Investment Advisory Agreement

This INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT (this Agreement) is made and entered into as of November 30, 2003, by and between PartnerCommunity, Inc. (Client) and Mayim Management LLC (Advisor), for the purpose of setting forth the terms and conditions pursuant to which Advisor will manage Client s assets designated for management hereunder.

1. APPOINTMENT AS INVESTMENT ADVISOR.

Client retains Advisor as investment advisor to render investment advisory services on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and to manage Client s securities investment (the Account). Advisor accepts the appointment as investment advisor and agrees to manage and direct the investments of the Account. Advisor assumes responsibility for the investment management of, and all trading decisions for, the Account and is authorized to render investment advisory services on the terms and conditions set forth herein as of the date first written above. The term of this Agreement shall be for a period of two (2) years from the date of execution of this Agreement and shall automatically renew for consecutive one (1) year periods, unless terminated pursuant to section 17.

The Account will be in the name of the Client and nothing herein shall give Advisor ownership, implied or otherwise, in the Account. Additionally, Advisor does not have any authority to transfer or direct delivery of cash, securities or any other assets from the Account to itself or any third party or to take or have possession of any cash, securities or any other assets of the Account other than as specifically provided in this Agreement including Section 2 hereof. Client may withdraw funds from the account at any time by requesting the Advisor to make such withdrawal. The Client will use its best efforts to give the Advisor sufficient time to make any necessary investment liquidations in the normal course of business so that the necessary funds will be available for withdrawal as requested.

2. AUTHORITY OF ADVISOR.

Advisor has full and exclusive discretionary authority with respect to the investment and reinvestment of the assets of the Account, subject to the Investment Guidelines. Advisor, when it deems appropriate, without prior consultation with or notification of Client, may: (a) purchase, sell, exchange, convert and otherwise trade in securities, including but not limited to money market instruments, mutual funds, stocks, warrants, put and call options to purchase or sell stocks, bonds and other securities and contracts related to the same, on margin or otherwise, or engage in any investment techniques for the acquisition or sale of any of the foregoing (collectively, Securities), for such prices and on such terms as Advisor, in its sole discretion, deems advisable; (b) place orders for the execution of Securities transactions with or through brokers, dealers or issuers which Advisor selects in its sole discretion; (c) negotiate, on Client s behalf, the terms and conditions of all agreements and ancillary documents incidental thereto, necessary to open accounts in the name, or for the benefit, of Client with such brokers, dealers, issuers or custodians as Advisor may select with respect to the Account and prepare such documents for execution by Client; and (d) act on Client's behalf in all matters necessary or incidental to servicing the Account, including all transactions for the Account. Client will furnish Advisor with all additional powers of attorney and other documentation, if any, necessary to appoint Advisor as agent and attorney-in-fact with respect to the Account, but such powers shall not be construed to authorize Advisor to take any action not authorized by this Agreement.

The foregoing authority shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of this Agreement pursuant to the terms of Section 17 below. Revocation shall not affect transactions entered into prior to such revocation.

3. BROKERAGE.

Advisor may allocate the execution of Securities transactions for the Account to any broker, dealer or issuer on markets and at prices and commission rates as Advisor, in its good faith judgment, believes are in the best interest of the Account. Client understands that other brokerage entities may be willing to execute Securities transactions for the Account at prices and commission rates that are lower than or different from those charged by the entity selected.

In effecting Securities transactions at the direction of Advisor, broker-dealers selected by Advisor may effect similar transactions in the same Security simultaneously for the Account and for the accounts of other clients of Advisor if such aggregation is likely to result in an overall economic benefit to the Account. Broker-dealers may bunch these Securities transaction orders. Broker-dealers will allocate the Securities so purchased or sold in such a bunched order among the participating accounts (including the Account) as Advisor determines in good faith to be reasonable. Broker-dealer may charge a lesser per unit commission on such bunched orders than would otherwise be charged for a non-bunched order, with such savings being passed along to Client and Advisor's other clients who are allocated portions of the Securities so purchased. In that event, Client's brokerage commission will be a pro rata portion of the entire commission charged, determined by multiplying such entire commission by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of shares allocated to the Account and the denominator of which is the total number of such shares purchased in the bunched transaction in question.

4. SERVICES TO OTHERS.

Client understands that Advisor performs investment advisory services for various clients. This will create conflicts of interest with the Account over Advisor's time devoted to managing the Account and the allocation of investment opportunities among accounts (including the Account) managed by Advisor. Advisor will allocate investment opportunities over a period of time on a fair and equitable basis. Client confirms that Advisor may give advice and take action with respect to any of its other clients that may differ from advice given or the timing or nature of action taken with respect to Client so long as it is Advisor's policy to allocate investment opportunities to Client over a period of time on a fair and equitable basis relative to other clients. Client acknowledges that Advisor and its principals, employees and affiliates may purchase or sell Securities for their own accounts and that Advisor shall not have any obligation to purchase or sell, or to recommend for purchase or sale, for the Account any Securities that Advisor, its principals, employees or affiliates may purchase or sell for its or their own accounts or for the account of any other

5. PROXIES AND RELATED MATTERS.

In connection with the services to be rendered by Advisor under this Agreement, Advisor hereby is granted the power as Client's proxy and attorney-in-fact to vote, tender, or non-tender, or direct the voting, tendering, or non-tendering of all Securities held in the Account and take actions on behalf of Client with respect to such Securities, including, but not limited to, the execution on behalf of Client of any consent, request, direction, approval, waiver, objection, appointment or other instrument required or permitted to be signed or executed by the holder of such Securities.

6. CLIENT REPORTS.

Advisor will use its reasonable efforts to assist Client to ensure monthly brokerage account statements are received by Client directly from the brokerage firm through an electronic data interface and final brokerage account statements via mail.

7. FEES AND EXPENSES.

Advisor charges, and Client agrees to pay, an annual fee (the Fee) equal to such ~~22~~% of the Net Appreciation (as defined below). The Fee is payable at the end of each calendar year and upon termination of this Agreement. Any such payment due will be forwarded to Advisor within fifteen (15) days of Client's receipt of invoice.

Net Appreciation shall mean the aggregate net investment profits, both realized and unrealized in the Account during such year (after deduction for brokerage fees and other expenses (as defined below) payable, but before deducting Advisor's Fee payable) pro rated for additions to and withdrawals from the Account less any Carryforward Loss (as defined below) from a previous calendar year. If the Account experiences aggregate net investment losses (both realized and unrealized) for any calendar year, such losses (the Carryforward Loss) shall be deducted from Net Appreciation for each succeeding calendar year for the purpose of determining the incentive fee for each such year until the full amount of the Carryforward Loss has been offset by Net Appreciation. For purposes of calculating the Fee for 2005, the initial value of the account is deemed to equal $353,994.

All expenses relating to the investment of the assets of the Account, including without limitation, brokerage commissions, dividends payable with respect to Securities sold short, custodial fees, bank service fees, interest on Account-related loans and debit balances, transfer taxes and other fees and expenses related to the purchase, sale or other disposition of such assets (other expenses), shall be the sole responsibility of Client and will be payable from the Account.

8. ADVISOR S DUTY OF CARE.

Except for malfeasance or breach of duty, or violation of applicable law, neither Advisor nor any of its principals, managers, members, officers, directors, employees or affiliates shall be liable hereunder for any action performed or omitted to be performed or for any errors of judgment in managing the Account. Advisor and its principals, managers, members, officers, directors, employees and affiliates shall not be responsible for any loss incurred by reason of any act or omission of any broker, dealer or custodian; provided, however, that Advisor will make reasonable efforts to require that brokers, dealers and custodians perform their obligation with respect to the Account.
