Item 2.03. Creation of Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On September 21, 2004, Harwood Street Funding I, LLC, a special purpose, bankruptcy-remote Delaware limited liability company (HSF-I), issued Variable Rate Term Notes, Series 2004-1, in an aggregate principal amount of $250,000,000 (the 2004-1 Notes).

HSF-I was formed for the purpose of purchasing mortgage loans from time to time from CTX Mortgage Company, LLC (CTX Mortgage), an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Centex Corporation (Centex), and selling such mortgage loans to third parties. HSF-I obtains funding for the purchase of mortgage loans by issuing from time to time secured liquidity notes, variable rate term notes and variable rate extendible certificates. HSF-I issues its secured liquidity notes and variable rate term notes pursuant to an amended and restated base indenture as supplemented by indenture supplements creating the particular series of notes and issues its variable rate extendible certificates pursuant to a second amended and restated limited liability company agreement as supplemented by supplements creating the particular series of certificates. For financial accounting purposes, the obligations evidenced by the secured liquidity notes, variable rate term notes and variable rate extendible certificates are reflected as either short-term or long-term indebtedness of Centex on a consolidated basis. The 2004-1 Notes will be reflected as short-term indebtedness of Centex on a consolidated basis.

The net proceeds received from the issuance of the 2004-1 Notes will be used by HSF-I to acquire mortgage loans from CTX Mortgage or pay amounts due and owing on HSF-I s obligations. The 2004-1 Notes will have an interest rate on the principal amount equal to one-month LIBOR plus 0.05% per annum. Interest payments on the 2004-1 Notes will be payable on the 20th day of each month or, if such day is not a business day, then the next succeeding business day, commencing on October 20, 2004. The principal amount of the 2004-1 Notes will mature and be payable in full in one installment on September 20, 2005. The principal amount will be payable earlier if an event of default occurs, under the amended and restated base indenture and indenture supplement governing the 2004-1 Notes, that results in the acceleration of the maturity of the 2004-1 Notes. In addition, upon the termination of HSF-I s secured liquidity notes program and the satisfaction of certain requirements under HSF-I s program documents, HSF-I may repurchase the 2004-1 Notes, in whole but not in part, on any distribution date upon prior notice to the holders of the 2004-1 Notes. The rights of the holders of the 2004-1 Notes to receive principal and interest payments will be senior to amounts owing to the holders of HSF-I s variable rate extendible certificates and will be pari passu with the holders of HSF-I s secured liquidity notes. Proceeds of the mortgage loans owned by HSF-I, the rights of HSF-I under an interest rate swap with a commercial bank and a reserve fund established by HSF-I are the sole source of payments on HSF-I s secured liquidity notes, variable rate term notes and variable rate extendible certificates, including the 2004-1 Notes.

The 2004-1 Notes represent senior debt obligations of HSF-I only and do not represent obligations of, and are not guaranteed or insured by, the manager or any member of HSF-I, CTX Mortgage, Centex or any subsidiary of Centex. Centex and CTX Mortgage retain, however, certain risks related to the portfolio of mortgage loans held by HSF-I. CTX Mortgage makes representations and warranties to HSF-I to the effect that each mortgage loan sold to HSF-I satisfies certain eligibility criteria and portfolio requirements. CTX Mortgage also services the mortgage loans owned by HSF-I and, as servicer, arranges for the sale of the mortgage loans by HSF-I into the secondary market. Centex has provided a full, unconditional and irrevocable guarantee of the performance and payment obligations of CTX Mortgage as servicer of the mortgage loans owned by HSF-I. Centex also retains certain interest rate risk, non-credit related market value risk and prepayment risk in connection with the portfolio of mortgage loans owned by HSF-I through a swap arrangement with a commercial bank that backs HSF-I's interest rate swap.

For more information about HSF-I and its activities, including the obligations of Centex and CTX Mortgage described above, please refer to Note F to Centex's Consolidated Financial Statements, as contained in Centex's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2004, and Note G to Centex's Consolidated Financial Statements, as contained in Centex's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2004, each as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The 2004-1 Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Act), and may not be offered or sold absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements. The 2004-1 Notes will be offered and sold only to (i) Qualified Institutional Buyers within the meaning of Rule 144A under the Act, (ii) Institutional Accredited Investors within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) of Regulation D under the Act, or (iii) non-U.S. persons in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S under the Act.

THIS CURRENT REPORT ON FORM 8-K DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN OFFER TO SELL OR THE SOLICITATION OF AN OFFER TO BUY THE 2004-1 NOTES.
