PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the shareholders of Lancaster Colony Corporation (the "Corporation") in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of the Corporation of proxies to be used in voting at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held November 17, 2003, in the Executive Meeting Room of the Hyatt on Capitol Square, 75 East State Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, at 11:00 a.m., Eastern Standard Time (the "Annual Meeting"). The enclosed proxy, if completed and forwarded to the Corporation, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. The proposals referred to therein are described in this Proxy Statement.

The proxy may be revoked by the person giving it any time before it is exercised. Such revocation, to be effective, must be communicated to the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Corporation. The presence of a shareholder at the Annual Meeting will not revoke the proxy unless specific notice thereof is given.

The Corporation will bear the cost of solicitation of proxies, including any charges and expenses of brokerage firms and others for forwarding solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock. In addition to the use of the mails, proxies may be solicited by personal interview, by telephone or through the efforts of officers and regular employees of the Corporation.

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on September 19, 2003 as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof. At that date the Corporation had outstanding and entitled to vote 35,757,347 shares of Common Stock, each share entitling the holder to one vote. The Corporation has no other class of stock outstanding. Under Ohio law, except for the election of directors, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes against any proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the election of directors since, under Ohio law, the nominees for election as directors at the Annual Meeting who receive the greatest number of votes shall be elected. This Proxy Statement is first being mailed to shareholders on or about October 15, 2003.

NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the Corporation currently consists of nine members and is divided into three classes. The members of the three classes are elected to serve for staggered terms of three years. Pursuant to Section 2.04 of the Code of Regulations, the number of directors constituting each class will, as nearly as practicable, be equal. The Board of Directors of the Corporation currently consists of three classes of three members each.

The names and ages of the "Nominees" and the "Continuing Directors," their principal occupations during the past five years and certain other information together with their beneficial ownership of the Corporation's Common Stock as of August 29, 2003, are listed below. As of August 29, 2003, the Corporation had outstanding and entitled to vote 35,767,347 shares of Common Stock.

BOARD COMMITTEES AND MEETINGS

The Board of Directors has established an audit committee (the "Audit Committee") currently consisting of Messrs. Hamilton, Jennings and Sofia and Ms. Anderson. Ms. Anderson serves as Chairperson of the Audit Committee. Each member of the Audit Committee is an independent director as required by the listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market. The Audit Committee is governed by a charter, a copy of which was included as an exhibit to the 2001 Proxy Statement, and is charged with the responsibility of reviewing financial information (both external and internal) about the Corporation and its subsidiaries so as to assure (i) that the overall audit coverage of the Corporation and its subsidiaries is satisfactory and appropriate to protect the shareholders from undue risks and (ii) that an adequate system of internal financial control has been implemented throughout the Corporation and is being effectively followed. The Audit Committee held three meetings during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003 ("fiscal 2003"). In addition to these meetings, the Audit Committee also held teleconferences before each public release of the Corporation's earnings during fiscal 2003.

The Board of Directors has established a compensation committee (the "Compensation Committee") currently consisting of Messrs. Fox, Hamilton, Jennings and O'Neill as its members. Mr. Jennings serves as Chairperson of the Compensation Committee. The powers and duties of the Compensation Committee are to consider and formulate recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to all aspects of compensation to be paid to the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation, to undertake such evaluations and make such reports as are required by the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and to perform and exercise such other duties and powers as shall from time to time be designated by action of the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee held two meetings during fiscal 2003.

The Board of Directors has established a nominating committee (the "Nominating Committee") consisting of Messrs. Fox, O'Neill and Sofia as its members. Mr. Sofia serves as Chairperson of the Nominating Committee. The purpose of the Nominating Committee is to identify and make nominations to the Board of Directors of candidates for election as director of the Corporation. Additionally, the Nominating Committee is to review and recommend to the Board of Directors possible revisions to the Corporation's existing Code of Ethical Business Conduct and establish procedures for determination as to the Corporation's enforcement of such code. The Nominating Committee held two meetings in fiscal 2003. The Nominating Committee will consider nominees recommended by shareholders, but because the Nominating Committee has only been formed recently and pending the adoption by the Securities and Exchange Commission of final disclosure rules regarding the operations of nominating committees, it has not yet established procedures that shareholders must follow to make such a recommendation. Section 2.03 of the Code of Regulations requires that shareholders must give advance notice and furnish certain information to the Corporation in order to nominate a person as a director.

In addition to the committee meetings previously mentioned, the Board of Directors held a total of four meetings during fiscal 2003. Each director attended at least 75% of the aggregate of all meetings of the Board of Directors and the committees on which they served during fiscal 2003.

SECTION 16 (a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

To the Corporation's knowledge, based solely on its review of copies of forms filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, all filing requirements applicable to the officers, directors and beneficial owners of more than 10% of the outstanding Common Stock under Section 16 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, were complied with during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Directors who are not employees of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries receive an annual retainer fee of $22,000 plus $1,500 for each meeting of the Board or committee of the Board attended. The Corporation has a consulting agreement with Mr. Halpern, a current director who is not standing for re-election. The consulting agreement provides that Mr. Halpern agrees to perform advisory and consulting services for an annual fee of $50,000 per year. Mr. Halpern's compensation as a director is also included in this annual fee.

Messrs. Boylan or Rosa (if there has been any material adverse change in the terms of their employment).

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors ("the Committee") consists of four independent non-employee directors. It is the obligation of the Committee under its present Charter to establish the compensation to be paid to the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and to consult with and advise the Chief Executive Officer with respect to the establishment by him of the compensation of other executive officers. The Committee also reviews matters relating to employee benefit plans and stock options and presents its recommendations respecting these matters to the Board of Directors.

The compensation of the Chief Executive Officer for services rendered through June 30, 2004 has been established by the Committee and adopted by the Board of Directors upon the Committee's recommendation. The Committee's recommendation was based upon an evaluation of the scope of his management responsibilities, his execution of them, his accomplishment of significant changes in management structure and the financial results attained under his direction. In determining his compensation, the amounts paid to chief executive officers of companies of like size in like markets were also considered. The determination of such compensation was subjective, with no specific weight being given to any particular factor. His compensation for fiscal 2003 was established by the Committee according to the application of the same evaluation standards.

The Committee was advised by the Chief Executive Officer of the base fixed compensation levels and proposed bonus formulae to be applied in setting the compensation of senior management. It concurred that the levels of compensation established were reasonable and appropriate and provided incentives which, if realized, would produce operating results of value to the Corporation's shareholders.
