PART II
RULE 12B-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate.)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Lennar Corporation (the Company) is reviewing the classification of an item on its statements of cash flows. If a change in classification is made, cash flows from operating activities will increase and cash flows from investing activities will decrease, with no change in the Company's cash position. Additionally, the change in classification, if made, will have no effect on the Company's balance sheets, statements of earnings or earnings per share amounts.

Because the Company has not completed its review of the classification of this item on its statement of cash flows, the Company is filing this extension for the filing of its Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended August 31, 2005, which was due today. The Company expects to file the Form 10-Q within the five-day extension period provided under Rule 12b-25.

The classification under review concerns whether distributions of earnings from unconsolidated entities, which have previously been classified by the Company as cash flows from investing activities, should instead be classified as cash flows from operating activities.
