 of the Nevada General Corporation Law requires Nevada corporations to obtain a determination that any discretionary indemnification is proper under the circumstances. Such a determination must be made by the corporation's stockholders; its board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding; or under certain circumstances, by independent legal counsel. The Articles of Incorporation of Centex, Holding and Development provide for indemnification of its directors and officers to the extent provided by Nevada law.

In addition, Section 78.037 of the Nevada General Corporation Law permits Nevada corporations to include in their articles of incorporation a provision eliminating the personal liability of their directors and officers, to the corporation or stockholders, for damages resulting from their breach of fiduciary duties. The Articles of Incorporation of Centex, Holding and Development contain a provision limiting the liability of their directors and officers for such damages, as do the Bylaws of Centex, Holding and Development.

The Bylaws of Centex, Holding and Development each provide that the corporation shall indemnify its directors, employees and agents to the fullest extent provided by the Nevada General Corporation Law and such corporation's Articles of Incorporation. In addition, the Bylaws of each corporation provide for indemnification to the same extent of any director, officer or employee of the corporation who serves in any fiduciary capacity with respect to any profit sharing, pension or other type of welfare plan or trust for the benefit of employees of the corporation or its subsidiaries.

Centex has entered into indemnification contracts with its directors and may enter into similar contracts from time to time with certain officers and employees of Centex and its subsidiaries who are not directors of Centex. The general effect of the indemnification contracts is to provide that the indemnitees shall be indemnified to the fullest possible extent permitted by the law against all expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by them in any action or proceeding, including any action by or in the right of Centex, by reason of their service in the foregoing capacities. The provisions of the aforementioned indemnification contracts were approved by Centex's stockholders at the annual meeting of stockholders held on July 16, 1986.

The Second Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership (the Limited Partnership Agreement) of CDC provides that to the fullest extent permitted by law, CDC will indemnify the general partner and its directors, officers, employees and agents and persons serving on behalf of CDC in similar capacities with other entities against liabilities, costs and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) incurred by the general partner or such persons in connection with litigation or threatened litigation, if the general partner or such persons acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of CDC, and such general partner or such other person's conduct did not constitute gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, did not have any reason to believe his conduct was unlawful. Any indemnification under these provisions will be limited to the assets of CDC.

Pursuant to authority granted by the Nevada General Corporation Law and its respective Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and with respect to CDC, pursuant to the Limited Partnership Agreement, each of Centex, Holding, Development, and CDC has purchased directors and officers liability insurance.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

The information required by this Item 8 is set forth in the Index to Exhibits accompanying this Registration Statement.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement; and
 - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrants pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

- (2) That, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrants' annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Table of Contents

- (5) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Registrants pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrants have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrants of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrants in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrants will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
