Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Century Bancorp, Inc. (the Company) announced on April 14, 2006 it was entering into agreements with Marshall M. Sloane and Paul V. Cusick, Jr. pursuant to which each would perform future consulting services for the Company as approved by the Board of Directors of the Company at its Annual Meeting on April 11, 2004. The material terms and conditions of such agreements were contained in the Company's Press Release of April 14, 2006, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. In the Consulting Services Agreement with Mr. Sloane, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1, Mr. Sloane also undertakes noncompetition and confidentiality constraints for the protection of the Company. The agreement provides in addition that in the event the Company is ever sold, any acquiring company would be required to honor the Agreement dated as of December 28, 2001 that the Company's subsidiary, Century Bank and Trust Company had entered into with Mr. Sloane providing for the freezing of benefits under Mr. Sloane's Supplemental Executive/Insurance Retirement Income Plan in consideration for the Company's acquisition of split dollar life insurance with a death benefit to Mr. Sloane's assignee of $25 million. The policy, which is owned by the Company, would also at the present time pay a benefit to the Company of approximately $9.9 million. The Company also entered into a letter agreement with Mr. Cusick, attached as Exhibit 10.2, to be followed by a formal Consulting Services Agreement at the time of his retirement containing the terms of the letter. Mr. Cusick's Consulting Services Agreement will also contain noncompetition and confidentiality constraints.
