Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 16, 2008, Polaris Industries Inc. (the Company) announced the decision of Thomas C. Tiller, the Chief Executive Officer, to step down from his current position by the end of 2008. At the same time, the Company announced the succession plan for Mr. Tiller. A copy of the news release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

The Company's Compensation Committee and Board of Directors have approved the terms of severance agreements (the Severance Agreements) for the following named executive officers (each, an Executive Officer):

Bennett J. Morgan, President and Chief Operating Officer;

Michael W. Malone, Vice President Finance, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary;

Jeffrey A. Bjorkman: Vice President Operations;

John B. Corness: Vice President Human Resources

The Severance Agreements with the Executive Officers, effective as of January 16, 2008, provide that if in connection with a change in control, an Executive Officer's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by the Executive Officer with good reason, as such terms are defined in the agreements, he will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to the sum of (i) two times his average annual cash compensation (base salary plus cash incentive awards) for the three preceding fiscal years; (ii) his earned but unused vacation time and (iii) any earned but unpaid cash incentive award with respect to the last completed fiscal year under the Company's Senior Executive Annual Incentive Compensation Plan (Senior Executive Plan).

Under the terms of the Severance Agreements, if an Executive Officer is terminated by the Company without cause and not in connection with a change in control of the Company, such Executive Officer shall be entitled to: (i) an amount equal to his then-current annual base salary (for all Executive Officers other than Mr. Morgan who will receive one and a half times his then-current annual base salary) and the amount of his cash incentive award paid under the Senior Executive Plan for the last completed fiscal year, payable over a period of one year in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices; (ii) any earned but unpaid cash incentive award for the last completed fiscal year under the Senior Executive Plan; (iii) any earned but unpaid incentive compensation award for the last completed award period under the Company's Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP) as well as a pro rata portion of the incentive compensation award for which he is eligible under the LTIP based on time worked during the performance measurement period; (iv) COBRA premiums for a one year period; (v) outplacement counseling; (vi) lapse of restrictions on his outstanding performance based restricted share awards for which the measurement period and performance goals have been achieved prior to termination and (vii) eligibility for early retirement benefits under the Company's Early Retiree Benefit Plan for Officers without regard to age or time in service requirements.

An Executive Officer will be required to execute a general waiver and release upon termination in order to receive the benefits under his Severance Agreement. The benefits under the Severance Agreements are in lieu of any benefits that would have otherwise been provided to the Executive Officers under the Company's severance policies and practices. The Severance Agreements supersede the Change in Control Agreements previously entered into between the Company and each Executive Officer, a form of which was filed as Exhibit 10.f to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on October 31, 2007. The form of the Severance Agreement between the Company and each Executive Officer other than Mr. Morgan is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.dd. The form of Mr. Morgan's Severance Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.ee.
