YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear stockholder:

On January 8, 2009, thinkorswim Group Inc., referred to as thinkorswim, and TD AMERITRADE Holding Corporation, referred to as TD AMERITRADE, announced a business combination in which thinkorswim would merge with a subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE. If this merger is completed, you will have the right to receive $3.34 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding, referred to as the cash consideration, and 0.3980 of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock, referred to as the stock consideration, and together with the cash consideration, referred to as the merger consideration, for each outstanding share of common stock of thinkorswim that you hold immediately prior to the merger.

The value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of TD AMERITRADE common stock. The following table shows the closing sale prices of TD AMERITRADE common stock and thinkorswim common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and the NASDAQ Global Market, respectively, on January 7, 2009, the last trading day before the announcement of the potential merger, and on May 7, 2009, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this document. This table also shows the implied value of the merger consideration proposed for each share of thinkorswim common stock, which we calculated by adding to the cash consideration the product obtained by multiplying the closing price of TD AMERITRADE common stock on those dates by 0.3980, the exchange ratio for the stock consideration.

			Implied Value of One Share of thinkorswim
	TD AMERITRADE Common Stock	thinkorswim Common Stock	Common Stock
At January 7, 2009	$ 13.48	$ 5.65	$ 8.705
At May 7, 2009	$ 16.25	$ 9.72	$ 9.808

The market prices of both TD AMERITRADE common stock and thinkorswim common stock will fluctuate before the merger. You should obtain current stock price quotations for TD AMERITRADE common stock and thinkorswim common stock. TD AMERITRADE common stock is quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol AMTD. thinkorswim common stock is quoted on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol SWIM.

We cannot complete the merger unless thinkorswim's stockholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, referred to as the merger proposal. thinkorswim will hold a special meeting of its stockholders to vote on the merger proposal at the Hilton New York located at 1335 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019 at 9:00 A.M., local time, on June 9, 2009. Your vote is important. The market price of TD AMERITRADE common stock will continue to fluctuate following the date of the stockholder vote on the approval and adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting. Consequently, at the time of the stockholder vote, the value of the merger consideration will not yet be determined. Regardless of whether you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote your shares in accordance with the instructions contained in this proxy statement/prospectus. Failing to vote will have the same effect as voting against the merger proposal. You will also have an opportunity to vote to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval of the merger proposal, referred to as the adjournment proposal.

In connection with the proposed transaction, thinkorswim has agreed to implement, subject to stockholder approval, a stock option exchange program, referred to as the exchange program, that will permit thinkorswim's eligible employees and independent contractors, referred to as eligible individuals, to exchange certain thinkorswim options, which were issued under the thinkorswim Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan, the Telescan, Inc. Amended and Restated 1995 Stock Option Plan, the Telescan, Inc. 2000 Stock Option Plan and the Telescan, Inc. Amended and Restated Stock Option Plan, for thinkorswim restricted stock units, which will be assumed by TD AMERITRADE if the merger is completed. At the special meeting, thinkorswim stockholders will have an opportunity to vote to approve the exchange program and an amendment to thinkorswim's Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan to permit the grant of thinkorswim restricted stock units. The proposal relating to the option exchange program is referred to as the option exchange proposal. The proposal relating to the amendment of the Stock Option Plan is referred to as the plan amendment proposal. Approval of the option exchange proposal and the plan amendment proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger but the exchange of thinkorswim options for thinkorswim restricted stock units will occur only if the option exchange proposal and the plan amendment proposal are both approved and the merger is completed.

The thinkorswim board of directors unanimously recommends that thinkorswim stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger proposal, the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal and the adjournment proposal.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT VOTING PROCEDURES FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

A: TD AMERITRADE Holding Corporation, referred to as TD AMERITRADE, has agreed to acquire thinkorswim Group Inc., referred to as thinkorswim, by means of a merger with a subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE. Please see The Merger beginning on page 22 and The Merger Agreement beginning on page 48 for a description of the merger and the merger agreement. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

In connection with the proposed transaction, thinkorswim has agreed to implement, subject to stockholder approval, a stock option exchange program that permits thinkorswim's eligible employees and independent contractors to exchange certain underwater thinkorswim options for thinkorswim restricted stock units, referred to as the option exchange proposal. Please see thinkorswim Proposal 3 Option Exchange beginning on page 77 for a description of the option exchange proposal.

To complete the merger, thinkorswim stockholders must vote to approve the merger proposal. thinkorswim will hold a special meeting of stockholders to obtain this approval. You will also be given an opportunity to vote to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger proposal, referred to as the adjournment proposal.

At the special meeting, you will also have an opportunity to vote to approve the option exchange proposal and an amendment to thinkorswim's Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan to permit the grant of thinkorswim restricted stock units, referred to as the plan amendment proposal. Please see thinkorswim Proposal 4 Amendment of the Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Plan beginning on page 83 for a description of the plan amendment proposal.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus and have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly. If you hold stock in your name as a stockholder of record, please vote your shares by (i) completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card, (ii) using the telephone number on your proxy card or (iii) using the Internet voting instructions on your proxy card. If you have Internet access, we encourage you to record your vote via the Internet.

If you hold your stock in street name through a bank or broker, you must direct your bank or broker to vote in accordance with the instructions you have received from your bank or broker. Submitting your proxy card or directing your bank or broker to vote your shares will ensure that your shares are represented and voted at the special meeting.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: If you do not vote by proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, it will be more difficult for us to obtain the necessary quorum to hold our special meeting. In addition, your failure to vote, by proxy or in person, or failure to instruct your broker, will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger proposal. The merger proposal must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of thinkorswim common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. In order for the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal or the adjournment proposal to be approved, the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy must vote in favor of approval of such proposal. The thinkorswim board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote to approve the merger proposal, the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal and the adjournment proposal.

Q: If my shares of common stock are held in street name by my broker, will my broker automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker cannot vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker as to how to vote your shares, following the directions your broker provides to you. Please check the voting form used by your broker.

Table of Contents

Q: What if I abstain from voting or fail to instruct my broker?

A: If you abstain from voting, the abstention will be counted toward a quorum at the special meeting, but it will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger proposal, the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal and the adjournment proposal. If you fail to instruct your broker, it will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger proposal, the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal and the adjournment proposal.

Q: Can I attend the special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. All stockholders, including stockholders of record and stockholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the special meeting. Holders of record of thinkorswim common stock can vote in person at the special meeting. If you are not a stockholder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership and you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. We reserve the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. You may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, delivering a written revocation letter to the Secretary of thinkorswim, or by attending the special meeting in person, notifying the Secretary and voting by ballot at the special meeting. The thinkorswim Secretary's mailing address is 13947 South Minuteman Drive, Draper, Utah 84020.

Any stockholder entitled to vote in person at the special meeting may vote in person regardless of whether a proxy has been previously given, but the mere presence (without notifying the Secretary of thinkorswim) of a stockholder at the special meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

Q: If I am a thinkorswim stockholder, should I send in my thinkorswim stock certificates now?

A: No. You should not send in your thinkorswim stock certificates at this time. After the merger is consummated, TD AMERITRADE will send you instructions for exchanging thinkorswim stock certificates for the merger consideration. Unless thinkorswim stockholders specifically request to receive TD AMERITRADE stock certificates, the shares of TD AMERITRADE stock they receive in the merger will be issued in book-entry form.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: We currently expect to complete the merger within the next six months. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur. We must first obtain the approval of thinkorswim stockholders at the special meeting and the necessary regulatory approvals.

Q: Whom should I call with questions?

A: thinkorswim stockholders should call Georgeson Inc., thinkorswim's proxy solicitor, at (866) 741-9560 with any questions about the merger.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights material information from this proxy statement/prospectus. It may not contain all of the information that is important to you. We urge you to read carefully the entire proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents to which we refer in order to fully understand the merger and the related transactions. See Where You Can Find More Information on page 88. Each item in this summary refers to the page of this proxy statement/prospectus on which that subject is discussed in more detail.

In the merger, thinkorswim stockholders will have a right to receive a cash amount of $3.34, without interest and less any required withholding under United States federal, state, local or foreign law, and 0.3980 of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock for each outstanding share of thinkorswim common stock. (page 48)

On January 8, 2009, TD AMERITRADE entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, referred to as the merger agreement, by and among TD AMERITRADE, Tango Acquisition Corporation One, a wholly-owned subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE, referred to as Merger Sub One, Tango Acquisition Corporation Two, a wholly-owned subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE, referred to as Merger Sub Two, and thinkorswim. The merger agreement provides for the acquisition of thinkorswim by TD AMERITRADE by means of a merger of Merger Sub One with and into thinkorswim, referred to as the first-step merger, with thinkorswim as the interim surviving corporation, immediately followed by a merger of thinkorswim, as the interim surviving corporation, with and into Merger Sub Two, referred to as the second-step merger, with Merger Sub Two as the final surviving corporation. Unless otherwise specified herein, the second-step merger, taken together with the first-step merger, is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the merger. As a result of the merger, thinkorswim will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE. See Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger Two-Step Merger for an explanation of the two-step merger structure.

Each share of thinkorswim common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount of $3.34, without interest and less any required withholding under United States federal, state, local or foreign law, plus 0.3980 of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock, referred to as the per share merger consideration. The total cash consideration to be paid in the merger is approximately $225 million, and the total number of shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock to be issued is approximately 28 million. TD AMERITRADE plans to utilize cash dividends from its subsidiaries and, if necessary, borrow on its $300 million revolving line of credit, to finance the payment of the cash consideration.

The merger agreement is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

What Holders of thinkorswim Stock Options and Other Equity-Based Awards Will Receive (page 48)

Each of the vested and unvested options to purchase shares of thinkorswim common stock that are outstanding at the effective time of the merger and that are not cancelled and not exchanged for restricted stock units pursuant to the exchange program described below will be assumed by TD AMERITRADE, and, at the effective time of the merger, converted into the right to receive options to purchase shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock, and will otherwise be subject to the terms and conditions of such awards prior to the completion of the merger.

Each of thinkorswim's unvested restricted stock units (including restricted stock units issued in exchange for thinkorswim options pursuant to the exchange program) and shares of restricted stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger (and, in the case of shares of restricted stock, that have not become vested either immediately prior to, or as a result of, completion of the merger) will be assumed by TD AMERITRADE, and, at the effective time of the merger, converted into the right to receive TD AMERITRADE restricted stock units or shares of restricted stock, as the case may be, and will otherwise be subject to the terms and conditions of such awards prior to the completion of the merger. Shares of thinkorswim restricted stock that have become vested either immediately prior to or as a result of completion of the merger will be treated as outstanding shares and will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

Exchange Program (pages 77 and 83)

In connection with the proposed transaction, thinkorswim has agreed to implement, subject to stockholder approval, an exchange program that permits thinkorswim's eligible employees and independent contractors to exchange outstanding thinkorswim options with an exercise price equal to or greater than the total value of the per share merger consideration (based on the volume-weighted average price of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock on the trading day immediately prior to the effective time of the merger) for a number of restricted stock units to be granted under thinkorswim's Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan. The exchange of thinkorswim options for thinkorswim restricted stock units will occur only if the merger is completed.

thinkorswim is asking its stockholders to approve the option exchange proposal and an amendment to thinkorswim's Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan to permit the grant of restricted stock units.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences to thinkorswim Stockholders if the Merger is a Reorganization (page 66)

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes, and it is a condition to the obligations of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim to complete the merger that each of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim receive a legal opinion to that effect. If the merger qualifies as a reorganization, a U.S. holder of thinkorswim common stock receiving TD AMERITRADE common stock and cash in exchange for such thinkorswim common stock in the merger generally will recognize gain only to the extent of such cash consideration, and will not be subject to current taxation on the amount of any gain in excess of that cash. More precisely, a U.S. holder will recognize gain equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash received by the U.S. holder (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares) and (ii) the excess of the amount realized by the U.S. holder over the U.S. holder's tax basis in the thinkorswim common stock. The amount realized by the U.S. holder will equal the sum of the fair market value of the TD AMERITRADE common stock and the amount of cash (including any cash received in lieu of fractional shares) received by the U.S. holder. Losses will not be permitted to be recognized. Realized gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares (i.e., shares acquired at different times and prices) exchanged in the merger, and a loss realized on the exchange of one block cannot be used to offset a gain realized on the exchange of another block.

The United States federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of thinkorswim common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim strongly urge you to consult with your tax advisor for a full understanding of the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

The thinkorswim board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of thinkorswim and its stockholders and has unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement. UBS Securities LLC Provided an Opinion to the thinkorswim Board of Directors (page 30)

In connection with the proposed transaction, thinkorswim's board of directors received a written opinion, dated January 7, 2009, from UBS Securities LLC, referred to as UBS, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of such opinion, of the per share consideration to be received in the transaction by holders of thinkorswim common stock (other than thinkorswim stockholders who have entered into voting agreements with TD AMERITRADE and their respective affiliates, collectively referred to as excluded holders). The full text of UBS written opinion, dated January 7, 2009, is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C. Holders of thinkorswim common stock are encouraged to read UBS' opinion carefully in its entirety. UBS' opinion was provided for the benefit of thinkorswim's board of directors in connection with, and for the purpose of, its evaluation of the per share merger consideration from a financial point of view and does not address any other aspect of the transaction. The opinion does not address the relative merits of the transaction as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to thinkorswim or thinkorswim's underlying business decision to effect the transaction. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to the transaction. thinkorswim's Officers and Directors Have Financial Interests in the Merger That Differ From Your Interests (page 36)

A number of thinkorswim's executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that are different from those of other thinkorswim stockholders. As of the record date, all directors and executive officers of thinkorswim, together with their affiliates, beneficially owned approximately 20.69% of the outstanding shares of thinkorswim common stock, which includes shares of restricted stock that will vest within sixty days of such date, and shares underlying vested options and options that will vest within sixty days of such date. Additionally, certain executive officers and the non-employee directors of thinkorswim will be entitled to additional benefits upon or as a result of the consummation of the merger.

Certain Executive Officers of thinkorswim Have Agreed to Vote in Favor of the Merger (page 65)

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, certain executive officers of thinkorswim entered into voting agreements pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares of thinkorswim common stock in favor of the merger. These executive officers own shares representing approximately 16.17% of thinkorswim's issued and outstanding common stock as of the record date. They have also agreed to comply with certain restrictions on the disposition of their shares, subject to the terms and conditions contained in the voting agreements. Pursuant to their terms, such voting agreements will terminate concurrently with any termination of the merger agreement.

The form of voting agreement is included as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Holders of thinkorswim Common Stock Are Entitled to Appraisal Rights (page 43)

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, referred to as the DGCL, holders of thinkorswim common stock who do not vote for the approval of the merger proposal have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery if the merger is completed, but only if they comply with all requirements of Delaware law, which are summarized in this proxy statement/prospectus. This appraisal amount could be more than, the same as, or less than the amount a thinkorswim stockholder would be entitled to receive under the merger agreement. Any holder of thinkorswim common stock intending to exercise appraisal rights, among other things, must submit a written demand for appraisal to thinkorswim prior to the vote on the approval of the merger proposal and must not vote or otherwise submit a proxy in favor of approval of the merger proposal. Failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under Delaware law will result in the loss of appraisal rights. Because of the complexity of the Delaware law relating to appraisal rights, if you are considering exercising your appraisal right, we encourage you to seek the advice of your own legal counsel.

A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is also included as Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Conditions That Must Be Satisfied or Waived for the Merger to Occur (page 60)

Currently, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim expect to complete the merger within the next six months. As more fully described in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, the completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where legally permissible, waived. These conditions include, among others, approval of the merger proposal by thinkorswim stockholders, the expiration or termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period, the receipt of all required regulatory approvals (including approval by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, referred to as FINRA, the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada, referred to as IIROC, and certain other Canadian securities regulators) and the receipt of legal opinions by each company regarding the tax treatment of the merger. The waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act expired on February 25, 2009.

Neither TD AMERITRADE nor thinkorswim can be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 61)

Either TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim can terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances, which would prevent the merger from being completed.

Termination Fee (page 63)

A termination fee of $20,000,000 may be payable by thinkorswim to TD AMERITRADE upon the termination of the merger agreement under several circumstances.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 46)

TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as practicable all regulatory approvals that are required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include approval from or notices to foreign and state securities authorities, various other federal, state and foreign antitrust and regulatory authorities, including the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission, and self-regulatory organizations. In addition, the indirect change in control of thinkorswim's broker-dealer subsidiary resulting from the merger is subject to approval by FINRA, and the indirect change of ownership of thinkorswim's Canadian broker-dealer subsidiary resulting from the merger is subject to approval by IIROC and a number of Canadian provincial securities commissions, including the Ontario Securities Commission.

Although neither TD AMERITRADE nor thinkorswim know of any reason why these regulatory approvals would not be obtained in a timely manner, neither TD AMERITRADE nor thinkorswim can be certain when or if the approvals will be obtained.

Board of Directors and Management of TD AMERITRADE following Completion of the Merger (page 43)

The directors of thinkorswim and its subsidiaries will resign as of the effective time of the merger. The composition of TD AMERITRADE's board of directors and management is not anticipated to change in connection with the completion of the merger.

The Rights of thinkorswim Stockholders will Change as a Result of the Merger (page 70)

The rights of thinkorswim stockholders will change as a result of the merger due to differences in TD AMERITRADE's and thinkorswim's governing documents. This proxy statement/prospectus contains a summary description of stockholder rights under each of the TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim governing documents and describes the material differences between them.

thinkorswim will Hold its Special Meeting on June 9, 2009 (page 17)

The special meeting will be held on June 9, 2009 at 9:00 AM, local time, at the Hilton New York located at 1335 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019. At the special meeting, thinkorswim stockholders will be asked to:

approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby;

approve a stock option exchange program that will permit thinkorswim's eligible individuals to exchange underwater thinkorswim options for thinkorswim restricted stock units;

approve an amendment to thinkorswim's Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan to permit the grant of thinkorswim restricted stock units, which will be assumed by TD AMERITRADE if the merger is completed; and approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Record Date. Only holders of record at the close of business on April 24, 2009 will be entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each share of thinkorswim common stock is entitled to vote. As of the record date, 66,812,819 shares of thinkorswim common stock were outstanding, held by approximately 371 registered holders.

Required vote. Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of thinkorswim common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Because approval is based on the affirmative vote of a majority of shares outstanding, a thinkorswim stockholder's failure to vote or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger proposal.

Approval of each of the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal and the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy, and in the case of the adjournment proposal, even if less than a quorum is present. Because approval of each of these proposals requires the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present in person or by proxy, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against these proposals.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table shows historical information about TD AMERITRADE's and thinkorswim's respective earnings per share and book value per share, and similar information reflecting the merger, referred to as pro forma information. In presenting the comparative pro forma information for the periods shown, TD AMERITRADE assumed that the merger was completed.

TD AMERITRADE is required to account for the merger as a purchase of a business, as that phrase is used under generally accepted accounting principles, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Under purchase accounting, the assets acquired (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities assumed (including executory contracts and other commitments) of thinkorswim as of the completion of the merger, will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of TD AMERITRADE. Any excess of the purchase price over the fair values will be recorded as goodwill. The financial statements of TD AMERITRADE issued after the merger will reflect these fair values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of thinkorswim.

The pro forma financial information includes estimated adjustments to record certain assets and liabilities of thinkorswim at their respective fair values. These pro forma adjustments are subject to updates as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses are performed. Certain other assets and liabilities of thinkorswim will also be subject to adjustment to their respective fair values. Pending more detailed analyses, no pro forma adjustments are included for those assets and liabilities, including additional intangible assets that may be identified. Any change in the fair value of the net assets of thinkorswim will change the amount of the purchase price allocable to goodwill. Additionally, changes to thinkorswim's stockholders' equity, including net income through the date the merger is completed, will change the amount of goodwill recorded. The final adjustments may differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected in this proxy statement/prospectus.

We also anticipate that the merger will provide TD AMERITRADE with financial benefits that include increased revenue and reduced operating expenses, but these financial benefits are not reflected in the pro forma information. Accordingly, the pro forma information does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of TD AMERITRADE would have been had TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim been combined during the periods presented.

The information in the following table is based on historical financial information and related notes for thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE. You should read the summary financial information provided in the following table together with historical financial information and related notes. The historical financial information of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE is also incorporated into this document by reference. CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus contains or incorporates by reference a number of forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about our beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements preceded by, followed by, or including the words could, would, should, target, plan, believe, expect, intend, anticipate, estimate, project, potential, possible or other similar expressions. In particular, forward-looking statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus include expectations regarding the financial conditions, results of operations, earnings outlook and prospects of TD AMERITRADE, thinkorswim and the potential combined company and may include statements regarding the period following the completion of the merger.

The forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties and may differ materially from actual results. The ability of either TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim to predict results or the actual effects of its plans and strategies, or those of the combined company, is subject to inherent uncertainty. Factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from such forward-looking statements include those set forth on page 12 under Risk Factors, as well as, among others, the following:

factors discussed and identified in public filings with the SEC made by TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim;

the effect of changes in domestic and global economic conditions in general;

the completion of the merger is dependent on, among other things, receipt of stockholder and regulatory approvals, the timing of which cannot be predicted with precision and which may not be received at all;

the merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events and unanticipated tax consequences of the merger;

the exposure to litigation, including the possibility that litigation relating to the merger agreement and related transactions could delay or impede the completion of the merger;

the integration of thinkorswim's business and operations with those of TD AMERITRADE may take longer than anticipated, may be more costly than anticipated and may have unanticipated adverse results relating to thinkorswim's or TD AMERITRADE's existing businesses; and the anticipated cost savings and other synergies of the merger may take longer to be realized or may not be achieved in their entirety, and attrition in key client, partner and other relationships relating to the merger may be greater than expected.

You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus or the date of any document incorporated by reference in this document. Except to the extent required by applicable law or regulation, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this document or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this proxy statement/prospectus and attributable to TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the preceding cautionary statement.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in the section entitled Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 11, you should carefully consider the following risk factors before deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger proposal, the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal and the adjournment proposal. In addition, you should read and consider the risks associated with the business of TD AMERITRADE because these risks will also affect the combined company. These risks can be found in TD AMERITRADE's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2008 and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2008, which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. You should also read and consider the other information in this proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section entitled Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 88.

Because thinkorswim stockholders will receive in the merger (in addition to cash) a fixed number of shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock rather than a fixed value, if the market price of TD AMERITRADE common stock declines, the value of the TD AMERITRADE common stock to be received by thinkorswim stockholders will also decline.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of thinkorswim common stock will be converted into merger consideration consisting of an amount of cash of $3.34, without interest and less any required withholding under United States federal, state, local or foreign law, and 0.3980 of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock. The market value of the merger consideration may vary from the closing price of TD AMERITRADE common stock on the date the merger was announced, on the date that this document was mailed to thinkorswim stockholders, on the date of the special meeting of the thinkorswim stockholders and on the date of completion of the merger and thereafter. Any change in the market price of TD AMERITRADE common stock prior to completion of the merger will affect the market value of the merger consideration that thinkorswim stockholders will receive upon completion of the merger. Accordingly, at the time of the special meeting, thinkorswim stockholders will not know or be able to calculate the market value of the merger consideration they would receive upon completion of the merger. Neither company is permitted to terminate the merger agreement or resolicit the vote of thinkorswim stockholders solely because of changes in the market prices of either company's stock. There will be no adjustment to the merger consideration for changes in the market price of either shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock or shares of thinkorswim common stock. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in the respective businesses, operations and prospects of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim, or regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond the control of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock and for shares of thinkorswim common stock.

The market price of TD AMERITRADE's common stock may decline as a result of the merger.

The market price of TD AMERITRADE's common stock may decline as a result of the merger for a number of reasons, including:

the integration of thinkorswim by TD AMERITRADE may be unsuccessful;

TD AMERITRADE may not achieve the perceived benefits of the merger as rapidly as, or to the extent, anticipated by financial or industry analysts; or the effect of the merger on TD AMERITRADE's financial results may not be consistent with the expectations of financial or industry analysts.

These factors are, to some extent, beyond TD AMERITRADE's control. In addition, for thinkorswim stockholders who hold their shares in certificated form, there will be a time period between the effective time of the merger and the time when thinkorswim stockholders actually receive book-entry shares evidencing TD AMERITRADE common stock. Until book-entry shares are received, thinkorswim stockholders will not be able to sell their shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock in the open market and, thus, will not be able to avoid losses resulting from any decline in the market price of TD AMERITRADE common stock during this period.

The failure of TD AMERITRADE to operate and manage the combined company effectively could have a material adverse effect on TD AMERITRADE's business, financial condition and operating results.

TD AMERITRADE will need to meet significant challenges to realize the expected benefits and synergies of the merger. These challenges include:

- integrating the management teams, strategies, cultures, technologies and operations of the two companies;
- retaining and assimilating the key personnel of each company;
- retaining existing clients of thinkorswim;
- creating uniform standards, controls, procedures, policies and information systems; and
- achieving revenue growth because of risks involving (1) the adoption by TD AMERITRADE clients of the education and trading products offered by thinkorswim, (2) the ability to maintain pricing for thinkorswim's education and brokerage businesses and (3) the ability to maintain growth or retain clients in thinkorswim's brokerage business.

The accomplishment of these post-merger objectives will involve considerable risk, including:

- the potential disruption of each company's ongoing business and distraction of their respective management teams;
- the difficulty of incorporating acquired technology and rights into TD AMERITRADE's products and services;
- unanticipated expenses related to technology integration; and
- potential unknown liabilities associated with the merger.

TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of the technical skills and management expertise of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies due to possible cultural conflicts or differences of opinions on technical decisions and product road maps that adversely affect TD AMERITRADE's ability to maintain relationships with clients, software developers, customers and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Even if TD AMERITRADE is able to integrate the thinkorswim business operations successfully, this integration may not result in the realization of the full benefits of synergies, cost savings, innovation and operational efficiencies that may be possible from this integration and these benefits may not be achieved within a reasonable period of time.

Failure to retain key employees could diminish the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The success of the merger will depend in part on the retention of personnel critical to the business and operations of the combined company due to, for example, their technical skills or management expertise. Employees may experience uncertainty about their future role with thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE until strategies with regard to these employees are announced or executed. If thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE are unable to retain personnel, including thinkorswim's key management, trading group, sales and client-facing personnel and brokerage and education product and technical development staff, that are critical to the successful integration and future operations of the companies, thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE could face disruptions in their operations, loss of existing customers, loss of key information, expertise or know-how, and unanticipated additional recruitment and training costs. In addition, the loss of key personnel could diminish the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Uncertainty regarding the merger may cause clients to delay or defer decisions concerning TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim and adversely affect each company's ability to attract and retain key employees.

The merger will happen only if stated conditions are met, including the approval of the merger proposal by thinkorswim's stockholders, the receipt of regulatory approvals, and the absence of any material adverse effect in the business of thinkorswim or TD AMERITRADE. Many of the conditions are outside the control of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE, and both parties also have stated rights to terminate the merger agreement. Accordingly, there may be uncertainty regarding the completion of the merger. This uncertainty may cause clients to delay or defer decisions concerning thinkorswim or TD AMERITRADE, which could negatively affect their respective businesses. Any delay or deferral of those decisions or changes in existing agreements could have a material adverse effect on the respective businesses of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE, regardless of whether the merger is ultimately completed. Moreover, diversion of management focus and resources from the day-to-day operation of the business to matters relating to the merger could have a material adverse effect on each company's business, regardless of whether the merger is completed. Current and prospective employees of each company may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company. This may adversely affect each company's ability to attract and retain key management, sales, marketing and technical personnel.

The market price of TD AMERITRADE common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of thinkorswim or TD AMERITRADE currently.

The businesses of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim differ in important respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim. For a discussion of the businesses of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 88.

The merger may go forward in certain circumstances even if TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim suffers a material adverse effect.

In general, either party can refuse to complete the merger if a material adverse effect occurs with regard to the other party before the closing. However, neither party may refuse to complete the merger on that basis as a result of any fact, circumstance, change or effect resulting from:

general market, economic or political conditions in the United States or any other jurisdiction in which TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim or any of their respective subsidiaries has substantial business or operations and any changes therein (including any condition or changes arising out of acts of terrorism, war, weather conditions or other force majeure events), to the extent they do not affect TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim, as applicable, disproportionately relative to other companies organized and based in the United States and operating in the same industries in which TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim operates;

general conditions in the financial services industry, and any changes therein (including any condition or changes arising out of acts of terrorism, war, weather conditions or other force majeure events), to the extent they do not affect TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim, as applicable, disproportionately relative to other companies organized and based in the United States and operating in the same industries in which TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim operates;

changes or proposed changes in generally accepted accounting principles or applicable federal, state, provincial, local, municipal, foreign or other law;

the public announcement of the merger agreement or pendency of the merger, including any loss of or adverse change in the relationship of TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim with their respective employees, customers, partners or suppliers related thereto to the extent resulting from the announcement of the merger agreement or the pendency of the merger;

any action or omission by TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim taken with the prior written consent of the other party;

any failure of TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim to meet internal or analysts' estimates, projections or forecasts of revenues, earnings or other financial or business metrics, in and of itself;

any decline in the market price or change in the trading volume of TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim's public equity securities, in and of itself; or any of the matters disclosed in the respective disclosure schedules of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim.

If adverse changes occur but TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim must still complete the merger, TD AMERITRADE's stock price may suffer. This in turn may reduce the value of the merger to thinkorswim stockholders.

thinkorswim stockholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management. In addition, The Toronto-Dominion Bank and the Ricketts holders exercise significant influence over TD AMERITRADE.

thinkorswim stockholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of thinkorswim and on other matters affecting thinkorswim. When the merger occurs, each thinkorswim stockholder that receives shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock will become a stockholder of TD AMERITRADE with a percentage ownership of the combined company that is much smaller than the stockholder's percentage ownership of thinkorswim. It is expected that the former stockholders of thinkorswim as a group will own less than 5% of the outstanding shares of TD AMERITRADE immediately after the merger. Because of this, thinkorswim's stockholders will have less influence on the management and policies of TD AMERITRADE than they now have on the management and policies of thinkorswim. Furthermore, as of December 22, 2008, The Toronto-Dominion Bank and J. Joe Ricketts, TD AMERITRADE's founder, members of his family and trusts held for their benefit, referred to as the Ricketts holders, owned approximately 40.3% and 22.2%, respectively, of the outstanding voting securities of TD AMERITRADE. TD AMERITRADE is party to a stockholders agreement with these stockholders that contains certain governance arrangements and various provisions relating to board composition, stock ownership and transfers, voting and other matters. Beginning January 26, 2009, The Toronto-Dominion Bank is permitted to own up to 45% of the outstanding common stock of TD AMERITRADE under the terms of the stockholders agreement. Please see Comparison of Stockholders' Rights beginning on page 70 for a description of certain provisions of the stockholders agreement. As a result of their significant share ownership in TD AMERITRADE, The Toronto-Dominion Bank or the Ricketts holders may have the power, subject to applicable law, to significantly influence actions that might be favorable to The Toronto-Dominion Bank or the Ricketts holders, but not necessarily favorable to other TD AMERITRADE stockholders. In addition, the ownership position and governance rights of The Toronto-Dominion Bank and the Ricketts holders could discourage a third party from proposing a change in control or other strategic transaction concerning TD AMERITRADE. As a result, the common stock of TD AMERITRADE could trade at prices that do not reflect a takeover premium to the same extent as do the stocks of similarly situated companies that do not have a stockholder with an ownership interest as large as The Toronto-Dominion Bank's and the Ricketts holders' combined ownership interest.

The merger agreement limits thinkorswim's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains no shop provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, limit thinkorswim's ability to discuss, facilitate or commit to competing third-party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of thinkorswim, as well as a termination fee that is payable by thinkorswim under certain circumstances. These provisions might discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of thinkorswim from considering or proposing that acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in the merger or might result in a potential competing acquiror proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire thinkorswim than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from regulatory authorities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on TD AMERITRADE or, if not obtained, could prevent completion of the merger.

Before the merger may be completed, various approvals or consents must be obtained from various domestic and foreign securities regulatory and other authorities. While TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim believe that they will receive the requisite regulatory approvals from these governmental authorities, there can be no assurance of this. In addition, these governmental authorities may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Although TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of TD AMERITRADE following the merger, any of which might have a material adverse effect on TD AMERITRADE following the merger. For a full description of the regulatory clearances, consents and approvals required for the merger, please see The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger beginning on page 46.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively affect thinkorswim's stock price and its future business and operations.

If the merger is not completed for any reason, including as a result of an injunction granted in connection with the ongoing thinkorswim stockholder litigation relating to the merger (described on page 47), thinkorswim may be subject to a number of material risks, including the following:

thinkorswim may be required under certain circumstances to pay TD AMERITRADE a termination fee of $20 million;

the price of thinkorswim's common stock may decline; and costs related to the merger, such as financial advisory, legal, accounting and printing fees, must be paid even if the merger is not completed.

If the merger agreement is terminated, thinkorswim may be unable to pursue another business combination transaction on terms as favorable as those set forth in the merger agreement, or at all. This could limit thinkorswim's ability to pursue its strategic goals.

TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim may waive one or more of the conditions of the merger without re-soliciting stockholder approval for the merger.

Each of the conditions to TD AMERITRADE's and thinkorswim's obligations to complete the merger may be waived, in whole or in part, to the extent permitted by applicable law, by agreement of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim, if the condition is a condition to both TD AMERITRADE's and thinkorswim's obligation to complete the merger, or by the party for which such condition is a condition of its obligation to complete the merger. The boards of directors of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim may evaluate the materiality of any such waiver to determine whether amendment of this proxy statement/prospectus and re-solicitation of proxies are necessary. TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim, however, generally do not expect any such waiver to be significant enough to require re-solicitation of stockholders. In the event that any such waiver is not determined to be significant enough to require re-solicitation of stockholders, the companies will have the discretion to complete the merger without seeking further stockholder approval. If the closing condition requiring receipt by TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim of the opinions of their respective tax counsel were waived, the merger would not be completed before further approval of the thinkorswim stockholders was obtained following delivery of relevant additional disclosure to the stockholders.

THE THINKORSWIM SPECIAL MEETING

This section contains information about the special meeting of thinkorswim stockholders that has been called to consider and approve the merger proposal, the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal and the adjournment proposal.

Together with this proxy statement/prospectus, thinkorswim is also sending you a notice of the special meeting and a form of proxy that is solicited by the thinkorswim board of directors.

Time, Date and Place

The special meeting will be held on June 9, 2009 at 9:00 AM, local time, at the Hilton New York located at 1335 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019.

Matters to Be Considered

The purpose of the special meeting is to vote for approval of the merger proposal, the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal and the adjournment proposal.

Proxies

Each copy of this proxy statement/prospectus mailed to holders of thinkorswim common stock is accompanied by a form of proxy with instructions for voting. If you hold stock in your name as a stockholder of record, you should vote your shares by (i) completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card, (ii) using the telephone number on your proxy card or (iii) using the Internet voting instructions on your proxy card to ensure that your vote is counted at the special meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, regardless of whether you plan to attend the special meeting.

If you hold your stock in street name through a bank or broker, you must direct your bank or broker to vote in accordance with the instructions you have received from your bank or broker.

If you hold stock in your name as a stockholder of record, you may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, delivering a written revocation letter to thinkorswim's Secretary, or by attending the special meeting in person, notifying the Secretary, and voting by ballot at the special meeting.

Any stockholder entitled to vote in person at the special meeting may vote in person regardless of whether a proxy has been previously given, but the mere presence (without notifying the Secretary) of a stockholder at the special meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

Written notices of revocation and other communications about revoking your proxy should be addressed to:

thinkorswim Group Inc.
13947 South Minuteman Drive
Draper, Utah 84020
Attention: Paul A. Helbling
Secretary

If your shares are held in street name by a bank or broker, you should follow the instructions of your bank or broker regarding the revocation of proxies.

All shares represented by valid proxies that are received through this solicitation, and that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with your instructions on the proxy card. If you make no specification on your proxy card as to how you want your shares voted before signing and returning it, your proxy will be voted FOR approval of the merger proposal, FOR approval of the option exchange proposal, FOR approval of the plan amendment proposal and FOR approval of the adjournment proposal. According to the thinkorswim amended and restated bylaws, as amended, business to be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders may only be brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the thinkorswim board of directors, or by any thinkorswim stockholder who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the notice provisions set forth in the thinkorswim amended and restated bylaws, as amended. No matters other than the matters described in this document are anticipated to be presented for action at the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

thinkorswim stockholders should not send thinkorswim stock certificates with their proxy cards. After the merger is completed, holders of thinkorswim common stock will be mailed a transmittal form with instructions on how to exchange their thinkorswim stock certificates for the merger consideration.

Solicitation of Proxies

Since many thinkorswim stockholders are unable to attend the special meeting, thinkorswim's board of directors is soliciting proxies to be voted at the special meeting to give each stockholder an opportunity to vote on all matters scheduled to come before the meeting and set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus. thinkorswim's board of directors is asking stockholders to designate Mr. Lee Barba, Ms. Ida Kane and Mr. Paul Helbling, or any one of them, as their proxies.

TD AMERITRADE will pay the costs of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus to thinkorswim's stockholders, and thinkorswim will pay all other costs incurred by it in connection with the solicitation of proxies from its stockholders on behalf of its board of directors, including the entire cost of soliciting proxies from you. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, thinkorswim will request that banks, brokers, and other record holders send proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of thinkorswim common stock and secure their voting instructions. thinkorswim will reimburse the record holders for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. thinkorswim has also made arrangements with Georgeson Inc. to assist it in soliciting proxies and has agreed to pay them $25,000 plus reasonable expenses for these services. Representatives of thinkorswim's investor relations consultant, ICR Inc., may also solicit proxies. ICR will not be specially compensated for these services. thinkorswim has agreed to indemnify Georgeson and ICR for claims related to these services. If necessary, thinkorswim may use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from thinkorswim stockholders, either personally or by telephone, facsimile, letter or other electronic means.

Record Date

The close of business on April 24, 2009 has been fixed as the record date for determining the thinkorswim stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting. At that time, 66,812,819 shares of thinkorswim common stock were outstanding, held by approximately 371 registered holders.

Voting Rights and Vote Required

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of one-third of the outstanding shares of thinkorswim common stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting. Abstentions will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

Approval of the merger proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of thinkorswim common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. You are entitled to one vote for each share of thinkorswim common stock you held as of the record date.

Because the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of thinkorswim common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting is needed for us to proceed with the merger contemplated by the merger agreement, the failure to vote by proxy or in person will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the merger proposal. Abstentions and the failure to instruct your broker also will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the merger proposal. Accordingly, the thinkorswim board of directors urges thinkorswim stockholders to promptly vote by (i) completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card, (ii) using the telephone number on your proxy card, or (iii) using the Internet voting instructions on your proxy card, or, if you hold your stock in street name through a bank or broker, by following the voting instructions of your bank or broker.

Approval of each of the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal and the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy, and in the case of the adjournment proposal, even if less than a quorum is present. Because approval of each of these proposals requires the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present in person or by proxy, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against these proposals. However, the failure to vote, either by proxy or in person, and failure to instruct your broker, will have no effect on the option exchange proposal, the plan amendment proposal or the adjournment proposal. Approval of the option exchange proposal and the plan amendment proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger, and thus the failure to approve the option exchange proposal or the plan amendment proposal will have no impact on whether the merger is completed.

Stockholders will vote at the meeting by ballot. Votes cast at the meeting, in person or by proxy, will be tallied by Georgeson Inc., thinkorswim's proxy solicitor.

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of thinkorswim, and their affiliates, had the right to vote 11,500,527 shares of thinkorswim common stock, or 17.21% of the outstanding thinkorswim common stock at that date. thinkorswim currently expects that each of these individuals will vote their shares of thinkorswim common stock in favor of the proposals to be presented at the special meeting. Certain executive officers of thinkorswim and their affiliates, collectively holding 10,804,852 shares of thinkorswim common stock, or 16.17% of the outstanding thinkorswim common stock as of the record date have entered voting agreements with TD AMERITRADE. Pursuant to the voting agreements, these officers have agreed to vote such shares of thinkorswim common stock in favor of the approval of the merger proposal, and have granted a proxy to TD AMERITRADE to vote the shares in such manner.

Recommendation of the thinkorswim Board of Directors

The thinkorswim board of directors has unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and have unanimously approved the exchange program. The thinkorswim board of directors determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are advisable and in the best interests of thinkorswim and its stockholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR approval of the merger proposal, FOR approval of the option exchange proposal, FOR approval of the plan amendment proposal and FOR approval of the adjournment proposal. See thinkorswim Proposal 1 The Merger thinkorswim's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the thinkorswim Board of Directors on page 28 for a more detailed discussion of the thinkorswim board of directors' recommendation.

Attending the Meeting

All holders of thinkorswim common stock, including stockholders of record and stockholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the special meeting. Stockholders of record can vote in person at the special meeting. If you are not a stockholder of record, you must obtain a proxy executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership and you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. thinkorswim reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership and without proper photo identification.

Voting By Telephone or Via the Internet

In addition to voting by proxy or in person at the special meeting, thinkorswim stockholders that hold their shares as the stockholder of record also may vote their shares by using the telephone number on the proxy card or using the Internet voting instructions on the proxy card. thinkorswim stockholders that hold their shares in street name through a bank or broker may also vote their shares by following the telephone or Internet voting instructions provided by the bank or broker. If you have internet access, we encourage you to vote via the Internet.

Adjournments and Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the special meeting may be adjourned for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies if thinkorswim has not received sufficient votes to approve the merger proposal at the special meeting of stockholders. Any adjournments may be made without notice, other than an announcement at the special meeting, by approval of the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of shares of thinkorswim common stock who are present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting. Any adjournment of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow stockholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use.

At any time prior to convening the special meeting, thinkorswim's board of directors may postpone the special meeting for any reason without the approval of thinkorswim stockholders. If postponed, thinkorswim will provide notice of the new meeting date as required by law. Although it is not currently expected, thinkorswim's board of directors may postpone the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies if thinkorswim has not received sufficient proxies to constitute a quorum or sufficient votes for adoption of the merger agreement. Similar to adjournments, any postponement of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow stockholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use.

Householding of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and Other Special Meeting Materials

To reduce the expenses of delivering duplicate proxy materials to thinkorswim stockholders, thinkorswim is relying upon SEC rules that permit it to deliver only one proxy statement/prospectus to multiple stockholders who share an address unless thinkorswim received contrary instructions from any stockholder at that address. If you share an address with another stockholder and have received only one proxy statement/prospectus, you may write or call thinkorswim as specified below to request a separate copy of this document and thinkorswim will promptly send it to you at no cost to you.

Appraisal Rights

Under Delaware law, thinkorswim stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. Failure to take any of the steps required under Delaware law on a timely basis may result in the loss of these appraisal rights, as more fully described in thinkorswim Proposal 1 The Merger Appraisal Rights beginning on page 43.

Other Matters

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the thinkorswim board of directors does not know of any other business to be presented for consideration at the special meeting. If other matters properly come before the special meeting, the persons named in the accompanying form of proxy intend to vote on such matters based on their best judgment and they intend to vote the shares as the thinkorswim board of directors may recommend.

THINKORSWIM PROPOSAL 1 THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

On September 18, 2006, thinkorswim (then known as Investools Inc.) entered into a definitive agreement to acquire thinkorswim Holdings, Inc. (then known as thinkorswim Group, Inc.). On February 15, 2007, this acquisition was completed.

In 2006, prior to the execution of the agreement between Investools Inc. and thinkorswim Group, Inc., senior executives of thinkorswim Group, Inc. had met with senior executives of TD AMERITRADE to discuss the nature of their respective businesses and the possibility of exploring strategic initiatives the two companies could jointly pursue. However, no specific proposals were discussed or made at the time.

In August 2007, senior representatives of thinkorswim and a publicly traded company in the brokerage sector, referred to as Party A, engaged in preliminary discussions of potential strategic transactions, including a possible combination of the two companies. On September 20, 2007, at a meeting of executives from Party A and thinkorswim and a representative from thinkorswim's financial advisor, Paragon Capital Partners, LLC, referred to as Paragon, the parties discussed preliminary transaction structures for a possible combination of the businesses. The parties did not discuss a valuation for thinkorswim. The parties ceased discussions following this meeting because there was little agreement as to the potential terms of a transaction.

Also in September 2007, senior executives of TD AMERITRADE contacted Lee Barba, the Chairman and CEO of thinkorswim, to express interest in a possible strategic transaction with thinkorswim. Senior executives of both companies as well as representatives of Paragon spoke over the phone and met in person on several occasions during September 2007 to explore the possibility of a strategic transaction. On September 17, 2007, the two companies signed a reciprocal confidentiality agreement. In October 2007, an executive from TD AMERITRADE informed a representative of Paragon that TD AMERITRADE would not proceed with discussions at that time because TD AMERITRADE was considering other strategic transactions. The executive from TD AMERITRADE indicated that TD AMERITRADE might re-engage with thinkorswim at another time.

In May 2008, a senior executive of TD AMERITRADE contacted Mr. Barba to reinitiate discussions about the possibility of exploring a strategic transaction. In consultation with Paragon, thinkorswim resumed exploratory discussions with TD AMERITRADE. Also in May 2008, the senior executive of a private company engaged in the broker-dealer sector, referred to as Party B, contacted a senior executive of thinkorswim to discuss a possible business combination of Party B and thinkorswim. On May 16, 2008, thinkorswim and Party B executed a reciprocal confidentiality agreement. thinkorswim and Party B then engaged in discussions exploring possibilities for a strategic transaction, including a business combination.

On May 23, 2008, a senior executive of thinkorswim called a senior executive of TD AMERITRADE to inform him that thinkorswim was in negotiations with a potential partner for a strategic transaction that would be an alternative to a combination of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim. The senior executive from TD AMERITRADE expressed continued interest in pursuing a transaction with thinkorswim in view of the logical fit between thinkorswim and the strategic interests of TD AMERITRADE. That same day, Fredric Tomczyk, the then current chief operating officer and incoming CEO of TD AMERITRADE, called Mr. Barba and reiterated TD AMERITRADE's interest in thinkorswim. The two parties, together with representatives of Paragon and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, referred to as Merrill Lynch, TD AMERITRADE's financial advisor, proceeded with initial management discussions and due diligence over the next few days.

On May 27, 2008, senior management of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE and representatives of Paragon and Merrill Lynch, held a meeting to discuss each company's businesses and the possibility of a business combination. During this meeting, representatives of TD AMERITRADE indicated that the retention of certain members of thinkorswim's management team was critical to TD AMERITRADE's interest in acquiring thinkorswim.

On June 4, 2008, TD AMERITRADE presented thinkorswim with a preliminary, non-binding written proposal to acquire thinkorswim for consideration with a value of $11 to $13 per share (based on the market value per share of TD AMERITRADE common stock of $18.19 as of the market close on June 3, 2008) to be paid in a combination of cash and TD AMERITRADE common stock. TD AMERITRADE indicated that its proposal would not be subject to any financing contingency. TD AMERITRADE also requested a period of exclusive negotiations.

On or about June 4, 2008, a representative of Party B communicated to a senior executive of thinkorswim and a representative of Paragon the interest of Party B in a stock-for-stock merger with thinkorswim. Party B did not propose a specific valuation range or exchange ratio at that time.

On June 5, 2008, Mr. Tom Sosnoff, a director and executive officer of thinkorswim and Joseph H. Moglia, the then current CEO and current chairman of TD AMERITRADE, met and discussed TD AMERITRADE's proposal.

On June 6, 2008, the thinkorswim board of directors held a special meeting with thinkorswim's senior management and representatives of Paragon to consider the proposals of TD AMERITRADE and Party B. Representatives of Paragon and senior management reviewed with the board of directors their discussions with TD AMERITRADE and Party B and the proposals received from each. The board members discussed the relative merits of each proposal and the other alternatives available to thinkorswim, including continuing as a stand-alone business and pursuing other combinations, acquisitions or divestitures. At this meeting, the board of directors also received an update on the ongoing investigation by the SEC relating to thinkorswim's investor education seminars and related risks, referred to as the SEC Investigation.

The thinkorswim board of directors considered the TD AMERITRADE proposal to be more favorable to thinkorswim's stockholders because the proposed mixture of cash and TD AMERITRADE stock as consideration would provide thinkorswim's stockholders with reasonably certain value and the ability to participate in the synergies created by the transaction. Furthermore, because TD AMERITRADE was a large, well-established business entity and Party B was a smaller, non-public entity, the board believed there would be less execution risk in a transaction with TD AMERITRADE than a transaction with Party B and that there would be significant uncertainty as to the trading price of a share of the combined company resulting from a merger with Party B. The board of directors authorized the senior management of thinkorswim to proceed with discussions with both TD AMERITRADE and Party B and to make counterproposals to or invite revised proposals from each party.

After the board of directors meeting, Mr. Barba called Mr. Tomczyk to suggest a counterproposal for a merger involving consideration valued at $13 to $14 per share of thinkorswim common stock (based on the market value per share of TD AMERITRADE common stock at that time). Mr. Barba also sent a letter to TD AMERITRADE dated June 6, 2008, indicating that thinkorswim would consider an offer of consideration valued at $13 to $14 per share of thinkorswim common stock.

On June 7, 2008, Party B delivered a non-binding proposal contemplating a merger between Party B and thinkorswim in a stock-for-stock merger in which thinkorswim stockholders would be diluted by the exchange of newly issued shares of thinkorswim common stock for the outstanding shares of Party B, with the result being that thinkorswim's pre-merger stockholders would own approximately 40% of the combined company's common stock, with the projected per share trading value being approximately $11.15 per share.

Also on June 7, 2008, Mr. Tomczyk phoned Mr. Barba and indicated that TD AMERITRADE was willing to consider increasing the range of its proposal to $12 to $13 per share of thinkorswim stock to be paid with a combination of cash and TD AMERITRADE common stock. In a subsequent conversation, Mr. Barba proposed $13 per share, and following an internal discussion at TD AMERITRADE, Mr. Tomczyk indicated, subject to completion of due diligence, negotiation of definitive documentation and approval by the TD AMERITRADE board of directors, he would be willing to seek support from his senior management team and board of directors for a merger transaction in which the merger consideration would consist of a fixed combination of TD AMERITRADE common stock and cash with a value of $13 per share (based on the market value per share of TD AMERITRADE common stock at that time).

On June 9, 2008, the thinkorswim board of directors held a special board meeting to discuss, in consultation with thinkorswim's management and representatives of Paragon, the ongoing discussions with TD AMERITRADE and Party B.

At the meeting a representative of Paragon described Party B's proposal and reported that, based on discussions with Party B's financial advisor, Paragon believed the proposal represented Party B's best and final offer. The members of the board discussed Party B's proposal, including the risks and uncertainties to thinkorswim's stockholders of engaging in an all-stock merger with a company that had not yet gone through the SEC registration process and would be valued at 60% of the combined company.

A representative of Paragon then described TD AMERITRADE's proposal and reported that, after several discussions with representatives of TD AMERITRADE and Merrill Lynch concerning the consideration to be paid, a representative of TD AMERITRADE had orally confirmed that TD AMERITRADE was willing to consider a value of $13 per share (based on the market value per share of TD AMERITRADE common stock at that time), consisting of a fixed combination of cash and TD AMERITRADE common stock. The members of the board discussed TD AMERITRADE's proposal, including the advantages to stockholders in terms of certainty and value and TD AMERITRADE's request to enter into an exclusivity agreement as a condition to continuing discussions. Members of the board expressed the belief that a transaction with Party B would involve considerably greater execution risk and less certain value for stockholders than a transaction with TD AMERITRADE.

The members of the thinkorswim board of directors expressed concern that, given the recent drop in thinkorswim's trading price following the public announcement of the SEC Investigation, if word leaked that thinkorswim was considering offers to sell itself, there were risks that thinkorswim would be forced into a disorderly public auction process that would be detrimental to the business operations of thinkorswim and not obtain the best price for thinkorswim's stockholders. The thinkorswim board of directors deliberated about the existence of other opportunities worth pursuing in lieu of the outstanding offers of TD AMERITRADE and Party B. After discussion, including consideration of thinkorswim's stand-alone prospects, the board determined that management should continue to pursue discussions with TD AMERITRADE on an exclusive basis.

On June 12, 2008, thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE agreed to a period of exclusive negotiations continuing until June 30, 2008 and an extension of their reciprocal confidentiality agreement originally signed in September 2007. Following execution of the exclusivity agreement, TD AMERITRADE received access to confidential financial and operational information regarding thinkorswim and both companies engaged in due diligence review of each other's business.

On June 13, 2008, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, referred to as Cleary Gottlieb, legal counsel to thinkorswim, received a draft merger agreement from Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, Professional Corporation, referred to as Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, legal counsel to TD AMERITRADE. Thereafter, until the termination of negotiations by TD AMERITRADE, both companies worked to negotiate and finalize draft documentation for the proposed transaction.

On June 20, 2008, the thinkorswim board of directors held a special board meeting to discuss and analyze, in consultation with representatives of Paragon, Cleary Gottlieb and management, updates on the status of the potential transaction, including progress on due diligence, negotiation of transaction agreements and further discussions with TD AMERITRADE. At this meeting, representatives of Cleary Gottlieb reviewed the fiduciary duties of the directors associated with their evaluation of different strategic alternatives. Also at this meeting, the board discussed, including in executive session without management, the terms of the proposed merger agreement and voting agreement and the insistence by TD AMERITRADE, as a condition to entering into the merger agreement, that certain management stockholders enter into voting agreements and employment agreements with TD AMERITRADE.

Thereafter, due diligence and negotiation of definitive documentation by the parties, Paragon, Merrill Lynch and the parties' respective legal advisors continued. On or about June 23, 2008, TD AMERITRADE contacted representatives of thinkorswim to indicate that, due to various concerns, including concerns with the potential exposure relating to the SEC Investigation, TD AMERITRADE no longer wished to proceed with negotiations regarding a potential transaction and was releasing thinkorswim from its exclusivity obligations.

Following the termination of exclusive discussions with TD AMERITRADE, thinkorswim resumed discussions with Party B regarding a potential transaction, including a proposal involving preferred equity of Party B that would have allocated more voting power to the pre-merger thinkorswim stockholders, but would not have meaningfully altered the overall economic allocation of equity in the combined company as proposed on June 7, 2008, and continued from time to time to engage in discussions with TD AMERITRADE. On July 10, 2008, representatives of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim briefly discussed the possibility of a sale of only the brokerage division of thinkorswim. On July 29, 2008, representatives of thinkorswim and Party B met to discuss a potential transaction. In August 2008, Party B indicated it was no longer interested in proceeding with a transaction and thinkorswim's discussions with Party B terminated.

Throughout the fall of 2008, senior executives of TD AMERITRADE continued to contact Mr. Barba to inquire about the status of the SEC Investigation and the state of thinkorswim's business.

In November 2008, a senior executive from Party A contacted a senior executive of thinkorswim to express interest in a potential business combination of Party A and thinkorswim. On November 24, 2008, senior executives of both companies met and discussed a potential transaction.

On or about December 3, 2008, Mr. Barba and Mr. Tomczyk met to discuss a potential transaction. During this meeting, Mr. Tomczyk indicated that TD AMERITRADE was considering making a proposal to acquire thinkorswim in a transaction in which each outstanding share of thinkorswim common stock would be converted into 0.58 to 0.61 of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock.

On December 4 and 5, 2008, Party A's financial advisor contacted a representative of Paragon to discuss the details of a proposal for Party A to merge with thinkorswim. On December 5, 2008, senior executives of Party A and thinkorswim met again for discussions.

On or about December 9, 2008, Mr. Tomczyk contacted Mr. Barba to inquire about thinkorswim's reaction to the terms discussed on December 3. Mr. Barba indicated that thinkorswim's senior management believed the proposal would need to be increased to be of interest, but that it would be discussed at the next meeting of the thinkorswim board of directors. During this discussion, Mr. Tomczyk asked whether a proposal that involved all-cash consideration would be more attractive to thinkorswim. Mr. Barba indicated that he believed that a mixture of stock and cash would be more attractive than an all-cash proposal because it would allow thinkorswim's stockholders to benefit from the potential future growth of the companies and share in the potential synergies created by the merger.

On December 11, 2008, thinkorswim received a written non-binding proposal from Party A for a merger in which each outstanding share of thinkorswim common stock would be exchanged for a portion of a share of Party A's common stock with a value of approximately $6.18, based on the closing price of Party A's common stock as of December 11, 2008. This value excluded future value creation that would accrue to the benefit of thinkorswim stockholders as a result of realizing the anticipated synergies attributable to this potential transaction. In connection with considering Party A's proposal, thinkorswim's management and board of directors took into account not only the current and historical market value of Party A's common stock, but also the potential for this business combination to generate synergies and the benefits of these synergies to thinkorswim's stockholders as a result of their retaining a significantly larger equity ownership percentage in a Party A/thinkorswim combination than in a TD AMERITRADE/thinkorswim combination. Party A also indicated that it was willing to discuss replacing some of the stock consideration with cash. Party A requested that thinkorswim agree to exclusive negotiations for a period of two weeks.

Also on December 11, 2008, thinkorswim received a written non-binding proposal from TD AMERITRADE. The proposal provided that, subject to the completion of confirmatory due diligence and negotiation of definitive transaction documents, TD AMERITRADE would propose to acquire all of thinkorswim's outstanding capital stock for a combination of cash and stock, using approximately $145 million in cash and the remainder paid in shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock, such that the total consideration would imply an exchange ratio of 0.625 to 0.650. Based on the closing price of TD AMERITRADE's common stock as of December 11, 2008, this implied a value per fully diluted thinkorswim share of $8.08 to $8.40, and represented a premium of 41% to 47% to the trading price of thinkorswim common stock at the time. TD AMERITRADE's letter also noted the significant work it had previously conducted in connection with a proposed transaction and indicated that, if thinkorswim agreed to exclusive negotiations, TD AMERITRADE could complete its due diligence in two to three weeks and negotiate definitive transaction documents expeditiously. Later that day, Mr. Tomczyk called Mr. Barba to discuss the terms of TD AMERITRADE's proposal.

On December 12, 2008, the thinkorswim board of directors held a special meeting to discuss the proposals from Party A and TD AMERITRADE, as well as thinkorswim's stand-alone prospects and strategic alternatives. Representatives of Cleary Gottlieb and Paragon participated in the meeting. Representatives of Cleary Gottlieb reviewed the fiduciary duties of the directors associated with their evaluation of different strategic alternatives. Representatives of Paragon and management then provided an overview of thinkorswim's stand-alone prospects and various strategic alternatives. Representatives of Paragon also provided analysis of the indicative proposals from TD AMERITRADE and Party A.

In consultation with the representatives of Cleary Gottlieb and Paragon, members of senior management and the board of directors engaged in a detailed discussion regarding TD AMERITRADE's and Party A's proposals. The board of directors analyzed the relative premiums afforded by each of the proposals and, based on current and historical trading prices, noted that TD AMERITRADE's proposal would provide thinkorswim's stockholders with a significantly greater premium than Party A's proposal. The board of directors also noted that TD AMERITRADE had already conducted significant due diligence and thus was better prepared to enter into a definitive agreement within a short timeframe, while Party A had not yet conducted any significant due diligence. The board of directors discussed TD AMERITRADE's and Party A's future business prospects.

The board of directors also considered thinkorswim's prospects if it remained independent, noting that thinkorswim continued to face risks from the ongoing SEC Investigation, the decline in economic conditions and the impact of those conditions on the online brokerage industry, and the continuing challenges of integration of the investor education and brokerage sides of the thinkorswim business.

The board of directors also considered whether to approach other potential acquirors of thinkorswim. After considering the universe of other potential acquirors (including the withdrawn proposal by Party B), the general financial situation of those potential acquirors and their strategic fit with thinkorswim, the board of directors, in consultation with Paragon and Cleary Gottlieb, concluded that no other parties would be expected to be interested in pursuing a strategic transaction on terms superior to those proposed by TD AMERITRADE. The board of directors also considered that both TD AMERITRADE and Party A had insisted on a period of exclusivity before continuing with further negotiations. The board discussed whether it would be possible to continue engaging in discussions with both TD AMERITRADE and Party A, but concluded that there was a significant risk that one or both of the potential acquirors would abandon negotiations if not granted a period of exclusive negotiations. Following these discussions, the board of directors unanimously agreed that management should pursue exclusive negotiations with TD AMERITRADE, but should ensure that TD AMERITRADE would assume the risks relating to the SEC Investigation.

Following the December 12, 2008 board meeting, Mr. Tomczyk met with Mr. Sheridan, a director and executive officer of thinkorswim, and Mr. Sosnoff, to discuss their interest in remaining with TD AMERITRADE following a transaction and to answer questions from Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff about TD AMERITRADE.

On December 13, 2008, Mr. Barba communicated to Mr. Tomczyk a counterproposal for a sale of thinkorswim for a total of 35 million shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock and $150 million in cash, implying consideration per fully diluted share of thinkorswim common stock of approximately $2.15 in cash and 0.50 of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock. Based on the closing price of TD AMERITRADE's common stock as of December 11, 2008, this implied a value per fully diluted share of thinkorswim common stock of $8.61. Mr. Barba also offered to enter into exclusive negotiations with TD AMERITRADE.

On December 14, 2008, Mr. Tomczyk agreed to consider Mr. Barba's counterproposal subject to completion of due diligence and requested to commence immediately due diligence and the negotiation of definitive documentation.

On December 16, 2008, Mr. Tomczyk phoned Mr. Barba and said that the M&A committee of TD AMERITRADE's board of directors, which had met earlier that day, had agreed to move forward with negotiations and would consider a final offer price, subject to further analysis and due diligence, in the range between the low end of TD AMERITRADE's December 11, 2008 proposal and thinkorswim's counterproposal. That same day, thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE entered into a letter agreement for exclusive negotiations until January 8, 2009.

Following execution of the exclusivity agreement, thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE each engaged in due diligence investigations, including the exchange and review of draft disclosure schedules to the merger agreement for thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE.

On December 17 and December 18, 2008, senior management of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE met for business and due diligence discussions.

On December 19, 2008, the board of directors of thinkorswim held a special meeting to review the progress of the negotiations. Mr. Barba reported on his discussions with TD AMERITRADE following the last board meeting, and representatives of Paragon presented an overview of the progress on due diligence and reverse due diligence. The board of directors also received an update on the status of the SEC Investigation.

On December 21, 2008, Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati delivered to Cleary Gottlieb a draft merger agreement based on the draft merger agreement the parties had discussed in June 2008, and then the parties began to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement. On December 30, 2008, Mr. Tomczyk met with Mr. Sosnoff and Mr. Barba to discuss further the transaction. On December 31, 2008, the board of directors of thinkorswim held a special meeting with representatives of senior management, Paragon and Cleary Gottlieb to review progress in the negotiation of the transaction. The board discussed the proposed terms of the merger agreement and the results of reverse due diligence. In particular, the board revisited the issue of whether TD AMERITRADE had agreed that the SEC Investigation would not constitute a basis for not closing the transaction. Management, in consultation with Paragon and Cleary Gottlieb, explained that TD AMERITRADE had agreed to the inclusion of the SEC Investigation, among other matters, in the disclosure schedule to the merger agreement and that the merger agreement would provide that the items in the disclosure schedule would qualify the representations and warranties and the closing condition that no material adverse effect had occurred.

On January 4, 2009, Mr. Tomczyk contacted Mr. Barba by telephone and indicated that, as a result of its review of thinkorswim's business, risks and prospects, TD AMERITRADE was now proposing to acquire thinkorswim's outstanding capital stock for approximately $145 million in cash and 31.5 million shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock. This proposal implied a total value of approximately $8.52 per fully diluted share of thinkorswim common stock, based on the closing price of TD AMERITRADE common stock on January 2, 2009, of $14.25. Mr. Barba indicated that he did not believe the thinkorswim board of directors would approve a transaction at that level. Following continued negotiations, Mr. Tomczyk proposed a transaction consisting of approximately $225 million in cash and 28.3 million shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock, representing the final per fully diluted share price of $3.34 in cash and 0.3980 of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock. Based on the trading price of TD AMERITRADE common stock at the close of business on January 2, 2009, this proposal had an implied value of $9.01 per fully diluted share of thinkorswim common stock.

Also on January 4, 2009, TD AMERITRADE delivered draft employment agreements for Mr. Barba, Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff. TD AMERITRADE reiterated that its willingness to enter into the merger agreement was conditioned on these officers of thinkorswim entering into employment agreements with TD AMERITRADE.

On the evening of January 6, 2009, the board of directors of TD AMERITRADE met and approved the proposed transaction.

Table of Contents

On the evening of January 7, 2009, the thinkorswim board of directors held a meeting to consider the potential transaction with TD AMERITRADE. Representatives of Cleary Gottlieb, Paragon and UBS, which had been retained to render an opinion to the thinkorswim board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the proposed merger consideration, participated in the meeting. A representative of Paragon reviewed the history of negotiations between thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE, the terms of the proposed transaction and the results of the reverse due diligence on TD AMERITRADE. The board also discussed, in consultation with management and Paragon, thinkorswim's stand-alone prospects and alternatives. Representatives of Cleary Gottlieb reviewed the proposed merger agreement and voting agreement. Also at this meeting, UBS reviewed with thinkorswim's board of directors UBS's financial analysis of the per share merger consideration and delivered to thinkorswim's board of directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated January 7, 2009, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions, matters considered and limitations described in its opinion, the per share consideration to be received in the transaction by holders of thinkorswim common stock (other than excluded holders) was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The board of directors then considered the proposed terms of the employment agreements that TD AMERITRADE was requiring Mr. Barba, Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff to enter into as a condition to its execution of the merger agreement.

Following discussion of the proposed transaction, the stand-alone prospects and alternatives for thinkorswim and review of the merger agreement and the disclosure schedules, voting agreements, employment agreements and related documents, the thinkorswim board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, and resolved to recommend that the stockholders of thinkorswim vote to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger.

The merger agreement and the voting agreements were entered into on January 8, 2009, and the transaction was publicly announced that same day.

thinkorswim's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the thinkorswim Board of Directors thinkorswim's board of directors consulted with thinkorswim's management, as well as thinkorswim's outside legal counsel and its financial advisor, Paragon, in its evaluation of the merger. In reaching its conclusion to approve and adopt the merger agreement and in determining that the merger was advisable and in the best interests of thinkorswim and its stockholders, the thinkorswim board considered a number of factors and the potential benefits of the merger and the risks of thinkorswim remaining as a stand-alone company, including the following material factors, each of which the board of directors believed supported its decision:

its understanding of thinkorswim's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects and, as discussed above under thinkorswim Proposal 1 The Merger Background of the Merger, potential strategic alternatives, and TD AMERITRADE's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects;

the current and prospective economic and financial environment in which thinkorswim operates, which reflects challenging and uncertain market conditions that the board of directors expected to continue in the near future, including tightening of the credit markets, volatile securities markets and generally uncertain global and national economic conditions;

the relative strength of TD AMERITRADE's capital position, funding capabilities and liquidity as compared to thinkorswim as a stand-alone company, and the ability of the substantially larger and more diversified TD AMERITRADE to weather continued economic difficulties and further crises that might develop;

the fact that, as of the close of the last trading day before the announcement of the signing of the merger agreement, the value of the merger consideration represented a 54% premium over the price per share of thinkorswim common stock;

the fact that the complementary nature of the respective businesses, customer bases, products and skills of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE are expected to result in opportunities to obtain synergies;

the value to thinkorswim's stockholders of the stock portion of the merger consideration, which would allow thinkorswim's stockholders to participate in a portion of any improvement in thinkorswim's business and synergies resulting from the merger;

the challenges of continuing to integrate the education and brokerage divisions of thinkorswim;

the fact that thinkorswim relies heavily on third-party vendors for various services, including trade processing and customer origination, and the interruption in or the cessation of service by these third-party service providers may negatively impact thinkorswim's business;

the fact that TD AMERITRADE is a large financial services company and the thinkorswim board of directors' belief that its substantial capital resources will provide strong support for thinkorswim's existing operations, as well as possible future growth;

the inclusion of a reference to the SEC Investigation, among other matters, in the disclosure schedule to the merger agreement and the provisions in the merger agreement specifying that the items in the disclosure schedule qualify the representations and warranties and the definition of "material adverse effect";

the historical and current market prices of TD AMERITRADE's common stock and thinkorswim's common stock;

the right of thinkorswim to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior proposal, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement;

the expected tax treatment of the merger and of the receipt by thinkorswim's stockholders of the merger consideration;

the opinion of UBS, dated January 7, 2009, to thinkorswim's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the per share consideration to be received in the transaction by holders of thinkorswim common stock (other than excluded holders), as more fully described below under the caption "thinkorswim Proposal 1 - The Merger - Opinion of UBS Securities LLC"; and the right of the stockholders of thinkorswim to exercise dissenters' rights to assure that they receive a fair price for their shares (see "thinkorswim Proposal 1 - The Merger - Appraisal Rights" below).

The thinkorswim board of directors also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors concerning the merger and the merger agreement, including the following:

the challenges of integrating thinkorswim's businesses, operations and workforce with those of TD AMERITRADE, and the risks associated with achieving anticipated cost savings and other synergies, which were estimated to be approximately $50 million to $60 million per year on a pre-tax basis.

the need to obtain stockholder and regulatory approvals to complete the merger, and the likelihood that such approvals will be obtained;

the fact that, as of December 22, 2008, The Toronto-Dominion Bank and J. Joe Ricketts and members of his family and trusts held for their benefit, owned approximately 40.3% and 22.2%, respectively, of TD AMERITRADE's outstanding common stock, and that as a result of their significant share ownership, these stockholders may have the power, subject to applicable law, to significantly influence actions that might be favorable to them, but not necessarily favorable to other TD AMERITRADE stockholders (including former thinkorswim stockholders following consummation of the merger), and third parties may be discouraged from proposing a change in control or other strategic transaction concerning TD AMERITRADE;

the terms of the merger agreement, including the provisions imposing restrictions on thinkorswim from soliciting or pursuing alternative transactions and the termination fee of $20 million that thinkorswim would be required to pay if the transaction agreement were terminated under certain circumstances, which could limit the willingness of a third party to propose a competing business combination transaction with thinkorswim; and the fact that thinkorswim's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as thinkorswim stockholders (see thinkorswim Proposal 1 The Merger thinkorswim's Directors and Officers Have Financial Interests in the Merger below).

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the thinkorswim board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the thinkorswim board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the thinkorswim board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the thinkorswim board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. The thinkorswim board of directors evaluated the factors described above and reached consensus that the merger was advisable and in the best interests of thinkorswim and thinkorswim's stockholders. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the thinkorswim board of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

The thinkorswim board of directors determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of thinkorswim and its stockholders. Accordingly, the thinkorswim board of directors unanimously approved the merger and approved and adopted the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that thinkorswim stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger proposal.

Opinion of UBS Securities LLC

On January 7, 2009, at a meeting of thinkorswim's board of directors held to evaluate the proposed transaction, UBS delivered to thinkorswim's board of directors an oral opinion, which opinion was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated January 7, 2009, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions, matters considered and limitations described in its opinion, the per share consideration to be received in the transaction by holders of thinkorswim common stock (other than excluded holders) was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of UBS' opinion describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by UBS. This opinion is attached as Appendix C and is incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. Holders of thinkorswim common stock are encouraged to read UBS' opinion carefully in its entirety. UBS' opinion was provided for the benefit of thinkorswim's board of directors in connection with, and for the purpose of, its evaluation of the per share merger consideration from a financial point of view and does not address any other aspect of the transaction. The opinion does not address the relative merits of the transaction as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to thinkorswim or thinkorswim's underlying business decision to effect the transaction. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to the transaction. Although subsequent developments may affect its opinion, UBS does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. The following summary of UBS' opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of UBS' opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, UBS, among other things:

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE;

reviewed certain internal financial information and other data relating to thinkorswim's business and financial prospects that were not publicly available, including financial forecasts and estimates prepared by thinkorswim's management that thinkorswim's board of directors directed UBS to utilize for purposes of its analysis;

prepared by TD AMERITRADE's management that thinkorswim's board of directors directed UBS to utilize for purposes of its analysis;

conducted discussions with members of the senior managements of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE concerning the businesses and financial prospects of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE;

reviewed publicly available financial and stock market data with respect to certain other companies UBS believed to be generally relevant;

compared the financial terms of the transaction with the publicly available financial terms of certain other transactions UBS believed to be generally relevant;

reviewed current and historical market prices of thinkorswim common stock and TD AMERITRADE common stock;

reviewed a draft, as of January 7, 2009, of the merger agreement; and conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations, and considered such other information, as UBS deemed necessary or appropriate.

In connection with its review, with the consent of thinkorswim's board of directors, UBS assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness in all material respects of the information provided to or reviewed by UBS for the purpose of its opinion. In addition, with the consent of thinkorswim's board of directors, UBS did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of thinkorswim or TD AMERITRADE, and was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. With respect to the financial forecasts and estimates referred to above, UBS assumed, at the direction of thinkorswim's board of directors, that such forecasts and estimates had been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE as to the future financial performance of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE. UBS assumed, with the consent of thinkorswim's board of directors, that the transaction would qualify for United States federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. UBS's opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information available to UBS as of, the date of its opinion.

In connection with its engagement, UBS was not requested to, and it did not, participate in the negotiation or structuring of the transaction. While UBS was not authorized to solicit and did not solicit indications of interest in a transaction with thinkorswim from any party, representatives of thinkorswim advised UBS that indications of interests in a transaction with thinkorswim were solicited from third parties on behalf of thinkorswim and that discussions with certain of these parties were held prior to the date of UBS's opinion. At the direction of thinkorswim's board of directors, UBS was not asked to, and it did not, offer any opinion as to the terms, other than the per share merger consideration to the extent expressly specified in UBS's opinion, of the merger agreement or the form of the transaction. In addition, UBS expressed no opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be received by any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the transaction, or any class of such persons, relative to the per share merger consideration. UBS expressed no opinion as to what the value of TD AMERITRADE common stock would be when issued pursuant to the transaction or the prices at which TD AMERITRADE common stock or thinkorswim common stock would trade at any time. In rendering its opinion, UBS assumed, with the consent of thinkorswim's board of directors, that (i) the final executed form of the merger agreement would not differ in any material respect from the draft that UBS reviewed, (ii) the parties to the merger agreement would comply with all material terms of the merger agreement, and (iii) the transaction would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any adverse waiver or amendment of any material term or condition of the merger agreement. UBS also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the transaction would be obtained without any material adverse effect on thinkorswim, TD AMERITRADE or the transaction. Except as described above, thinkorswim imposed no other instructions or limitations on UBS with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by UBS in rendering its opinion. The issuance of UBS' opinion was approved by an authorized committee of UBS.

In connection with rendering its opinion to thinkorswim's board of directors, UBS performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses which are summarized below. The following summary is not a complete description of all analyses performed and factors considered by UBS in connection with its opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. With respect to the selected companies analyses of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE and the selected transactions analysis summarized below, no company or transaction used as a comparison was identical to thinkorswim, TD AMERITRADE or the transaction. These analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or acquisition values of the companies concerned.

UBS believes that its analyses and the summary below must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying UBS' analyses and opinion. UBS did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one factor or method of analysis for purposes of its opinion, but rather arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole.

The estimates of the future performance of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE provided by the managements of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE or derived from public sources in or underlying UBS' analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those estimates. In performing its analyses, UBS considered industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which were beyond the control of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE. Estimates of the financial value of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies actually may be sold.

The merger consideration was determined through negotiation between thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE and the decision by thinkorswim to enter into the transaction was solely that of thinkorswim's board of directors. UBS' opinion and financial analyses were only one of many factors considered by thinkorswim's board of directors in its evaluation of the transaction and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of thinkorswim's board of directors or management with respect to the transaction or the merger consideration. UBS was not asked to, and it did not, perform a financial analysis of the stock option exchange program provided for in the merger agreement and expressed no opinion as to such program.

The following is a brief summary of the material financial analyses performed by UBS and reviewed with thinkorswim's board of directors on January 7, 2009, in connection with UBS' opinion relating to the proposed transaction. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand UBS' financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of UBS' financial analyses. For purposes of the thinkorswim Financial Analyses described below, the term implied value of the per share merger consideration refers to the $8.98 implied value of the per share merger consideration based on the per share cash portion of the merger consideration of $3.34 and the implied value, utilizing the closing price of TD AMERITRADE common stock on January 6, 2009, of the per share stock portion of the merger consideration of 0.3980 of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock.

UBS reviewed, among other things, closing stock prices of the selected companies and TD AMERITRADE on January 6, 2009 as a multiple of latest 12 months earnings per share, or EPS, and calendar years 2008 and 2009 estimated EPS. UBS then compared these multiples derived for the selected companies and TD AMERITRADE with corresponding multiples implied for thinkorswim based both on the closing price of thinkorswim common stock on January 6, 2009 and the implied value of the per share merger consideration. Financial data for the selected companies and TD AMERITRADE were based on publicly available research analysts' consensus estimates, public filings and other publicly available information. Estimated financial data for thinkorswim were based both on internal estimates of thinkorswim's management, referred to as thinkorswim Management Estimates, and publicly available research analysts' consensus estimates, referred to as thinkorswim Wall Street Consensus Estimates. This analysis indicated the following implied multiples for each of the selected eBrokers, as compared to corresponding multiples implied for thinkorswim, and also indicated the following implied mean multiples for the other selected companies referred to above (implied multiples for E*TRADE Financial Corporation were excluded from the calculation of implied mean multiples for the other selected companies reflected in the table below since multiples for E*TRADE Financial Corporation were negative for two of the three periods observed) as well as the following implied multiples for TD AMERITRADE:

UBS also reviewed purchase prices paid in the selected transactions for the target company's equity as a multiple of, to the extent publicly available, latest twelve months net income and forward twelve months estimated net income. UBS then compared these multiples derived for the selected transactions with corresponding multiples implied for thinkorswim based on the implied value of the per share merger consideration. Multiples for the selected transactions were based on publicly available information at the time of announcement of the relevant transaction. Estimated financial data for thinkorswim were based both on thinkorswim Management Estimates and thinkorswim Wall Street Consensus Estimates. This analysis indicated the following implied high, mean, median and low multiples for the selected transactions, as compared to corresponding multiples implied for thinkorswim (net income multiples for the E*TRADE Group, Inc./Web Street, Inc. transaction were negative and therefore excluded from the calculation of high, mean, median and low multiples reflected in the table below):

thinkorswim Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. UBS performed a discounted cash flow analysis of thinkorswim using financial forecasts and estimates relating to thinkorswim prepared by thinkorswim's management. UBS calculated a range of implied present values (as of December 31, 2008) of the standalone after-tax levered free cash flows that thinkorswim was forecasted to generate from January 1, 2009 until December 31, 2013 and of terminal values for thinkorswim based on thinkorswim's calendar year 2013 estimated normalized net income (normalized for the purpose of calculating terminal value by reducing thinkorswim's estimated depreciation and amortization expense for calendar year 2013 to an amount equal to thinkorswim's estimated capital expenditures for that period). Implied terminal values were derived by applying a range of net income multiples of 8.0x to 11.0x. Present values of cash flows and terminal values were calculated using discount rates ranging from 14.0% to 18.0%. The discounted cash flow analysis resulted in a range of implied present values of approximately $5.92 to $8.33 per share of thinkorswim common stock, as compared to the implied value of the per share merger consideration of $8.98.

TD AMERITRADE Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. UBS performed a discounted cash flow analysis of TD AMERITRADE using financial forecasts and estimates relating to TD AMERITRADE prepared by TD AMERITRADE's management. Miscellaneous

UBS was engaged by thinkorswim in connection with the transaction for purposes of rendering an opinion and thinkorswim agreed to pay UBS an aggregate fee of $1.5 million in connection with its opinion. No portion of UBS fee is contingent upon completion of the merger. In addition, thinkorswim agreed to reimburse UBS for its reasonable expenses, including fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel, and to indemnify UBS and related parties against liabilities, including liabilities under federal securities laws, relating to, or arising out of, its engagement.

As of the date of UBS' opinion, UBS or an affiliate was a participant in credit facilities of TD AMERITRADE for which it received and, as of the date of UBS' opinion, continued to receive fees and interest payments. In the ordinary course of business, UBS and its affiliates may hold or trade, for their own accounts and the accounts of their customers, securities of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. thinkorswim selected UBS in connection with the transaction because UBS is an internationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in similar transactions. UBS is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities and private placements.

thinkorswim Officers and Directors Have Financial Interests in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the thinkorswim board of directors that you vote to approve the merger proposal, you should be aware that some of thinkorswim's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of thinkorswim's stockholders generally. The members of thinkorswim's board of directors were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement, and in recommending to the stockholders that the merger agreement be approved and adopted. For purposes of all of the thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE agreements and plans described below, the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will constitute a change in control.

Table of ContentsEquity Compensation Awards

The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the merger, each thinkorswim option, thinkorswim restricted stock unit and unvested share of thinkorswim restricted stock will be converted, based on the option exchange ratio, on the same terms into an option, restricted stock unit or share of restricted stock of TD AMERITRADE common stock and each then-issued and outstanding share of restricted stock that, as of or resulting from the completion of the merger, is or becomes vested will represent the right to receive the merger consideration. Please see thinkorswim Proposal 1 The Merger The Merger Agreement Treatment of thinkorswim Stock Options and Other Equity-Based Awards beginning on page 48 for a detailed discussion of the option exchange ratio.

Pursuant to agreements with Mr. Barba, Ms. Ida Kane and Mr. Paul Helbling, upon a change in control of thinkorswim, their unvested thinkorswim options will become fully vested and exercisable. Pursuant to agreements with Mr. Sosnoff and Mr. Scott Sheridan, upon a change in control of thinkorswim, certain of their unvested thinkorswim options would have become vested in full, but for the waiver described below. Pursuant to agreements with Mr. Barba, Ms. Kane and Mr. Helbling, upon a change in control of thinkorswim, their unvested shares of thinkorswim restricted stock will vest in full, except as otherwise described below. The following table identifies, for each of Mr. Barba, Ms. Kane and Mr. Helbling (A) the number of unvested options to acquire shares of thinkorswim common stock (at exercise prices ranging from $5.18 to $13.79) that would vest upon completion of the merger as a result of the transactions contemplated and (B) the number of shares of unvested thinkorswim restricted stock (not including the shares of thinkorswim restricted stock described below) that would vest upon completion of the merger as a result of the transactions contemplated, in each case based on thinkorswim equity compensation holdings as of January 8, 2009, and assuming a closing date of June 30, 2009:

Name	Unvested thinkorswim Options Vesting upon Completion of Merger	Unvested thinkorswim Restricted Stock Vesting upon Completion of the Merger
Mr. Barba	161,725	42,500
Ms. Kane	23,750	7,500
Mr. Helbling	17,500	5,000

Pursuant to an agreement with Peter Santori, upon a voluntary resignation within 180 days of a change in control of thinkorswim or in the event his employment is terminated without cause, unvested stock options and shares of restricted stock held by Mr. Santori will vest in full. Based on thinkorswim equity compensation holdings as of January 8, 2009, and assuming a closing date of June 30, 2009, upon completion of the merger, (A) the number of unvested options to acquire shares of thinkorswim common stock (at an exercise price of $8.11) held by Mr. Santori that would vest is 15,000 and (B) the number of unvested shares of restricted stock in respect of thinkorswim common stock held by Mr. Santori that would vest is 15,000. Mr. Santori also received, as part of his 2008 compensation, a grant of 3,850 shares of restricted stock that will vest as a result of the change in control only if his employment is terminated without cause following the change in control (and not if he voluntarily resigns).

As part of their 2008 compensation, Mr. Barba, Ms. Kane and Mr. Helbling received grants of 115,000, 35,000 and 15,500 shares of thinkorswim restricted stock respectively on January 14, 2009. In each case, 50% of the grant vests on the first anniversary of the date of grant and the remaining 50% vests on the second anniversary of the date of grant. However, for Mr. Barba, this grant of shares of thinkorswim restricted stock will vest 100% on the six-month anniversary of a change in control so long as he remains employed until such date, or upon termination by thinkorswim (or, following completion of the merger, by TD AMERITRADE) without cause, due to his death or disability or by constructive termination (as defined in his employment agreement). For Ms. Kane and Mr. Helbling, this grant of shares of restricted stock will vest 100% on the two-month anniversary of a change in control unless, in each case, they are terminated without cause, die or become disabled prior thereto (in which case the awards will vest as of such termination, death or disability).

thinkorswim also maintains agreements with Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff pursuant to which their respective unvested shares of thinkorswim restricted stock (including the grant made to each of them in January 2009 as part of their 2008 compensation) would vest in full upon a termination of employment with thinkorswim in connection with a change in control of thinkorswim. However, Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff have entered into employment agreements with TD AMERITRADE which will become effective as of the completion of the merger. Pursuant to these agreements with TD AMERITRADE, which will supersede and replace all other agreements, including the employment agreements with thinkorswim, Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff have agreed to waive their right to receive any payments or benefits, including but not limited to any vesting acceleration of outstanding thinkorswim options or thinkorswim restricted stock awards granted under the thinkorswim equity plans. The employment agreements with TD AMERITRADE, which are described in further detail below, generally provide for certain vesting acceleration of certain equity awards granted by TD AMERITRADE under the TD AMERITRADE equity plans in connection with a termination of employment without cause or for good reason (as such terms are defined in the employment agreements). These agreements do not provide for vesting acceleration of any thinkorswim options or thinkorswim restricted stock awards held by Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff.

Pursuant to agreements with the non-employee directors of thinkorswim, namely Hans von Meiss, Douglas T. Tansill, F. Warren McFarlan and Lisa Polsky, their awards of thinkorswim restricted stock will vest as a result of the consummation of the transaction. Upon consummation of the merger, by operation of the merger agreement, the non-employee directors of thinkorswim will cease to be directors and their unvested shares of thinkorswim restricted stock will vest in full. The following table identifies, for each of Mr. von Meiss, Mr. Tansill, Mr. McFarlan and Ms. Polsky, the number of shares of unvested thinkorswim restricted stock that would vest upon completion of the merger as a result of the transactions contemplated, based on thinkorswim equity compensation holdings as of January 8, 2009, and assuming a closing date of June 30, 2009:

Name	Unvested thinkorswim Restricted Stock Vesting upon Completion of the Merger
Mr. von Meiss	1,000
Mr. Tansill	1,000
Mr. McFarlan	1,000
Ms. Polsky	1,000

In addition, Mr. von Meiss, Mr. Tansill, Mr. McFarlan and Ms. Polsky each received a grant of 7,000 shares of thinkorswim restricted stock on January 14, 2009. These shares of thinkorswim restricted stock will fully vest upon completion of the merger as a result of their resignation from the board pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement.

Option Exchange

Under the terms of the merger agreement, thinkorswim has commenced offer to certain holders of underwater options outstanding under thinkorswim option plans, to be completed immediately prior to the completion of the merger, whereby the holder may agree to the cancellation of all such holder's underwater options in exchange for the grant by thinkorswim of an award of restricted stock units. Certain thinkorswim executive offices holding underwater options are eligible to participate in the exchange program. The terms of the exchange program are described in further detail in thinkorswim Proposal 3 Option Exchange beginning on page 77 and thinkorswim Proposal 4 Amendment of the Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Plan beginning on page 83. The acceptance of thinkorswim options tendered in, and completion by thinkorswim of, this offer will only occur if the merger is consummated. At the consummation of the merger, each thinkorswim restricted stock unit granted pursuant to the exchange program described above that is outstanding immediately prior to such consummation will be assumed by TD AMERITRADE and converted into a right to receive TD AMERITRADE common stock upon the vesting of such unit. Each assumed restricted stock unit will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including as to vesting) as were applicable under the respective thinkorswim restricted stock unit immediately prior to the consummation of the merger.

Protection of thinkorswim Directors and Officers Against Claims

TD AMERITRADE has agreed to cause the surviving corporation in the merger to indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of thinkorswim from liability for matters arising at or prior to the completion of the merger to the fullest extent provided by applicable law. TD AMERITRADE also has agreed that it will maintain in place existing indemnification and exculpation rights in favor of thinkorswim directors, officers and employees for six years after the merger and that it will enter into a policy of directors and officers liability insurance coverage providing at least equivalent insurance coverage of thinkorswim directors and officers, for six years following completion of the merger, except that TD AMERITRADE is not required to incur premium expense in excess of $1,500,000.

Certain Employment Agreements

Each of Ms. Kane and Mr. Santori are party to an employment agreement that provides that, in the event that their employment is terminated by thinkorswim or its successor without cause, or upon a voluntary resignation by Ms. Kane (provided she no longer reports to the then current chief executive officer of thinkorswim) or Mr. Santori within one hundred eighty days, following a change in control of thinkorswim, they would be entitled to receive cash severance in an amount equal to twelve months base salary. In addition, Ms. Kane would be entitled to receive up to twelve months continued health coverage. In the event that Ms. Kane's employment is terminated without cause (not within one hundred eighty days following a change in control), she would receive cash severance in an amount equal to six months base salary and up to six months of company-paid continued health care coverage. In the event that Mr. Santori's employment is terminated without cause (not within one hundred eighty days following a change in control), he would receive cash severance in an amount equal to six months base salary and full vesting of his stock options and restricted stock.

In addition, Mr. Helbling is party to a letter agreement that provides that, in the event his employment is terminated without cause within one hundred eighty days of a change in control of thinkorswim, he would receive cash severance in an amount equal to twelve months base salary and up to twelve months of company-paid continued health coverage.

Employment Arrangements with TD AMERITRADE

In connection with the merger, TD AMERITRADE has entered into employment agreements with Mr. Sosnoff and Mr. Sheridan and has entered into an employment agreement amendment with Mr. Barba, each of which is conditioned and becomes effective upon completion of the merger. It is possible that other members of thinkorswim's current management team will enter into arrangements with TD AMERITRADE or its affiliates, after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. Any new arrangements are currently expected to be entered into at or prior to completion of the merger and would not become effective until after the merger is completed.

Barba Employment Agreement Amendment. Mr. Barba has entered into an employment agreement amendment with TD AMERITRADE pursuant to which TD AMERITRADE will assume his existing employment agreement with thinkorswim and change his role to that of Integration Advisor to the Chief Executive Officer, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer of TD AMERITRADE, for the purpose of assisting in the integration of thinkorswim's operations into those of TD AMERITRADE. The term of Mr. Barba's employment in this capacity under the agreement is six months from the date of consummation of the merger. At that time, Mr. Barba will cease to be employed with TD AMERITRADE or its subsidiaries, and will be entitled to severance as provided in his employment agreement.

Specifically, Mr. Barba would be entitled to receive, in addition to accrued but unpaid base salary and benefits as provided in his employment agreement, (A) a lump sum payment, within thirty days of termination, of cash severance in an amount equal to two years of (i) his base salary and (ii) the greater of his target bonus (equal to 100% of his base salary) for the year of termination or the actual bonus earned by him in the year immediately preceding such termination, (B) an additional cash severance payment in an amount equal to a pro rata portion of his target bonus for the year of termination, (C) two years of continued coverage under certain health and welfare plans, unless such continued coverage is not permissible (in which case Mr. Barba will be entitled to alternative coverage for such period), and (D) full vesting acceleration of all outstanding stock options and shares of restricted stock then held by him. In addition, pursuant to Mr. Barba's employment agreement amendment, upon termination without cause or constructive termination (as defined in his employment agreement), Mr. Barba's vested, exercisable options will remain exercisable until the earlier of one year after his termination or the expiration of the original option term.

The provisions of Mr. Barba's employment agreement with thinkorswim regarding severance or other payments or benefits continue to govern in all other material respects. In particular, in the event that Mr. Barba would become subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, his employment agreement provides that Mr. Barba will be entitled to receive an amount such that, after payment by Mr. Barba of all taxes imposed upon the amounts payable in accordance with the employment agreement's severance provisions, including but not limited to income tax and the Section 4999 excise tax, Mr. Barba will retain an amount equal to the amount of such excise tax on the payments or benefits.

Pursuant to the employment agreement amendment, Mr. Barba is bound by a lock-up arrangement pursuant to which he is prohibited from directly or indirectly selling, offering, contracting for or granting any option to sell, pledge, swap, hedge, transfer or otherwise dispose of any shares issued to him as consideration in the merger (totaling 1,366,065 shares, assuming the exercise by Mr. Barba of all outstanding options prior to the consummation of the merger) or from publicly announcing an intention to do so for a period commencing on the consummation of the merger and ending, for 50% of the shares he receives as merger consideration, after the six-month anniversary of the consummation of the merger and, for the remaining 50% of the shares he receives as merger consideration, after the first anniversary of the consummation of the merger. This lock-up will cease to apply in the event of Mr. Barba's death.

Mr. Barba will not be entitled to any additional compensation or perquisites while he serves in the position of Integration Advisor to the Chief Executive Officer.

Sheridan and Sosnoff Employment Agreement. The employment agreements between each of Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff and TD AMERITRADE provide that, in the event of a termination of employment (A) by TD AMERITRADE without cause or by Mr. Sheridan or Mr. Sosnoff for good reason (as each term is defined in the agreement) or (B) upon the expiration of the initial term of these agreements because TD AMERITRADE provided written notice of non-renewal, the employee will become entitled to certain payments and benefits under the agreement, including a severance payment of $600,000, as well as an additional severance payment determined by pro-rating the then-current year's annual incentive target to the date of termination. In addition, Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff would be entitled to receive (A) full vesting of all time-based restricted share units granted under TD AMERITRADE's long term incentive plan that would have become vested within twelve months of the end of the calendar year of such termination, (B) vesting of that portion of the performance-based restricted share units granted under TD AMERITRADE's long-term incentive plan that would vest during the twelve-month period following the end of the calendar year in which such termination occurs, depending upon the achievement of the applicable performance criteria, and (C) company-paid COBRA coverage under TD AMERITRADE's group medical and dental plans for a period of up to twelve months following the date of termination. The receipt of severance is subject to each employee executing and not revoking a separation and release of claims agreement and complying with the non-solicitation, non-competition and non-disparagement provisions of the employment agreement during employment with TD AMERITRADE and for a certain period of time following termination. The initial term of these agreements is three years following completion of the merger, subject to an automatic one-year renewal unless either party delivers written notice of non-renewal prior to the expiration of the initial term.

Subject to obtaining approval by the compensation committee of TD AMERITRADE's board of directors, each of Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff will receive a special award upon the consummation of the merger of a stock option to purchase 600,000 shares of common stock of TD AMERITRADE. Additionally, each of Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff will be eligible to receive, pursuant to the terms of TD AMERITRADE's long term incentive program, an annual equity award with a grant-date value of approximately $400,000, and an annual cash bonus with a target of $400,000, for each full fiscal year of employment with TD AMERITRADE. The employment agreements entitle each of Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff to an annual base salary of $200,000. While it is not anticipated that any of the current thinkorswim directors will serve on the thinkorswim board following completion of the merger, Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff are obligated, under the employment agreements that will become effective upon completion of the merger, to serve, without additional compensation, as a director of a TD AMERITRADE subsidiary, if requested by TD AMERITRADE.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, each of Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff is bound by a lock-up arrangement pursuant to which he is prohibited from directly or indirectly selling, offering, contracting for or granting any option to sell, pledge, swap, hedge, transfer or otherwise disposing of 1,000,000 of the shares issued to him as consideration in the merger or from publicly announcing an intention to do so for a period commencing on the consummation of the merger and ending on the second anniversary of the consummation of the merger. This lock-up will cease to apply in the event that Mr. Sheridan's or Mr. Sosnoff's employment with TD AMERITRADE is terminated by TD AMERITRADE without cause or by Mr. Sheridan or Mr. Sosnoff with good reason during the stock lock-up period.

The following table identifies, for each of Mr. Barba, Ms. Kane, Mr. Helbling, Mr. Santori, Mr. Sheridan and Mr. Sosnoff, the estimated values of the (A) cash severance payments and (B) continued benefit coverage to which such executive will be entitled pursuant to the agreement described above, assuming that the executive's employment is terminated by TD AMERITRADE for reasons other than cause, death or disability, or where applicable, the executive resigns voluntarily, for good reason, due to constructive termination or upon providing services for a specified period after consummation of the merger, based on the terms of the employment agreements as described above.

Name	Estimated Cash Severance Payments	Estimated Value of Continued Benefit Coverage
Mr. Barba(1)	$ 2,700,000	$ 71,713(3)
Ms. Kane(1)	$ 285,000	$ 14,460
Mr. Helbling(1)	$ 225,000	$ 15,024
Mr. Santori(1)	$ 285,000
Mr. Sheridan(1)(2)	$ 800,000	$ 19,356
Mr. Sosnoff(1)(2)	$ 800,000	$ 19,356

- (1) Solely for the purposes of calculating the amounts in this table, an estimated date of termination of June 30, 2009 has been assumed.
- (2) Reflects the terms of severance payments to be made to the executive under the employment agreement entered into between the executive and TD AMERITRADE as described above, pursuant to which such executive waived any severance payments and benefits under his employment agreement with thinkorswim.
- (3) Mr. Barba's estimated value of continued benefit coverage is based on the average amount of his medical plan benefits for 2008 and 2007.

TD AMERITRADE's Reasons for the Merger

The TD AMERITRADE board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement at a special meeting held on January 6, 2009, and determined that the merger agreement and the merger are in the best interests of TD AMERITRADE and its stockholders. In reaching this decision, the TD AMERITRADE board considered the financial performance and condition, business operations and prospects of each of TD AMERITRADE, thinkorswim and the combined company, the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and the ancillary documents, including the implied thirty and ninety day premiums based on the agreed merger consideration, the results of the due diligence investigation conducted by TD AMERITRADE's management, accountants and legal counsel, and the analysis of TD AMERITRADE's legal and financial advisors.

Table of Contents

The TD AMERITRADE board of directors also considered a number of potential benefits of the merger, including those listed below:

the acquisition of thinkorswim is expected to complement and extend TD AMERITRADE's active trader leadership position, particularly among option traders;

the merger will permit TD AMERITRADE to enhance offerings to existing clients, including sophisticated software applications, options trading, futures, foreign exchange trading and portfolio margining;

the merger will enable TD AMERITRADE to provide its clients with significantly expanded access to education content and seminars;

the merger is expected to provide TD AMERITRADE with a fast-growing channel for new account growth focused on active traders and education;

the expected 3-7% GAAP accretion of the merger in fiscal year 2010 and the expected 10-15% GAAP accretion in the twelve months following integration (in each case, including the effects of the repurchase of approximately 28 million shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock);

the merger will permit TD AMERITRADE to use its cash in an accretive manner in the current low interest rate environment;

the merger enhances TD AMERITRADE's management team depth and technical expertise through the addition of certain of thinkorswim's senior management and technical personnel and other employees;

the merger advances TD AMERITRADE's trading and education strategy by several years; and the merger is expected to increase operational efficiency and create opportunities for cost reduction through the elimination of redundant overhead expenses and public company costs.

The TD AMERITRADE board of directors also considered a number of potentially negative factors, including those listed below:

the risk that the value of the thinkorswim business could decline after the execution of the merger agreement, particularly in light of the fact that the merger consideration would not be adjusted to reflect declines in the market price of thinkorswim common stock;

the risk that the potential benefits of the merger would not be realized fully as a result of challenges the companies might face in integrating their technology, personnel and operations, as well as general industry-wide or economic conditions or other factors;

the risk that, if the merger is not consummated, TD AMERITRADE's management would have devoted substantial time and resources to the combination at the expense of attending to and growing TD AMERITRADE's business or other business opportunities;

the risk associated with the additional demands that the acquisition of thinkorswim would place on TD AMERITRADE and its management, including the potential disruption of TD AMERITRADE's ongoing business as TD AMERITRADE's management and employees are required to dedicate significant time and effort in order to integrate the two companies' systems, cultures, processes, controls and two separate client experiences; and

the risk and cost associated with the SEC Investigation on the thinkorswim business prior to completion of the merger and on the TD AMERITRADE business after completion of the merger, including the cost of a potential settlement with the SEC and the potential impact of any such settlement on the ability to continue conducting the thinkorswim investor education business.

The foregoing list comprises the material factors considered by the TD AMERITRADE board of directors in its consideration of the merger. In view of the variety of factors and information considered, the TD AMERITRADE board of directors did not find it practicable to, and did not, make specific assessments of, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its decision. Rather, the decision was made after consideration of all of the factors as a whole. In addition, individual members of the TD AMERITRADE board of directors may have given different weight to different factors.

Board of Directors and Management of TD AMERITRADE Following Completion of the Merger

Upon completion of the merger, the current directors and officers of TD AMERITRADE are expected to continue in their current positions. Information about the current TD AMERITRADE directors and executive officers can be found in the documents listed under the heading "TD AMERITRADE SEC Filings" in the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 88.

Public Trading Markets

TD AMERITRADE's common stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "AMTD". thinkorswim's common stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol "SWIM". Upon completion of the merger, thinkorswim common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ Global Market and deregistered under the Exchange Act. The newly issued TD AMERITRADE common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement will be listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market. The shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock to be issued in connection with the merger will be freely transferable under the Securities Act.

TD AMERITRADE's Dividend Policy

TD AMERITRADE has not declared or paid regular cash dividends on its common stock. TD AMERITRADE's credit agreement prohibits the payment of cash dividends to its stockholders. The payment of any future dividends will be at the discretion of TD AMERITRADE's board of directors, subject to the provisions of its credit agreement, and will depend upon a number of factors, including future earnings, the success of TD AMERITRADE's business activities, capital requirements, the general financial condition and future prospects of TD AMERITRADE's business, general business conditions and such other factors as TD AMERITRADE's board of directors may deem relevant.

Appraisal Rights

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, any holder of thinkorswim common stock who does not wish to accept the merger consideration may elect to exercise appraisal rights in lieu of receiving the merger consideration. A stockholder who exercises appraisal rights may petition the Delaware Court of Chancery to determine the fair value of his, her or its shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the first-step merger, and receive payment of fair value in cash, together with interest, if any. However, the stockholder must comply with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL.

The following discussion is a summary of the law pertaining to appraisal rights under the DGCL. The full text of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix D. All references in Section 262 of the DGCL and in this summary to a stockholder are to the record holder of the shares of thinkorswim common stock who exercises appraisal rights.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, when a merger is submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, as in the case of the merger agreement, the corporation, not less than twenty days prior to the meeting, must notify each of its stockholders entitled to appraisal rights that appraisal rights are available and include in the notice a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL. This proxy statement/prospectus constitutes such notice, and the applicable statutory provisions are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix D. This summary of appraisal rights is not a complete summary of the law pertaining to appraisal rights under the DGCL and is qualified in its entirety by the text of Section 262 of the DGCL attached as Appendix D. Any holder of thinkorswim common stock, who wishes to exercise appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve the right to do so, should review the following discussion and Appendix D carefully. Failure to comply with the procedures of Section 262 of the DGCL in a timely and proper manner will result in the loss of appraisal rights. If you lose your appraisal rights, you will be entitled to receive the merger consideration described in the merger agreement.

Stockholders wishing to exercise the right to seek an appraisal of their shares must do ALL of the following:

The stockholder must not vote in favor of the proposal to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Because a proxy that does not contain voting instructions will, unless revoked, be voted in favor of the proposal, a stockholder who votes by proxy and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must vote against the proposal, abstain or not vote its shares.

The stockholder must deliver to thinkorswim a written demand for appraisal before the vote on the merger agreement at the special meeting.

The stockholder must continuously hold the shares from the date of making the demand through the effective time of the merger. A stockholder will lose appraisal rights if the stockholder transfers the shares before the effective time of the merger.

The stockholder must file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery requesting a determination of the fair value of the shares within one hundred twenty days after the effective time of the merger. The surviving company is under no obligation to file any petition and has no intention of doing so.

Voting, in person or by proxy, against, abstaining from voting on or failing to vote on the proposal to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby will not constitute a written demand for appraisal as required by Section 262 of the DGCL. The written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote.

Only a holder of record of shares of thinkorswim common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger may assert appraisal rights for the shares of stock registered in that holder's name. A demand for appraisal must be executed by or on behalf of the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as the stockholder's name appears on the stock certificates. The demand must reasonably inform thinkorswim of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends to demand appraisal of his, her or its common stock.

STOCKHOLDERS WHO HOLD THEIR SHARES IN BROKERAGE ACCOUNTS OR OTHER NOMINEE FORMS, AND WHO WISH TO EXERCISE APPRAISAL RIGHTS, SHOULD CONSULT WITH THEIR BROKERS TO DETERMINE THE APPROPRIATE PROCEDURES FOR THE NOMINEE HOLDER TO MAKE A DEMAND FOR APPRAISAL OF THOSE SHARES. A PERSON HAVING A BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN SHARES HELD OF RECORD IN THE NAME OF ANOTHER PERSON, SUCH AS A BROKER OR NOMINEE, MUST ACT PROMPTLY TO CAUSE THE RECORD HOLDER TO FOLLOW PROPERLY AND IN A TIMELY MANNER THE STEPS NECESSARY TO PERFECT APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

A stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL should mail or deliver a written demand to:

thinkorswim Group Inc.
13947 South Minuteman Drive
Draper, Utah 84020
Attention: Corporate Secretary

If the merger is completed, thinkorswim will give written notice of the effective time of the merger within ten days after such effective time to each former thinkorswim stockholder who did not vote in favor of the merger agreement and who made a written demand for appraisal in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL. Within one hundred twenty days after the effective time of the merger, but not later, either the surviving company or any dissenting stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL may file a petition in the Delaware

Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the shares of thinkorswim common stock held by all dissenting stockholders. The surviving company is under no obligation to file any petition and has no intention of doing so. Stockholders who desire to have their shares appraised should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL.

Within one hundred twenty days after the effective time of the first-step merger, any stockholder who, to that point in time, has complied with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, may receive from the surviving company, upon written request, a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger agreement and with respect to which thinkorswim has received demands for appraisal, and the aggregate number of holders of those shares. The surviving company must mail this statement to the stockholder within the later of ten days of receipt of the request or ten days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal.

If any party files a petition for appraisal in a timely manner, the Delaware Court of Chancery will determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights and may require the stockholders demanding appraisal who hold certificated shares to submit their stock certificates to the court for notation of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings and any stockholder who fails to comply with such direction may be dismissed from such proceedings. The Delaware Court of Chancery will thereafter determine the fair value of the shares of thinkorswim common stock held by dissenting stockholders, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, but together with interest, if any, to be paid on the amount determined to be fair value.

In determining the fair value, the Delaware Court of Chancery will take into account all relevant factors. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that proof of value by any techniques or methods that are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered in the appraisal proceedings. In addition, Delaware courts have decided that the statutory appraisal remedy, in cases of unfair dealing, may or may not be a dissenter's exclusive remedy. If no party files a petition for appraisal in a timely manner, then stockholders will lose the right to an appraisal, and will instead receive the merger consideration described in the merger agreement. The fair value of their shares as determined under Section 262 of the DGCL could be greater than, the same as, or less than the merger consideration. An opinion of an investment banking firm as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration payable in a merger is not an opinion as to, and does not in any manner address, fair value under Section 262 of the DGCL.

The Delaware Court of Chancery will determine the costs of the appraisal proceeding and will allocate those costs to the parties as the Delaware Court of Chancery determines to be equitable under the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal.

Any stockholder who has duly demanded an appraisal in compliance with Section 262 of the DGCL may not, after the effective time of the merger, vote the shares subject to the demand for any purpose or receive any dividends or other distributions on those shares, except dividends or other distributions payable to holders of record of shares as of a record date prior to the effective time of the merger.

Any stockholder may withdraw a demand for appraisal and accept the merger consideration by delivering a written withdrawal of the demand for appraisal to the surviving company, except that any attempt to withdraw made more than sixty days after the effective time of the merger will require written approval of the surviving company, and no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery will be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and may be conditioned on such terms as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems just. If the stockholder fails to perfect, successfully withdraws or loses the appraisal right, the stockholder's shares will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration.

Failure to follow the steps required by Section 262 of the DGCL for perfecting appraisal rights may result in the loss of appraisal rights. In that event, you will be entitled to receive the consideration for your dissenting shares in accordance with the merger agreement. In view of the complexity of the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, if you are a thinkorswim stockholder and are considering exercising your appraisal rights under the DGCL, you should consult your own legal advisor.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to obtain as promptly as practicable all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include approval from or notices to foreign and state securities authorities, various other federal, state and foreign antitrust and regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations. TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim have completed, or will complete, the filing of applications and notifications to obtain the required regulatory approvals.

Department of Justice/Federal Trade Commission. The merger is subject to review by the Department of Justice, referred to as the DOJ, and the Federal Trade Commission, referred to as the FTC. The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, referred to as the HSR Act, and the related rules prohibit the completion of transactions such as the merger unless the parties notify the FTC and the DOJ in advance. TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim filed the requisite HSR Act notification forms on January 26, 2009 and January 14, 2009, respectively. The HSR Act further provides that a transaction or portion of a transaction that is notifiable under the HSR Act, such as the merger, may not be consummated until the expiration of a thirty calendar-day waiting period, or the early termination of that waiting period, following the later of the parties' filing of their respective HSR Act notification forms. The waiting period under the HSR Act expired on February 25, 2009.

At any time before or after the acquisition is completed, either the DOJ or FTC could take action under the antitrust laws in opposition to the merger, including seeking to enjoin the acquisition or seeking divestiture of substantial assets of TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim or their subsidiaries. Private parties also may seek to take legal action under the antitrust laws under some circumstances. Based upon an examination of information available relating to the businesses in which the companies are engaged, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim believe that the completion of the merger will not violate U.S. antitrust laws. However, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim can give no assurance that a challenge to the merger on antitrust grounds will not be made, or, if such a challenge is made, that TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim will prevail.

In addition, the merger may be reviewed by the state attorneys general in the various states in which TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim operate. While TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim believe there are substantial arguments to the contrary, these authorities may claim that there is authority, under the applicable state and federal antitrust laws and regulations, to investigate and/or disapprove the merger under the circumstances and based upon the review set forth in applicable state laws and regulations. There can be no assurance that one or more state attorneys general will not attempt to file an antitrust action to challenge the merger or that, if a challenge is made, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim will prevail.

Other Requisite Approvals, Notices, and Consents. Applications and notices are being filed with various regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations in connection with the merger, including applications and notices in connection with the indirect change in control, as a result of the merger, of certain subsidiaries directly or indirectly owned by thinkorswim. The indirect change in control of thinkorswim's broker-dealer subsidiary resulting from the merger is subject to approval by FINRA. TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim have filed and submitted, or will shortly file and submit, all applications and notices required to be submitted to obtain these approvals and provide these notices.

Certain Foreign Approvals. Applications and notices are being filed with various Canadian securities regulators. The Canadian broker-dealer subsidiary of thinkorswim is a member of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada, referred to as IIROC. Pursuant to IIROC rules, thinkorswim's Canadian broker-dealer subsidiary is required to provide notice to IIROC and file for IIROC District Council approval regarding the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In addition, thinkorswim's Canadian broker-dealer subsidiary is registered in all Canadian provinces as an investment dealer (or equivalent). Under provincial securities laws and regulations, thinkorswim's Canadian broker-dealer subsidiary and TD AMERITRADE are required to provide notice to, or obtain approval from, a number of the provincial securities commissions, including the Ontario Securities Commission.

Timing. TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim cannot assure you that all of the regulatory approvals described above will be obtained and, if obtained, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim cannot assure you as to the timing of any approvals, the ability to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms or the absence of any litigation challenging such approvals. TD AMERITRADE also cannot assure you that the DOJ, the FTC or any state attorney general will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, and, if such a challenge is made, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim cannot assure you as to its result.

TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim believe that the merger does not raise substantial antitrust or other significant regulatory concerns and that they will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals on a timely basis without the imposition of any condition that would have a material adverse effect on TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim. The parties' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the expiration or termination of all applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act, and, subject to certain exceptions, the receipt of all clearances, approvals and consents required to be obtained in connection with the merger under all applicable foreign laws governing antitrust or unfair competition, and approval by FINRA, IROC and certain Canadian provincial securities regulators of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the merger other than those described above. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Litigation Relating to the Merger

On January 26 and 27, 2009, two purported class actions lawsuits were filed on behalf of thinkorswim stockholders in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois docketed as Jonathan Simons v. Tom Sosnoff, et al., Case No. 09CH02970, and Jim Burns v. thinkorswim Group Inc., et al., Case No. 09CH03435, referred to as the Illinois complaints, which are filed as exhibits 99.4 and 99.5 of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. On February 11, 2009, a purported class action lawsuit was filed on behalf of thinkorswim stockholders in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, docketed as James A. Bordeleau v. thinkorswim Group, Inc., et al., referred to herein as the New York complaint. The Illinois complaints name each of the members of the thinkorswim board of directors, thinkorswim, TD AMERITRADE and Merger Sub One as defendants. The New York complaint names each of the members of the thinkorswim board of directors and thinkorswim as defendants. The lawsuits allege, among other things, that the members of the thinkorswim board of directors breached their fiduciary duties to thinkorswim's stockholders by entering into a merger agreement with TD AMERITRADE for an unfair price and failing to engage in a fair sale process with respect to the merger. They also allege that the thinkorswim directors are attempting to obtain personal financial benefits at the expense of the thinkorswim stockholders. The Illinois complaints further allege that TD AMERITRADE and Merger Sub One aided and abetted the directors of thinkorswim in the alleged breaches of their fiduciary duties. The plaintiffs are seeking relief that includes, among other things, preliminary and permanent injunctions prohibiting consummation of the merger, rescission or damages if the merger is consummated prior to entry of the court's final judgment and payment of the plaintiff's costs and expenses.

The Illinois complaints were consolidated by court order dated February 25, 2009. On March 5, 2009, plaintiffs filed a consolidated amended complaint, which is filed as exhibit 99.6 of this registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. The consolidated amended complaint includes additional allegations that this proxy statement/prospectus does not disclose certain information. The plaintiff in the New York complaint filed an amended complaint on March 5, 2009, which is filed as exhibit 99.7 of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. The amended complaint includes additional allegations that this proxy statement/prospectus does not disclose certain information. The defendants have filed a motion to dismiss or stay the

New York complaint on the ground that the claims asserted are the subject of the prior, consolidated class action filed in the Illinois court. thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE believe the lawsuits to be without merit, and thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE intend to vigorously contest the plaintiffs' claims. There can be no assurance, however, with regard to the outcome of the lawsuits.

The Merger

Each of the thinkorswim board of directors and TD AMERITRADE board of directors has approved the merger agreement, which provides for the merger of Merger Sub One with and into thinkorswim, with thinkorswim, as a wholly-owned subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE, remaining as the interim surviving corporation, immediately followed by the merger of the interim surviving corporation with and into Merger Sub Two, with Merger Sub Two remaining as the surviving corporation. The first-step merger and the second-step merger are referred to collectively as the merger.

Per Share Merger Consideration

Each share of thinkorswim common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the first-step merger will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount of $3.34, without interest and less any required withholding under United States federal, state, local or foreign law, referred to as the per share cash amount, plus 0.3980 of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock, which, together with the per share cash amount, is referred to as the per share merger consideration. The per share merger consideration is subject to future adjustment for stock splits, recapitalizations, reclassifications or other similar changes, as well as for dividends or distributions in cash by TD AMERITRADE, in each case occurring prior to the completion of the first-step merger.

No fractional shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock will be issued in the first-step merger. Instead, each thinkorswim stockholder otherwise entitled to a fraction of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock (after aggregating all fractional shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock issuable to such stockholder) will be entitled to receive in cash the dollar amount (rounded to the nearest whole cent), determined by multiplying such fraction by the volume-weighted average price (rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a cent) of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market over the five trading days immediately prior to the date the first-step merger is completed.

As a result of the first-step merger, the common stock of Merger Sub One will be converted into common stock of the interim surviving corporation. Each share of common stock of the interim surviving corporation issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the second-step merger will be converted into common stock of Merger Sub Two.

Treatment of thinkorswim Stock Options and Other Equity-Based Awards

thinkorswim Stock Options

Each outstanding option to acquire thinkorswim common stock granted under thinkorswim's stock incentive plans that is not cancelled pursuant to the exchange program will be converted automatically at the effective time of the merger into an option to purchase TD AMERITRADE common stock and will continue to be governed by the terms of the thinkorswim stock plan and related grant agreements under which it was granted, except that:

the number of shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock subject to each converted TD AMERITRADE stock option will be equal to the product, rounded down to the nearest whole share of TD AMERITRADE common stock, of (A) the number of shares of thinkorswim common stock previously subject to the thinkorswim stock option and (B) the option exchange ratio, which is equal to the sum of (X) 0.3980 and (Y) the decimal representing the fraction whose numerator is the per share cash amount and whose denominator is the volume-weighted average price for a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock (rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a cent) on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the trading day immediately prior to the date the merger is completed; and the exercise price per share of TD AMERITRADE common stock subject to each converted TD AMERITRADE stock option will be equal to the exercise price for each share of thinkorswim common stock previously subject to the thinkorswim stock option divided by the option exchange ratio, rounded up to the nearest cent.

Example

If the volume-weighted average price for a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock (rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a cent) on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the trading day immediately prior to the effective time of the merger is $12.79, then the option exchange ratio will be 0.6591 ($.3980 + (3.34/12.79)$).

If a thinkorswim option holder holds an option covering 1,000 shares with an exercise price of \$5.00, and such option is assumed by TD AMERITRADE pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, the option would convert into an option to acquire 659 TD AMERITRADE shares ($1,000 \times .6591$) and have an exercise price of \$7.59 per share ($\$5.00/.6591$).

thinkorswim Restricted Stock

Shares of thinkorswim common stock that remain, as of the effective time of the merger, unvested or subject to a repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other conditions under any restricted stock purchase agreement or other agreement or arrangement with thinkorswim (taking into account any accelerated vesting or lapse of a repurchase option or risk of forfeiture as a result of the consummation of the merger pursuant to the terms applicable to such award of restricted stock), referred to as restricted stock, will be converted automatically at the effective time of the merger into shares of restricted stock of TD AMERITRADE. The number of shares of restricted stock of TD AMERITRADE to be issued upon conversion of the shares of thinkorswim restricted stock will be equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of thinkorswim restricted common stock, times (B) the option exchange ratio, rounded down to the nearest whole share. The shares of TD AMERITRADE restricted stock will be payable or distributable in accordance with the terms of the agreement, plan or arrangement relating to the restricted stock.

thinkorswim Restricted Stock Units

Restricted stock units in respect of thinkorswim common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be converted automatically at the effective time of the merger into restricted stock units in respect of shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock. The number of shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock subject to each converted restricted stock unit will be equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of thinkorswim common stock previously subject to the thinkorswim restricted stock unit, times (B) the option exchange ratio, rounded down to the nearest whole share. The TD AMERITRADE restricted stock units will be payable or distributable in accordance with the terms of the agreement, plan or arrangement relating to the restricted share units.

Option Exchange for Underwater thinkorswim Stock Options

In accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, thinkorswim has proposed an exchange program to all holders of outstanding options to acquire thinkorswim common stock that have an exercise price equal to or greater than the total value of the per share merger consideration (based on the volume-weighted average price for a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock (rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a cent) on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the trading day immediately prior to the date the merger is completed), referred to as underwater options. The terms of the exchange program are described in more detail elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. See thinkorswim's Proposal 3 Option Exchange beginning on page 77 and thinkorswim Proposal 4 Amendment to the Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Plan beginning on page 83. Underwater options that are not exchanged for restricted stock units of TD AMERITRADE pursuant to the terms of the exchange program will be assumed by TD AMERITRADE.

TD AMERITRADE has agreed to file a registration statement with the SEC on an appropriate form to the extent necessary to register TD AMERITRADE common stock subject to the converted stock options and other equity or equity-based awards.

Completion of the Merger

The merger agreement requires the parties to complete the merger after all of the conditions to the completion of the merger contained in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, including the adoption of the merger agreement by the stockholders of thinkorswim. The first-step merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such later time as is agreed by TD AMERITRADE, Merger Sub One and thinkorswim and specified in the certificate of merger. The second-step merger will become effective at the time of filing of the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. Because the completion of the merger is subject to the receipt of governmental and regulatory approvals and the satisfaction of other conditions, the exact timing of the completion of the merger cannot be predicted.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates

The merger agreement provides that TD AMERITRADE will select a reputable bank or trust company, reasonably acceptable to thinkorswim, to act as the payment and exchange agent. The merger agreement provides that on or prior to the date of completion of the first-step merger, TD AMERITRADE will deposit with the exchange agent a sufficient amount of cash to make payments of the cash amount payable and stock certificates representing the shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock issuable in exchange for shares of thinkorswim common stock and a sufficient amount of cash to make payments in lieu of fractional shares and in respect of dividends or distributions to which holders of thinkorswim common stock are entitled pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. The exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the cash amounts payable to any thinkorswim stockholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If the exchange agent withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the stockholders from whom they were withheld.

The merger agreement contemplates that, as promptly as practicable following the completion of the merger, the exchange agent for the merger will mail to each record holder of thinkorswim common stock immediately prior to the completion of the merger a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering and exchanging the record holder's thinkorswim stock certificates. The merger agreement provides that, upon surrender of a thinkorswim common stock certificate for exchange to the exchange agent (or upon receipt of an appropriate agent's message in the case of book-entry shares), together with a duly signed letter of transmittal, and such other documents as the exchange agent or TD AMERITRADE may reasonably require, the holder of the thinkorswim stock certificate will be entitled to receive the following:

the per share cash amount payable for each share of thinkorswim common stock;

a certificate representing a number of shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock calculated based on the exchange ratio;

cash in lieu of any fractional share of TD AMERITRADE common stock; and cash in respect of any dividends or other distributions declared by TD AMERITRADE after the effective time of the merger.

Table of Contents

After the completion of the first-step merger, all holders of certificates representing shares of thinkorswim common stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the first-step merger will cease to have any rights as stockholders of thinkorswim, other than the right to receive the merger consideration and subject to the rights described under thinkorswim Proposal 1 Appraisal Rights. In addition, no transfer of thinkorswim common stock after the completion of the first-step merger will be registered on the stock transfer books of thinkorswim.

If any thinkorswim stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, TD AMERITRADE may, in its discretion and as a condition to the payment of cash or the issuance of any certificate representing TD AMERITRADE common stock in exchange therefor, require the owner of such certificate to deliver an affidavit claiming such certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed and deliver a bond as indemnity against any claim that may be made with respect to that certificate against TD AMERITRADE, the surviving corporation or the exchange agent.

Stock certificates should not be surrendered for exchange by thinkorswim stockholders before the completion of the first-step merger and should be sent only pursuant to instructions set forth in the letters of transmittal which the merger agreement provides will be mailed to thinkorswim stockholders as promptly as practicable following the completion of the merger. In all cases, the cash payments, certificates representing shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares will be delivered only in accordance with the procedures set forth in the letter of transmittal.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties that TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim made to, and solely for the benefit of, each other. None of the representations and warranties in the merger agreement will survive the completion of the merger. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim have exchanged in connection with signing the merger agreement. While TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim do not believe that these disclosure schedules contain information securities laws require the parties to publicly disclose other than information that has already been so disclosed, they do contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they were only made as of the date of the merger agreement and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules. These disclosure schedules contain information that has been included in the companies' general prior public disclosures, as well as additional non-public information. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the companies' public disclosures.

In the merger agreement, thinkorswim, TD AMERITRADE, Merger Sub One and Merger Sub Two each made representations and warranties relating to, among other things:

organization and standing;

corporate power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under, and enforceability of, the merger agreement;

the absence of conflicts with organizational documents, other contracts and applicable laws;

required regulatory filings and consents and approvals of governmental entities;

the absence of undisclosed liabilities;

In the merger agreement, TD AMERITRADE, Merger Sub One and Merger Sub Two also each made representations and warranties relating to:

their not owning any shares of thinkorswim common stock; and the absence of agreements with thinkorswim's directors or executive officers relating to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, other than the employment agreements and the voting agreements described under thinkorswim Proposal 1 thinkorswim Officers and Directors Have Financial Interests in the Merger and Voting Agreements.

In the merger agreement, thinkorswim also made representations and warranties relating to:

subsidiaries;

material contracts;

employee benefits;

the absence of transactions with related parties;

the value of assets and revenues from thinkorswim's Canadian operations.

Material Adverse Effect

Several of the representations, warranties, covenants, closing conditions and termination provisions of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim in the merger agreement use the phrase material adverse effect. The merger agreement provides that material adverse effect means, with respect to either TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim, as the case may be, any fact, circumstance, change or effect that, individually or when taken together with all other such facts, circumstances, changes or effects that:

has or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the assets, liabilities, business, operations, financial condition or results of operations of TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim, as applicable, and its respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole;

would materially impair TD AMERITRADE's or thinkorswim's ability, as applicable, to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and applicable legal requirements; or would materially delay the consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

The merger agreement provides, however, that none of the following will be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has occurred, a material adverse effect on TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim, as applicable:

general market, economic or political conditions in the United States or any other jurisdiction in which TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim or any of their respective subsidiaries has substantial business or operations and any changes therein (including any condition or changes arising out of acts of terrorism, war, weather conditions or other force majeure events), to the extent they do not affect TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim, as applicable, disproportionately relative to other companies organized and based in the United States and operating in the same industries in which TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim operates;

general conditions in the financial services industry, and any changes therein (including any condition or changes arising out of acts of terrorism, war, weather conditions or other force majeure events), to the extent they do not affect TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim, as applicable, disproportionately relative to other companies organized and based in the United States and operating in the same industries in which TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim operates;

changes or proposed changes in generally accepted accounting principles or applicable federal, state, provincial, local, municipal, foreign or other law;

the public announcement of the merger agreement or pendency of the merger, including any loss of or adverse change in the relationship of TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim with their respective employees, customers, partners or suppliers related thereto to the extent resulting from the announcement of the merger agreement or the pendency of the merger;

any action or omission by TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim taken with the prior written consent of the other party;

any failure of TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim to meet internal or analysts' estimates, projections or forecasts of revenues, earnings or other financial or business metrics, in and of itself;

any decline in the market price or change in the trading volume of TD AMERITRADE or thinkorswim's public equity securities, in and of itself; and

any of the matters disclosed in the respective disclosure schedules of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim (which include certain legal proceedings disclosed in thinkorswim's periodic reports filed with the SEC before the execution of the merger agreement, including the SEC inquiry relating to thinkorswim's investor education seminars).

Other Covenants

The merger agreement also contains covenants relating to the preparation of this proxy statement/prospectus and the holding of the special meeting of thinkorswim stockholders, access to information of the other company and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and efforts to coordinate the repayment of thinkorswim indebtedness concurrently with the completion of the merger.

thinkorswim has agreed to hold a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as practicable following the date of this proxy statement/prospectus (and, if reasonably practicable, within forty five days following the date of this proxy statement/prospectus) for the purpose of obtaining stockholder approval of the merger proposal, the option exchange proposal and the plan amendment proposal. thinkorswim will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain such approvals. Unless the merger agreement is terminated, thinkorswim has agreed to submit the merger agreement to a stockholder vote even if its board of directors no longer recommends approval of the merger proposal.

Limitation on the Solicitation, Negotiation and Discussion of Other Acquisition Proposals by thinkorswim thinkorswim also has agreed that neither it nor its subsidiaries will, and that they will not authorize or permit their respective directors, officers, or other employees, controlled affiliates or advisors to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage, facilitate or induce any inquiries with respect to an acquisition proposal or acquisition transaction (as defined below);

furnish to any person any nonpublic information relating to thinkorswim or its subsidiaries, or provide access to its business, assets, properties or books and records in a manner intended to assist or facilitate any inquiry or proposal that is or could lead to an acquisition proposal or an acquisition transaction;

participate or engage in any discussions or negotiations, or enter into any agreement, regarding any acquisition proposal or acquisition transaction; or take any action to exempt any person from applicable anti-takeover laws.

As used in the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal means any indication of interest, offer or proposal relating to an acquisition transaction.

As used in the merger agreement, acquisition transaction means any transaction or series of related transactions (other than a transaction with TD AMERITRADE or its affiliates) involving:

any direct or indirect purchase or other acquisition by any person or group from thinkorswim of 15% or more of thinkorswim's total outstanding equity interests or voting securities, or any tender offer or exchange offer that would result in any person or group beneficially owning 15% or more of thinkorswim's total outstanding equity interests or voting securities;

any direct or indirect purchase or other acquisition of 50% or more of any class of equity or other voting securities of one or more thinkorswim subsidiaries that, individually or in the aggregate, generate or constitute 15% or more of thinkorswim's consolidated net revenues, net income or assets (as of or for the twelve month period ending on the last day of thinkorswim's most recently completed fiscal year), which are referred to as significant subsidiaries;

any merger, consolidation, business combination or other similar transaction involving thinkorswim or one or more of its significant subsidiaries, pursuant to which thinkorswim's stockholders (as a group) or the stockholders of such significant subsidiary, as applicable, would hold less than 85% of the equity interests in or voting securities of the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction;

any direct or indirect sale, lease (other than in the ordinary course of business), exchange, transfer, license (other than in the ordinary course of business), acquisition or disposition of assets of thinkorswim or one or more of its significant subsidiaries; or any liquidation, dissolution, recapitalization or other significant corporate reorganization of thinkorswim or one or more of its significant subsidiaries.

thinkorswim has also agreed:

to cease any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with respect to any acquisition proposal or acquisition transaction;

to notify TD AMERITRADE promptly (but no later than forty eight hours) after it receives any acquisition proposal, any request for information that would reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, or any inquiry with respect an acquisition proposal, and to provide TD AMERITRADE with relevant information regarding the acquisition proposal or request;

to keep TD AMERITRADE reasonably informed of the status and any changes in the material terms and conditions of any such acquisition proposal; and to provide TD AMERITRADE with prior written notice of a meeting of its board (or any committee thereof) at which the board (or any committee thereof) is reasonably expected to consider an acquisition proposal or acquisition transaction.

Exception to the Limitation on the Negotiation and Discussion by thinkorswim of Other Acquisition Proposals

However, prior to obtaining approval of the merger from its stockholders, thinkorswim may engage and participate in discussions and negotiations with respect to an unsolicited, written acquisition proposal, and furnish non-public information regarding thinkorswim to the party making such acquisition proposal if:

the thinkorswim board of directors determines reasonably in good faith (after consultation with thinkorswim's financial advisors and outside legal counsel) that such acquisition proposal is or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal (as defined below) and (after consultation with thinkorswim's outside legal counsel) that failure to take these actions would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of the board's fiduciary duties to thinkorswim stockholders under Delaware law;

none of thinkorswim, any of its subsidiaries, or any of their respective directors, officers or other employees, controlled affiliates or advisors have violated, with respect to such acquisition proposal, the restrictions on solicitation of other offers;

thinkorswim has first entered into a confidentiality and standstill agreement with the party making the acquisition proposal on terms no less favorable to thinkorswim than those in thinkorswim's confidentiality agreement with TD AMERITRADE;

thinkorswim provides TD AMERITRADE with prior written notice of its intent to participate in discussions with respect to such acquisition proposal (including notice of the identity of the party making the acquisition proposal and the material terms and conditions of such acquisition proposal); and thinkorswim contemporaneously provides TD AMERITRADE with any non-public information provided to the party making such acquisition proposal.

thinkorswim Board Recommendation of the Merger

The thinkorswim board of directors has adopted a resolution recommending that the thinkorswim stockholders approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Under the merger agreement, the thinkorswim board of directors may not (1) withhold, withdraw, amend or modify, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, amend or modify, in a manner adverse to TD AMERITRADE or approval of the merger, its recommendation, or (2) approve, endorse or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, endorse or recommend, any acquisition proposal or acquisition transaction. Any of these actions is referred to as a board recommendation change.

Board Recommendation Change for Superior Proposal

However, prior to obtaining approval of the merger from the thinkorswim stockholders, the thinkorswim board of directors may make a board recommendation change and terminate the merger agreement (as described in The Merger Agreement - Termination of the Merger Agreement - thinkorswim's Termination Rights) if it receives an unsolicited, written acquisition proposal and, prior to making such board recommendation change:

none of thinkorswim, any of its subsidiaries or any of their respective directors, officers or other employees, controlled affiliates or advisors have violated, with respect to such acquisition proposal (or any other acquisition proposal made by the person making such acquisition proposal), the merger agreement's restrictions on solicitation of other offers (as described in The Merger Agreement Limitation on the Solicitation, Negotiation and Discussion of Other acquisition proposals by thinkorswim);

it reasonably determines in good faith (A) after consultation with thinkorswim's financial advisors and its outside legal counsel, that such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal (as defined below) and (B) after consultation with thinkorswim's outside legal counsel, that in light of such superior proposal, the failure to make a board recommendation change would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of its fiduciary duties under Delaware law;

it provides TD AMERITRADE at least five business days prior written notice (A) of the identity of the person making such superior proposal and all of the material terms and conditions of such superior proposal, and (B) of its intention to make a board recommendation change in response to such superior proposal;

during such five business day period, it provides TD AMERITRADE the opportunity to meet with thinkorswim and its financial advisors and outside legal counsel to discuss in good faith such superior proposal, the merger agreement and the terms and conditions thereof, and any modifications of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement that TD AMERITRADE may propose in response to such superior proposal; and after such five business day period (and, if requested by TD AMERITRADE, the meetings described in the preceding bullet), it reasonably determines in good faith (A) after consultation with thinkorswim's financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that such acquisition proposal continues to constitute a superior proposal, and (B) after consultation with thinkorswim's outside legal counsel, that in light of such superior proposal and after good faith consideration of all proposals (whether or not binding) by TD AMERITRADE, the failure to make a board recommendation change would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of its fiduciary duties under Delaware Law.

As used in the merger agreement, superior proposal means any unsolicited, bona fide written offer or proposal to acquire 100% of thinkorswim's outstanding voting securities that thinkorswim's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, is:

more favorable, from a financial point of view, to thinkorswim's stockholders than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

reasonably likely to receive all requisite regulatory approvals; and reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms and conditions set forth in the written proposal.

The merger agreement requires the board to take the following factors, in addition to any factors the thinkorswim board of directors determines to be relevant, into account as part of its determination process: (A) all relevant financial considerations, (B) the identity and prior history of the person making such offer or proposal and of its sources of financing, (C) the anticipated timing, conditions and prospects for completion of the transaction contemplated by such offer or proposal, (D) the other terms and conditions of such offer or proposal and their implications on thinkorswim, and (E) any offer capable of acceptance made by TD AMERITRADE in response to such offer or proposal.

Board Recommendation Change for Intervening Event

Prior to obtaining approval of the merger from thinkorswim stockholders, the thinkorswim board of directors also may make a board recommendation change if a material fact, event, change, development or set of circumstances (other than an acquisition proposal) that was not known by thinkorswim's board of directors on or prior to January 8, 2009, referred to as an intervening event, occurs and:

after consultation with its outside legal counsel, it reasonably determines in good faith that in light of such intervening event, the failure make a board recommendation change would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of its fiduciary duties under Delaware law;

it provides TD AMERITRADE at least five business days prior written notice of its intention to make a board recommendation change;

during such 5 business day period, it provides TD AMERITRADE the opportunity to meet with it and thinkorswim's financial advisors and outside legal counsel to discuss in good faith (A) the board's rationale for proposing to make a board recommendation change, and/or (B) possible modifications of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement so as to eliminate the board's need to effect such board recommendation change in response to the intervening event; and after such 5 business day period (and, if requested by TD AMERITRADE, the meetings described in the preceding bullet), it reasonably determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that in light of such intervening event and any proposals by TD AMERITRADE to modify the terms of the merger agreement, the failure to make a board recommendation change would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of its fiduciary duties under Delaware Law.

Employee Matters

TD AMERITRADE has agreed to maintain, for a period of two years after completion of the merger, employee benefit plans and compensation opportunities for employees of thinkorswim and its subsidiaries that are at least as favorable, in the aggregate, as those made available to similarly situated employees of TD AMERITRADE and its subsidiaries, or no less favorable, in the aggregate, than those made available to employees of thinkorswim and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the completion of the merger, or a combination of the foregoing.

In addition, TD AMERITRADE has agreed, to the extent any thinkorswim employee becomes eligible to participate in TD AMERITRADE employee benefit plans following the merger:

generally to recognize each employee's service with thinkorswim prior to the completion of the merger for purposes of eligibility, vesting credits and, except under defined benefit pension plans or to the extent it would result in a duplication of these benefits, benefit accruals;

to cause any exclusion for pre-existing conditions or eligibility waiting periods under any TD AMERITRADE health plans to be waived, to the extent the employee (and their eligible dependents) were not subject to such pre-existing conditions and eligibility waiting periods under comparable thinkorswim plans as of the time immediately before the completion of the merger; and to provide each employee with credit for any deductibles paid under any thinkorswim plan that provides medical, dental or vision benefits in the plan year in effect as of the closing of the merger for purposes of satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under any TD AMERITRADE medical, dental or vision plans to the same extent that such expenses were recognized under the comparable thinkorswim plan.

TD AMERITRADE has also agreed to honor all existing thinkorswim employment, change in control and severance agreements in accordance with the terms thereof. TD AMERITRADE has the right to amend or terminate thinkorswim employee benefit plans to the extent permitted under the terms of such plans, and has no obligation to continue the employment of any thinkorswim employee for any period following the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement requires the current rights of the directors and officers of thinkorswim and its subsidiaries to indemnification under these entities' organizational documents and other disclosed agreements to continue in effect for six years after completion of the merger. The merger agreement also provides that, upon completion of the merger,

TD AMERITRADE will cause the surviving corporation to indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, all past and present officers and directors of thinkorswim and its subsidiaries against all losses or liabilities incurred in their capacities as such to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws.

The merger agreement requires TD AMERITRADE to obtain a tail prepaid directors and officers liability insurance policy with a claims period of six years after completion of the merger with at least the same coverage and amount and containing terms and conditions that are not less favorable than thinkorswim's current policy, with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger, except that TD AMERITRADE is not required to incur premium expense greater than $1,500,000.

the accuracy of the remaining representations and warranties made by thinkorswim in the merger agreement, provided that inaccuracies in such representations and warranties will be disregarded to the extent that such inaccuracies, individually or in the aggregate, do not constitute, and would not reasonably be expected to have or result in, a material adverse effect on thinkorswim;

The merger agreement provides that the obligations of thinkorswim to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of each of the following conditions:

the accuracy of the remaining representations and warranties made by TD AMERITRADE in the merger agreement, provided that inaccuracies in such representations and warranties will be disregarded to the extent that such inaccuracies, individually or in the aggregate, do not constitute, and would not reasonably be expected to have or result in, a material adverse effect on TD AMERITRADE;

TD AMERITRADE's chief executive officer and chief financial officer shall have delivered to thinkorswim a certificate confirming that certain conditions have been satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement provides that, at any time prior to the completion of the first-step merger, either before or after the requisite approval of thinkorswim's stockholders has been obtained, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim can terminate the merger agreement by mutual written consent, if such action is duly authorized by their respective boards of directors.

The merger agreement also provides that, at any time prior to the completion of the first-step merger, either before or after the requisite approval of thinkorswim's stockholders has been obtained, either company can terminate the merger agreement if:

the merger has not been completed by October 7, 2009, provided that neither party will be permitted to terminate the merger agreement under this provision of the merger agreement if the failure to complete the merger by October 7, 2009, or to satisfy any of the conditions to complete the merger by such date, is attributable to an action or failure to act by such party, and provided further that if TD AMERITRADE or any of its subsidiaries announces, following the date of the merger agreement and prior to October 7, 2009, entry into a definitive agreement for a transaction that is reportable under the HSR Act or subject to review by FINRA, the right of TD AMERITRADE to terminate the merger agreement under this provision will not be available until the later of (1) 11:59 p.m. (New York City time) on October 7, 2009 and (2) 11:59 p.m. (New York City time) on the thirtieth day immediately following the earlier to occur of the consummation or termination of such transaction;

a court or governmental body has enacted or issued a law or a final and non-appealable order prohibiting the completion of the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement (other than the exchange program);

a governmental body from which antitrust approval is required has denied such approval, and such denial is final and non-appealable; or the thinkorswim special meeting (including any postponements and adjournments thereof) has been held, a final vote on the approval of the merger proposal has been taken and thinkorswim's stockholders do not approve the merger proposal.

TD AMERITRADE's Termination Rights

The merger agreement further provides that TD AMERITRADE may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to the completion of the first-step merger, either before or after the requisite approval of thinkorswim's stockholders has been obtained, if:

any of the following events have occurred (which are referred to as thinkorswim triggering events):

- i any director or executive officer of thinkorswim (or any employee, controlled affiliate, advisor or representative of thinkorswim acting at the express direction of a thinkorswim director or executive officer) materially breaches or violates the provisions of the merger agreement relating to (A) limitations on the solicitation of other acquisition proposals, (B) thinkorswim's obligation to hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of obtaining stockholder approval of the merger proposal, or (C) thinkorswim's obligations in connection with its board of director's recommendation that the thinkorswim stockholders adopt the merger agreement;
- i the thinkorswim board of directors makes a board recommendation change;
- i thinkorswim fails to include in this proxy statement/prospectus its board of director's recommendation in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement;
- i a tender or exchange offer relating to securities of thinkorswim is commenced and (A) thinkorswim does not issue a public statement, within ten business days, reaffirming the thinkorswim board of director's recommendation of the merger and recommending rejection of the tender or exchange offer or (B) at any time after such ten business day period, thinkorswim issues a press release or files a Schedule 14D-9 with the SEC relating to the tender or exchange offer that fails to reaffirm its board of director's recommendation of the merger and recommend rejection of the tender or exchange offer; or
- i the thinkorswim board of directors fails to reaffirm its recommendation in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement within ten days after TD AMERITRADE reasonably requests a reaffirmation;

subject to certain limitations, a limited number of the representations and warranties (including those relating to corporate organization, authorization to enter into the merger agreement, required governmental consents, capitalization, inapplicability of state anti-takeover statutes and the absence of any arrangements requiring the payment of broker's or finder's fees other than to thinkorswim's financial advisors identified in the merger agreement) made by thinkorswim in the merger agreement are inaccurate in any material respect, provided that if any inaccuracy is curable, TD AMERITRADE may not terminate the merger agreement under this provision unless the inaccuracy remains uncured for a period of thirty days following notice thereof (or such earlier date that thinkorswim ceases to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such inaccuracy);

subject to certain limitations, inaccuracies in the remaining representations and warranties made by thinkorswim in the merger agreement constitute or would reasonably be expected to have or result in a material adverse effect on thinkorswim, provided that if any inaccuracy is curable, TD AMERITRADE may not terminate the merger agreement under this provision unless the inaccuracy remains uncured for a period of thirty days following notice thereof (or such earlier date that thinkorswim ceases to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such inaccuracy); or subject to certain limitations, thinkorswim has breached any of its covenants and obligations under the merger agreement in any material respect, provided that if any breach is curable, TD AMERITRADE may not terminate the merger agreement under this provision unless the breach remains uncured for a period of 30 days following notice thereof (or such earlier date that thinkorswim ceases to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such inaccuracy).

thinkorswim's Termination Rights

Finally, the merger agreement provides that thinkorswim may terminate the merger agreement if:

at any time prior to obtaining the requisite approval of the merger by thinkorswim's stockholders, thinkorswim shall have received an unsolicited, written acquisition proposal and complied with the provisions of the merger agreement governing a board recommendation change in connection with a superior proposal (as described in The Merger Agreement thinkorswim Board Recommendation of the Merger Recommendation Change for Superior Proposal), provided that concurrently with such termination (and as a condition to the effectiveness of such termination), thinkorswim (A) enters into a definitive agreement for such superior proposal and (B) pays to TD AMERITRADE a termination fee of $20 million;

at any time prior to the completion of the first-step merger, either before or after the requisite approval of thinkorswim's stockholders has been obtained, subject to certain limitations, a limited number of the representations and warranties (including those relating to corporate organization, authorization to enter into the merger agreement, required governmental consents, capitalization, inapplicability of state anti-takeover statutes and the absence of any arrangements requiring the payment of broker's or finder's fees other than to TD AMERITRADE's financial advisors identified in the merger agreement) made by TD AMERITRADE in the merger agreement are inaccurate in any material respect, provided that if any inaccuracy is curable, thinkorswim may not terminate the merger agreement under this provision unless the inaccuracy remains uncured for a period of thirty days following notice thereof (or such earlier date that TD AMERITRADE ceases to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such inaccuracy);

at any time prior to the completion of the first-step merger, either before or after the requisite approval of thinkorswim's stockholders has been obtained, subject to certain limitations, inaccuracies in the remaining representations and warranties made by TD AMERITRADE in the merger agreement constitute or would reasonably be expected to have or result in a material adverse effect on TD AMERITRADE, provided that if any inaccuracy is curable, thinkorswim may not terminate the merger agreement under this provision unless the inaccuracy remains uncured for a period of thirty days following notice thereof (or such earlier date that TD AMERITRADE ceases to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such inaccuracy); or

at any time prior to the completion of the first-step merger, either before or after the requisite approval of thinkorswim's stockholders has been obtained, TD AMERITRADE has breached any of its covenants and obligations under the merger agreement in any material respect, provided that if any breach is curable, thinkorswim may not terminate the merger agreement under this provision unless the breach remains uncured for a period of thirty days following notice thereof (or such earlier date that TD AMERITRADE ceases to use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such inaccuracy).

Expenses and Termination Fees

The merger agreement provides that all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the merger will be paid by the party incurring such expenses.

The merger agreement provides that thinkorswim will pay TD AMERITRADE a termination fee of $20 million if any of the following events occur:

(A) an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise become publicly known after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the date of the thinkorswim special meeting, (B) the merger agreement is terminated by thinkorswim or TD AMERITRADE under the provision of the merger agreement permitting such termination in the event that the stockholders of thinkorswim have voted not to adopt the merger agreement (or the merger agreement is terminated by thinkorswim after such vote for any other reason), and (C) within twelve months following the termination of the merger agreement, thinkorswim either closes a specified acquisition transaction or enters into an agreement providing for a specified acquisition transaction and such specified acquisition transaction or any other specified acquisition transaction is subsequently completed within twenty four months after the date such agreement is signed;

(A) an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise become publicly known after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the date of the thinkorswim special meeting, (B) the merger agreement is terminated by thinkorswim or TD AMERITRADE under the provision of the merger agreement permitting such termination in the event that the merger is not completed by October 7, 2009 (or by TD AMERITRADE at such later date as described in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement), and (C) within twelve months following the termination of the merger agreement, thinkorswim either closes a specified acquisition transaction or enters into an agreement providing for a specified acquisition transaction and such specified acquisition transaction or any other specified acquisition transaction is subsequently completed within twenty four months after the date such agreement is signed;

(A) an acquisition proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise become publicly known after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the date of the thinkorswim special meeting, (B) the merger agreement is terminated by TD AMERITRADE under the provision of the merger agreement permitting such termination in the event of uncured breaches or inaccuracies of the representations, warranties and covenants made by thinkorswim in the merger agreement, and (C) within twelve months following the termination of the merger agreement, thinkorswim either closes a specified acquisition transaction or enters into an agreement providing for a specified acquisition transaction and such specified acquisition transaction or any other specified acquisition transaction is subsequently completed within twenty four months after the date such agreement is signed;

the merger agreement is terminated by thinkorswim under the provision of the merger agreement permitting such termination in the event thinkorswim has received an unsolicited, written acquisition proposal and complied with the provisions of the merger agreement governing the making of a board recommendation change in connection with a superior proposal (as described in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement thinkorswim s Termination Rights); or the merger agreement is terminated by TD AMERITRADE under the provision of the merger agreement permitting such termination in the event of the occurrence of any of the thinkorswim triggering events described in the first bullet in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement TD AMERITRADE s Termination Rights.

A specified acquisition transaction has the same meaning as an acquisition transaction except all references to 15% or 85% are replaced by 50% instead.

Amendment and Waiver

The merger agreement provides that the parties may amend the merger agreement by written instrument signed by each of the parties to the agreement. However, following adoption of the merger proposal by thinkorswim s stockholders, any amendment that would require the approval of thinkorswim s stockholders may not be made without such approval.

The merger agreement also provides that, at any time before completion of the first-step merger, any party to the merger agreement may:

extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations of the other parties to the merger agreement;

waive any inaccuracy of a representation or warranty made to such party in the merger agreement; and waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions in the merger agreement for the benefit of such party.

The parties will disclose any material amendments or waivers to the merger agreement on a current report on Form 8-K. In addition, TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim will issue a joint press release concurrently with the filing of the Form 8-K to notify stockholders promptly upon the occurrence of a material amendment or waiver to the merger agreement.

VOTING AGREEMENTSVoting Agreements

As a condition and inducement to TD AMERITRADE's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, each of Messrs. Barba, Sheridan and Sosnoff and the Sosnoff Trust, a trust for the benefit of Mr. Sosnoff's spouse and children, has entered into voting agreements with TD AMERITRADE. According to the terms of the voting agreements, each of the parties agrees to vote the beneficially owned shares (or to cause the holder of record of such shares to so vote) and has granted TD AMERITRADE irrevocable proxies to vote the beneficially owned shares in favor of the merger, against any proposition made in opposition or in competition with the merger, and generally against any other proposed business transaction which would interfere with the merger. As of April 24, 2009, Messrs. Barba, Sheridan, Sosnoff and the Sosnoff Trust together beneficially owned 10,804,852 shares of thinkorswim common stock or approximately 16.17% of the voting power of thinkorswim common stock and together held stock options to purchase an additional 3,132,140 shares of thinkorswim common stock. The following table identifies (A) the number of shares of thinkorswim common stock beneficially owned as of April 24, 2009, by each of Messrs. Barba, Sheridan and Sosnoff, and the Sosnoff Trust and (B) the number of shares of thinkorswim common stock beneficially owned as of April 24, 2009, by each of Messrs. Barba, Sheridan and Sosnoff, issuable upon exercise of outstanding stock options.

Name	Number of Shares of thinkorswim Common Stock Beneficially Owned	Number of Shares of thinkorswim Common Stock Beneficially Owned Upon Exercise of Outstanding thinkorswim Options
Mr. Barba	1,755,746	2,146,577
Mr. Sheridan	4,524,553	492,781
Mr. Sosnoff	4,000	492,782
Sosnoff Trust	4,520,553

The voting agreements generally prohibit the sale, pledge, encumbrance, assignment, transfer, tender or other disposition by these thinkorswim stockholders of their shares of thinkorswim common stock, or the entrance into an agreement or commitment to do any of the foregoing.

Each stockholder executing a voting agreement has made representations and warranties to TD AMERITRADE regarding any information relating to and provided in writing by such stockholder or his affiliates for inclusion in this proxy statement/prospectus and regarding his ownership and unencumbered title to the shares of thinkorswim stock subject to the voting agreement. Each of these thinkorswim stockholders has also made representations and warranties to TD AMERITRADE regarding power and authority to execute the voting agreement, and due execution and enforceability of the voting agreement.

The voting agreements will terminate at the earlier of the effective time of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase of a business, as that phrase is used under generally accepted accounting principles, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. Under purchase accounting, the assets acquired (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities assumed (including executory contracts and other commitments) of thinkorswim as of the acquisition date (i.e., the completion of the merger) will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of TD AMERITRADE. Any excess of purchase price over the fair values will be recorded as goodwill. The financial statements of TD AMERITRADE issued after the merger will reflect these fair values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of thinkorswim.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following summary represents the opinion of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, Professional Corporation, counsel to TD AMERITRADE, and Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, counsel to thinkorswim, with respect to the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of thinkorswim common stock who hold their stock as capital assets (generally, for investment).

The summary is based on the Code, the Treasury regulations issued under the Code, and administrative rulings and court decisions in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect. For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (including any entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States or any of its political subdivisions;

a trust that (i) is subject to the supervision of a court within the United States and the control of one or more United States persons or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable United States Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person; or an estate that is subject to United States federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

A "non-U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of thinkorswim common stock (other than a partnership) that is not a U.S. holder. If a partnership (including any entity or arrangement, domestic or foreign, treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes) holds thinkorswim common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partners and the activities of the partnership. If a holder is a partner in a partnership holding thinkorswim common stock, the holder should consult its tax advisors.

This summary is not a complete description of all the tax consequences of the merger and, in particular, may not address United States federal income tax considerations applicable to holders of thinkorswim common stock who are subject to special treatment under United States federal income tax law (including, for example, certain former citizens or residents of the United States, financial institutions, dealers in securities, insurance companies or tax-exempt entities, holders who acquired thinkorswim common stock pursuant to the exercise of an employee stock option or right or otherwise as compensation, holders exercising dissenters' rights or appraisal rights, and holders who hold thinkorswim common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction). This summary does not address the tax consequences of any transaction other than the merger, whether or not in connection with the merger. This summary does not address the tax consequences to any person who actually or constructively owns 5% or more of thinkorswim common stock. Also, this summary does not address United States federal income tax considerations applicable to holders of options to purchase thinkorswim common stock, or holders of debt instruments convertible into thinkorswim common stock. In addition, no information is provided with respect to the tax consequences of the merger under applicable state, local or non-United States laws or under estate, gift, excise or other non-income tax laws.

The obligations of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim to consummate the merger are conditioned on the receipt of opinions of their respective tax counsel, Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati, Professional Corporation and Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, dated the effective date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Each of the tax opinions will be subject to customary qualifications and assumptions, including the assumption that the merger will be completed according to the terms of the merger agreement and will rely on representations contained in certificates of officers of TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim, which must be updated and confirmed immediately prior to closing. In order for the merger to meet the continuity of interest test necessary to qualify as a reorganization, a sufficient amount of thinkorswim proprietary interests must be preserved in the merger. Counsel to TD AMERITRADE has indicated that if TD AMERITRADE declares a cash dividend with a record date prior to closing, its determination of whether a sufficient amount of thinkorswim proprietary interest will be preserved in the merger would be based on the closing date value of

TD AMERITRADE common stock. TD AMERITRADE has no current intention to declare a dividend prior to closing, but is not expressly prohibited from doing so under the terms of the merger agreement. However, each of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE has agreed to use reasonable best efforts to cause the conditions to the merger to be satisfied and not to take any action that would reasonably be expected to cause the merger to fail to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Neither the tax opinions nor the discussion that follows is binding on the Internal Revenue Service, referred to as the IRS, or the courts. In addition, the parties do not intend to request a ruling from the IRS with respect to the merger. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge the conclusion expressed in the tax opinions or the discussion below, or that a court will not sustain such a challenge.

Two-step merger

TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim anticipate that the transaction will qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 368(a) of the Code, and will receive opinions of counsel to that effect. The two-step merger structure has been adopted because it may reduce exposure to corporate-level tax costs in certain circumstances. The structure will not affect the tax treatment of thinkorswim stockholders.

The following discussion assumes that the exchange of shares of thinkorswim common stock for TD AMERITRADE common stock and cash pursuant to the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

United States federal income tax consequences to U.S. holders if the merger is a reorganization

A U.S. holder of thinkorswim common stock receiving TD AMERITRADE common stock and cash in exchange for such thinkorswim common stock in the merger generally will recognize gain only to the extent of the cash consideration, and will not be subject to current taxation on the amount of any gain in excess of that cash. More precisely, a U.S. holder will recognize gain equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash received by the U.S. holder (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares) and (ii) the excess of the amount realized by the U.S. holder over the U.S. holder's tax basis in the thinkorswim common stock. The amount realized by the U.S. holder will equal the sum of the fair market value of the TD AMERITRADE common stock and the amount of cash (including any cash received in lieu of fractional shares) received by the U.S. holder. No loss will be recognized by U.S. holders of thinkorswim common stock in the merger, except possibly in connection with the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares, as discussed below. Any gain recognized by a U.S. holder of thinkorswim common stock generally will be long-term capital gain if the U.S. holder's holding period of the thinkorswim common stock is more than one year. Capital gains of individuals derived in respect of capital assets held for more than one year are eligible for reduced rates of taxation.

The aggregate tax basis of the TD AMERITRADE common stock received (including fractional shares deemed received and redeemed as described below) will be equal to the aggregate tax basis of the thinkorswim common stock surrendered, reduced by the amount of cash the U.S. holder of thinkorswim common stock received (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares), and increased by the amount of gain that the U.S. holder of thinkorswim common stock recognizes, but excluding any gain or loss from the deemed receipt and redemption of fractional shares described below. The holding period of TD AMERITRADE common stock received by a U.S. holder of thinkorswim common stock in the merger will include the holding period of the U.S. holder's thinkorswim common stock.

For a U.S. holder who acquired different blocks of thinkorswim common stock at different times and at different prices, realized gain or loss generally must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares exchanged in the merger, and a loss realized on the exchange of one block of shares cannot be used to offset a gain realized on the exchange of another block of shares. If a U.S. holder has differing bases or holding periods in respect of shares of thinkorswim common stock, the U.S. holder should consult its tax advisor prior to the exchange with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of TD AMERITRADE common stock received in the merger.

Table of Contents

Cash received by a U.S. holder of thinkorswim common stock in lieu of fractional shares will generally be treated as if the U.S. holder received the fractional shares in the merger and then received the cash in redemption of the fractional shares. The U.S. holder should generally recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of the cash received in lieu of fractional shares and the portion of the U.S. holder's tax basis allocable to the fractional shares.

Reporting requirements

U.S. holders of shares of thinkorswim common stock receiving TD AMERITRADE common stock and cash in the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. U.S. holders who owned at least 5% (by vote or value) of the total outstanding thinkorswim common stock before the merger or whose tax basis in the thinkorswim common stock surrendered pursuant to the merger equals or exceeds $1 million are subject to certain reporting requirements with respect to the merger. U.S. holders are urged to consult with their tax advisors with respect to these and other reporting requirements applicable to the merger.

United States federal income tax consequences to non-U.S. holders if the merger is a reorganization

The receipt of TD AMERITRADE common stock and cash by a non-U.S. holder in exchange for thinkorswim common stock in the merger generally will be exempt from United States federal income tax, unless: (A) the gain on thinkorswim common stock, if any, is effectively connected with the conduct by the non-U.S. holder of a trade or business in the United States (and, if certain income tax treaties apply, is attributable to the non-U.S. holder's permanent establishment in the United States) (in which case (i) the non-U.S. holder will be subject to United States federal income tax as described above under United States federal income tax consequences to U.S. holders if the merger is a reorganization, but such non-U.S. holder should provide appropriate documentation (that is, an IRS Form W-8ECI) in accordance with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules, and (ii) if the non-U.S. holder is a corporation, it may be subject to branch profits tax on such gain at a 30% rate (or such lower rate as may be specified under an applicable income tax treaty)); or (B) the non-U.S. holder is an individual who was present in the United States for one hundred eighty three days or more in the taxable year and certain other conditions are met (in which case the non-U.S. holder will be subject to tax at a flat rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified under an applicable income tax treaty) on the gain from the exchange of the thinkorswim common stock pursuant to the merger net of applicable United States losses from sales or exchanges of other capital assets recognized during the year).

Backup withholding

Backup withholding may apply with respect to the consideration received by a holder of thinkorswim common stock in the merger unless the holder:

in the case of a U.S. holder, is a corporation or comes within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact, or provides a correct taxpayer identification number (typically by completing and signing an IRS Form W-9), certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and that such holder is a United States person (including a United States resident alien) and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules; or in the case of a non-U.S. holder, provides a completed and signed IRS Form W-8BEN (or IRS Form W-8ECI if the holder's gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a United States trade or business) or other applicable IRS Form W-8.

Further, a holder of thinkorswim common stock who does not provide TD AMERITRADE (or the exchange agent) with its correct taxpayer identification number may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against the holder's federal income tax liability, provided that the holder timely furnishes certain required information to the IRS.

The foregoing discussion of United States federal income tax consequences is not intended to constitute a complete description of all tax consequences relating to the merger. The tax consequences of the merger to a holder of thinkorswim common stock will depend upon the facts of a holder's particular situation. Because individual circumstances may differ, holders of thinkorswim common stock are urged to consult with their own tax advisor regarding the applicability of the rules discussed above and the particular tax effects of the merger, including the application of state, local and foreign tax laws, and, in the case of non-U.S. holders, possible eligibility for benefits under applicable income tax treaties.

THINKORSWIM PROPOSAL 2 POSSIBLE ADJOURNMENT OF THE THINKORSWIM SPECIAL MEETING

If thinkorswim fails to receive a sufficient number of votes to approve the merger proposal, thinkorswim may propose to adjourn the special meeting, if a quorum is present, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to approve the merger proposal. Any adjournments may be made without notice, other than an announcement at the special meeting. thinkorswim currently does not intend to propose adjournment at the thinkorswim special meeting if there are sufficient votes to approve the merger proposal. If approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies is submitted to thinkorswim's stockholders for approval at the special meeting, such approval requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Any adjournment of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow stockholders who have already sent in proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use.

Accordingly, the thinkorswim board of directors unanimously recommends that thinkorswim stockholders vote FOR the adjournment proposal.

THINKORSWIM PROPOSAL 3 OPTION EXCHANGE

In connection with the proposed transaction, thinkorswim has agreed to implement, subject to stockholder approval, a stock option exchange program, referred to as the exchange program, that permits thinkorswim's eligible employees and independent contractors, referred to as eligible individuals, to exchange outstanding thinkorswim options with an exercise price equal to or greater than the total value of the per share merger consideration (based on the volume-weighted average price of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock on the trading day immediately prior to the effective time of the merger), referred to as underwater options or eligible options, for a lesser number of thinkorswim restricted stock units to be granted under thinkorswim's Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan. TD AMERITRADE and thinkorswim have determined that such a program would benefit the combined company following the merger.

Therefore, under the option exchange proposal, thinkorswim is asking its stockholders to approve the option exchange program. In addition, as described in proposal 4, thinkorswim is asking its stockholders to approve an amendment to thinkorswim's Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan to permit the grant of restricted stock units pursuant to the terms and conditions of the exchange program, referred to as the plan amendment proposal. If the stockholders do not approve both the option exchange proposal and the plan amendment proposal, thinkorswim will not be able to issue restricted stock units and therefore will not be able to complete the exchange program.

Approval of the option exchange proposal and the plan amendment proposal is not a condition to the completion of the merger and a failure by thinkorswim's stockholders to approve either or both of these proposals will have no impact on whether or not the merger is completed. The board of directors of thinkorswim does not make, and does not intend to make, any recommendation as to whether any holders of underwater options should participate in the exchange program, and nothing in this proxy statement/prospectus should be construed as such a recommendation. A vote for or against the option exchange proposal or the plan amendment proposal has no impact on a stockholder's eligibility to participate in the program if it is approved.

For purposes of the exchange program, underwater options include all thinkorswim options that satisfy the following conditions:

the options were granted under the thinkorswim Group Inc. Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan, the Telescan, Inc. Amended and Restated 1995 Stock Option Plan, the Telescan, Inc. 2000 Stock Option Plan, and the Telescan, Inc. Amended and Restated Stock Option Plan, referred to as the thinkorswim option plans, with a per share exercise price equal to or greater than the sum of (i) $3.34 plus (ii) the product of (A) 0.3980 times (B) the volume-weighted average price for a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock, rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a cent, as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the trading day immediately prior to the day on which the effective time of the merger occurs;

the options are held by eligible individuals; and

thinkorswim commenced the exchange program, subject to stockholder approval, on April 17, 2009. Based on the closing price of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock on April 16, 2009, underwater options would include any outstanding thinkorswim option with an exercise price equal to or greater than $9.95. However, because the threshold exercise price that will determine eligibility will depend on the volume-weighted average price for a share of

TD AMERITRADE common stock for the trading day immediately prior to the day on which the effective time of the merger occurs, thinkorswim will not be able to definitively determine the applicable threshold exercise price until the trading day immediately prior to the date on which the effective time of the merger occurs.

For a number of reasons, thinkorswim believes that the exchange program will benefit the combined company following completion of the merger. Like many companies in the financial services industry, thinkorswim's stock price has experienced significant volatility and decline over the past few years. As a result, many of thinkorswim employees hold thinkorswim options with exercise prices significantly higher than the current market price of thinkorswim common stock. These underwater options may not be effective in retaining these individuals and motivating them to enhance long-term stockholder value, yet thinkorswim continues to recognize significant compensation expense for accounting purposes with respect to these underwater options. Other alternatives that could aid in retention and providing incentives to thinkorswim employees include increasing cash compensation and/or granting equity awards. Increasing cash compensation, however, would substantially increase compensation expenses and reduce cash flow from operations, while granting additional equity awards could increase dilution due to thinkorswim stockholders. thinkorswim believes that the exchange program would:

Re-incentivize the eligible individuals who participate in the exchange program by issuing them restricted stock units that will vest over a period of time following the exchange if they remain with thinkorswim or, following the effective time of the merger, with TD AMERITRADE. The thinkorswim restricted stock units will provide immediate intrinsic value to eligible individuals and, at the same time, the potential for greater value if the price of thinkorswim common stock, or following the effective time, the price of TD AMERITRADE's common stock, increases. This is the primary purpose of this exchange program and thinkorswim believes it will enhance long-term stockholder value by more strongly aligning the interests of thinkorswim's (and, following completion of the merger, TD AMERITRADE's) employees and independent contractors with the interests of its stockholders. Because the individuals who exchange underwater options generally need to continue to provide services for three years following the completion of the merger to receive any benefit from the restricted stock units, we believe the restricted stock units will also aid in retaining these individuals without providing them with a windfall.

Meaningfully reduce thinkorswim's (and, following completion of the merger, TD AMERITRADE's) total number of outstanding equity awards, or overhang, represented by outstanding awards that have high exercise prices and may no longer incentivize their holders to remain as thinkorswim (and, following completion of the merger, TD AMERITRADE) employees and independent contractors. Keeping these awards outstanding dilutes the interests of thinkorswim (and, following completion of the merger, TD AMERITRADE) stockholders without providing the benefits intended by an equity compensation program. By replacing the awards with a lesser number of thinkorswim restricted stock units, retention and economic incentives are more cost-effectively provided to thinkorswim employees than by issuing additional equity awards or paying additional cash compensation and potential dilution is decreased. The remaining dilutive effect of the thinkorswim restricted stock units will reflect an appropriate balance between thinkorswim's goals for its equity compensation program and thinkorswim's (and, following completion of the merger, TD AMERITRADE's) interest in minimizing the dilution of its stockholders' interests.

Although the exchange program has commenced, no thinkorswim restricted stock units will be issued in exchange for thinkorswim options if the merger does not occur or if both the option exchange proposal and the plan amendment proposal are not approved by thinkorswim's stockholders. If thinkorswim's stockholders approve the merger proposal but do not approve both the option exchange proposal and the plan amendment proposal and the merger is completed, then thinkorswim will terminate the exchange program and promptly return all tendered eligible options to tendering holders, and eligible options will remain outstanding and in effect in accordance with their existing terms, with appropriate adjustments to reflect the assumption of these thinkorswim options by TD AMERITRADE (as described in further detail in thinkorswim Proposal 1 The Merger on page 22). If the merger does not occur, TD AMERITRADE will not assume any thinkorswim options.

Material Terms of the Exchange Program

The remainder of this proposal provides a summary of the material terms of the exchange program commenced by thinkorswim on April 17, 2009. However, a complete description of the exchange program is set forth in the Offer to Exchange Eligible Stock Options for Restricted Stock Units (and the other documents filed therewith and incorporated therein) filed with the SEC on April 17, 2009. These documents were provided to eligible individuals holding eligible options and are available free of charge from the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 88.

Eligibility to Participate in the Exchange Program

The exchange program is open to all employees and independent contractors holding eligible options that were providing services to thinkorswim or its subsidiaries as of April 17, 2009, the start of the exchange program, and continue to provide services as employees or independent contractors through the date the exchange program ends. Former thinkorswim employees and the current and former non-employee members of the thinkorswim board of directors are not eligible to participate in the exchange program.

Any thinkorswim employee or independent contractor holding eligible options who elects to participate in the exchange program but whose service with thinkorswim terminates for any reason prior to the grant of the thinkorswim restricted stock units, including voluntary resignation, retirement, involuntary termination, layoff, death or disability, will retain his or her eligible options subject to their existing terms but with appropriate adjustments to reflect the assumption of these thinkorswim options by TD AMERITRADE if the merger occurs (as described in further detail in thinkorswim Proposal 1 "The Merger" on page 22).

thinkorswim Options Eligible for the Exchange Program

Eligible options include thinkorswim options that satisfy each of the following conditions:

the options were granted under the thinkorswim option plans with a per share exercise price equal to or greater than the sum of (i) $3.34 plus (ii) the product of (1) 0.3980 times (2) the volume-weighted average price for a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock, rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a cent, as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the trading day immediately prior to the day on which the effective time of the merger occurs;

the options are held by eligible individuals; and

the options are outstanding and unexercised at the expiration of the exchange program.

Based on the closing price of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock on April 16, 2009, eligible underwater options would include any outstanding thinkorswim option with an exercise price equal to or greater than $9.95. However, because the threshold exercise price that will determine eligibility will depend on the volume-weighted average price for a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock for the trading day immediately prior to the day on which the effective time of the merger occurs, thinkorswim will not be able to definitively determine the applicable threshold exercise price until the trading day immediately prior to the date on which the effective time of the merger occurs.

As of April 16, 2009, thinkorswim options for approximately 5,424,091 shares of thinkorswim common stock were outstanding under the thinkorswim option plans. Of these, approximately 2,629,129 shares of thinkorswim common stock, held by 118 eligible individuals, have exercise prices equal to or greater than $9.95.

Number of thinkorswim Restricted Stock Units to be Received in the Exchange Program

The number of thinkorswim restricted stock units that will be issued to eligible individuals for eligible options tendered in the exchange program will depend on the number of options exchanged, the exercise price of those options, and the following exchange ratios:

If the Exercise Price of an Eligible Option is:

$9.00 -to- $10.85
$12.92 -to- $14.73
$15.69 -to- $16.92
$23.54
$25.45 -to- $38.95

The Exchange Ratio Would be (Eligible Options to RSUs):

2.0 -to- 1
2.4 -to- 1
2.7 -to- 1
3.7 -to- 1
10.0 -to- 1

Table of Contents

These exchange ratios are based on the weighted average fair value of the eligible options (using the Black-Scholes model) grouped together based on their exercise price. Setting the exchange ratios in this manner is intended to result in the issuance of restricted stock units that have a fair value approximately equal to the fair value of the surrendered eligible options they replace.

The total number of restricted stock units that a participating individual will receive with respect to a canceled eligible option will be determined by dividing the number of shares subject to the option by the applicable exchange ratio and rounding down to the nearest whole restricted stock unit. The exchange ratios will be applied on a grant-by-grant basis based upon the exercise price of such grant.

For purposes of example only, if a participant exchanges an eligible option to purchase 1,000 shares with an exercise price of $10.00 per share, on the expiration date of the exchange program, he or she will receive 500 restricted stock units in exchange for the surrendered eligible option (1,000 divided by 2.0).

As described in further detail in thinkorswim Proposal 1 The Merger The Merger Agreement Treatment of thinkorswim Stock Options and Other Equity-Based Awards beginning on page 48, each thinkorswim restricted stock unit granted pursuant to the exchange program that is outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the merger will be assumed by TD AMERITRADE and adjusted to reflect this assumption. As a result, following the merger, the number of shares subject to restricted stock units granted pursuant to the exchange program will be different and will likely be less than the number of shares subject to the thinkorswim restricted stock units immediately prior to the merger.

Vesting of thinkorswim Restricted Stock Units Granted in Connection with the Exchange Program

thinkorswim restricted stock units issued in the exchange program will be completely unvested at the time they are granted and will vest on the basis of the participant's continued employment or service with thinkorswim or one of its subsidiaries or, following completion of the merger, TD AMERITRADE or one of its subsidiaries. These thinkorswim restricted stock units will be subject to the following new vesting schedule: 100% will vest on the third anniversary of the date of grant of the thinkorswim restricted stock units, unless, following the merger, the participant's employment or service with TD AMERITRADE is terminated without cause (as determined in accordance with the Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan and the individual's restricted stock unit agreement). Following the merger, if the participant's employment or service with TD AMERITRADE is terminated without cause, a portion of his or her restricted stock units will vest as follows:

one-third (1/3) of the restricted stock units will vest if the participant's employment or service is terminated without cause before the second anniversary of the date of grant of the restricted stock units; and two-thirds (2/3) of the restricted stock units will vest if the participant's employment or service is terminated without cause after the second anniversary of the date of grant but prior to the third anniversary of the date of grant.

Participants in the Exchange Program

Eligible individuals are not required to participate in the exchange program. Participation in the exchange program is voluntary.

Period of Time to Decide Whether to Participate in the Exchange Program

Eligible individuals currently have an election period of at least twenty business days in which to determine whether they wish to participate.

Terms and Conditions Applicable to the thinkorswim Restricted Stock Units

thinkorswim restricted stock units issued in the exchange program will be granted pursuant to the Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan, provided that thinkorswim's stockholders approve the plan amendment proposal, and subject to a restricted stock unit agreement between the participant and thinkorswim. The forms of restricted stock unit agreement have been filed as exhibits to the Offer to Exchange Eligible Stock Options for Restricted Stock Units filed with the SEC on April 17, 2009. The forms of restricted stock unit agreement were provided to eligible individuals holding eligible options and are available free of charge from the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 88.

Each restricted stock unit issued in the exchange program will represent an unfunded right to receive one share of common stock once the vesting conditions are satisfied. A participant is not required to pay any monetary consideration to receive shares of common stock upon settlement of his or her restricted stock units. However, under United States federal tax law in effect as of April 17, 2009, individuals generally will recognize taxable income upon settlement of the restricted stock units, at which time, TD AMERITRADE typically will have a tax withholding obligation. Subject to applicable securities laws, employees and independent contractors will be permitted to sell their shares upon receipt.

Terms of the Exchange Program Described in this Proposal

A complete description of the terms of the exchange program is set forth in the Offer to Exchange Eligible Stock Options for Restricted Stock Units (and other documents filed therewith and incorporated therein) filed with the SEC on April 17, 2009. These documents were provided to eligible individuals holding eligible options and are available free of charge from the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 88. Although thinkorswim does not anticipate that the staff of the SEC will require it to materially modify the terms of the exchange program, it is possible that thinkorswim may need to alter the terms of the exchange program to comply with comments from the staff.

Tax Consequences to Eligible Individuals Participating in the Exchange Program

The following is a summary of the anticipated material United States federal income tax consequences of participating in the exchange program. A more detailed summary of the applicable tax considerations to participants is provided in the exchange program documents. The law and regulations themselves are subject to change, and the IRS is not precluded from adopting a contrary position. The exchange of eligible options for thinkorswim restricted stock units pursuant to the exchange program should be treated as a non-taxable exchange and neither thinkorswim nor any eligible individual should recognize any income for United States federal income tax purposes upon the surrender of eligible options and the grant of thinkorswim restricted stock units.

Accounting Treatment of thinkorswim Restricted Stock Units in the Exchange Program

As of the beginning of thinkorswim's 2006 fiscal year, thinkorswim has adopted the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (Revised), or SFAS 123(R), on accounting for share-based payments. Under SFAS 123(R), thinkorswim will recognize any incremental compensation cost, if any, of the thinkorswim restricted stock units granted in the exchange program. The incremental compensation cost will be measured as the excess, if any, of the fair value of each award of thinkorswim restricted stock units granted to employees in exchange for surrendered eligible options, measured as of the date the thinkorswim restricted stock units are granted, over the fair value of the eligible options surrendered in exchange for the thinkorswim restricted stock units, measured immediately prior to the exchange.

As noted above, the manner in which the exchange ratios for the exchange program have been set is intended to result in the issuance of thinkorswim restricted stock units that have a fair value approximately equal to the fair value of the exchanged eligible options they replace. However, because the thinkorswim restricted stock unit awards will be unvested, TD AMERITRADE will recognize compensation expense for the fair value of the thinkorswim restricted stock units over the vesting period following completion of the merger. thinkorswim already is recognizing compensation expense relating to the eligible options, even though it does not fully provide the intended incentive and retention benefits because they are underwater. The exchange program will allow thinkorswim (and, following completion of the merger, TD AMERITRADE) to recapture value from these compensation costs by replacing the underwater options with thinkorswim restricted stock units that will provide current and future incentive and retention benefits.

In the event that any of the restricted stock units are forfeited prior to their vesting due to termination of service, the compensation cost for the forfeited restricted stock units will not be recognized.

Number of Eligible Options to be Exchanged and thinkorswim Restricted Stock Units to be Granted in the Exchange Program

Because the decision whether to participate in the exchange program is completely voluntary and the threshold exercise price that will determine whether an option will be eligible for exchange under the exchange program will not be known until the close of the trading day immediately preceding the expiration date of the exchange program, thinkorswim is not able to predict which or how many eligible individuals will elect to participate, how many eligible options will be surrendered for exchange, or how many thinkorswim restricted stock units may be issued. However, based on the closing price of a share of TD AMERITRADE common stock on April 16, 2009, eligible options would include any outstanding thinkorswim option with an exercise price equal to or greater than $9.95 (or a total of 2,629,129 options). Assuming that these options are in fact eligible based on the threshold exercise price and thinkorswim receives and accepts tenders from eligible individuals of all options eligible to be tendered subject to the terms and conditions of the exchange program, thinkorswim will grant restricted stock units covering a total of approximately 882,142 shares of thinkorswim common stock, or approximately 1.32% of the total shares of thinkorswim common stock outstanding as of April 16, 2009.

Effect of the Exchange Program on thinkorswim's Stockholders

thinkorswim is unable to predict the precise impact of the exchange program on its stockholders because thinkorswim is unable to predict how many or which eligible individuals will exchange their eligible options. thinkorswim has designed the proposed exchange program in a manner intended to ensure that the value of the thinkorswim restricted stock units granted in the exchange program is approximately equal to the value of the thinkorswim options surrendered in the exchange program. The exchange program is intended to restore competitive and appropriate equity incentives for employees and independent contractors of thinkorswim (and, following completion of the merger, TD AMERITRADE) and to reduce thinkorswim's existing overhang.

Treatment of thinkorswim Restricted Stock Units under the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement provides that all restricted stock units issued by thinkorswim under the exchange program will be assumed by TD AMERITRADE upon the closing of the merger. The thinkorswim restricted stock units issued in the exchange program will automatically be converted into restricted stock units based on TD AMERITRADE common stock pursuant to the adjustment ratio described in thinkorswim Proposal 1 The Merger.

Vote Required to Approve the Exchange Program

To approve this proposal, a majority of the shares entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy at the special meeting must vote FOR this option exchange proposal.

thinkorswim's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the option exchange proposal.

THINKORSWIM PROPOSAL 4 AMENDMENT OF THE SECOND AMENDED AND RESTATED
2001 STOCK OPTION PLAN

Description of the Amendment

thinkorswim is asking its stockholders to approve an amendment to thinkorswim's Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan, referred to as the 2001 plan, to permit the grant of restricted stock units which will be necessary for the exchange program described in proposal 3 above. Although the option exchange proposal and the plan amendment proposal are separate proposals, approval of both proposals is necessary for the exchange program to be completed, subject to the merger occurring. If the stockholders do not approve both proposals, thinkorswim will terminate the exchange program and, consequently, no thinkorswim restricted stock units will be issued in exchange for thinkorswim options.

Summary of the Second Amended and Restated 2001 Stock Option Plan

General

The purpose of the 2001 plan, is to further the interests of thinkorswim, its subsidiaries and its stockholders by providing incentives in the form of stock options to key employees, consultants and non-employee directors who contribute to the success and profitability of thinkorswim and its subsidiaries.

The 2001 plan provides for the grant to employees, consultants and non-employee directors of thinkorswim (or its subsidiaries) of options to purchase shares of thinkorswim's common stock. Subject to thinkorswim stockholders approving the amendment to the 2001 plan, the 2001 plan will also provide for the grant to employees, consultants and non-employee directors of thinkorswim (or its subsidiaries) of awards of thinkorswim restricted stock units. The 2001 plan is administered by the compensation committee of the board of directors of thinkorswim, referred to as the compensation committee, which has complete discretion to select the individuals who will receive awards of thinkorswim options or thinkorswim restricted stock units and to establish the terms and conditions of each thinkorswim option or award of thinkorswim restricted stock units, subject to the provisions of the 2001 plan. Options granted under the 2001 plan may be incentive stock options as defined in Section 422 of the Code, or nonstatutory stock options.

Shares Subject to the 2001 Plan

Currently, a total of 12,000,000 shares of thinkorswim common stock have been reserved for issuance under the 2001 plan, subject to adjustment as set forth therein. The maximum number of shares underlying awards to an individual in any calendar year may not exceed 2,000,000, subject to adjustment as set forth in the plan. If any thinkorswim option or thinkorswim restricted stock unit granted under the 2001 plan expires or terminates for any reason without having been exercised or settled in full, then the unpurchased or forfeited shares subject to that option or restricted stock unit will once again be available for additional grants of thinkorswim options or thinkorswim restricted stock units. As of April 16, 2009, options to acquire 8,961,181 shares of thinkorswim common stock had been granted under the 2001 plan at exercises prices ranging from $0.18 to $23.535 per share, or a weighted average per share exercise price of $6.94 per share. As of April 16, 2009, options to acquire 5,155,645 shares of thinkorswim common stock were outstanding at exercise prices ranging from $ 0.20 to $23.535 per share, or a weighted-average exercise price of $10.54 per share.

Proportionate adjustments may be made to the number, class and/or kind of shares for which thinkorswim options or thinkorswim restricted stock units are authorized to be granted under the 2001 plan, the number, class or kind of shares then subject to thinkorswim options or thinkorswim restricted stock units previously granted under the 2001 plan, the price per share payable upon exercise of each thinkorswim option outstanding under the 2001 plan and/or any other affected term of an option or restricted stock unit, in the discretion of thinkorswim's board of directors, in the event of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock dividend, stock split, combination or exchange of shares, rights offering, or other similar transaction or event. To the extent deemed equitable and appropriate by thinkorswim's board of directors, and subject to any required stockholder action, any thinkorswim option or thinkorswim restricted stock unit granted under the 2001 plan will pertain to the securities and other property to which a holder of the number of shares of thinkorswim stock covered by the option or restricted stock unit would have been entitled to receive in connection with such event.

Stock Option Terms

thinkorswim options granted under the 2001 plan may not be exercised more than ten years after the date of grant and the compensation committee may set a shorter option period. thinkorswim options may be granted under the 2001 plan only until December 3, 2011.

If an optionee ceases continuous service for thinkorswim for cause, all thinkorswim options held by the optionee shall lapse immediately following the last day that the optionee is employed by thinkorswim or the effective date of the termination of his services to thinkorswim. If an optionee ceases continuous service for thinkorswim for any reason other than cause, death, disability, or retirement on or after the age of sixty-five of the optionee, all thinkorswim options held by the optionee will lapse at the earlier of the end of the option period or ten days following the last day that the optionee is employed by thinkorswim or the effective date of the termination of his services to thinkorswim; provided, however, the thinkorswim options may be exercised only as to those shares that have vested as of the termination date. In the case of death of the optionee, the beneficiaries designated by the optionee shall have one year from the optionee's death or to the end of the option period, whichever is earlier, to exercise the thinkorswim option; provided, however, the thinkorswim option may be exercised only as to those shares that have vested at the time the optionee died. If the optionee retires on or after attaining age sixty-five, the thinkorswim option shall lapse at the earlier of the end of the option period or three months after the date of retirement; provided, however, the thinkorswim option may be exercised only as to those shares that have vested on the retirement date. In the event of termination of continuous service due to total and permanent disability (within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code), the thinkorswim option shall lapse at the earlier of the end of the option period or twelve months after the date of such termination; provided, however, the thinkorswim option may be exercised only as to those shares that have vested at the time the optionee became disabled.

The exercise price of incentive stock options may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of thinkorswim common stock as of the date of grant (110% of the fair market value if the grant is to an employee who owns more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of capital stock of thinkorswim). The Code currently limits to $100,000 the aggregate value of thinkorswim common stock for which incentive stock options may first become exercisable in any calendar year under the 2001 plan or any other option plan adopted by thinkorswim. Nonstatutory stock options may be granted under the 2001 plan at an exercise price of not less than the fair market value of thinkorswim common stock on the date of grant. The maximum number of shares with respect to which thinkorswim options (incentive or nonstatutory) may be granted each calendar year to an optionee is 2,000,000.

Unless otherwise provided by the compensation committee, a thinkorswim option granted under the 2001 plan vests as to one-quarter of the total number of shares covered by the option during each twelve-month period commencing twelve months after the date of grant of the thinkorswim option. thinkorswim's board of directors, may in its discretion and subject to applicable law, provide for the exercise of thinkorswim options either as to an increased percentage of shares per year or as to all remaining shares.

Restricted Stock Unit Terms

Awards of restricted stock units represent unfunded rights to receive one share of thinkorswim common stock when the award vests in accordance with terms and conditions established by the compensation committee. The compensation committee determines the number of thinkorswim restricted stock units to be granted to any employee or non-employee director. In determining whether an award of thinkorswim restricted stock units should be made, and/or the vesting schedule for any such award, the compensation committee may impose whatever conditions to vesting it determines to be appropriate. The number of thinkorswim restricted stock units paid out to the employee or non-employee director will depend on the extent to which the vesting criteria are met. Upon satisfying the applicable vesting criteria, the employee or non-employee director shall be entitled to the payout specified in the restricted stock unit agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time after the grant of thinkorswim restricted stock units, the compensation committee may reduce or waive any vesting criteria that must be met to receive a payout.

Transferability

A thinkorswim option or award of thinkorswim restricted stock units granted under the 2001 plan is not transferable otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution or pursuant to a qualified domestic relations order as defined by the Code or Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, or the rules thereunder, and may be exercised (if applicable) during the lifetime of a participant only by him. The compensation committee may grant thinkorswim options and awards of thinkorswim restricted stock units that are transferable, without payment of consideration, to immediate family members of a participant or to trusts or partnerships for such family members. The compensation committee may also amend outstanding thinkorswim options or awards of thinkorswim restricted stock units to provide for such transferability.

Amendment of the 2001 Plan

The compensation committee may amend the 2001 plan or condition or modify thinkorswim options or restricted stock units awarded under the 2001 plan in response to changes in securities or other laws or rules, regulations or regulatory interpretations applicable to the 2001 plan or to comply with stock exchange rules or requirements without approval of the thinkorswim stockholders. The compensation committee may, from time to time, terminate or modify the 2001 plan in any respect; provided, however, that, any amendment, whether with or without the approval of the thinkorswim stockholders, that alters the terms or provisions of a thinkorswim option or award of restricted stock units granted before the amendment (unless the alteration is expressly permitted under the 2001 plan) will be effective only with the consent of the participant to whom the thinkorswim option or award of restricted stock units was granted.

Awards to be Granted

As of March 31, 2009, approximately 736 employees and independent contractors were eligible to be considered for the grant of thinkorswim options or, subject to stockholder approval, thinkorswim restricted stock units under the 2001 plan. The grant of thinkorswim options or thinkorswim restricted stock units to key employees and directors under the 2001 plan is entirely in the discretion of the compensation committee. No thinkorswim option grants are under consideration at the present time. However, as described above, thinkorswim restricted stock unit awards will be granted in connection with the exchange program, assuming stockholder approval of proposals 3 and 4.

thinkorswim executive officers and employee directors have an interest in this proposal because they are eligible to receive, in exchange for their underwater thinkorswim options under all of thinkorswim's option plans, awards of restricted stock units under the 2001 plan.

The following table sets forth (i) the total number of shares of thinkorswim common stock subject to options outstanding, under all of thinkorswim's option plans, to the listed persons and groups; (ii) the weighted average per share exercise price of such thinkorswim options; (iii) the total number of shares of thinkorswim common stock subject to underwater options outstanding under all of thinkorswim's option plans (based on the assumptions described in thinkorswim Proposal 3 Exchange Program thinkorswim Options Eligible for the Exchange Program.); and (iv) the weighted average per share exercise price of such thinkorswim underwater options. The last reported trade price for shares of thinkorswim common stock on April 16, 2009, the day immediately prior to the commencement date of the exchange program, was $9.84.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following paragraphs are a summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences associated with thinkorswim options and thinkorswim restricted stock units granted under the 2001 plan. The summary is based on existing United States laws and regulations, and there can be no assurance that those laws and regulations will not change in the future. The summary does not purport to be complete and does not discuss the tax consequences upon a plan participant's death, or the provisions of the income tax laws of any municipality, state or foreign country in which the participant may reside. As a result, tax consequences for any particular plan participant may vary based on individual circumstances.

Nonstatutory Stock Options. No taxable income is recognized when a nonstatutory stock option is granted to a plan participant. Upon exercise, the plan participant will recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the shares of thinkorswim common stock on the exercise date over the exercise price. Any additional gain or loss recognized upon later disposition of the shares of thinkorswim common stock is capital gain or loss.

Incentive Stock Options. No taxable income is recognized when an incentive stock option is granted or exercised (except for purposes of the alternative minimum tax, in which case taxation is the same as for nonstatutory stock options). If the plan participant exercises the thinkorswim option and then later sells or otherwise disposes of the shares of thinkorswim common stock more than two years after the grant date and more than one year after the exercise date, the difference between the sale price and the exercise price will be taxed as capital gain or loss. If the plan participant exercises the thinkorswim option and then later sells or otherwise disposes of the shares of thinkorswim common stock before the end of the two- or one-year holding periods described above, he or she generally will have ordinary income at the time of the sale equal to the fair market value of the shares of thinkorswim common stock on the exercise date (or the sale price, if less) minus the exercise price of the thinkorswim option. Any additional gain or loss will be capital gain or loss.

thinkorswim Restricted Stock Units. A plan participant generally will not have taxable income upon grant of thinkorswim restricted stock units. Instead, the plan participant will recognize ordinary income at the time of vesting equal to the fair market value of the shares of thinkorswim common stock on that date or the cash received minus any amount paid.

Section 409A. Section 409A of the Code provides certain new requirements for non-qualified deferred compensation arrangements with respect to an individual's deferral and distribution elections and permissible distribution events. thinkorswim options and thinkorswim restricted stock units granted under the 2001 plan with a deferral feature will be subject to the requirements of Section 409A of the Code. If a thinkorswim option or thinkorswim restricted stock unit is subject to and fails to satisfy the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, the recipient of that option or restricted stock unit, as the case may be, may recognize ordinary income on the amounts deferred under the option or restricted stock unit, to the extent vested, which may be prior to when the compensation is actually or constructively received. Also, if a thinkorswim option or thinkorswim restricted stock unit that is subject to Section 409A fails to comply with Section 409A's provisions, Section 409A imposes an additional 20% federal income tax on compensation recognized as ordinary income, as well as interest on such deferred compensation.

Tax Effect for thinkorswim. thinkorswim generally will be entitled to a tax deduction in connection with an award of a thinkorswim option or thinkorswim restricted stock unit under the 2001 plan in an amount equal to the ordinary income realized by a participant and at the time the participant recognizes such income (for example, the exercise of a nonqualified stock option). Special rules limit the deductibility of compensation paid to thinkorswim's chief executive officer and other covered employees as determined under Section 162(m) of the Code and applicable guidance.

(a) Merger Sub One Capital Stock. Each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Merger Sub One issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the Interim Surviving Corporation, whereupon each certificate evidencing ownership of such shares of common stock of Merger Sub One shall thereafter evidence ownership of shares of common stock of the Interim Surviving Corporation.

(b) Company Capital Stock.

(i) Each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than any Cancelled Company Shares and any Dissenting Company Shares), including any Company Restricted Stock that shall have ceased, as a result of or immediately prior to the Effective Time, to be unvested or subject to a repurchase option, risk of forfeiture or other condition pursuant to the terms of such Company Stock Award or other agreement governing such Company Restricted Stock (which shall include any vesting as a result of any resignation delivered pursuant to Section 6.13 hereof) shall be canceled and extinguished and automatically converted into the right to receive a combination of (A) $3.34 in cash, without interest (such per share cash amount being referred to herein as the Cash Consideration) plus (B) 0.3980 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of Parent Common Stock (such per share amount being referred to herein as the Stock Consideration), upon the surrender of the certificate representing such share of Company Common Stock (or the receipt of an agent's message in the case of Book-Entry Shares) in the manner set forth in Section 2.9 (or in the case of a lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, upon delivery of an affidavit (and bond, if required) in the manner set forth in Section 2.11). For all purposes of and under this Agreement, the term Merger Consideration shall mean the Cash Consideration plus the Stock Consideration, together with any cash payable under Section 2.7(b)(iii) in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock otherwise issuable pursuant hereto.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, (A) the Stock Consideration shall be adjusted appropriately to reflect fully the effect of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into shares of Parent Common Stock), reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification or other like change with respect to Parent Common Stock having a record date on or after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time, and (B) the Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration shall be adjusted appropriately to reflect fully the effect of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into shares of Company Common Stock), reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification or other like change with respect to Company Common Stock having a record date on or after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time (it being understood and agreed that the inclusion of this clause (B) shall not be deemed to amend or modify in any respect the restrictions set forth in Article V). Furthermore, notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the Cash Consideration shall be increased by an amount equal to the product of (x) the Stock Consideration times (y) the per share amount of any cash dividend declared by Parent in respect of Parent Common Stock having a record date on or after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time.

(iii) No fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock will be issued by virtue of the First Step Merger or pursuant to this Agreement, and in lieu thereof each holder of record of shares of Company Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock (after aggregating all fractional shares of Parent Common Stock that otherwise would be received by such holder of record) shall be entitled to receive from Parent, upon surrender of such holder's Certificate(s) in the manner set forth in Section 2.9, an amount of cash (rounded to the nearest whole cent), without interest, equal to the product of such fraction multiplied by the volume-weighted average

(iv) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Effective Time, by virtue of the First Step Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub One, the Company, or the holders of any shares of Company Common Stock, each share of Company Common Stock owned by Parent, any Subsidiary of Parent or the Company (other than shares in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like for the benefit of customers, or shares held in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted) (collectively, Cancelled Company Shares), in each case as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be cancelled and extinguished without any conversion thereof or consideration paid therefor.

(v) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, all shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by a stockholder who shall have neither voted in favor of the First Step Merger nor consented thereto in writing and who shall have properly and validly exercised such stockholder's statutory rights of appraisal in respect of such shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL (Dissenting Company Shares) shall not be converted into, or represent the right to receive, the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Section 2.7. Any such stockholder shall be entitled to receive payment of the appraised value of such Dissenting Company Shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, all Dissenting Company Shares held by a stockholder who shall have failed to perfect or who shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such stockholder's statutory right to appraisal of such Dissenting Company Shares under such Section 262 of the DGCL shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted into, and to have become exchangeable for, the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without any interest thereon, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates that formerly evidenced such shares of Company Common Stock in the manner set forth in Section 2.9. The Company shall give Parent (x) prompt notice of any demands for appraisal received by the Company, withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments served pursuant to Delaware Law and received by the Company in respect of Dissenting Company Shares and (y) the opportunity to direct and control all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal under Delaware Law in respect of Dissenting Company Shares. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, voluntarily make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisal or settle or offer to settle any such demands for payment in respect of Dissenting Company Shares.

The Adjusted Restricted Stock shall otherwise remain subject to the terms governing the applicable Company Stock Award evidencing the award of such Adjusted Restricted Stock.

(b) To the extent permitted by applicable Law and Governmental Authorities, the Company shall make an offer to all holders of Underwater Options outstanding under the Company Option Plans immediately prior to the Effective Time, pursuant to which the holder affirmatively would agree in writing to the cancellation of all (but not less than all) of his or her Underwater Options in exchange for the grant by the Company to such holder of an award of restricted stock units (the Option Exchange Program). The Company and the Parent

(d) The Company shall perform its obligations under this Section 2.8 in compliance with the applicable tender offer rules of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. The terms and conditions of such a tender offer shall be subject to the advance review and approval of Parent, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(e) At the Effective Time, each Company Option (including any Underwater Option that is not cancelled pursuant to the Option Exchange Program) that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, whether or not then vested or exercisable (each, an Assumed Option), shall be assumed by Parent. In accordance with its terms and subject to the requirements of Section 422 of the Code, each Assumed Option shall (i) be converted into an option to acquire that number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Option, and (y) the Option Exchange Ratio, rounded down to the nearest whole share of Parent Common Stock, and (ii) have an exercise price per share equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the per share exercise price of Company Common Stock subject to such Assumed Option, by (y) the Option Exchange Ratio (which price per share shall be rounded up to the nearest whole cent). Each Assumed Option shall otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including as to vesting and exercisability) as were applicable under the respective Company Option immediately prior to the Effective Time. It is the intention of the parties that each Assumed Option that qualified as an incentive stock option (as defined in Section 422 of the Code) shall continue to so qualify, to the maximum extent permissible, following the Effective Time.

(f) At the Effective Time, each Company Restricted Stock Unit (which specifically shall include each Restricted Stock Unit granted pursuant to the Option Exchange Program) that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be assumed by Parent (each, an Assumed Restricted Stock Unit). In accordance with its terms, each Assumed Restricted Stock Unit shall be converted into a restricted stock unit to acquire that number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Restricted Stock Unit, and (y) the Option Exchange Ratio, rounded down to the nearest whole share of Parent Common Stock. Each Assumed Restricted Stock Unit shall otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including as to vesting) as were applicable under the respective Company Restricted Stock Unit immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(g) The Company shall take all actions necessary to implement a program for Persons holding Company Options that are or will be vested at any time prior to the Effective Time to exercise such Company Options contingent upon the Closing; provided, however, that in no event shall the Company be obligated to recommend, request or require that any such Company Options be exercised prior to the Effective Time.

If any party hereto or Affiliate thereof receives a request for additional information or documentary material from any such Governmental Authority with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, then such party shall use its reasonable best efforts to make, or cause to be made, as soon as reasonably practicable and after consultation with the other party, an appropriate response in compliance with such request.

6.4 Anti-Takeover Laws. In the event that any state anti-takeover or other similar statute or regulation is or becomes applicable to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Company, at the direction of the Company Board, shall use its reasonable best efforts to ensure that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and otherwise to minimize the effect of such statute or regulation on this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.5 Registration Statement; Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

(a) As promptly as practicable after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Parent and the Company shall prepare, and Parent shall file with the SEC, a Registration Statement on Form S-4 in connection with the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in the Merger (as may be amended or supplemented from time to time, the Registration Statement). The Registration Statement shall include (i) a prospectus for the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in the Merger, and (ii) a proxy statement of the Company for use in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the Merger Proposal to be considered at the Company Stockholder Meeting (as may be amended or supplemented from time to time, the Proxy Statement/Prospectus). Each of Parent and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective by the SEC under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing with the SEC. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each of the Company and Parent shall, and shall cause its respective representatives to, fully cooperate with the other party hereto and its respective representatives in the preparation of the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and shall furnish the other party hereto with all information concerning it and its Affiliates as the other party hereto may deem reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the preparation of the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and any amendment or supplement thereto, and each of Parent and the Company shall provide the other party hereto with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment thereon. As promptly as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, Parent and the Company shall cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be disseminated to the stockholders of the Company.

(b) Unless the Company Board shall have effected a Company Board Recommendation Change in compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall include the Company Board Recommendation.

(c) Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement or as may be required by applicable Law or Order, neither Parent nor the Company shall effect any amendment or supplement (including by incorporation by reference) to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Registration Statement without the prior consent of the other party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned); provided, however, that the Company, in connection with a Company Board Recommendation Change, may amend or supplement the proxy statement for the Company pursuant to a Qualifying Amendment to effect such change, and in such event, the right of approval set forth in this Section 6.5(c) shall apply only with respect to such information relating to the other party or its business, financial condition or results of operations, and shall be subject to the Company's right to have the deliberations and conclusions of the Company Board accurately described. A Qualifying Amendment means an amendment or supplement to the proxy statement for the Company if and solely to the extent that it contains (i) a Company Board Recommendation Change, (ii) a statement of the reasons of the Company Board for making such Company Board Recommendation Change, and (iii) additional information reasonably related to the foregoing.

(d) The Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall comply in all material respects as to form and substance with the requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the information supplied or to be supplied by any party hereto for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Registration Statement shall not, at the time the Registration Statement is filed with the SEC or declared effective by the SEC or at the Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The information supplied or to be supplied by any party hereto for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall not, at the time the Registration Statement is declared effective, on the date the Proxy Statement/Prospectus (or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto) is first mailed to stockholders, or at the time of the Company Stockholder Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The information supplied or to be supplied by or on behalf of either party hereto for inclusion in any filing pursuant to Rule 165 and Rule 425 under the Securities Act or Rule 14a-12 under the Exchange Act (each, a Regulation M-A Filing) shall not, at the time any such Regulation M-A Filing is filed with the SEC, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, prior to the Effective Time, Parent and the Company shall notify each other as promptly as practicable upon becoming aware of any event or circumstance which should be described in an amendment of, or supplement to, the Registration Statement, Proxy Statement/Prospectus or any Regulation M-A Filing so that any such document would not include any misstatement of material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, and as promptly as practicable thereafter, an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by applicable Law or the SEC, disseminated to the stockholders of Parent and/or the Company. Parent and the Company shall each notify the other as promptly as practicable after the receipt by it of any written or oral comments of the SEC or its staff on, or of any written or oral request by the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to, the Registration Statement, the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or any Regulation M-A Filing, and shall promptly supply the other with copies of all correspondence between it or any of its representatives and the SEC or its staff with respect to any of the foregoing filings. Prior to filing the Registration Statement or mailing the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to stockholders (or filing or mailing any amendment thereof or supplement thereto), each of Parent and the Company, as the case may be, (i) shall provide the other party with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such document or response, (ii) shall include in such document or response all comments reasonably and timely proposed by such other party and (iii) shall not file or mail such document or respond to the SEC prior to receiving such other party's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(e) Parent and the Company shall make any necessary filings with respect to the Merger under the Securities Act, the Advisers Act and the Exchange Act. In addition, Parent shall use reasonable best efforts to take all actions required under any applicable federal or state securities or Blue Sky Laws in connection with the issuance of shares of Parent Common Stock in the Merger.

6.6 Company Stockholder Meeting.

(a) The Company shall establish a record date for, call, give notice of, convene, hold, and take a vote of stockholders on (i) the adoption of this Agreement in accordance with the DGCL (the Merger Proposal) and (ii) the approval of the Option Exchange Proposal, at a meeting of the Company stockholders (the Company Stockholder Meeting) as promptly as practicable following the date hereof (which, if reasonably practicable, shall be within forty five (45) days following the date on which the Proxy Statement/Prospectus is first disseminated to Company stockholders).

(b) The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to solicit proxies from the Company stockholders in connection with the Merger Proposal and the Option Exchange Proposal, and unless the Company Board has effected a Company Board Recommendation Change pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of Section 6.7, the Company Board shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the Requisite Merger Approval and Requisite Option Exchange Approval at the Company Stockholder Meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof, including by soliciting proxies from Company stockholders in favor of the Merger Proposal and the Option Exchange Proposal. At the Company Stockholder Meeting, the Company shall submit to a vote of its stockholders the Merger Proposal and the Option Exchange Proposal. Except as required by applicable Law, the Company shall not propose for consideration or submit for a vote any matters at the Company Stockholder Meeting other than the Merger Proposal and the Option Exchange Proposal (or an adjournment of the Company Stockholder Meeting, if permitted hereunder) without the prior written consent of Parent. Except as required by applicable Law, the Company shall not establish a record date for, call, give notice of, convene or hold any meeting of the Company stockholders unless and until the Company Stockholder Meeting has been held, a vote of the Company stockholders has been taken on the Merger Proposal and the Option Exchange Proposal and the Company Stockholder Meeting has been adjourned. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the Company's obligations under this Section 6.6 shall not be terminated, superceded, limited, modified or otherwise affected by the commencement, disclosure, announcement or submission to the Company of any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Transaction, or by any Company Board Recommendation Change (whether or not in compliance with the terms hereof). For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not be required (i) to hold the Company Stockholder Meeting if this Agreement is validly terminated in accordance with Section 8.1 or (ii) to make a formal recommendation to its stockholders on the Option Exchange Proposal.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company may adjourn or postpone the Company Stockholder Meeting (i) to the extent necessary to ensure that any required supplement or amendment to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus is filed and/or provided to the Company's stockholders, (ii) if as of the time for which the Company Stockholder Meeting is originally scheduled (as set forth in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus) there are insufficient shares of Company Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the Company Stockholder Meeting, (iii) on a single occasion, for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies in favor of the approval of the Merger Proposal, or (iv) with the prior written consent of Parent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

6.7 Company Board Recommendation.

(a) Subject to the terms of this Section 6.7, the Company Board shall recommend that the Company stockholders adopt this Agreement in accordance with the applicable provisions of Delaware Law (the Company Board Recommendation) at the Company Stockholder Meeting. Neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall (x) withhold, withdraw, amend or modify, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, amend or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent and/or approval of the Merger Proposal, the Company Board Recommendation or (y) approve, endorse or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal or Acquisition Agreement (any of the actions referred to in the preceding clauses (x) and (y) being a Company Board Recommendation Change).

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing terms of this Section 6.7, at any time prior to receipt of the Requisite Merger Approval, the Company Board may effect a Company Board Recommendation Change and, in the case of Section 6.7(b)(ii), the Company may terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(f), if and only if either:

(i) a material fact, event, change, development or set of circumstances (other than an Acquisition Proposal occurring or arising after the date of this Agreement, it being understood and hereby agreed that the Company Board may only effect a Company Board Recommendation Change in response to or in connection with an Acquisition Proposal pursuant to and in accordance with Section 6.7(b)(ii) below) that was not known by the Company Board as of or at any time prior to the date of this Agreement (and not relating in any way to any Acquisition Proposal) (such material fact, event, change, development or set of circumstances, an Intervening Event) shall have occurred and be continuing and prior to effecting such Company Board Recommendation Change:

(A) the Company Board shall have reasonably determined in good faith (after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel) that, in light of such Intervening Event, the failure of the Company Board to effect such Company Board Recommendation Change would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of its fiduciary duties under Delaware Law;

(B) the Company Board shall have given Parent at least five (5) Business Days prior written notice that the Company Board intends to take such action and the opportunity to meet with the Company Board and the Company's financial advisors and outside legal counsel at such times as Parent may reasonably request for the purpose of enabling Parent and the Company to discuss in good faith (x) the Company Board's basis and rationale for proposing to effect such Company Board Recommendation Change, and/or (y) possible modifications of the terms and conditions of this Agreement in such a manner that would obviate the need for the Company Board to effect such Company Board Recommendation Change in response to the Intervening Event; and

(C) after the foregoing five (5) Business Day period and, if requested by Parent, meetings with Parent and its financial advisors and legal counsel during such five (5) Business Day period, the Company Board reasonably determines in good faith (after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel), that, in light of such Intervening Event and any modifications to the terms and conditions of this Agreement that Parent may propose, the failure to effect such a

Company Board Recommendation Change would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of its fiduciary duties under Delaware Law; or

(ii) the Company Board shall have received a bona fide, unsolicited Acquisition Proposal in writing after the date hereof, other than as a result of a breach or violation of the terms of Section 6.1, which has not been withdrawn, and prior to (and in connection with) effecting such Company Board Recommendation Change or terminating this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(f), as applicable:

(A) none of the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any directors, officers or other employees, controlled Affiliates, or any investment bankers, attorneys or other advisors, representatives or agents of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, shall have breached or violated in any material respect the terms of Section 6.1 in connection with such Acquisition Proposal or in connection with any other Acquisition Proposal made or submitted by any Person (or any Affiliate or agent thereof) making such Acquisition Proposal;

(B) the Company Board shall have reasonably determined in good faith (after consultation with Paragon or another financial advisor of nationally recognized standing and the Company's outside legal counsel) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal and shall have further reasonably determined in good faith (after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel) that, in light of such Superior Proposal, the failure to effect a Company Board Recommendation Change or to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(f) in response to such Superior Proposal, as applicable, would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of its fiduciary duties under Delaware Law;

(C) the Company Board shall have given Parent at least five (5) Business Days prior written notice (1) of the identity of the Person(s) making such Superior Proposal and all of the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal (and if such Superior Proposal is in written form, a copy of such Superior Proposal and all related agreements, commitment letters and other material documents provided or otherwise furnished by the Person(s) making such Superior Proposal in connection therewith), and (2) that the Company Board intends to effect a Company Board Recommendation Change or terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(f) in response to such Superior Proposal and the opportunity to meet with the Company Board and the Company's financial advisors and outside legal counsel at such times as Parent may reasonably request for the purpose of enabling Parent and the Company to discuss in good faith such Superior Proposal, this Agreement and the terms and conditions hereof, and any modifications of the terms and conditions of this Agreement that Parent may propose in response thereto; and

(D) after the foregoing five (5) Business Day period and, if requested by Parent, meetings with Parent and its financial advisors and legal counsel during such five (5) Business Day period, the Company Board shall have reasonably determined in good faith (after consultation with Paragon or another financial advisor of nationally recognized standing and the Company's outside legal counsel) that such Acquisition Proposal continues to constitute a Superior Proposal, and shall have further reasonably determined in good faith (after consultation with the Company's outside legal counsel) that, in light of such Superior Proposal and after good faith consideration of all proposals (whether or not binding) by Parent, the failure to effect a Company Board Recommendation Change or to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1(f), as applicable, would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of its fiduciary duties under Delaware Law.

(c) Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company Board from taking and disclosing to the Company stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act or complying with the provisions of Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that any statement or other disclosure made by the Company Board pursuant to Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act or Rule 14d-9 under the Exchange Act shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the provisions of Article VIII; and provided further, that any such statement or disclosure (other than a stop, look and listen communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act, and within the time period contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f)(3)) shall be deemed to be a Company Board Recommendation Change if the Company Board does not expressly publicly reaffirm the Company Board Recommendation in connection with such statement or disclosure.

(d) Nothing set forth in this Section 6.7 shall (i) limit the obligation of the Company to establish a record date for, call, give notice of, convene and hold the Company Stockholder Meeting, (ii) relieve the Company of its obligation to solicit proxies for the Company Stockholder Meeting and submit to a vote of its stockholders the Merger Proposal at the Company Stockholder Meeting, or (iii) except as required by applicable Law, permit the Company to submit for a vote of its stockholders at or prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting any matter other than the Merger Proposal and the Option Exchange Proposal.

6.8 Access; Notice and Consultation.

(a) Subject to any restrictions imposed under applicable Laws, at all times during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, the Company shall afford Parent and its accountants, legal counsel and other representatives reasonable access during normal business hours, upon reasonable notice, to any assets, properties, contracts, books, records and personnel of the Company and its Subsidiaries as Parent may reasonably request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company and its Subsidiaries shall not be required to provide access to or disclose information where such access or disclosure would reasonably be likely to jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; provided, however, that in such circumstances the parties shall use reasonable best efforts to make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements that would not so jeopardize such privilege. Subject to any restrictions imposed under applicable Laws, at all times during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, Parent shall afford the Company and its and its accountants, legal counsel and other representatives reasonable access to Parent's senior management to discuss Parent's financial performance and other material events and circumstances involving Parent as the Company may reasonably request.

(b) At all times during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Company shall promptly notify the other upon obtaining Knowledge that any representation or warranty made by such party in this Agreement has become untrue or inaccurate in any material respect or that such party has breached or failed to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by such party under this Agreement.

(c) At all times during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, (i) the Company shall promptly notify Parent upon obtaining Knowledge of any written notice or other written communication (including e-mail) received by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries from any third party, subsequent to the date of this Agreement and prior to the Effective Time, alleging any material breach of or material default under any Material Contract to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, and (ii) each of the Company and Parent shall promptly notify the other upon obtaining Knowledge of any written notice or other written communication (including e-mail) received by it or any of its Subsidiaries from any third party, subsequent to the date of this Agreement and prior to the Effective Time, alleging that any material consent is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(d) At all times during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, (i) each of Parent and the Company shall promptly advise the other orally and in writing of any litigation commenced after the date hereof against it or any of its directors or executive officers by any of its stockholders (on their own behalf or on behalf of Parent or the Company, as the case may be) relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and shall keep the other party reasonably informed regarding any such litigation, and (ii) the Company shall keep Parent reasonably informed as to the matters set forth in Section 6.8(d) of the Company Disclosure Schedule and (iii) the Company shall promptly advise Parent of, and shall keep Parent reasonably informed regarding, any other litigation commenced or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened after the date hereof against the Company or any of its directors or executive officers where the amount claimed is or would reasonably be expected to be in excess of $500,000 (the matters referenced in the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) being referred to herein as the Legal Proceeding Matters). The Company shall give Parent the opportunity to consult with the Company regarding the defense or settlement of any such Legal Proceeding Matter involving the Company and shall consider in good faith Parent's views with respect to such Legal Proceeding Matter involving the Company, and the Company shall not settle any such Legal Proceeding Matter without the prior written consent of Parent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(e) At all times during the period commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make available to Parent a copy of each annual and quarterly report on 10-K or 10-Q (as applicable), and each registration statement, proposed to be filed by the Company with the SEC during such period a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of such reports or registration statements (and in any event, if reasonably practicable, at least two (2) Business Days prior to the filing thereof with the SEC).

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, no information obtained pursuant to the access granted or notification provided pursuant to this Section 6.8 shall be deemed to (i) amend or otherwise modify in any respect any representation or warranty of the party hereto providing such access or notice, (ii) impair or otherwise prejudice in any manner rights of the party receiving such access or notice to rely upon the conditions to the obligations of such party to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or (iii) impair or otherwise limit the remedies available to the party receiving such access or notice. The terms and conditions of the Confidentiality Agreement shall apply to any information acquired or provided pursuant to this Section 6.8.

6.9 Confidentiality. Parent, Merger Sub One, Merger Sub Two and the Company hereby acknowledge that Parent and the Company have previously executed a Reciprocal Non-Use and Nondisclosure Agreement, dated September 17, 2007 (as amended, the Confidentiality Agreement), which will continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, as it may be amended from time to time.

6.10 Public Disclosure. Except with regard to a Company Board Recommendation Change permitted and effected pursuant to Section 6.7, each of Parent and the Company shall consult with the other before issuing any press release or making any public announcement or statement with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public announcement or statement without the prior written consent of the other party hereto, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that either Parent or the Company may, without the prior consent of the other party hereto, issue any such press release or make any such public announcement or statement as may be required by Law or the rules and regulations of the Nasdaq if such party first notifies and (if practicable) consults with the other regarding the timing and substance of such public announcement or statement.

6.11 Employee Matters.

(a) Prior to the Effective Date, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to (and from and after the Effective Date, Parent shall cause the Final Surviving Corporation to) honor in accordance with their terms all existing employment, change of control and severance agreements between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and any director, officer or other employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the other hand. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent and the Final Surviving Corporation shall be permitted to amend such agreements to the extent required by applicable Laws.

(b) Effective as of the day immediately preceding the Closing Date, each of the Company and any ERISA Affiliate shall terminate any and all Employee Plans intended to include a Code Section 401(k) arrangement (each, a 401(k) Plan) (unless Parent provides written notice to the Company that such 401(k) Plans shall not be terminated). Unless

Parent provides such written notice to the Company, no later than five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall provide Parent with evidence that such Employee Plan(s) have been terminated (effective as of the day immediately preceding the Closing Date)

pursuant to resolutions of the Company Board or such Affiliate, as the case may be. The form and substance of such resolutions shall be subject to the reasonable review and approval of Parent. The Company also shall take such other actions in furtherance of terminating such Employee Plan(s) as Parent may reasonably require. In the event that termination of a 401(k) Plan would reasonably be anticipated to trigger liquidation charges, surrender charges or other fees then the Company shall take such actions as are necessary to reasonably estimate the amount of such charges and/or fees and provide such estimate in writing to Parent no later than fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the Closing Date. If, in accordance with this Section 6.11(b), Parent requests in writing that the Company not terminate any 401(k) Plan, the Company shall take such actions as Parent may reasonably require in furtherance of the assumption of any such 401(k) Plan by Parent, including, but not limited to, adopting such amendments as Parent may deem necessary or advisable in connection with such assumption with or without cause or notice.

(c) The Company shall consult with Parent (and consider in good faith the advice of Parent) prior to sending any notices or other communication materials to Company employees and the Company shall not send any material written notices or other material written communication materials (including via electronic mail) to Company employees without the prior written consent of Parent (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(d) Parent shall, or shall cause the Final Surviving Corporation, for the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on the second anniversary thereof, to maintain or provide for the individuals employed by the Company and its Subsidiaries at the Effective Time (the Continuing Employees) compensation and benefits (including without limitation severance benefits) under Employee Plans that are (i) in the aggregate no less favorable than the compensation and benefits maintained for and provided to Continuing Employees immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) in the aggregate at least as favorable as the compensation and benefits provided to similarly situated employees of Parent, or (iii) any combination of clauses (i) and (ii) above; provided, however, subject to the foregoing, that nothing herein shall prevent the amendment or termination of any Employee Plan or interfere with the Final Surviving Corporation's right or obligation to make such changes as are necessary to conform with applicable Law. Nothing in this Section 6.11(d) shall limit the right of Parent, the Final Surviving Corporation or any of their subsidiaries to terminate the employment of any Continuing Employee at any time. The provisions of this Section 6.11(d) are not intended to confer upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, and nothing herein shall be deemed to amend any Employee Plan to reflect the terms of this Section 6.11(d).

(e) From and after the Effective Time, and to the extent permitted by applicable Law, Parent shall, or shall cause the Final Surviving Corporation to, recognize the prior service with the Company or its Subsidiaries of each Continuing Employee in connection with all employee benefit plans, programs or policies of Parent or its Affiliates in which Continuing Employees are eligible to participate following the Effective Time for purposes of eligibility and vesting and determination of level of benefits (but not for purposes of benefit accruals under any defined benefit pension plan or to the extent that such recognition would result in duplication of benefits). From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause the Final Surviving Corporation to, (i) cause any pre-existing conditions or limitations and eligibility waiting periods under any group health plans of Parent or its Affiliates to be waived with respect to Continuing Employees and their eligible dependents to the extent such Continuing Employees and their eligible dependents were not subject to such preexisting conditions and limitations and eligibility waiting periods under the comparable Employee Plans as of the time immediately preceding the Closing, and (ii) provide each Continuing Employee with credit for any deductibles paid under any Employee Plan that provides medical, dental or vision benefits in the plan year in effect as of the Closing Date in satisfying any applicable deductible or out of pocket requirements under any medical, dental or vision plans of Parent, the Final Surviving Corporation or its Subsidiaries that such employees are eligible to participate in after the Effective Time to the same extent that such expenses were recognized under the comparable Employee Plan. The provisions of this Section 6.11(e) are not intended to confer upon any person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, and nothing herein shall be deemed to amend any Employee Plan to reflect the terms of this Section 6.11(e).

Table of Contents6.12 Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) The Final Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall (and Parent shall cause the Final Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries to) honor and fulfill in all respects the obligations of the Company and its Subsidiaries under the certificate of incorporation and bylaws (or other similar organizational documents) of the Company and its Subsidiaries as in effect on the date hereof and any and all agreements for indemnification, exculpation of liability and/or advance of expenses in effect as of the date hereof between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and any of their respective current or former directors and officers and any person who becomes a director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time (the Indemnified Parties). In addition, for a period of six (6) years following the Effective Time, the Final Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall (and Parent shall cause the Final Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries to) cause the certificate of formation (and other similar organizational documents) of the Final Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries to contain provisions with respect to indemnification, exculpation from liability and the advancement of expenses that are at least as favorable as the indemnification, exculpation from liability and advancement of expense provisions set forth in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws (or other similar organizational documents) of the Company and its Subsidiaries as of the date hereof, and during such six (6) year period, such provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of individuals who were covered by such provisions, except as required by applicable Law or Order.

(b) Prior to or as of the Effective Time, Parent shall purchase a six-year tail prepaid policy on the Company's current directors and officers liability insurance (D&O Insurance) in respect of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, covering each person covered by the D&O Insurance as of the date hereof, on terms and conditions no less favorable to the beneficiaries thereof, in the aggregate, than the D&O Insurance. Parent and the Final Surviving Corporation shall maintain such tail policy in full force and effect and continue to honor their respective obligations thereunder; provided, however, that in satisfying its obligations under this Section 6.12(b), Parent shall not be obligated to pay in excess of the amount set forth in Section 6.12 of the Company Disclosure Schedule (such aggregate amount, the Maximum Premium), provided that if the cost of such tail insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Premium, Parent and the Final Surviving Corporation shall be obligated to obtain a policy with the greatest coverage available for a cost not exceeding the Maximum Premium.

(c) If any Indemnified Person makes a claim to enforce the obligations set forth in this Section 6.12 that is denied by the Final Surviving Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries (or by Parent after a request that Parent fulfill its obligations hereunder), and a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such Indemnified Person is entitled to the benefit of such obligations hereunder, then the Final Surviving Corporation shall (and Parent shall cause the Final Surviving Corporation to) pay all expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel, that such Indemnified Person incurred to enforce the obligations set forth in this Section 6.12; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 6.12(c) shall prejudice the right of any Indemnified Person to any advancement of expenses provided under the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the Company or its Subsidiaries as in effect on the date hereof or any agreement with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries.

(d) If Parent, the Final Surviving Corporation, any Subsidiaries of the Final Surviving Corporation or any of their respective successors or assigns shall (i) consolidate with or merge into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent, the Final Surviving Corporation and/or any such Subsidiaries, as applicable, shall assume all of the obligations of Parent, the Final Surviving Corporation or its Subsidiaries, as applicable, under this Section 6.12.

(e) The obligations under this Section 6.12 shall not be terminated, amended or otherwise modified in such a manner as to adversely affect any Indemnified Party (or any other person who is a beneficiary under tail policy referred to in Section 6.12(b) (and their heirs and representatives)) without the prior written consent of such affected Indemnified Party or other person who is a beneficiary under the tail policy referred to in Section 6.12(b) (and their heirs and representatives). Each of the Indemnified Parties or other persons

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Parent, Tango Acquisition Corporation One, a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub One), Tango Acquisition Corporation Two, a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub Two), and the Company have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger of even date herewith (the Merger Agreement), which provides for, among other things, and as a single integrated transaction, the merger of Merger Sub One with and into the Company (the First Step Merger) pursuant to which all outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company will be converted into the right to receive the consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement. As soon as practicable following the First Step Merger, Parent will cause the Company to merge with and into Merger Sub Two (the Second Step Merger and, taken together with the First Step Merger, the Merger).

WHEREAS, as a condition and inducement to the willingness of Parent, Merger Sub One and Merger Sub Two to enter into the Merger Agreement, the Stockholder (in the Stockholder's capacity as such) has agreed to enter into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto agree as follows:

(a) Power; Binding Agreement. The Stockholder has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the Proxy, to perform the Stockholder's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Stockholder, and, assuming this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Parent, Merger Sub One and Merger Sub Two, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Stockholder, enforceable against the Stockholder in accordance with its terms, except that such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws affecting or relating to creditors' rights generally and is subject to general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

(b) No Conflicts. None of the execution and delivery by the Stockholder of this Agreement, the performance by the Stockholder of its obligations hereunder or the consummation by the Stockholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will (i) result in a violation or breach of any agreement to which the Stockholder is a party or by which the Stockholder may be bound, including any voting agreement or voting trust, except for violations, breaches or defaults that would not in any material respect impair or adversely effect the ability of Stockholder to perform its obligations under this Agreement, or (ii) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, judgment, order, statute, rule, or regulation applicable to the Stockholder.

(f) Reliance by Parent. The Stockholder understands and acknowledges that Parent is entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon the Stockholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement.

(g) No Legal Actions. Stockholder agrees that Stockholder will not in Stockholder's capacity as a Stockholder of the Company bring, commence, institute, maintain, prosecute or voluntarily aid any action, claim, suit or cause of action, in law or in equity, in any court or before any governmental entity, which (i) challenges the validity of or seeks to enjoin the operation of any provision of this Agreement or (ii) alleges that the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Stockholder, either alone or together with the other Company voting agreements and proxies to be delivered in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, or the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company Board, breaches any fiduciary duty of the Company Board or any member thereof.

10. Certain Restrictions. The Stockholder shall not, directly or indirectly, take any voluntary action that would make any representation or warranty of the Stockholder contained herein untrue or incorrect in any material respect.

11. Disclosure. The Stockholder shall permit Parent to publish and disclose in all documents and schedules filed with the SEC, and any press release or other disclosure document that Parent reasonably determines to be necessary or desirable in connection with the Merger and any transactions related to the Merger, the Stockholder's identity and ownership of Shares and the nature of the Stockholder's commitments, arrangements and understandings under this Agreement.

Except as provided in this Agreement, all rights, ownership and economic benefits relating to the Shares shall remain vested in and belong to Stockholder.

13. Further Assurances. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, upon request of Parent, the Stockholder shall use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary to fulfill such Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement.

14. Stop Transfer Instructions. At all times commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and continuing until the Expiration Date, in furtherance of this Agreement, the Stockholder hereby authorizes the Company or its counsel to notify the Company's transfer agent that there is a stop transfer order with respect to all of the Shares of the Stockholder (and that this Agreement places limits on the voting and transfer of such Shares).

15. Termination. This Agreement and the Proxy, and all rights and obligations of the parties hereunder and thereunder, shall terminate and shall have no further force or effect as of the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing set forth in this Section 15 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall relieve either party hereto from liability, or otherwise limit the liability of either party hereto, for any intentional breach of this Agreement prior to such termination. Section 5 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

16. Miscellaneous.

(a) Validity. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement, which will remain in full force and effect. In the event any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction holds any provision of this Agreement to be null, void or unenforceable, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith and execute and deliver an amendment to this Agreement in order, as nearly as possible, to effectuate, to the extent permitted by law, the original intent of the

January 7, 2009

The Board of Directors
thinkorswim Group Inc.
45 Rockefeller Plaza
Suite 2012
New York, New York 10111

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that thinkorswim Group Inc., a Delaware corporation (thinkorswim), is considering a transaction whereby (i) Tango Acquisition Corporation One, a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE Holding Corporation (TD AMERITRADE), a Delaware corporation, will merge with and into thinkorswim (such merger, the First Step Merger) and (ii) immediately following the First Step Merger, TD AMERITRADE will cause thinkorswim to merge with and into Tango Acquisition Corporation Two, a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of TD AMERITRADE (together with Tango Acquisition Corporation One, the Merger Subs and, such merger, together with the First Step Merger, the Transaction). Pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger, draft as of January 7, 2009 (the Merger Agreement), among TD AMERITRADE, the Merger Subs and thinkorswim, each outstanding share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of thinkorswim (thinkorswim Common Stock) will be converted into the right to receive (i) 0.3980 of a share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of TD AMERITRADE (TD AMERITRADE Common Stock and, such fraction of a share of TD AMERITRADE Common Stock, the Stock Consideration) and (ii) $3.34 in cash (the Cash Consideration and, together with the Stock Consideration, the Consideration). Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, certain stockholders of thinkorswim will enter into voting agreements with TD AMERITRADE (such stockholders of thinkorswim and their respective affiliates, the Excluded Holders). The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of thinkorswim Common Stock (other than the Excluded Holders) of the Consideration to be received by such holders in the Transaction.

UBS Securities LLC (UBS) has been retained by thinkorswim in connection with the Transaction for purposes of rendering this opinion and will receive a fee in connection with this opinion. UBS or an affiliate is a participant in credit facilities of TD AMERITRADE for which it received and continues to receive fees and interest payments. In the ordinary course of business, UBS and its affiliates may hold or trade, for their own accounts and the accounts of their customers, securities of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. The issuance of this opinion was approved by an authorized committee of UBS.

Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to thinkorswim or thinkorswim 's underlying business decision to effect the Transaction. Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of thinkorswim as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to the Transaction. At your direction, we have not been asked to, nor do we, offer any opinion as to the terms, other than the Consideration to the extent expressly specified herein, of the Merger Agreement or the form of the Transaction. In addition, we express no opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be received by any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the Transaction, or any class of such persons, relative to the Consideration. We express no opinion as to what the value of TD AMERITRADE Common Stock will be when issued pursuant to the Transaction or the prices at which TD AMERITRADE Common Stock or thinkorswim Common Stock will trade at any time. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, with your consent, that (i) the final executed form of the Merger Agreement will not differ in any material respect from the draft that we have reviewed, (ii) the parties to the Merger Agreement will comply with all material terms of the Merger Agreement and (iii) the Transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement without any adverse waiver or amendment of any material term or condition thereof. We have also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any material adverse effect on thinkorswim, TD AMERITRADE or the Transaction. In connection with our engagement, we were not requested to, and we did not, participate in the negotiation or structuring of the Transaction. While we have not been authorized to solicit and have not solicited indications of interest in a transaction with thinkorswim from any party, representatives of thinkorswim have advised us that indications of interests in a transaction with thinkorswim were solicited from third parties on behalf of thinkorswim and that discussions with certain of these parties were held prior to the date hereof.

In arriving at our opinion, we have, among other things: (i) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE; (ii) reviewed certain internal financial information and other data relating to the business and financial prospects of thinkorswim that were not publicly available, including financial forecasts and estimates prepared by the management of thinkorswim that you have directed us to utilize for purposes of our analysis; (iii) reviewed certain internal financial information and other data relating to the business and financial prospects of TD AMERITRADE that were not publicly available, including financial forecasts and estimates prepared by the management of TD AMERITRADE that you have directed us to utilize for purposes of our analysis; (iv) conducted discussions with members of the senior managements of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE concerning the businesses and financial prospects of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE; (v) reviewed publicly available financial and stock market data with respect to certain other companies we believe to be generally relevant; (vi) compared the financial terms of the Transaction with the publicly available financial terms of certain other transactions we believe to be generally relevant; (vii) reviewed current and historical market prices of thinkorswim Common Stock and TD AMERITRADE Common Stock; (viii) reviewed the Merger Agreement; and (ix) conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations, and considered such other information, as we deemed necessary or appropriate.

In connection with our review, with your consent, we have assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness in all material respects of the information provided to or reviewed by us for the purpose of this opinion. In addition, with your consent, we have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of thinkorswim or TD AMERITRADE, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. With respect to the financial forecasts and estimates referred to above, we have assumed, at your direction, that they have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE as to the future financial performance of thinkorswim and TD AMERITRADE. We have assumed, with your consent, that the Transaction will qualify for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information available to us as of, the date hereof.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Consideration to be received by holders of thinkorswim Common Stock (other than the Excluded Holders) in the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

This opinion is provided for the benefit of the Board of Directors in connection with, and for the purpose of, its evaluation of the Consideration in the Transaction.

Very truly yours,

Appendix D

SECTION 262 OF THE GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of § 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
