The Company received a letter from Gamco Investors, Inc. ("Gamco") filed as an Exhibit to a 13D Amendment inquiring on the process undertaken and valuations

Edgar Filing: TRANS LUX CORP - Form 8-K

considered in the decision to sell the Entertainment Division Assets as discussed in Form 8-K filed by the Company on July 11, 2008.

The Company advised Gamco that as disclosed in the Form 8-K Press Release Exhibit, the Company retained Jesup & Lamont Securities Corporation as its financial advisor to seek out potential buyers and that the price negotiated with Marwit Capital, an equity investor, was the best one obtainable.

The Company also advised Gamco that not all assets of the Entertainment Division were being sold, with the office building at 418 Montezuma Avenue, Santa Fe, New Mexico, being retained. The Company also advised Gamco that two executive officers of the Company, Matthew Brandt and Thomas Brandt, will be employed full time by the Buyer and resign as employees and officers of the Company.

The Company further advised Gamco that it has received an opinion from an independent third party advisor that the proposed sale of the theater and related assets is fair to the stockholders of the Company from a financial point of view.
