AGREEMENT REACHED FOR JIF AND CRISCO BRANDS

Today The J. M. Smucker Company reached a significant growth milestone in its more than 100-year history. We announced an all-stock transaction with Procter & Gamble for their JIF peanut butter and CRISCO cooking oil brands.

We are extremely excited about the combination of these three American icon brands (SMUCKER'S, JIF, and CRISCO), each with the number one market share position in their respective categories. It will create an even stronger company, doubling our sales to $1.3 billion and more than doubling our profits. Most importantly, this will provide us with a platform for even greater growth in the future.

The JIF and CRISCO brands are extremely compatible with our business. They have the same distribution channels and consumer appeal. All three brands are sold in the "center of the retail store" and complement our existing broker network giving us greater critical mass to serve our customers.

Included in this transaction are the CRISCO production facility located in Cincinnati, Ohio, and the JIF peanut butter plant located in Lexington, Kentucky. These facilities, along with support staff, will add about 450 new employees to the "family" of Smucker.

As we look to the future with this family of leading brands, we would expect our growth to continue to be generated from three major areas: (1) growing the core business and respective share of market of each of the brands, (2) the development of new products, and (3) the acquisition of additional brands. Since this is an all-stock transaction, we are not taking on any new debt, which positions us well for future acquisitions.

The closing of the transaction requires shareholder and regulatory approval, in addition to a private letter ruling from the IRS; therefore, we don't anticipate the transaction will close until our fiscal year's fourth quarter. As you would expect, this has and will require a great deal of effort by many people to complete. We would like to thank everyone involved for their efforts thus far and for the future efforts that will be required for a successful integration into our business.

As noted in our press release, there will be an investor relations conference call and Webcast later this morning. There will be many communication opportunities for our employees, and we would request that you not dial in to the call.

We are very excited to welcome JIF and CRISCO and the employees making these quality products into our family at Smucker.
