Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Harris Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Harris), entered into a Commercial Paper Dealer Agreement with Citigroup Global Markets Inc. on June 12, 2007, with Banc of America Securities LLC on June 13, 2007 and with SunTrust Capital Markets, Inc. on June 14, 2007 (collectively, the Dealers) relating to Harris commercial paper program (collectively, the Dealer Agreements). Pursuant to this program, Harris may issue unsecured short-term promissory notes (Notes) up to a maximum aggregate amount outstanding at any time of up to $500,000,000. The program is backstopped by the Revolving Credit Agreement that was entered into by Harris on March 31, 2005. The Dealer Agreements set forth the terms and conditions under which the Dealers will either purchase from Harris or arrange for the sale by Harris of Notes in transactions exempt from registration under federal and state securities laws. The Dealer Agreements contain customary representations, warranties, covenants and indemnification provisions. Under the Dealer Agreements, the maturities of the Notes may vary, but may not exceed 270 days, and the Notes must be in a minimum denomination of $100,000. The Notes may be issued and sold, at the option of Harris, either at a discount to face value or at face value and bear interest. The Commercial Paper Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement (Agency Agreement), dated March 30, 2005, previously entered into by Harris and Citibank, N.A., provides that Citibank, N.A. shall act as Harris agent in connection with the issuance and payment of the Notes. A brief description of the Agency Agreement is set forth under Item 1.01 of Harris Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on April 5, 2005 (Prior Form 8-K) under the heading, Commercial Paper Issuing and Paying Agent Agreement. Such description is incorporated herein by reference and is only a summary, does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the complete text of the Agency Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 99.2 to the Prior Form 8-K and is also incorporated herein by reference.

The Dealers, and their affiliates, have performed or may perform in the future various commercial banking, investment banking and other financial advisory services for Harris and its affiliates for which they have received or may receive customary fees and expenses.

The foregoing description of the Dealer Agreements is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the complete text of the Dealer Agreements, which are filed as Exhibit 10.1, Exhibit 10.2 and Exhibit 10.3 hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On June 15, 2007, Harris completed the acquisition from Netco Government Services, LLC, a Minnesota limited liability company (the Seller), of all the issued and outstanding stock of Multimax Incorporated, a Maryland corporation (Multimax). The acquisition was consummated pursuant to the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of May 31, 2007 (the Agreement), between Harris and the Seller.

The purchase price for Multimax was $400,000,000, subject to possible upward or downward adjustment as set forth in the Agreement. Multimax is a provider of information technology and communications services and solutions supporting the Department of Defense, federal civilian agencies, and state and local governments. Prior to the acquisition, Multimax was owned by the Seller and the Seller is indirectly owned by Cerberus Partners, L.P. and certain other funds and/or accounts affiliated with Cerberus Capital Management. Cerberus Partners, L.P. has guaranteed the performance and payment of the Seller s covenants and obligations under the Agreement. There is no material relationship, other than in respect of the acquisition, between the Seller and Harris or any of Harris affiliates, or any director or officer of Harris, or any associate of any such director or officer.

The foregoing description of the acquisition, the Agreement and the transaction contemplated thereby is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, and should be read in conjunction with, the complete text of the Agreement, which was filed as Exhibit 2.1 to Harris Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on June 1, 2007, and is incorporated in this Item 2.01 by reference.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation Under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

Pursuant to the Agency Agreement and the Dealer Agreements with Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and Banc of America Securities LLC, on June 14, 2007, Harris issued an aggregate principal amount of $350,000,000 of Notes under its commercial paper program (CP Notes). As of June 14, 2007, $300,000,000 of the CP Notes had a seven day maturity and $50,000,000 of the CP Notes had a one day maturity. The CP Notes were issued and sold pursuant to an exemption from registration under federal and state securities laws. The proceeds from the issuance of the CP Notes were used by Harris to fund a portion of the purchase price for the acquisition of Multimax. The CP Notes are not redeemable prior to maturity and are not subject to voluntary prepayment. The outstanding CP Notes constitute a direct financial obligation of Harris. As of June 15, 2007, the CP Notes had a weighted average interest rate of approximately 5.40%. Subject to Harris' capital needs, market conditions and alternative capital market opportunities, Harris expects to maintain indebtedness under the commercial paper program by continually repaying and reissuing Notes until such time as the outstanding Notes are replaced with longer term debt. However, Harris' commercial paper balance may increase or decrease in the short term due to working capital needs and cash balances.
