SECTION 8 Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events

On July 3, 2007, the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia issued its opinion affirming the summary judgment ruling of the United States District Court of the District of Columbia allowing the Nottawaseppi Huron Band of Potawatomi Indians (the Band) to take into trust the approximately 78 acres of land designated by the Assistant Secretary of the Bureau of Indian Affairs of the Department of Interior for the construction and operation of a Class III gambling casino under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act. The action had been initiated in August 2002 by the Citizens Exposing Truth About Casinos (CETAC) to prevent the designated land from being taken into trust by the United States for the benefit of the Band.

The registrant entered into a management agreement with the Band to develop and operate a gaming project on the Band's trust lands upon the Band obtaining federal approval of the trust land and federal approval of the management agreement. The litigation was previously described in the registrant's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
